Multiples' leap of faith

The buyout of Zydus Animal Health has catapulted the domestic PE firm into the big league and offers a new test of its model of mobilising domestic capital and buying controlling stakes

SURAJEET DASGUPTA New Delhi, 17 May

ast week, a consortium led by domestic private equity Multiples Alternate Asset Management pulled off one of its largest deals by buying out Zydus Animal Health and Investments — the second $largest\,player\,in\,this\,space\,--\,for$ ₹2,921 crore. (Zydus Healthcare was a fully-owned subsidiary of Cadila Healthcare.)

This one deal has catapulted Multiples into the big league among home-grown PE firms. Multiples will finance the deal through its third — and largest - fund-raising round of $700 million that is expected to be closed soon. Talks are on for the closure of another deal of around $60 million, which will also draw money from the new fund. The focus now is to go for larger-sized deals, in many of which Multiples plans to take a controlling interest and play a key role in managing the business.

Multiples' deal ticket size in the first fund was only $30 million and in the second around $50 million. "Consistent with market opportunities, we expect to do more deals in the $75-100 million ticket size. Our aim is to invest in nine to 12 companies of which three to four will involve a controlling interest," said Renuka Ramnath, Multiples are seeking new aligned share-strategic value in having both demic has had a serious impact by early 2023."
