Ban on exports of organic non-basmati rice goes

New Delhi: The government on Tuesday lifted the ban on exports of organic non-basmati rice, including broken rice, a move which would help in promoting the outbound shipments of the commodity. "India exports about 10,000-15000 tonnes of organic rice (basmatic and non basmati) annually," All India Rice Exporters Association past president Vijay Setia said. PTI

Going against grain, Telangana farmers sow cotton in rabi season

WORD OF CAUTION. Scientists against large-scale farming as bollworm may get free ride

KV Kurmanath
Hyderabad

N Venkatappa, a farmer in Vathugundla village in Narayanpet district of Telangana, usually grows groundnut as the second crop after growing pulses in during the kharif season.

But this time around, he wanted to try cotton. "I have a borewell and assured irrigation. My decision has triggered a huge interest among fellow farmers," he said.

With increased irrigation facilities in the State after its formation in 2014, Venkatappa, along with hundred other farmers in the State, have decided to grow cotton during the rabi season for the first time in the country.

Scientists, however, have raised the red flag cautioning farmers against cultivating the fibre crop during the winter season for two key reasons – it allows pink bollworm to survive and carry on until the start of the kharif cotton and poor yields due to punishing temperatures if the flowering takes place around February.

UNSEASONAL CROP. Slow growth is seen in winter and it is expected to pick up in February when it gets warmer

Scientists at Professor Jayashankar Telangana State Agricultural University (PJTSAU) have been undertaking trials to test the suitable time to sow and also relevant varieties that fit the bill.

SCIENTISTS SCEPTICAL

PJTSAU, however, warned the farmers against going for large-scale cultivation. The Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR), too, has asked the university not to encourage the farmers to cultivate cotton during the rabi season.

"It should be conducted only in areas where assured irrigation is available. The cultivation should be done on a small scale. They would require 12-15 irrigations to sustain the crop," he said.

Keshav Kranthi, head of technical, International Cotton Advisory Committee, echoed a similar view. "It is okay if it is being done on an experimental basis," he said.

"One major concern is the potential of rabi paddy crop to carry over pink bollworm into the main crop in kharif," said Kranti, former Director of Central Institute for Cotton Research.

SWEET PROSPECTS

RISING DEMAND. Sugarcane farmers queue up with their loaded tractors at a private sugar mill in Hata village on the outskirts of Khushinagar in UttarPradesh. Farmers in the State expect to get a higher price this year in view of increasing demand. Last year, they got ₹375 a quintal VV KRISHNAN

Despite curbs, Indian rice continues to be competitive in world market

Subramani Ra Mancombu
Chennai

Indian rice continues to be competitive in the global market despite the Centre curbing shipments and imposing 20 per cent export duty on non-basmati white rice. The Indian cereal's competitiveness is despite prices rising by over $30 a tonne over the past two months.

"Indian rice continues to be highly competitive in the global market. We are facing small hurdles in getting it cleared by Customs authorities," said VR Vidya Sagar, Director, Bulk Logix.

According to Thailand Rice Exporters Association data, India's 5 per cent broken white rice is quoted at $397 against $365 on September 17 — a week after India imposed curbs and the duty — while Thailand is offering it at $440 ($444 three months ago), Pakistan at $437 ($413) and Vietnam at $442 ($403).

"We are currently offering 5 per cent broken rice at $375-380 a tonne free-on-board (f.o.b), and 25 per cent broken at $375," said Sagar.

The Thai Rice Exporters Association said India was offering 25 per cent broken at $382 ($358), Thailand at $433 ($433), Vietnam at $422 ($383) and Pakistan at $417 ($383).

ISSUES WITH CUSTOMS

"We are quoting parboiled rice at $380 a tonne f.o.b," he said, adding that exporters faced documentation problems with Customs Department which was seeking one or the other document.

Export of parboiled rice, which is allowed duty-free, is quoted at $377 ($378), while Thailand is offering the rice at $453 ($462) and Pakistan at $452 ($398). Vietnam does not produce parboiled rice.

