How to save existing jobs and create new ones?

Mahesh Vyas

Centre for Monitoring Indian Economy (CMIE)

Between 2012 and 2018, the absolute number of people employed in India actually fell -a first in the country's history. In 2017-18, the level of unemployment in the country reached a four-decade high.

Since then, India's economic growth has decelerated with each passing year, further constraining employment opportunities.

And now, the economic disruption brought by the Covid-19 pandemic has dealt a crushing blow to whatever employment prospects were left.

Exactly how bad is India's jobs crisis? What are the variations in terms of geography and industry? What can be done to address -- and hopefully remedy -- this situation?

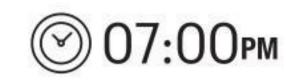

Listen to Mahesh Vyas, CEO of the think tank Centre for Monitoring Indian Economy (CMIE), at the next session of Explained.Live.
