New Delhi : A brutal day of Narendra Modi since taking hand-to-hand combat on the India-China border last month may accomplish what years of Pentagon and White House outreach has struggled to achieve: draw the U.S. and India closer militarily.

U.S. strategists have long wanted to get India firmly on America's side, seeing the nation of 1.3 billion as a powerful counterweight to China. But while India has historically tried to balance its ties among global powers, the clashes with China at 14,000-feet (4,300 meters) laid bare the potential longer-term risks of not having the U.S. more clearly behind it. Congress considers anti-defection

The Tenth Schedule says that a lawmaker can be disqualified from the House "if he has voluntarily given up his membership of such political party" or "if he votes or abstains from voting in such House contrary to any direction issued by the political party to which he belongs or by any person or authority authorised by it in this behalf without obtaining prior permission of such political party.'

Two Congress leaders involved in the strategy argued that it is a conservative view to look at what is happening inside the House. "An elected lawmaker's conduct, his speeches, his hobnobbing with rivals too can be counted as ground for disqualification," said a senior party leader.

'He skipped two meetings of Congress legislature party, his loyalists gave three interviews demanding trust vote is proof of his intention. There are several examples of how the Supreme Court considered such an issue in the Rajiv Nair and the BS Yeddiyurappa case," said another leader.

But P Sreedharan, former secretary general of the Lok Sabha, thinks otherwise. "Disqualification on ground of defection is mentioned clearly in the para 2 of the Tenth Schedule: If he has voluntarily given up his membership or if he votes against the party or abstains from voting. The issue of not following the direction of the party is connected to the House only. So any whip issued for non-House activities can't be a sufficient ground," said Sreedharan.

For Rajasthan assembly speaker CP Joshi, too, these are testing times. In the recent past, Joshi had advocated that speaker's powers vis-a-vis the Tenth Schedule should be curtailed and the decision to expel a member should be given to political parties.

In two conferences of presiding officers, he spearheaded the campaign to de-link speakers from the anti-defection issues as he felt that speakers come under unnecessary political pressure and courts have often tarnished the image of the speakers in their judgments on defection issues. But now, Joshi himself has a high-profile defection issue — the first in 2020 — on his table.

"The Scheme also authorises CMD to pass an order on behalf and in the name of the Company whereby an employee would be sent on leave for six months or for a period of two years extendable upto five years, depending upon...suitability, efficiency, competence, quality of performance, health of the employee, instance of nonavailability of the employee for duty in the past, as a result of ill health or otherwise and redundancy," it added.

The policy approved by the board states that departmental heads at headquarters and regional directors of the region are required to assess each individual on the above mentioned factors and identity the cases where option of compulsory leave without pay can be exercised.

To streamline the process of identification of redundant manpower who would be told to proceed on compulsory leave without pay a committee of The respective Regional Directors will be constituted comprising General Manager (Personnel), General Manager(Finance) and concerned Departmental Head.

The Committee would go through the records, based on the above factors and will recommend the individuals whose names will be forwarded to headquarters with due recommendations of Regional Director for obtaining approval of CMD, for compulsory leave.

The DAC on July 2 Thursday approved the purchase of weapons and ammunition worth Rs 38,900 crore. The purchases include 33 new fighter jets for the Indian Air Force (IAF) that is grappling with a shortage of warplanes.

The proposals green-lighted by the DAC included buying of 21 MiG-29s from Russia, 12 new Sukhoi-30 fighters from Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL), homegrown Astra BVR air-to-air missiles, locally-developed landattack cruise missile (LACM) systems with a range of 1,000 km, indigenous rocket systems, and the upgrade of 59 MiG-

PM Oli's Ayodhya remark

When India's external affairs ministry made it clear that it would not initiate dialogue with Kathmandu after PM Oli pushed Nepal's new political map through Parliament, it had underscored that the government would continue to work to strengthen people-to-people relations between the two countries.

PM Oli's claim that Lord Ram was born in Ayodhya, described by his party leaders as ludicrous, was aimed at upsetting this effort. Indian government officials said PM Oli's larger effort was to stoke anti-India sentiment in Nepal - a continuing effort of his government - by accusing India of encroaching on cultural facts.

Nepal "has become a victim of cultural encroachment and its history has been manipulated," he said at an event to mark the birth anniversary of Nepalese poet Bhanubhakta, credited for translating Valmiki's Ramayan into Nepali language

But PM Oli's effort backfired. There are already loud voices in his party and outside that have spoken about his concerted effort at chipping away at the goodwill between the two countries.

On Wednesday, Nepal's leading newspaper Kathmandu Post's front page story on PM Oli's Ayodhya remark is titled, "Amid soured Nepal-India ties, Oli is threatening relations between peoples of two countries, leaders and experts say".

A foreign ministry statement on PM Oli's Ayodhya remark attempted to give it a new spin. The PM, the statement said, "was simply highlighting the importance of further studies and research ... to obtain facts about Shri Ram, Ramayana and various places linked to this rich civilization".

This isn't the first time that PM Oli has come under attack in Kathmandu for his sharp tilt against India. "But the elephant in the room is China," said an analyst based in New Delhi, echoing the government's reading of PM Oli and his pitch against India. He said PM Oli's statements and actions fit the pattern of serving China's interests, starting from the Lipulekh boundary dispute.

In her conversations with PM Oli's rivals in the communist party, Chinese ambassador Hou Yanqi is learnt to have explained China's interest in Nepal's ruling party to ideology: Communist China doesn't want Nepal Communist Party - formed in 2018 with the merger of 2 leading left parties - to split again. And since PM Oli could split the party if he is up against the wall, the rival camps should take measured steps.