"Though the Centre has curbed exports, availability is not a problem," Sagar said.

"India is still the cheapest source of rice in the global market, especially the parboiled variety. The only problem is there is no clarity over the kharif crop," said an official of a Delhi-based export-import firm.

TIGHT SUPPLIES

"Supply is tight and the situation is not comfortable either in South-East Asia or Pakistan. Besides, rice from countries such as Vietnam and Cambodia are being smuggled into China, whose crop has been hit by a prolonged dry period," said S Chandrasekaran, a trade analyst.

The kharif rice crop might be lower than the Ministry of Agriculture's first advance estimates. According to the estimate, rice production is pegged at 104.99 million tonnes (mt) against 111.76 mt last year.

This year, kharif paddy cultivation was affected by deficient rains in eastern Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Jharkhand, Odisha and West Bengal. Chandrasekaran said a clear picture of kharif rice production will be available by December-end. The export-import firm official said it will be January to get clarity on the situation.

"The crop may not be as low as feared," he said.

"We are not getting any significant enquiry or orders, particularly to South-East Asia," said M Madan Prakash, President, Agriculture Commodity Exporters Association.

According to Agricultural and Processed Food Exports Development Authority (APEDA), non-basmati rice exports in the first half increased to 8.96 mt against 8.23 mt a year ago with the shipments fetching $3.03 billion against 2.97 billion.

COMMODITY CALL.

Bet short in natural gas

Akhil Nallamuthu
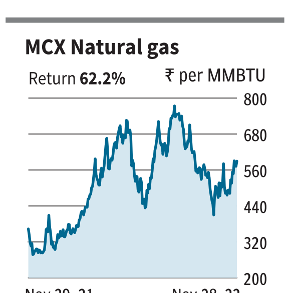
bl. research bureau



In the last couple of weeks, natural gas prices rallied sharply. Consequently, the futures contract of this energy commodity on the Multi Commodity Exchange (MCX) rallied after taking support at ₹500. Notably, the December series marked a high of ₹667 last week before falling to the current level of ₹592.

Thus, the contract could not complete a weekly close above ₹600, which is a strong resistance.

We expect natural gas futures to decline from the current level where it could touch ₹500, a support. Subsequent support is at ₹475. On the other hand, if the contract recovers and gives a daily close above ₹630, the trend might turn in bulls' favour. Above ₹630, it could retest the prior high at ₹667.

TRADE STRATEGY

Considering the above factors, traders can risk going short on the MCX-Natural gas futures (December contract). That is, short the contract at the current level of ₹592 and add more shorts when price rallies to ₹615. Place initial stop-loss at ₹642.

When the contract falls below ₹550, revise the stop-loss down to ₹585. Liquidate all the shorts at ₹500 because there could be a bounce off this support.

Icrisat, ADB develop spatial maps to assess impact of floods, droughts

KV Kurmanath
Hyderabad

Scientists at Icrisat, in association with the Asian Development Bank (ADB), have developed high-resolution spatial maps that enable cropland mapping for insurance claims and governments.

The spatial maps cover the whole of South Asia, which is home to 1.9 billion people and 230 million hectares of net cropped area.

The maps offer a resolution of 30 m, which is handy to get the finer details of crop land for food and water security assessments. Currently, these factors are evaluated using coarse-resolution data that ranges from 250 m to 1,000 m.

Spatial maps provide an accurate assessment of the effects of such natural disasters, reducing time and effort for crop planners, policy makers and insurance companies.

Insurance firms and government agencies require high-quality satellite imagery to monitor and map floods, droughts and other climatic conditions

"Spatial mapping is a quick and efficient tool for guiding agriculture policy makers to minimise climate risks," said Arvind Kumar, Deputy Director-General, Research, at the International Crops Research Institute for Semi Arid Tropics (Icrisat).

