Will invite Putin to Rio G20 Summit, says Lula

AMRITA NAYAK DUTTA

Brazil's President Lula da Silva addresses reporters in New Delhi on Monday. REUTERS

BRAZIL PRESIDENT LUIZ Inacio Lula da Silva on Monday said he hoped Chinese President Xi Jinping and Russian President Vladimir Putin attend the G20 Summit in Rio de Janeiro next year, even as he appeared to backtrack on his assurances a day earlier that Putin will not be arrested should he visit the South American country.

"We will invite them. We hope they will participate," da Silva said at a press conference, but added that it would be up to his country's judiciary to decide whether to arrest the Russian leader. Putin, as well as Xi, skipped the two-day event in New Delhi.

Summit scheduled in November 2024, "there's no way" the Russian leader will be arrested "if I'm the president".

The International Criminal Court (ICC) in March this year issued an arrest warrant against Putin for the alleged war crime of unlawfully deporting and transferring children from occupied areas of Ukraine to the Russian Federation.

Brazil is a signatory to the Rome Statute, which led to the founding of the ICC, and is bound to arrest the ICC's targets. It was to avoid arrest under this warrant that Putin avoided travel to South Africa in August this year for the BRICS Summit.

On the Russia-Ukraine conflict, Lula, the co-founder of Brazil's Workers' Party, said he is hoping for the war to end when the G20 meets in Rio. "I am rooting for the war to have ended by the time we hold the G20 in Brazil, that the people of Ukraine could have returned home, that the reconstruction has begun, that food production is normalised. That is what I want," he said. "We have a year and two months ahead of us."

On the New Delhi Leaders' Declaration, he said it is the "only way forward" and added that the realisation was now dawning that the war is tiring out humanity. He also listed out Brazil's priorities during its G20 Presidency year, from transition to clean energy to addressing inequality in gender, race, education, health and food, besides reforming existing multilateral institutions.

Decide on Godrej & Boyce plea for enhanced pay: HC

THE BOMBAY HIGH Court on Monday directed the Maharashtra government to decide within a month an application by the Godrej & Boyce Manufacturing Company for enhanced compensation for its land acquired for the Ahmedabad-Mumbai bullet train project.

According to the application, the government granted a final award of Rs 264 crore in compensation on September 15, 2022, for acquiring 9.69 acres of the company's land. It was far less than the initial amount of Rs 572 crore that the government had offered.

A division bench of Justice

BP Colabawalla and Justice MM Sathaye was hearing a petition filed by the company seeking a direction to the collector of Mumbai suburban district and the deputy collector (land acquisition) to make a reference to the Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Authority (LARR) on the firm's application seeking enhancement of the compensation.

The company said it had filed an application in February seeking a reference under Section 64 of the Right to Fair Compensation, Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act 2013.

Brazil's President Lula da Silva addresses reporters in New Delhi on Monday. REUTERS

BRAZIL PRESIDENT LULA Inacio Lula da Silva on Monday said he hoped Chinese President Xi Jinping and Russian President Vladimir Putin attend the G20 Summit in Rio de Janeiro next year, even as he appeared to backtrack on his assurances a day earlier that Putin will not be arrested should he visit the South American country.

"We will invite them. We hope they will participate," da Silva said at a press conference, but added that it would be up to his country's judiciary to decide whether to arrest the Russian leader. Putin, as well as Xi, skipped the two-day event in New Delhi.

The Brazil President's

Summit scheduled in November 2024, "there's no way" the Russian leader will be arrested "if I'm the president".

The International Criminal Court (ICC) in March this year issued an arrest warrant against Putin for the alleged war crime of unlawfully deporting and transferring children from occupied areas of Ukraine to the Russian Federation.

Brazil is a signatory to the Rome Statute, which led to the founding of the ICC, and is bound to arrest the ICC's targets. It was to avoid arrest under this warrant that Putin avoided travel to South Africa in August this year for the BRICS Summit.

On the Russia-Ukraine conflict, Lula, the co-founder of Brazil's Workers' Party, said he is hoping for the war to end when the G20 meets in Rio. "I am rooting for the war to have ended by the time we hold the G20 in Brazil, that the people of Ukraine could have returned home, that the reconstruction has begun, that food production is normalised. That is what I want," he said. "We have a year and two months ahead of us."

On the New Delhi Leaders' Declaration, he said it is the "only way forward" and added that the realisation was now dawning that the war is tiring out humanity. He also listed out Brazil's priorities during its G20 Presidency year, from transition to clean energy to addressing inequality in gender, race, education, health and food, besides reforming existing multilateral institutions.

Decide on Godrej & Boyce plea for enhanced pay: HC

THE BOMBAY HIGH COURT on Monday directed the Maharashtra government to decide within a month an application by the Godrej & Boyce Manufacturing Company for enhanced compensation for its land acquired for the Ahmedabad-Mumbai bullet train project.

According to the application, the government granted a final award of Rs 264 crore in compensation on September 15, 2022, for acquiring 9.69 acres of the company's land. It was far less than the initial amount of Rs 572 crore that the government had offered.

A division bench of Justice

BP Colabawalla and Justice MM Sathaye was hearing a petition filed by the company seeking a direction to the collector of Mumbai suburban district and the deputy collector (land acquisition) to make a reference to the Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Authority (LARR) on the firm's application seeking enhancement of the compensation.

The company said it had filed an application in February seeking a reference under Section 64 of the Right to Fair Compensation, Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act 2013.
