We offer a wide range of software products that can be sold individually to solve specific technical challenges, but the emphasis of our product development and sales efforts is to create products that enable businesses to be more cost-effective, agile and efficient. Digital transformation is the future of business, and data is the heart of digital transformation. Executives are realizing that digital technology can turbocharge business performance and disrupt markets. First-movers can achieve major competitive advantage, leaving the laggards struggling to survive. More than 70 percent of organizations are expected to roll out digital transformational strategies by 2020. Corporate desire to use massive volumes of data generated as part of digital transformation to deliver exceptional customer experiences, eliminate inefficiencies, and drive higher revenue is at an all-time high.

Big data technologies like Hadoop, Machine Learning, and Natural Language interfaces are revolutionizing data use, making digital transformation meaningful and its impact felt even at the last mile.

Worldwide Big Data market revenues for software and services are projected to increase from $42B in 2018 to $103B in 2027, attaining a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 10.48% according to Wikibon.

Digital technology is transforming the role of IT from cost controller to strategic enabler and innovator. That is making digital the top priority for enterprise CIOs. In companies leading the digital revolution, IT teams are considered partners to business in enabling desired outcomes. It is worth noting that digital transformation is less about the technologies and more about the impact they have on processes, productivity, customer experiences, and the realization of competitive opportunities.

Businesses are approaching digital technology with the clearly defined objective of becoming data-driven. But they need a modern way to manage the volume, variety, and velocity of the new data and the high compute resources needed to process it.

Unmanaged data growth can turn digital transformation opportunity into a crisis, Digital transformation is driving up data volumes at a never seen pace. To put that into perspective, 90 percent of the data in the world today has been created in the last two years alone. This isn't going to slow down. Digitization of every process, the introduction and rapid proliferation of end-user devices, sensors, and technologies across the board are adding to the rapid growth in data generation.

3. Digital Universe of Opportunities: Rich Data & The Increasing Value of the Internet of Things. EMC Digital Universe with Research & Analysis by IDC, April 2014

This growth in data is fueled by the change in the definition of enterprise data. While structured data in ERP and CRM systems continue to be vital, the rise of unstructured data is notable. Today it is estimated that 80 percent of “enterprise data” now includes unstructured data such as documents, text, csv, audio, video, online click streams, social media posts, and IoT log files. The result of this data growth is that every organization today is data rich. It augurs well for the success of the mission as data is at the core of digital revolution and is a key ingredient in the success of digital transformation.

However, as data volumes explode, unless the organization is well prepared it begins to drown in data, driving up storage and maintenance costs, diminishing application performance and availability, and creating data access, data privacy and regulatory compliance challenges.

Deleting data to manage data growth often is not a choice as business, legal, and compliance objectives increasingly demand for real-time access to all information for longer durations. When these demands are not managed well, they can cause failure of Data Transformation initiatives.

Enterprise Cash Flow Management

Cashflow is the lifeblood of any business. Today’s corporations face tremendous pressure to maximize receivables performance. Also known as trade credit, receivables are the most cost efficient resources to accelerate the cash flow.

Lack of timely information on receivables stored in multiple disparate systems and the complexity introduced by disconnected manual processes, impede many finance executives’ ability to measure and monitor credit risk and collections efficiency.

Effective receivables management involves ensuring effective credit policy management and automation of credit-to-cash processes, which increase the efficiency of a firm’s cash conversion operations. Accelerating revenue cycles and lowering credit maximizes the value of the firm.

INTANGIBLE ASSETS

TECHVISION INTANGIBLE ASSETS

In recent years' technology has evolved from merely driving cost efficiency to many other areas like performance improvements, reducing down times and bringing agility to entire IT paradigm, Data Center optimizations, compliance and data driven enterprise concept. It is now also driving tangible business value. The ability to define, design, develop, implement and maintain advanced technology platforms and a business solution to address business needs has become a competitive advantage and a priority for corporations worldwide.

Solix Technologies, Inc., a leader in empowering data-driven enterprises, helps businesses organize their Enterprise Information with optimized infrastructure, data security and advanced analytics by achieving Information Lifecycle Management (ILM) goals. Solix Big Data Suite offers an ILM framework for Enterprise Archiving and Enterprise Data Lake applications with Apache Hadoop as an enterprise data repository. The Solix Enterprise Data Management Suite (Solix EDMS) enables organizations to implement Database Archiving, Test Data Management (Data Subsetting), Data Masking and Application Retirement across all enterprise data. Solix Technologies, Inc. is headquartered in Santa Clara, California and operates worldwide through an established network of value added resellers (VARs) and systems integrators.

