PRESS RELEASE

Venus Remedies Secures Global Recognition with UNICEF Stamp of Approval

- Venus Remedies Ltd granted Good Manufacturing Practices Approval by UNICEF, a world renowned organisation for humanitarian aid and developmental support to children
- Venus Remedies' exemplary manufacturing standards have lead the company to become a trusted global healthcare partner to UNICEF to supply Cephalosporin antibiotics to treat infections

Chandigarh, March 11, 2024: Venus Remedies Limited, a leading global pharmaceutical company, has recently secured Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) approval from the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF). This milestone achievement underscores Venus Remedies' dedication to delivering top-tier pharmaceutical solutions worldwide.

Venus Remedies Limited's manufacturing unit, located in Baddi, Himachal Pradesh, India, has been approved to supply UNICEF with Cephalosporin antibiotics for treating infections. The company's allegiance to maintaining the highest standards of manufacturing excellence, as evidenced by its compliance with WHO Technical Report Series 986, reinforces its position as a trusted partner in global healthcare supply chains.

With this approval, Venus Remedies continues to strengthen its international presence, building upon its extensive portfolio of certifications from regulatory bodies worldwide. "The recognition from UNICEF, further validates our relentless pursuit of excellence in pharmaceutical manufacturing. The approval will further help us to make substantial contributions to global healthcare initiatives of UNICEF and positively influence communities worldwide" said Saransh Chaudhary, President, Global Critical Care, Venus Remedies Ltd and CEO, Venus Medicine Research Centre.

The approval from UNICEF enables Venus Remedies to partake in opportunities for the supply of essential medications, positioning the company to address critical healthcare needs in regions facing challenges. Akshansh Chaudhary, Executive Director Venus Remedies Ltd, emphasized the significance of this approval, remarking, "This endorsement from UNICEF aligns with our mission to enhance access to quality healthcare globally. We look forward to leveraging this opportunity to extend our reach and serve those in need."

UNICEF, an esteemed agency of the United Nations, is recognized globally for its efforts in providing humanitarian aid and developmental support to children in need. Its rigorous Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) approval process sets a benchmark for quality and safety in pharmaceutical production, and Venus Remedies' successful accreditation demonstrates its uncompromising adherence to meeting these stringent standards.

The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) is a UN agency dedicated to providing humanitarian and developmental assistance to children worldwide. With a presence in over 190 countries and territories, UNICEF works tirelessly to protect the rights and well-being of every child, regardless of background or circumstance.
