Dear Sir/Ma'am,

We wish to inform you that Mr. Mohit Gupta, Co-founder at the Company, has tendered his resignation today. This is his farewell note that he sent to the team -

Four and a half years ago I joined Deepi & this band of crazies trying to build the best food tech company in the country, I dare say the world. In this period, we brought our food delivery business back from the brink, survived crazy competition, the pandemic, and became a large and profitable business (as unlikely as it seemed at the beginning :-)).

The journey to build a world class tech business out of India, for India (and then maybe the world) is still on, just 1% done.

In this journey, it has been my pride and privilege to see Deepi, Akshant, Akriti, and the entire team grow leaps and bounds to become champions. You took me along and helped me grow immensely as well; for that, I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Over the past few years, I have seen Deepi become an even more mature and confident leader who is now completely capable of leading the business into a bright future with all of you by his side. It is with this confidence that I am deciding to move on from Zomato to seek the other unknown adventures that life holds for me. As I look ahead, I am full of excitement for the vision that Zomato, Blinkit, Hyperpure and Feeding India are building towards.

Everyone – please continue shining, and making products that India loves using. You are all so brilliant in so many ways, in the hands of a very capable leadership team. I am looking forward to seeing you continuing to build on everything we have learnt over the years.

Be relentless, keep learning, and build an organization that is a role model for the rest of the world.

I remain a long only investor in Zomato.

Goodbye and godspeed.

This is Mr. Deepinder Goyal's reply to Mohit's message above –

MG - you have been a brother, and a friend to me over the last few years. You have done a tremendous job here, brought us back from the brink of extinction, scaled the business to new heights, got us to profitability, and above all, coached me over the years to become capable of running such a large and complex business. Thanks to you, I feel confident that I can continue to build on top of your legacy and build a bigger and better company going forward.

Thanks once again; I know you will always be around for me, but still, you will be sorely missed.

We would further like to submit that Mr. Mohit Gupta was not designated as key managerial personnel under the Companies Act, 2013 and the Listing Regulations. Hence, this disclosure is being made voluntarily.

This disclosure will also be made available on the website of the Company i.e., www.zomato.com.

This is for your information and records.