Solix Common Data Platform (SCDP) at Glance

The Solix Big Data Suite is an application framework for enterprise data management based on the Solix Common Data Platform. Built on a robust Information Lifecycle Management (ILM) framework and Apache Hadoop, the Solix Big Data Suite supports Enterprise Archiving, Enterprise Data Lake and analytics applications.

The Solix Common Data Platform based on Apache Hadoop establishes new capabilities for advanced analytics applications. Data is either transformed prior to ingestion as an application requirement or stored “as is,” eliminating the need for heavy extract, transform and load (ETL) processes during ingestion.

Solix is positioned as a Leader in the Gartner Magic Quadrant for Structured Data Archiving and Application Retirement. Gartner has recognized Solix for ease of deployment, high customer satisfaction, Hadoop support and cloud enablement.

Solix products provides the functionalities that includes:

- Enterprise Archiving provides the flexibility to move data that is no longer actively used to a separate data storage device for a long-term retention.
- Application Retirement decommissions the application, and move the legacy data into big data environment along with appropriate compliances.
- Data Streaming is the stream of data that is continuously generated from different sources at a steady high-speed rate such as Social data/machine logs/web logs/transactional data etc., Solix product is integrated with Apache Kafka tool to listen the streaming data and store it into big data environment for data analytics purpose.
- Unstructured Data Migration: The Unstructured Data Migrations is a novel approach to migrate the files of various formats from multiple sources to HDFS target along with indexing the file using Solr INDEX and compressing the file.
- Test Data Generation allows generation of a set of test data automatically, based on the Test Data Rule or Constraints used for testing, understanding performance or demonstration purposes.
- Enterprise Business Records removes the dependencies on the application by moving the master data along with the associated transactional data from production. It is a concept which archives both the master data and transaction data in two ways depending on the mode of master data. Reporting is designed to create a query based on the migrated data stored on HDFS and generates report.
- SCDP is integrated with the ETL which stands Extract, Transform and Load. It provides the functionality to extract the data from the different data sources, transforms the data by applying calculations, concatenate, etc., and then loads the data to the Big Data.
- Test Data Management manages database cloning and subsetting for automated creation of databases for testing, development, QA, and other non-production applications while reducing infrastructure costs and improving the development cycles.
- The Solix Virtual Printer (abbreviated as “SVP”) prints the reports/documents, converts those documents into PDF and stores in to the HDFS (Hadoop Distributed File System) environment effectively.
- Data Compliance provides organizations with the capabilities needed to implement and sustain GDPR compliance by masking the personnel data, redact the data or delete the data based on the user requirement.
- Data Masking ensures data security and compliance by masking sensitive data in test/non-production databases using several masking algorithms and at the same time maintaining referential integrity of the data to keep the application testing process seam-less and protect data against inappropriate access and accidental loss.
- Data Discovery is designed to identify and analyze the confidential and sensitive information such as confidential, proprietary, Personally Identifiable Information (PII) of employees, customers, and suppliers’ data. Then, mask the desired sensitive data in the enterprise application databases.

- Search is developed with extensive capabilities to search for data/content, within the migrated unstructured/ structured data along with its metadata in HDFS.
- Metadata Visualizer analyzes the metadata of an assigned objects in the source or target database and generates a visual representation of statistical data in a tabular and layout format along with bar chart or bar graph presentation.
- Forms is a standardized form of report that presents the data in a hierarchy way that provides an easy access to the data in a lower level of a hierarchically structured database.
- The SQL Editor is used to edit or create SQL queries on the migrated/archived/streaming data on Target database and provide the dashboard to show the queried data in Charts.
- CDP API is an application program interface design, based on REST API that uses HTTP requests to view the metadata and archived data on the target database in a JSON format. Any third party tool can use the data in the JSON for data analytics and generating the desired report.

Solix Object Workbench

Integrated Connectors

Solix Object Workbench provides integrated connectors that can extract and ingest vast amounts of data “as-is” from an extensive set of enterprise data sources, including structured, semi-structured, unstructured and streaming data sources. The Object Workbench provides functionality to copy, move, and transform data from various data sources into the Solix CDP.

Extract, Transform and Load (ETL)

The Solix CDP Object Workbench also enables the ETL process to be undertaken as data is moved into the Enterprise Data Lake. This provides the ability to transform complex application data into meaningful data in a ready-to-use format from which the business user can gain immediate insight, with the use of BI tools.

