Madras HC flags bias, orders to fix seniority of Muslim cop

Court Observes Discrimination Of Any Form Should Not Be Shown

K.Kanahalli@timesgroup.com

Madurai: Observing that discrimination should not be shown in any form based on one's caste, race, colour, region, religion and socio-cultural identities, Madras High Court on Tuesday granted relief to a police constable by directing the authorities to fix his seniority on a par with his batch mates who were appointed following the selection process in 2007-2008.

Petitioner M Haja Sherif was successful in the TNUSRB tests to the post of grade-II police constable. As the authorities passed an order rejecting his candidature, he had filed a petition before HC in 2010. The authorities contended that he was not appointed because he was an active member of Manitha Neethi Pasarsi, an offshoot of banned SIML, Al-Umma and Jihad Committee. In 2012, the court directed the authorities to issue appointment order to him after taking into account that Manitha Neethi Pasarsi is not a banned or ganisation.

Since his representation seeking to fix seniority on a par with his batch mates was rejected by the authorities, he had filed the present petition in 2016. Justice Battu Devanand observed that the court cannot lose sight of the contention of the petitioner's counsel that the authorities, with an intention to prevent the development of minorities, curtailed their rights to enter into the social arena and fixed the stipulations that minorities are anti-social elements.

It is the responsibility of this court to take into account the agony of persons like the petitioner. Every responsible citizen should be given ample scope to prove their potential in the service of the nation without imposing any hurdles. Mere assumptions and prejudices of anyone acting in any capacity shouldn't be a valid reason for restricting someone else's career growth as stipulated by the law in a democratic society. "In this civilised 21st century, this attitude has to be changed in the minds of all, particularly the officers of the state and central governments, who are vested with the statutory powers," observed Justice Battu Devanand.