REGEN FARMING

"Insurance companies and government agencies require high-quality satellite imagery to monitor and map floods, droughts and other climatic conditions to make the claims process more accurate and efficient," he said.

ML Jat, Research Program Director (Resilient Farm and Food Systems) at Icrisat, said spatial maps could act as a tool to promote regenerative agriculture, which fosters ecological friendly farming.

"Crop type mapping can also guide where and in what systems regenerative agriculture can be deployed," he said.

"The data would help generate development models for accurate monitoring and decision-making for the entire region," said Murali Krishna Gumma, Principal Scientist and Cluster Leader (Geospatial Sciences and Big Data), Icrisat.

Sugar mills get nod for exchange of 4.5 lt of export quota

Our Bureau
New Delhi

The Centre has approved the exchange of 2.14 lakh tonnes (lt) of sugar export afresh between mills and has adjusted them with the domestic quota, taking the total quantity to over 4.5 lt, so far.

The Food Ministry allowed the exchange of quota on November 28 for the 2.14 lt as sought by 17 sugar mills, though these mills were together allotted over 2.88 lt. While some mills — mostly with permits less than 5,000 tonnes — have been selling the entire export quota at one go, those with higher allocation have been exchanging in tranches, official sources said.

The Food Ministry earlier approved the exchange of 2.38 lt of quota. Many mills in Bihar and Uttar Pradesh have entered into contracts with units in Maharashtra, which enjoy an advantage due to their proximity to ports on the West Coast, officials said.

Isolated heavy rain lashes Kerala, TN in run-up to next low-pressure area

Vinson Kurian
Thiruvananthapuram

A cyclonic circulation lying over the central parts of the Bay of Bengal and an incoming easterly wave will combine to trigger isolated to scattered light or moderate rainfall over gateway Andaman and Nicobar Islands, Karnataka, Kerala, Tamil Nadu and Lakshadweep during the next 4-5 days spilling over into the first few days of December.

This will be a prelude to what global models see an expansive phase of rainfall signalling the end of the ongoing lull phase in the North-East monsoon as another cyclonic circulation emerges over the South-East Bay of Bengal around December 4 and goes on to acquire strength as it moves towards coast.

LULL PREVAILS

The lull had set in after a well-marked low-pressure area toyed with the north Tamil Nadu and south Andhra Pradesh coast for an unusually extended period, and chose to dump most of the rainfall over the seas even as cool air from North-West India flew into the vacuum over land.

This had caused evening and night temperatures to dip to levels not seen in the recent past. The trend was reversed after the laggard weather system managed to cross the coast, bring warm and moist air to raise night temperatures to their normal, and drop rain mostly along the coast while the interior managed to make some spillover gains.

RAIN OUTLOOK

An extended three-day outlook from the IMD said the fresh cyclonic circulation emerging over the South Andaman Sea around December 4 will bring rainfall over the Andaman and Nicobar Islands and the South.

■ टीम दैनिक हेराल्ड

पर्वरी, दि. २९ : जगातील काही देशांचे संविधानाला ५०० ते ८०० वर्षे झाली. पण लोकशाहीचा मानदंड असलेला मतदानाचा हक्क महिलांना देण्यासाठी १९वे शतक उजाडावे लागले. भारत देशाने ज्या दिवशी संविधान आमलात आले त्यादिवशीच महिलांना मतदानाचे हक्क मिळाले, त्यामुळेच भारतीय लोकशाही सर्वश्रेष्ठ ठरते. आज प्रकाशित झालेले 'आपले संविधान' हे साप्ताहिक विवेक समुहाचे अध्यक्ष व प्रथितयश लेखक रमेश पतंगे लिखित पुस्तक भारतीय संविधानाचे अनन्यसाधारण महत्त्व अधोरेखित करते, असे विचार जन शिक्षण संस्थान गोवाचे संचालक श्रीहरी आठल्ये यांनी प्रकाशन केल्यानंतर व्यक्त केले.