Enterprise Data Lake and Advanced Analytics

The Solix CDP based on Apache Hadoop establishes new capabilities for Advanced Analytics applications. It stores data “as-is” eliminating the need for demanding ETL processes during ingestion. It captures and maintains the metadata connected to each byte of data, which is half or more of the value of the data itself. The Enterprise Data Lake may then be mined for critical business insights using text search, structured query or further processing by downstream analytical applications. The Solix CDP utilizes either Hive or Spark query frameworks dependent on the user requirements.

The Solix Enterprise Data Lake reduces the complexity and processing burden of staging EDW and analytics applications and provides highly efficient, bulk storage of enterprise data for later use. Once resident within HDFS, enterprise data may be more easily distilled and better described at petabyte-scale by business analytics applications. This allows organizations to develop an enterprise architectural strategy that is responsive to the business stakeholders without driving up the investment in hardware and software.

Enterprise Data Lake for Machine Learning and Advanced Analytics

The Solix CDP-enabled healthcare data lake is a self-contained enterprise data hub that provides robust data collection, data governance and data preparation tools with self-service visualization and business intelligence. It provides authorized data consumers with a singular repository of structured and unstructured healthcare data from a wide range of data sources including EHR, PACS, health trackers, diagnostic equipment, published research, and more. This data is captured into the repository by Solix CDP in an “as is” form along with its associated metadata. This eliminates the need for costly ETL during the ingestion process, while making it easy to discover, understand, and consume data. It would be nearly impossible and extremely expensive for any traditional EDW to incorporate such variety and large volume of information at such velocity.

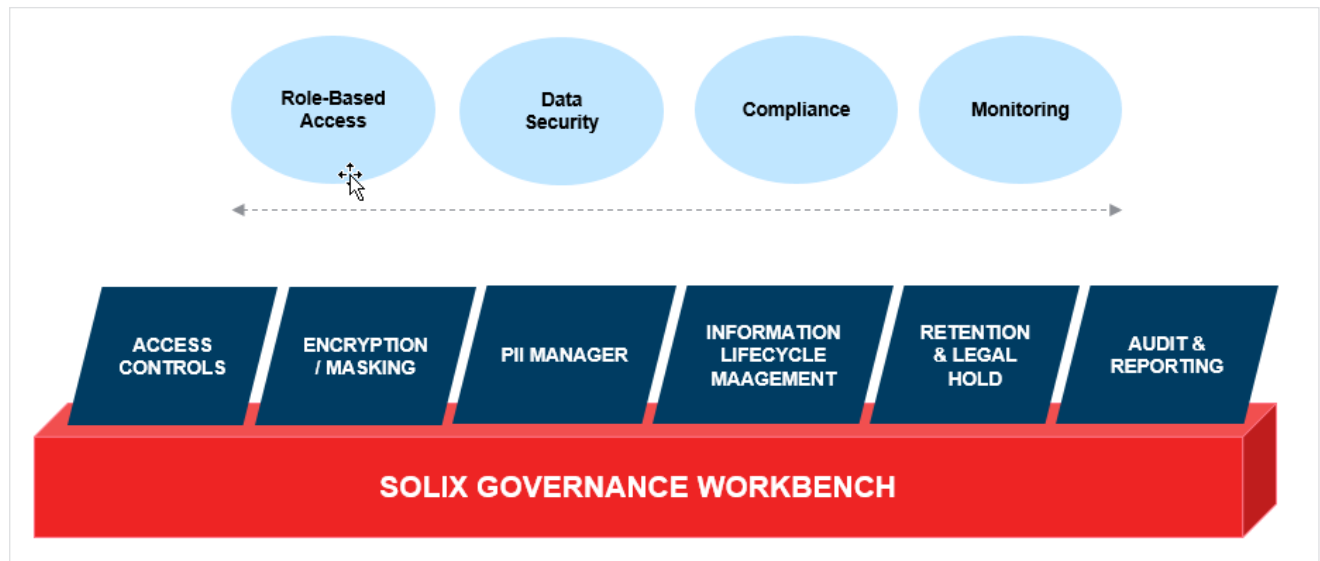

The metadata captured during data ingestion coupled with the strong data governance and data security features of the Solix CDP ensure the data in the healthcare data lake is made securely available to the right people with little or no support from IT. Additionally, the in-depth data preparation features and the inclusion of advanced open source data processing engines, like Apache Spark and Impala, make the healthcare data lake an ideal platform for machine learning and advanced healthcare analytics.

