Brokers must inform clients of major terms and conditions

Press Trust of India
New Delhi

For ease of understanding, capital markets regulator on Monday asked brokers to inform a standard "most important terms and conditions" to the clients, which will be known by them.

The form, nature of communication, document and detailed standards implementation of "most important terms and conditions or MITC" will be published by January 1, 2024, the Brokers' Industry Standards Forum (ISF), under the purview of stock exchanges, in consultation with SEBI, according to a circular by the regulator.

In case ISF is unable to publish the document, in part, then SEBI, at its discretion, will publish standard