येथील सूर्या फाऊंडेशन व जन शिक्षण संस्थान गोवा यांच्या संयुक्त विद्यमाने आयोजित संविधान दिन कार्यक्रमात ते बोलत होते. यावेळी व्यासपीठावर सूर्या फाऊंडेशनचे महेश नागवेकर, राहूल नागवेकर, महेश रिवणकर, नागेश गोसावक, अशोक शेट्टी व सुरेंद्र गावकर आणि जन शिक्षण संस्थान गोवाचे संचालक श्रीहरी आठल्ये उपस्थित होते.

यावेळी श्रोत्यांकडून उद्देशिकेचे वाचन करण्यात आले. मान्यवरांच्या हस्ते आपले संविधान पुस्तकाचे प्रकाशन करण्यात आले. नागेश गोसावी यांनी प्रास्ताविक केले. महेश नागवेकर यांनी सूत्रसंचालन करून आभार मानले.

North Goa Collector seeks compliance from Excise Dept to curb drink-and-drive cases

Directions issued after the North Goa District Road Safety Committee observed that a lot of compliances are pending, including installing signages, rumblers and painting of zebra crossings

Team Herald

PANJIM: The District Collector of North Goa Mamu Hage has sought compliance from the Excise Department on the measures that they had suggested in the earlier meeting for curbing the drink-and-drive cases in Goa.

The North Goa District Road Safety Committee meeting was held on the Tuesday under the chairmanship of District Collector. However, important stakeholder departments like Excise, Panchayats and Municipalities were found missing at the meeting.

The District Magistrate Hage in addition to the issues of painting speed breakers, taking steps to control stray dogs and cattle menace, and roadside hoardings, also discussed the matter of the compliances of the Excise Department to control the drink-and-drive cases in Goa.

"We have been told that the bars have put signages and messages at their premises. However, they are not permanent structures and hence they have fallen off. There is a committee monitoring this," said Hage.

"I have told that Excise Department can't be missing this meeting. I have also sought the list of such bars and establishments where signages and messages have been installed. There can be a physical inspection after we have a list," she said.

In addition to these, the District Collector also observed that a lot of compliances of as far as signages, rumblers and zebra crossings are pending. "I have given a direction that all the pending matters have to be complied with. Once the PWD has a list of speed breakers they will be in a better position to take necessary steps to control accidents arising from the deficiencies," the District Collector said.

Verla-Canca resolves against multi-dwelling projects

Team Herald

MAPUSA: The Verla-Canca gram sabha has decided not to issue licences for any multi-dwelling projects as the village did not have basic infrastructure in place. The resolution was taken after villagers' uproar that the village already face issues with irregular power and water supply.

Lincoln Braganza a local resident pointed that the roads in the village are narrow and the village already faces problems of irregular water and electricity supply and the panchayat should stop issuing approvals and licences for multi-dwelling projects.

Locals present for the gram sabha supported the decision and a resolution was later adopted not to issue licences for multi-dwelling projects until proper infrastructure was in place.

Villagers also raised concerns against rampant construction taking place in the fields and on the hills.

Local said that panchayat should take the farmers into confidence and start community farming and stop illegal filling that is going on at the moment," Braganza said.

Verla-Canca Sarpanch Dipali Bicholkar agreed to hold a joint inspection along with Comunidade and get to a solution on priority. The land belongs to Comunidade.

Mormugao municipal body clears encroachments at Vasco vegetable market

MMC conducted the anti-encroachment drive after vendors failed to comply to the civic body's seven-day ultimatum

Team Herald

PANJIM: The Mormugao Municipal Council (MMC) along with the Vasco Police on Tuesday conducted an anti-encroachment drive at the Vasco vegetable market and confiscated fruits and vegetables.

Despite repeated warnings by the municipality, the vendors turned a deaf ear and were adamant, thus the drive against the encroachers was launched.

The drive continued for almost two hours and the municipal workers loaded confiscated goods in vehicles. These goods will not be returned to the vendors but offered to old-age homes and orphanages, informed MMC Chairperson Leo Rodrigues.