Owing to its advanced data storage and data processing capabilities, the healthcare data lake can enable a wide range of predictive and prescriptive analytics necessary to support delivery of quality healthcare services leading to better patient outcomes, cost reduction, identification of abuse and fraud, better clinical research, and more.

Solix Governance Workbench

Self-service and true data democratization are critical for the success of today’s data-driven enterprises. However, they are struggling to make it a reality in their organizations. There are many reasons for this struggle including; the need to comply with complex global regulations concerning data privacy and data retention, threat of unauthorized data access and leaks, and difficulty in ensuring data quality and standardization for data analysis. These concerns are real and are limiting the way organizations can leverage big data to sustain and thrive in this highly competitive business environment.

Solix CDP’s Data Governance Workbench eliminates all these concerns with its comprehensive capabilities, such as role-base granular access controls, data security, PII Manager, data retention and legal hold management, ILM, data quality, and full audit.

Data Governance & Security Capabilities

Role-Based Granular Access Control

Enforce comprehensive authentication and role-based access controls to protect your data from unauthorized access. With the ability to configure Kerberos, LDAP, AD, and SSO, Solix CDP provides users with privilege-based granular role-based access at a dataset/row/column/file level.

PII Manager

Quickly identify otherwise difficult to find PII, PCI, PHI and other sensitive data across the heterogeneous data sources and secure it using the format-preserving data masking capability of Solix CDP. This enables rapid sharing of data while meeting the compliance and data privacy regulations.

Regulatory & Legal Compliance

In today's complex regulatory environment, organizations are struggling to balance the need to comply and the need to enable a data-driven culture. With comprehensive governance capabilities such as data retention management, PII discovery and protection, legal hold, full audit trail and granular role-based access controls, Solix puts the organization back in control of its data assets without risking compliance. The Governance Workbench also features enhanced capabilities to support GDPR compliance.

Encryption and Masking

Secure your critical data present in Solix CDP with industry standard encryption, data masking or document redaction. These highly scalable and robust data security features make it easy to secure critical information present in both structured and unstructured data, while data is in motion and at rest.

Information Lifecycle Management (ILM)

Solix ILM capability classifies data at creation and moves data across infrastructure tiers based on business rules, data retention policies, and legal hold. It ensures that only active data is consuming valuable tier one compute and storage resources, and that all data is governed by compliance and internal governance policies throughout its lifecycle.

Full Audit Trail

Solix Governance Workbench logs all actions performed on Solix CDP to provide audit log from across the platform and provides with point-in-time search and reporting capabilities. This enables governance and compliance professional to gain the required visibility into how data is being accessed and processed across the Solix CDP. This helps keep a check on policy enforcement and mitigate risks associated with non-compliance.

Benefits

Solix Analyst Workbench

Analytics

The primary goal of analytics is to help companies make more informed business decisions by enabling data scientists, predictive modelers and other analytics professionals to analyze large volumes of transaction data, as well as other forms of data that may be untapped by conventional business intelligence (BI) programs. That could include Cash flow Management, Predictive Analytics about receivables, payables etc. They also could include social media content and social network activity reports, text from customer emails and survey responses, mobile-phone call detail records and machine data captured by sensors connected to the Internet of Things. Emagia Analytics is specifically designed to provide some kind of visibility and traction on receivables and prepare senior management dashboard for proper cash flow management and forecast.

The Analyst Workbench is designed for business analysts, data scientists, and DBAs to securely access the data within the Solix CDP and build virtual workspaces to manage analytics projects. All data within the platform is automatically made searchable and reportable in a secure and governed manner.

Functionality with the analyst workbench includes:

Data Lake Visualizer

The Data Lake Visualizer is a graphical inventory of the data contained in the lake. Using the visualizer the data analyst can quickly find the data sets needed to complete their analytics assignment. Once the data sets are identified they can be selected for inclusion in the analytics project.

Virtual Projects and Workspaces

For each analytics assignment a virtual project can be created by the analyst. Within each project one or more virtual workspaces can be created. The objects identified in the visualizer can then be virtually copied into the workspace, eliminating the need to make physical copies of data. Once the virtual workspace has been created, the data analyst can do data mashups by creating new composite objects to support the analytics assignment.

Data Preparation

The Solix CDP offers powerful, easy to use self-serve data preparation capabilities, including the ability to parse, clean, join and enrich data, as well as populate missing information and calculate new metrics. The Solix CDP utilizes the Spark framework. Spark runs in-memory within the cluster and provides machine learning capabilities for faster and more advanced data preparation.

