Rahul ton in vain as Kiwis clean sweep ODIs

Mt. Maunganui, Feb 12: In a stunning reversal of fortunes, an underwhelming India suffered their first ODI series whitewash in more than three decades as New Zealand completed a 3-0 sweep with a five-wicket victory in the third match here on Tuesday.

It is the first whitewash for India in 31 years in a series in which all matches have been played. They were beaten 5-0 by the West Indies back in 1989 in an away assignment.

This came within days of India sweeping a five-match T20 series.

"They (New Zealand) played with a lot more intensity after the T20 series. They deservedly won 3-0," said India captain Virat Kohli after the shocking turnaround for both the sides.

Henry Nicholls scored 80 in 103 balls and Martin Guptill made 66 off 46 as the Black Caps scored 300 for five in 47.1 overs. Colin de Grandhomme smacked 106 not out off 28 balls at the end to help seal the win with 17 deliveries to spare.

Earlier, India had scored 296 for seven after being put into bat, thanks to K.L. Rahul's (112) fourth ODI hundred.

Chasing a sub-par 297, New Zealand got off to a flying start as Guptill and Nicholls put on 50 off just 40 balls.

Overall, they added 106 for the first wicket.

Guptill smacked six fours and four sixes as the Indian new ball bowlers faced an onslaught.

Shardul Thakur (1-87) and Navdeep Saini (0-68) struggled to find their rhythm and were taken for runs, while Jasprit Bumrah finished the series wicket-less.

Yuvendra Chahal (3-47) provided the breakthrough, bowling Guptill in the 17th over. At the other end, Nicholls scored a half-century off 72 balls and anchored the innings.

He hit nine fours and two sixes, and rescued India from a precarious 62 for three.

He put on 100 runs with Shreyas Iyer (62 off 63 balls) for the fourth wicket, and later on another 107 runs with Manish Pandey (42 off 48 balls) for the fifth wicket. Hamish Bennett finished with 4-64 from ten overs.

Taylor was adjudged player of the series for amassing 194 runs in three innings and being dismissed only once.

De Grandhomme took centre stage then and smashed a half-century off only 21 balls. His explosive knock included six fours and three sixes, as his fifth wicket partnership with Jimmy Neesham (19) came off only 31 balls.

India's fielding was lax and failed to build pressure on the Black Caps, an apt representation of their struggles in this series.

This was after Rahul's first hundred at number five helped anchor India's innings.

He hit nine fours and two sixes, and rescued India from a precarious 62 for three.

He put on 100 runs with Shreyas Iyer (62 off 63 balls) for the fourth wicket, and later on another 107 runs with Manish Pandey (42 off 48 balls) for the fifth wicket. Hamish Bennett finished with 4-64 from ten overs.

Sounds terrible isn't it? But many of us do the same; I have seen good straightforward, honest men and women suddenly supporting a dishonest fellow, and find myself startled before I find that a school admission done by the dishonest fellow had done the trick. A little

Selling Your Soul to the Devil!

There are many who sell their soul, their thoughts, their honesty, their beliefs in exchange for a favour, which reminds me of the legendary Dr Faust who in Goethe's classic, sold his soul to the devil: Faust is bored and depressed with his life as a scholar. After an attempt to take his own life, he calls on the Devil for further knowledge and magic powers with which to indulge all the pleasure and knowledge of the world. In response, the Devil's makes a bargain with Faust: He will serve Faust with his magic powers for a set number of years, but at the end of the term, the Devil will claim Faust's soul, and Faust will be eternally enslaved.

By not accepting favours from those who expect you to do so, and like the devil, there are legions who want to buy your soul!

Sometimes you have one devil who buys many souls and with that controls many irregularities and cover ups. I see this often in housing societies, where one influential person, gives jobs to many in his complex and finally gets away with later after redevelopment, he finds that he has been cheated off a bigger flat, "How did this happen?" I ask.

"He was so enamoured by the school admission, that he was blinded to everything else that man did!" says his distraught wife.

Or it could be the famous casting couch, not necessarily a bedroom scene but giving in to mild flirting and other favours for a promotion.

Beware of those who expect your soul for a favour done!

Let there be gratitude but not a 'selling of your soul'!

How do you not sell your soul?

By not accepting favours from those who expect you to do so, and like the devil, there are legions who want to buy your soul!

Sometimes you have one devil who buys many souls and with that controls many irregularities and cover ups. I see this often in housing societies, where one influential person, gives jobs to many in his complex and finally gets away with a host of illegal allowances!

You have two options, either not accepting a favour or making it clear at the beginning that your soul is not for sale, that you will be grateful, but will not compromise on the right and the wrong!

That's a toughie if ever there is one, but by doing so you will gain the respect ultimately of everyone.

I would say the same of the one who does the favour: Have the integrity not to expect favours in return. Help people without grabbing their souls!

This happens not just with individuals, but with political parties too; communal politics is nothing but this, buying your soul in the name of religion, and then getting away with murder!

Don't be a Dr Faust, be a person, who keeps his soul for himself and for your God..!

initially clubbed with play Malaysia on two-time defending champions Indonesia and hosts Philippines in Group A, but with China and Hong Kong not playing due to a travel ban on them by the Philippines because of the coronavirus outbreak, the draw was re-worked.

The Indian team has been placed in Group B alongside Malaysia and Kazakhstan. The top two team in each of the four groups will make it to the quarterfinals. India