"The municipality had warned these vendors several times in the past and had also issued notices to them giving ultimatum of seven days to remove their encroachments. But the vendors turned deaf ears to the municipality," he said adding that the municipality had received many complaints from citizens as it was causing hardships to them due to lack of space to walk in the market.

Rodrigues said that the municipality will now mark the areas which the vendors can use and whoever is found encroaching beyond it will be fined and their goods will be confiscated.

He further warned that such drives against encroachment will continue.

MMC Vice-Chairperson Ameya Chopdekar and Market Committee Chairman and Councillor Vinod Kinlekar stated that they were not against the vendors but the encroachment by them was causing obstructions to the people.

They said that anti-encroachment drive will now be held regularly.

Congress submits memo to SP Traffic

Team Herald

PANJIM: A delegation of North Goa District Congress Committee on Tuesday urged the Traffic Police to take strict measures to ease movement of vehicles by reducing illegal use of no parking spaces and to come down heavily on unlicenced private vehicles used as taxis as well those found teaching driving to spouses and relatives by using rent-a-cab or rent-a-bike on public roads.

In a memorandum submitted to SP (Traffic) Bossuet Silva, the delegation said that the people of Goa have to bear the brunt of increasing instances of traffic snarls faced in various parts of the State. The recent traffic block at the Cortalim side across the Zuari River, which held motorists for hours is a pointer to what could become even worse in the days to come.

Beginning with Panjim, the delegation pointed out that the government authorities were dumping projects after projects causing traffic chaos every day. The perennial trouble spots along the D B Road where the Captain of Ports has granted permission for use of ferry ramps and jetties for use by off-shore casino operators are causing avoidable snarls every day and night too.

The traffic cell must take a call about strict enforcement of no parking along D B Road and increase the fines imposed on errant drivers who tend to break the rule of no parking with impunity. The reckless digging of roads carried out by various authorities has added to the problem, they said.

The delegation also requested the traffic police to review NOCs if any, granted to new proposals for new projects such as development of former 'quarterdeck' land opposite Hotel Mandovi, proposed ropeway at Campal as well as tendency to build jetties.

PANJIM: As a result of continuous follow-up with the Kadamba Transport Corporation Limited (KTCL) officials by the Office of the State Commissioner for Persons with Disabilities, a few shops at KTCL bus stands across the State have now been reserved for Persons with Disabilities (PwDs) in accordance with the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (RPwD) Act, 2016.

Section 37(c) of the RPwD Act, 2016 mandates five per cent reservation in allotment of land on concessional rate where such land is to be used for the purpose of promoting housing, business, enterprise, recreation centres and production centres.

"Unemployment is one of the biggest concerns of people with disabilities today. As a result, some PwDs filed a complaint with the Commission regarding the fact that PwDs should also be able to operate shops at the local KTCL bus stands," said Guruprasad Pawaskar, State Commissioner for PwDs.

After taking note of the complaints of the PwDs, Pawaskar followed up with KTCL Chairman and MLA Ulhas Tuenkar and General Manager Sanjay Ghate. His efforts finally bore fruits and KTCL bus stands now have some shops reserved for PwDs.

Shops at KTCL bus stands have been reserved for PwDs at Pernem, Marcel, Honda, Assonora, Panjim, Cuncolim, Canacona and Shiroda. In this regard, the KTCL has invited sealed tenders for providing the shops on a 'rental basis' by noon of December 13. It is open to people with visual impairments, low vision, hearing impairments and physical disabilities.

Thanking the KTCL management, the State Commissioner for PwDs said that by making this decision, the KTCL has provided many people with disabilities with a significant opportunity to become financially independent.

Pawaskar urged PWDs to take advantage of this opportunity to the fullest extent possible.

More information in this regard is available on the website www.ktclgoa.com and the tender form is available at the bus stand in-charge office at the above mentioned bus stands, he informed.