Search and Reporting Functionality

Solix CDP supports universal access to all enterprise data on a petabyte scale via text search, structured query or further processing by downstream analytical applications. End users gain improved data-driven results because their data is better able to be described.

Solix App Store

The Solix App Store makes inductive BI user-friendly. The App Store offers out-of-the-box analytics through pre-integrated applications and also offers the opportunity to utilize third-party apps.

Benefits of the Solix CDP :

- Combining the advantages of Hadoop with the ability to preserve the full metadata.
- Providing advanced ILM capabilities, including the ability to copy data from the data warehouse and to archive older data.
- Supporting advanced data security, as well as third party analysis packages, including machine learning and cognitive computing analysis of the data.
- Preserving all data in its original format and with full metadata and supporting established open standard interfaces. It future-proofs the Data Lake, ensuring the data will be usable by the new technologies and for new use cases that are as yet undefined.
- Providing a unified data governance layer from the time of data ingestion to use of data by business users for operational insights and Advanced Analytics.
- Ability to utilize either Hive or Spark query frameworks dependent on the user requirements.
- Cloud, on premise and hybrid deployment models.
- Working with all Hadoop distributions such as Cloudera and Hortonworks.
- This solution is cloud enabled, can be deployed on premise or even can be cloud enabled. Supports cloud environments like AWS, Oracle Cloud and Azure etc.

Solix Cloud

SOLIXCloud Enterprise Archiving delivers a fully managed low-cost, scalable, elastic, secure, and compliant data management solution for all enterprise data.

A Single, Scalable and Compliant Archive for All Enterprise Data

With increased digitization, the fabric of enterprise data is changing rapidly. It now includes structured data from enterprise ERP and CRM applications and a large volume of unstructured data such as emails, documents, rich media files, IoT streams, social media, and instant messages. While this massive growth in data is helpful for data-driven organizations, when left unchecked, it can diminish application performance, increase maintenance costs and make compliance with regulations governing data retention and privacy much more difficult. Additionally, organizations are modernizing their IT rapidly leaving many legacy applications behind. These legacy applications add to the cost and compliance challenges.

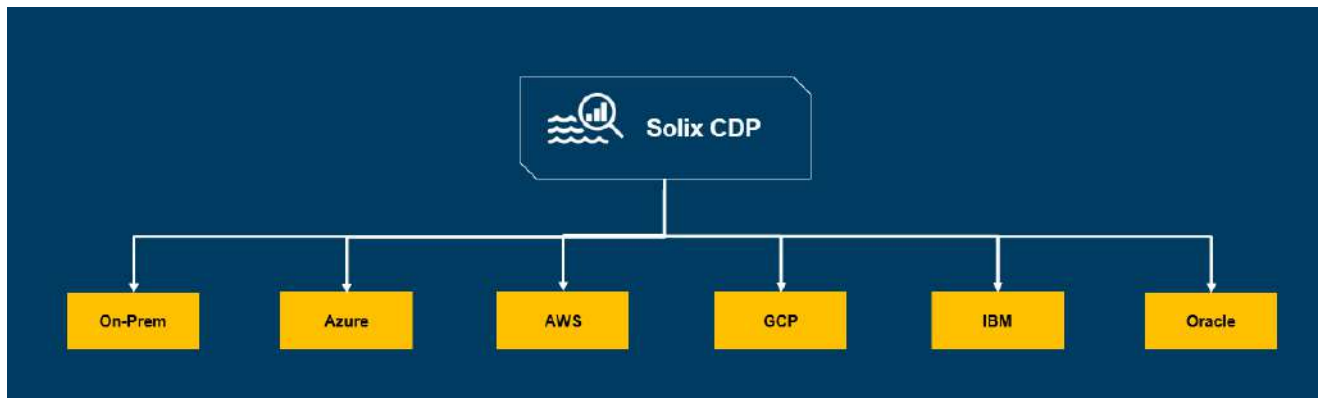

To cope with the conflicting demands for access to historic data, compliance, and the need to improve operational efficiencies, a new enterprise blueprint must be adopted.

The answer lies in Solix Enterprise Archiving which delivers a unified Information Lifecycle Management (ILM) framework to archive and retire all inactive enterprise data — structured and unstructured — to optimize application performance, reduce cost and achieve compliance goals while preserving universal access to archived data for business reporting and advanced analytics. Solix’s ILM framework provides comprehensive data governance features including legal hold, retention management, eDiscovery, and auditing. Solix Enterprise Archiving enables organizations to bridge the gap between operational efficiencies, business intelligence and compliance.

