UK review warns of anti-India rhetoric over J&K

PTI / London

A review into the UK government's scheme set up to prevent terrorism has flagged the radicalisation of UK Muslims over Kashmir and "potentially toxic" pro-Khalistan extremism as some of the areas of growing concern and made recommendations for improvements to tackle Islamist extremism as the "primary threat" to the country.

The review into the government's counter-terrorism early intervention 'Prevent' strategy published this week warned that rhetoric from Pakistan is impacting UK Muslim communities when it comes to "inflammatory anti-India sentiment, particularly around the subject of Kashmir". The review carried out by Commissioner for Public Appointments William Shawcross also warns against a false narrative be-

"I have seen evidence of UK extremist groups, as well as a Pakistani cleric with a UK following, calling for the use of violence in Kashmir," says Shawcross ing disseminated by a tiny number of pro-Khalistan groups operating in the UK. "There is an element of crossover between those who seek to impose limits around blasphemy with those who voice incendiary rhetoric on Kashmir. "I have seen evidence of UK extremist groups, as well as a Pakistani cleric with a UK following, calling for the use of violence in Kashmir. I have also seen evidence demonstrating that flash-points related to Kashmir lead to a significant surge in interest from UK Islamists," says Shawcross in the review. It noted that there is no reason to believe this issue will disappear as a grievance, which Islamists will seek to exploit in years to come. "This has potential relevance to Prevent, as there are examples of those convicted of terrorism offences in the UK who had first fought in Kashmir. This includes those who subsequently joined al-Qaeda."

2 killed in terror attack in Israel

Jerusalem: A driver ploughed a car into a crowded bus stop in east Jerusalem on Friday, killing two people, including a six-year-old, and injuring five others before being shot and killed, Israeli police and medics said, the latest escalation as violence grips the contested capital. The car-ramming took place in Ramot, a Jewish settlement in east Jerusalem.
