GOLD SMUGGLING

NIA examines CCTV video at Kerala Secretariat

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN ■ KOCHI

The sleuths of the National Investigation Agency (NIA) probing the gold smuggling scam inspected the Kerala Government Secretariat on Thursday and examined the Closed Circuit TV camera visual available with the General Administration Department.

The NIA is probing the role of the Chief Minister's Office in the gold smuggling scam and wanted to examine the links between Swapna Suresh, Sarith and Sandeep Nair, the kingsmen, have with M. Sivasankar, the suspended principal secretary to Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan and any other officials.

Sandeep had been questioned by the NIA, Customs and Enforcement Directorate over the last two months.

Meanwhile, the Secretariat Officials had informed the NIA that visuals of certain days could not be recorded as the CCTV system went bust because of lightning.

Sources in the Secretariat said the NIA asked for visuals of last one year from 70 cameras installed in the complex. K Surendran, president of the Kerala BJP demanded the immediate resignation of Chief Minister Vijayan as the NIA entered the Secretariat Complex was rarest of rare incident. "This is the ideal time for Vijayan to quit on his own. Kerala has never seen such central agencies entering the Secretariat till date to probe a criminal case," Surendran told reporters at Kochi.

They also reported that the Secretariat officials handed over to the NIA recordings of visuals of last three months.

"But R Ranachandran Nair, former chief secretary of Kerala who is also the longest serving bureaucrat in the State, said there was nothing unusual in the NIA team's inspection of the Secretariat. "They had taken prior permission from the Secretariat. We also saw reports about a fire that broke out in the secretariat destroying certain files. The NIA is probing the role of certain persons in the gold smuggling scam. Hence there is nothing unusual in the whole episode," said Nair.

Rajan, former editor of Mafrubhami, said it was good that the NIA had discussions with the secretaries officials with respect to the controversial visual.

"The gold smuggling scam has taken a turn since off the Pinarayi Vijayan era. The drug dealer had told me that he was in touch with Binesh Balakrishnan, son also had friendship with Ritesh Reverend who was nabbed along with Anoop and serial artist Anitha for possessing high-end drugs MDMA and LSD."

CPM Secy's son under lens for links with drug dealer

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN ■ KOCHI

The ruling CPI(M) in Kerala, already reeling under the gold smuggling scam, has been further embarrassed by the disclosures made by Mohammed Anoop, accused held by the Narcotics Control Bureau in Bangalore, that he was having business dealings with Binesh Kodiyeri, son of Kodyleri Balakrishnan, the party secretary.

The link between Binesh and Anoop could open new chapters in the gold smuggling scam as it has come to light that the former had called the latter many times on the day Swapna Suresh and Sandeep Nair, the kingsmen in the case were held by National Investigation Agency at Bangalore in the month of July.

P. Firoz, general secretary, Youth League (the youth wing of Muslim League) told reporters at Kochi that Anoop, who is a Bangalore based drug dealer had told me that he was in touch with Binesh Balakrishnan. Son also had friendship with Ritesh Reverend who was nabbed along with Anoop and serial artist Anitha for possessing high-end drugs MDMA and LSD.

Khap panchayat forces aunt, nephew to bathe publicly to 'wash off sins'

Jalpur: A Khap panchayat, an elected council of village elders recently penalised a man and woman from the Sanasi Community in Rajasthan's Sikar district by making them bathe publicly to wash their alleged sins.

The nephew and aunt who were allegedly involved in an illicit relationship, were asked to deposit ₹31,000 and ₹22,000 respectively by the Khap panchayat as penalty before they were allowed to return to the social fold. On Tuesday, Sansi Samaj members submitted a memorandum to the Superintendent of Police, demanding stringent action against the khap panchayat.

They said that the guilty should be put behind bars, the amount collected by the woman will be given to her and those who gathered at the site booked for floating social distancing norms.

Sikar SP Gangadhar Singh, meanwhile, said that a probe is underway and the team of recording officers' statements. "Also, we are trying to get videos or pictures of the incident," he added.

Despite decrease in Covid cases, Vijayan remains cautious

J&K PDP leaders prevented from leaving houses to hold meeting

MOHIT KANDHARI ■ JAMMU

Several mainstream politicians shaking their party flags are roaming freely and organising meetings in different parts of Jammu & Kashmir.

Ironically, on Thursday leaders belonging to the Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) were prevented by the policemen from stepping out of their houses to reach party headquarters to attend a maiden meeting after the abrogation of Article 370 and 35-A.

PDP leaders claimed, "when we were ready to step out of our houses we were prevented by the policemen stationed there from stepping out". None of the leaders, including former Cabinet ministers were handled over any official order or were verbally informed by a senior officer why they were being prevented from stepping out of their houses to reach the party headquarters by PDP general secretary Chaudhary Nabi Lone Hanjara", a junior PDP leader told local reporters at the party office in Srinagar.

To expose the local authorities, several PDP leaders posted images/videos showing how policemen disallowed them from stepping out on different social media platforms. "Despite being free on paper and in government submissions in the High Court and Supreme Court, PDP leadership continues to be under illegal detention, without any official orders. Video from today – I wasn't allowed to attend the PDP meeting nor were any of my colleagues", tweeted former minister Naem Akhtar along with a video clip.

J&K sees 1,079 new cases, 11 die

Jammu: The Union territory of Jammu &amp; Kashmir on Thursday recorded the highest ever jump by detecting 1,079 new cases of coronavirus while 11 Covid-19 patients died taking the death toll to 743 and the total active positive cases to 8,441.