MANAGEMENT

DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION & ANALYSIS

Overview

For last few weeks, India’s economic outlook, Government actions with RBI guidelines and Global macro-economic factors have dominated the news with ₹ touching new heights on a daily basis. The world economy is now showing positive signs of growth and though Europe and China are still behind the strong growth that they have shown over the past few years.

As North America and Europe continues to contribute the largest share of the IT industry’s revenues, these factors have impacted the industry and led to the leading companies revising their revenue and earnings guidance downwards towards low double digit growth. However as part of the IT industries worldwide, we have successfully continued to move up market and now serve much larger global clients and more comprehensive and market relevant portfolio of consulting services. The revitalization of global economy continued during the calendar year 2019 and the global economy ended the year on a better footing as compared to the start of the year. The growth momentum is expected to be carried forward during the year 2020.

The financial statements have been prepared in compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2013, and Indian Accounting Standards (IND AS). The Management of TechN Vision accepts responsibility for the integrity and objectivity of these financial statements, as well as for various estimates and judgments used therein.

The estimates and judgments relating to the financial statements have been made on a prudent and reasonable basis, in order that the financial statements reflect in a true and fair manner the form and substance of transactions, and reasonably present the Company’s state of affairs and profits for the year. The following discussion may include forward looking statements which may involve risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to the risks inherent to Company’s growth strategy, dependency on certain clients, dependency on availability of qualified technical personnel and other factors discussed in this report.

1. Industry Structure, Developments and Outlook

We began by realigning our sales, services and engineering organizations in order to simplify our operating model, driven faster innovation and focus on the following three foundational priorities:

Cloud Transition | Big Data & Governance | Enterprise Receivables Management – Digital Transformation

We believe that focusing on these priorities will best position us to grow. As per Forbes, 60-70% of all software, products, services and technology spending will be cloud based by 2020. And CIO, mentions that “Enterprises with big budgets, data centers and complex applications are now looking at cloud as a viable place to run core business applications. We will continue to seek to capitalize on this market transition.

2. Economy Overview:

The U.S. economic outlook is healthy according to the key economic indicators. The most critical indicator is the gross domestic product, which measures the nation’s production output. The GDP growth rate is expected to remain between the 2% to 3% ideal range. The UK economy will be sluggish this year, held back by soft business investment and weaker growth in key trading partners. The highly uncertain outcome of Brexit remains the key risk to the outlook. For 2020, Focus Economic panelists also see the economy expanding 1.3%.

While global growth in 2020 is expected to slow, reflecting weaker-than-expected trade and investment at the start of the year. Growth is projected to gradually rise to 2.8 percent by 2021, predicated on continued benign global financing conditions and a modest recovery in emerging market and developing economies (EMDEs). Emerging markets will continue to present some of the best alternatives for investment and growth around the world.

IT Industry Outlook:

While the global economic scenario seems slow, the shining star is global information technology industry, which is on pace to reach $5 trillion in 2020, according to the research consultancy IDC. Economies, jobs, and personal lives are becoming more digital, more connected, and increasingly, more automated. Waves of innovation build over time, powering the technology growth engine that appears to be on the cusp of another major leap forward.

The United States is the largest tech market in the world, representing 31% of the total, or approximately $1.6 trillion for 2020. In the U.S., as well as in many other countries, the tech sector accounts for a significant portion of economic activity.

We believe our strong brand, robust quality process and access to skilled talent base places us in a unique position to take advantage of the trend towards cost competitive technology solutions.

We believe our competitive strengths include:

- Commitment to superior quality and process execution
- Strong brand and long standing client relationships
- Ability to scale
- Innovation and leadership

Increased confidence of business leaders in their companies' performance and improved sentiment of consumers drove spending in technology products. Investment in technology is among top three priorities of companies across the world. Worldwide interactions with business leaders reveal that role of technology will create biggest impact on their business. An increasing acceptance of the fact that digital technologies will impact business models, processes, new products and services offerings, access to new markets, new customer base and will open up completely new set of opportunities for their companies, is a common feature across industries and markets.

Worldwide spending on information technology is expected to reach near-$4 trillion this year, according to Gartner, with the fastest growth rates in enterprise software, IT services and data-center spending, as the cloud still booms and greater cyber threats loom.

