Broadband at ₹399/mth: Jio takes on rivals

Plans to be rolled out from today

MEGA MANHADA
New Delhi, 31 August

Reliance Jio on Monday announced new plans for fibre broadband starting at a monthly price of ₹399 with no limit on data usage. According to the new plans, entertainment app Netflix is added to the bouquet of bundled apps for customers subscribing to mid-range plans. It is by far the lowest price for broadband services.

The plans will be rolled out from September 1 onwards, said Reliance Jio. Recently, Bharti Airtel announced that it would bundle an additional 1,000 gigabyte data on purchase of a new connection of its Xstream Fibre Home broadband service. The offer is a part of Independence Day celebrations and had been rolled out for a limited period on all Airtel Xstream Fibre plans.

The plans start at ₹799 per month and come with Airtel Thanks benefits, such as 12-month Amazon Prime membership and Airtel Xstream content plus Wynk Music. "We want to take fibre to each and every home and empower every member of the family. After making India the largest and the fastest-growing country in mobile connectivity with 5G, fibre will propel India into global broadband leadership, thereby providing broadband to over 1,600 cities and towns," Jio Director Akash Ambani said.

The low-end plan of ₹399 will offer download and upload speed of 30 megabits

CRUNCHING DATA

- The ₹399 plan will offer download and upload speeds of 30 Mbps
- Jio offers 30-day trial of 150 Mbps plan, costing ₹999, with subscription to 11 OTT apps
- The ₹1,499 plan will also come bundled with Netflix
- Plans of existing customers will be upgraded to match benefits of new tariff plans per second (Mbps), according to the statement. The old plans of JioFiber have a limit of data usage per month at promised high speed after which the speed drops to 1 Mbps.

Jio has announced a free 30-day trial of the 150 Mbps plans, costing ₹999, with subscription to 11 over-the-top apps, including Amazon Prime Video, Disney+ Hotstar, Zee5, SonyLIV. The plan priced at ₹1,499 will also come bundled with Netflix. "I'm said the subscription to the top-paid 12 bundled apps would be made available to customers at no extra cost. "Plans of all existing JioFiber customers will be upgraded to match the benefits of the new tariff plans," the statement said.

Looking to enter Southern India mkt in a big way

Dairy major Gujarat Co-operative Milk Marketing Federation (GCMMF) has finally made it into Rabankan's Global Top 20 Dairy Companies list, debuting at the 16th position. GCMMF Managing Director R S SODHI tells Vinay Umraj that not only did this make GCMMF, which markets products under brand Amul, the only dairy company from India among the top 20, but also the only dairy co-operative. Edited excerpts:

GCMMF has finally debuted in the top 20 global dairy list of Rabankan... Yes, While GCMMF has been ranked at 16th globally, taking its balance sheet (turnover to ₹38,504 crore (₹5.5 billion). Amul brand's turnover is worth ₹32,800 crore or ₹7 billion. In case of the latter, we would be ranked 11th. However, the GCMMF balance sheet doesn't include Amul's local dairy sales within the cities where these dairies are set up in order to avoid duplication. One of the noteworthy aspects of the rankings is that we are not multinational, unlike others in the top 20.

How has India, as a food and dairy market, helped Amul? Indian farmers get ₹5-20 per cent higher prices than their counterparts in the US and European markets, but Indian consumers pay ₹5-20 per cent lower rates than these markets. This is because affordability is a very important aspect in India as far as food is concerned. We have been able to encash this by lowering the quality of the image of brand Amul. Our brand appeals to and is consumed in both urban as well as rural areas.

Q&A
R S SODHI
MD, GCMMF

Do you believe GCMMF should have ranked earlier?
Most of the firms ranked are based out of saturated markets. If a domestic dairy or food player can become a market leader in a region like India, it shows that it can become a global player. This is now getting reflected in the latest rankings.

What are your expansion plans?
We plan to touch ₹1 trillion of Amul brand's turnover in five years. We are well penetrated in Gujarat. So we will expand in other states. We are entering the South India market. There are states like Bihar, Jharkhand, Odisha, and Northeast region where the market is largely unorganised and we intend to explore them.

Any plans to repeat Amul's success in non-dairy items?
We will get into only those segments where our dairy farmers' production is being utilised, be it honey, potato, or edible oil. We are going big on bakery, using only butter fat and no vegetable oil. We are also sourcing potatoes from our milk farmers for making frozen foods and ready-to-eat products. However, in non-dairy segments, we will continue to focus only on Gujarat as a market for now.

Why is there a difference between GCMMF and Amul turnover?
GCMMF markets Amul all over India. But districts in Gujarat like Surat, Vadodra, and Anand have their own dairies, which sell milk and milk products under brand Amul. To avoid duplication, these are not reflected in GCMMF's balance sheet since these are not distributed by the federation. Hence, Amul brand's turnover is higher than GCMMF's balance sheet turnover, though the latter has been considered for the latest ranking.
