Turkey on high alert against possible terror attacks on Western targets

INDO-ASIAN NEWS SERVICE ANKARA, 31 JANUARY

Turkey has raised its security measures to highest level against possible Islamic State (IS) and al-Qaida retaliation on Western targets in the country, the Turkish Interior Ministry said.

"Evaluations were made against all possible provocations, and our security measures were maximised after the sinister actions against our holy book the Quran, in Sweden, the Netherlands and Denmark," the Ministry said in a statement on Monday. In this context, the information that terrorist organisations, such as the

IS and al-Qaida, are seeking action in many countries has also been evaluated, it added.

Turkey made some arrests through an allied country's intelligence but couldn't find any weapon or sign of action, noted the Ministry, without naming the country, Xinhua news agency reported.

On Monday, the Embassy of the US in Turkey warned its citizens of possible attacks against churches, synagogues, and diplomatic missions in Istanbul province, following protests involving burning Quran broke out in several European countries. It was the second warning issued by the embassy in the past four days.

Japan PM under fire over son's 'paid' sightseeing trips while on duty overseas

INDO-ASIAN NEWS SERVICE TOKYO, 31 JANUARY

Japanese Prime Minister Fumio Kishida came under continued fire on Tuesday from the opposition camp over allegations his son used taxpayers' money for sightseeing trips overseas while on official duty.

Kishida's son, Shotaro, 32, who serves as his secretary, was alleged by the Shukan Shincho magazine to have visited tourist hot-spots in Paris, London and Ottawa at the taxpayers' expense and used a gov-to fund an unprecedented increase in the country's defence spending.

According to local media polls in December, the prior controversies led to the approval rating dropping to around the 30 percent mark, the lowest level since Kishida launched his cabinet in October 2021 and a level below which has historically been a harbinger of the end of a prime minister's tenure.

protested against Turkey. The events stiffened Turkey's refusal so far to ratify Sweden's NATO summit and the Turkish government's refusal to accept the Quran as Islamophobia. The travel warning published late Saturday followed demonstrations last weekend in Sweden, where an anti-Islam activist burned the Quran and a Turkish crowd gathered outside the Turkish Embassy.