Cloud Transition

“Cloud services are definitely shaking up the industry,” It is a fact that no vendor or service provider today whose business model offerings and revenue growth are not influenced by the increasing adoption of cloud-first strategies in organizations. What we see now is only the beginning, though. Through 2022, Gartner projects the market size and growth of the cloud services industry at nearly three times the growth of overall IT services.”

According to recent surveys, more than a third of organizations see cloud investments as a top three investing priority, which is impacting market offerings. Gartner expects that by the end of 2019, more than 30 percent of technology providers’ new software investments will shift from cloud-first to cloud-only. This means that license-based software consumption will further plummet, while SaaS and subscription-based cloud consumption models continue their rise.

“Organizations need cloud-related services to get on boarded onto public clouds and to transform their operations as they adopt public cloud services,”. Currently almost 19 percent of cloud budgets are spent on cloud-related services, such as cloud consulting, implementation, migration and managed services, and Gartner expects that this rate will increase to 28 percent by 2022.

“As cloud continues to become mainstream within most organizations, technology product managers for cloud related service offerings will need to focus on delivering solutions that combine experience and execution with hyper scale providers’ offerings,”. “This complementary approach will drive both transformation and optimization of an organization’s infrastructure and operations.”

Data Governance Market

The data governance market was valued at USD 1.10 Billion in 2017 and is expected to reach USD 3.53 Billion by 2023, at a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 22.0% during the forecast period. The major factors that are expected to drive the growth of the market include the rapidly increasing growth in data volumes, rising regulatory and compliance mandates, and enhancing strategic risk management and decision-making with the increasing business collaborations. The base year considered for this Report is 2017 and the market forecast period is 2018–2023.

The research report categorizes the data governance market to forecast the revenues and analyze the trends in each of the following sub segments:

- By Application
- By Business Function
- By Component
- By Organization Size
- By Deployment Model
- By Industry Vertical

The data governance market is expected to grow from USD 1.31 Billion in 2018 to USD 3.53 Billion by 2023, at a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 22.0% during the forecast period. Factors such as the rapidly increasing growth in data volumes, rising regulatory and compliance mandates, and enhancing strategic risk management and decision-making with the increasing business collaborations are expected to drive the growth of the global market.

The retail and eCommerce industry vertical is expected to grow at the highest CAGR during the forecast period. Data governance solutions can be used by the retail and eCommerce industry vertical to handle large volumes of data generated across the vertical. In addition to this, high-quality, properly managed data is crucial for decision-making across organizations, therefore data governance solutions in this industry vertical help decision makers with product pricing, campaign management, sales optimization, risk management, and product management.

Large enterprises are expected to dominate the market in terms of market share, as these enterprises are continuously investing in their R&D activities to improve overall performance and provide customer satisfaction. However, the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises (SMEs) segment is expected to exhibit a higher CAGR, owing to the availability of cloud-based data governance solutions at an effective cost. In addition to this, data governance solutions providers minimize infrastructure development costs for such applications.

North America is expected to dominate the data governance market throughout the forecast period, due to the early adoption of technologies and the presence of a large number of data governance solution providers. Asia Pacific (APAC) is estimated to grow at the highest CAGR during the forecast period. The increasing digitalization and investment in infrastructure upgrades have resulted in the higher adoption of data governance and data management solutions. The region is witnessing the increasing demand for cloud-based solutions, owing to the growing size of SMEs. Companies operating in this region provide different solutions based on organization size and their requirements.

Factors such as rapid growth in data volumes, regulatory and compliance mandates, and the enhancing strategic risk management and decision-making with increasing business collaborations are expected to drive the growth of the global data governance market. Moreover, the increasing applications of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and the growing importance of effective data governance would help the key players gain a competitive edge in the overall market.

The global data governance market has been fragmented and no single vendor dominates the market. Vendors have adopted different types of organic and inorganic growth strategies, such as new product launches, product upgradations, partnerships and collaborations, and acquisitions, and business expansions, to expand their offerings and enhance customer experience in the market.

The new solutions and services would enable organizations to gain the deeper understanding of data and control it. They would also help them adhere to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and other strict data regulations.

