Citi to tie up with Indian bank to fund women biz owners

AISHA COUNTS & PAIGE SMITH
November 17

CITIGROUP INC. PLANS TO unveil a partnership with a bank in India to fund female small-business owners in the country, part of its financing work for enterprises including automakers and parts suppliers across Asia, Central America and elsewhere.

"We're going to be providing capital to more than 300,000 female entrepreneurs in rural India, and that will help them grow their small business and increase their participation in global trade," chief executive officer Jane Fraser said Thursday at the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation conference in San Francisco. She didn't identify the Indian bank.

Fraser touted Citigroup's clients in 160 countries and jurisdictions and emphasized their dependence on trade and supply chains, noting that "geopolitical and macroeconomic shocks that we've had of late" have made it harder to source and move manufactured goods. Her New York-based bank recently helped finance an auto-parts plant in Guanajuato, Mexico, for a Korean firm, and is working with electric-vehicle makers to open factories and stores in Thailand, she said.

"It should come as no surprise that Citi is a strong advocate for a world that continues to collaborate across borders and engage," Fraser said.

"True resilience, it comes from open markets, it comes from robust and diversified supply chains. So a decoupling of the world's dominant economies is neither possible nor is it prudent." This year's APEC conference has been the focus of global attention, with Presidents Joe Biden and Xi Jinping using the event for their first meeting in a year in a bid to ease US-China tensions that have threatened economic growth worldwide.

Later Wednesday, Xi had dinner with US business leaders including Apple Inc. CEO Tim Cook and BlackRock Inc.'s Larry Fink.

A month ago, Fraser initiated the biggest restructuring of Citigroup in two decades as she seeks to simplify the firm and boost returns. The bank intends to cut back to eight layers from 13 as part of the work. Fraser has said Citigroup is doing away with as many co- heads as possible to ensure there are "single points of accountability" across the firm.

With the moves, Citigroup is abandoning its two core operating units and instead focusing on five key businesses: trading, banking, services, wealth management and US consumer offerings.

Fraser also is weighing whether to shutter the firm's municipal-bond trading and origination business, which for decades was a powerhouse in the $4 trillion market for US state and local debt, Bloomberg News reported earlier this month, citing people familiar with the matter.

INVESTMENT TRENDS

RBI'S MOVE TO raise risk weights for unsecured loans will hurt Fintechs because their lending partners will now see higher funding costs and increased capital needs. Already tighter norms for digital lending and a clamp-down on products such as BNPL have hurt the fintech businesses.

Forex reserves slip $462 mn this week

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, November 17

INDIA'S FOREX KITTY decreased by $462 million to $590.321 billion for the week ended November 10, the Reserve Bank said on Friday.

In the previous reporting week, the overall reserves had increased by ₹4.672 billion to ₹590.783 billion.

In October 2021, the country's forex kitty had reached an all-time high of $645 billion. The reserves took a hit as the central bank deployed the kitty to defend the rupee amid pressures caused majorly by global developments since last year. For the week ended November 10, the foreign currency assets, a major component of the reserves, increased by $108 million to $522.004 billion, according to the Weekly Statistical Supplement released by Reserve Bank of India. Expressed in dollar terms, the foreign currency assets include the effect of appreciation or depreciation of non-US units like the euro, pound and yen held in the foreign exchange reserves. Gold reserves were down by $608 million to $45.515 billion during the week, RBI said. The Special Drawing Rights were up by $36 million to $18.011 billion.

Charter movements triple

WITH A seating capacity of 132,000 spectators, the world's largest cricket stadium also has 75 corporate boxes, which will all be packed to the hilt, as top industrialists will look to rub shoulders with sports stars, entertainment personalities, political leaders and office-bearers from the BCCI and International Cricket Council (ICC) members.

"The Cricket World Cup final is a showpiece event. This time it is doubly exciting because India is the host nation as well as the finalist," says Arun Singh Dhulua, former BCCI treasurer, who is now the chairman of the Indian Premier League. "I am headed to Ahmedabad. And I do expect the who's who to be there," he says. A 10-minute air show before the final match by the Indian Air Force's Surya Kiran aerobatic unit, followed by performances by singers Dua Lipa, Jonita Gandhi, Aditya Gadhvi and music composer Pitam Chakraborty are all part of the itinerary, it is reliably learnt.

While hotel rates as well as air fares to Ahmedabad have shot through the roof, carriers such as Vistara have deployed eight additional flights to cater to last-minute travel to the city.

IAF Surya Kiran aerobatic team flies past during rehearsal at the Narendra Modi Stadium ahead of the India vs Australia ICC Men's 2023 World Cup final in Ahmedabad

This includes three additional flights from Mumbai from 18 to 20 November. The aircraft deployed include three A321s, three A320s and one Boeing 787-9 Dreamliner.

Eateries, bars ready for rush

"WE ARE all geared up to welcome fans this Sunday to our watch parties across all outlets. From large-screen live screenings to special offers for whoever is wearing the jersey, there will be a lot to cheer with beer. Our mixologist has created a special 'bleed blue' shot which will be served on the house to all the patrons," said Rahul Singh founder and CEO of Beer Café.

Harajuku Tokyo Café in Gurugram will screen the finals with a 72-foot-long sushi con-veyor belt and a robotic DJ. The food delivery business, too, is expecting a surge in demand. "Delivery operations have been significantly impacted up to allow for the ability to deal with the much higher expected order," said Massive Restaurants' Kalra. Many outlets are already fully booked due to advance reservations. "We are expecting a 100% rise in footfall than our usual Sunday volumes. Queries, especially from bigger groups who want to enjoy the final with their family and friends, have been pouring in since India qualified for the final. All our outlets are already houseful," said Toor of Bira.

The Delhi government has declared a dry day on Sunday on account of Chhath, but restaurants said this will not impact them as their licences are not mentioned in the circular.