This includes risk assessment and mitigation at the Company level, business / functional unit level, relationship level and project level. Some of the key strategic risks the Company faces, their impact and corresponding risk mitigation actions undertaken by the Company are discussed in the table:

We are subject to Government and regulatory activity

That affects how we design and market our products. Regulatory actions may at times hinder our ability to provide the benefits of our software to consumers and businesses, thereby reducing the attractiveness of our products and the revenues that come from them. The outcome of such actions, or steps taken to avoid them, could adversely affect us in a variety of ways, including:

- We may have to choose between withdrawing products from certain geographies to avoid fines or designing and developing alternative versions of those products to comply with government rulings, which may entail a delay in a product release and removing functionality that customers want or on which developers rely.
- The rulings described above may be cited as a precedent in other competition law proceedings.

We face intense competition

The entry of large players will result in fierce competition and raising the bar for eligibility. This will impact the business of the Company.

In response to competition, we rely on the following to compete effectively:

- a successful service delivery model;
- a well-developed recruiting, training and retention model;
- continuing investments in process improvement and knowledge capture;

Our business depends on our ability to attract and retain talented employees.

Our business is based on successfully attracting and retaining talented employees. The market for highly skilled workers and leaders in our industry is extremely competitive. Post-recession, the attrition rate in the IT industry has risen again and is one of the major challenges being faced by the industry. As the industry is on the path of recovery from the economic downturn, lateral hiring has reached its peak which in turn has resulted in widespread attrition.

If we are less successful in our recruiting efforts, or if we are unable to retain key employees, our ability to develop and deliver successful products and services may be adversely affected. Effective succession planning is also important to our long-term success. Failure to ensure effective transfer of knowledge and smooth transitions involving key employees could hinder our strategic planning and execution.

The Company is constantly exposed to the risk of exchange rate fluctuations.

With operations spanning world-wide and revenues earned in major currencies of the world, a majority of Company's expenses are incurred in Indian Rupees. This exposes the Company to a constant risk of foreign exchange fluctuation, adverse fluctuations of exchange rate poses a threat to the profitability of the business. Fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates can have a number of adverse effects on us. Changes in the value of the Indian Rupee against other major currencies will affect our revenues and thereby our profit margins as well.

Service Model Redundancy

Newer models which change the manner of consumption of IT services could result in demand compression / pricing pressure on the existing model.

The Company is continually scanning the market environment and communicating with clients to identify emerging market trends at a nascent stage and come out with innovative service delivery model.

Reputational Threat

Reputation is built continuously in a timely and quality delivery with integrity. Any damage to this reputation and image of TechNVision could lead to decrease in market share.

The Company is focusing on quality and processes, and has developed efficient service models to mitigate this risk. Strict adherence to Company's Quality Management System, Code of Conduct and Corporate Governance framework have helped Company evolve as one of the best Company in the market.

Regulatory non-compliance

AUDITOR'S REPORT
STANDALONE

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of TECHNVISION VENTURES LIMITED

Report on the Standalone Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the standalone financial statements of TechNvision Ventures Limited ("the Company"), which comprise the balance sheet as at March 31, 2020, and the statement of profit and loss, and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Companies Act 2013, read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules 2015, as amended, (Ind AS) and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2020, and its profit, and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have not determined any key audit matters.

Information Other than the Standalone Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the Board of Directors is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

ANNEXURE B TO THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

[Referred to in paragraph 2 (f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report to the Members of TechNvision Ventures Limited of even date]

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of TechNvision Ventures Limited (the "Company") as of March 31, 2020 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Board of Directors of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the "ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") issued by the ICAI and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2020, based on the internal financial control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

AUDITORS'
REPORT - CONSOLIDATED

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of TECHNVISION VENTURES LIMITED

Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of TechNVision Ventures Limited (hereinafter referred to as the 'Holding Company') and its subsidiaries, (Holding Company and its subsidiary together referred to as "the Group"), which comprise the consolidated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2020, and the consolidated statement of Profit and Loss, and the consolidated cash flows Statement for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the consolidated financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the consolidated state of affairs of the Group, as at March 31, 2020, of consolidated loss, and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group, its associates and jointly controlled entities in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in India in terms of the Code of Ethics issued by ICAI and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion, thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have not determined any key audit matters.

Information Other than the Consolidated Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Management Discussion and Analysis, Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report, Business Responsibility Report, Corporate Governance and Shareholder's Information, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation and presentation of these consolidated financial statements in term of the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance and consolidated cash flows of the Group including its associates and jointly controlled entities in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act. The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for assessing the ability of the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group and of its associates and jointly controlled entities.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- a. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- b. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- c. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- d. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to cease to continue as a going concern.
- e. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- f. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group and its associates and jointly controlled entities to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company and such other entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the internal financial controls system over financial reporting of the Company.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2020, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
