REET row spirals, setting question of reckoning for Gehlot govt, Oppn BJP

CM Ashok Gehlot asserts that the Congress will retain power

DEEP MUKHERJEE JAIPUR, FEBRUARY 10

WITH LESS than two years left in his current tenure, three-term Raiasthan Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot has been asserting that the Congress will be re-elected in the state Assembly polls slated for December next year, claiming that there has not been any "antiincumbency" against the ruling party even three years after it came to power. The principal Opposition BJP, however, believes it has found an issue now that has the potential to generate "anti-incumbency" against the Gehlot government: a question paper leak scandal that has a bearing on the fate of lakhs of unemployed youths in the state.

Over the last fortnight, the Gehlot government has sacked the Rajasthan Board of Secondary Education chairman and scrapped the Rajasthan Eligibility Examination for Teachers (REET) level II examination over allegations of paper leak and other irregularities during the exam held last year.

Seizing on the REET scandal, the BJP has taken to the streets in Jaipur and other parts of the state in the last few weeks, demanding a CBI inquiry into the matter, even as the party has accused some leaders and officials close to the CM of being allegedly complicit in what it calls the "biggest scam" that has surfaced during this Congress regime.

"Unemployment is the biggest issue in the state. Unemployed youths can both form or topple a government. REET is not just an examination, it involves the fate of countless families. This is the biggest scam exposed during the tenure of the Gehlot government. We will not rest till a CBI probe is ordered," Rajasthan BJP president Satish Poonia told The Indian Express.

The controversy escalated last month after the Rajasthan Police's special operations group (SOG) confirmed, on 26 January, that a question paper of the REET level II exam was stolen from the education department office two days before the exam.

The REET is the biggest government recruitment exam in the state in terms of the number of applicants. After a gap of four years, it was held on 26 September last year, with more than 25 lakh aspirants appearing for its level I and level II exams meant for recruiting government teachers for primary and upper primary classes. The REET level I exam has not come under any paper leak cloud.

To prevent cheating in these REET exams, the Rajasthan government, in a controversial move. had even shut down internet services across the state on the exam day, which had severely inconvenienced the public and drawn fire from various quarters.

announced that fresh exams will take place in the coming months. Keeping its guns trained on the Gehlot government, the BJP Following the confirmation of the REET question paper leak, the Gehlot government initially kept its action targeted at those officials who had the responsibility of safeguarding the question paper and conducting the exams properly.

As the row snowballed, it cancelled the REET level II exam and has however stepped up its attack, asserting that the its agitation forced the Congress dispensation to scrap the REET exam, BJP MP Kirodi Lal Meena has accused technical education minister Subhash Garg of being allegedly involved in the REET scam, charging that some of the arrested accused were close to him. The saffron party has also levelled allegations against the Rajiv in the Assembly polls slated next year. Rohit Jain Paras

Gandhi Study Circle (RGSC), an organisation which has Gehlot and Garg as patrons, in the case. Both Garg and the RGSC have rubbished these allegations.

The state Congress has maintained that the REET affair will not queer the pitch for its bid to return to power for a second consecutive time.

"We have already announced that the fresh examination will have 30,000 more posts. Also, no irregularity has been found in REET level I and we will go ahead with its appointments. This is a non-issue that the BJP is raising. Even the aspirants who appeared for REET didn't want the exam to be cancelled. But they (BJP) have created so much hue and cry...Why should we take the blame for this? We don't have any involvement," Education Minister BD Kalla told The Indian Express.

Kalla said the Congress would retain power in the next Assembly elections, citing its performance in Assembly bypolls to reinforce his claim. The Congress has won five of seven seats involved in these bypolls held since 2019. It is another matter that Rajasthan, in recent past, has a tradition of voting out the incumbent government after five years.

While CM Gehlot and other Congress leaders have been praising the SOG's action, the facts that those arrested include Pradeep Parashar, REET's Jaipur coordinator appointed by the education department, and that the paper was stolen from the education department's office to be sold for over Rs 1 crore, have fuelled the BJP's bid to corner the government.

According to Ramkripal Meena, the man accused of stealing the question paper, was allegedly engaged by Parashar. And the BJP has been alleging that Parashar is an RGSC member close to Garg.

"If there is a fair investigation, there won't be any bigger scandal than this in Rajasthan. It is not possible that this could have taken place without political protection. By taking action against education department officials and arresting accused, they themselves have proved it. In October last year, they said there was no paper leak but now they have cancelled the exam. Minister Garg and RGSC are involved...It is not possible that the question paper gets leaked from the strong room without meticulous planning and involvement of insiders," the state BJP chief alleged.

The raging row seems to have even united the faction-ridden Rajasthan BJP, which has been in the throes of a protracted intraparty power struggle. BJP veteran and ex-CM Vasundhara Raje, who is known to have an uneasy equation with her state leadership, also participated in the party's protest event in Jaipur on February 8, underlining its political significance for the saffron party at this crucial stage.

REET uproar in Assembly: Four BJP MLAs suspended for rest of session

JAIPUR, FEBRUARY 10

FOUR BJP MLAs were on Thursday suspended for the rest of the seventh session of Rajasthan's 15th Legislative Assembly for disrupting the proceedings over the REET - 2021

Ever since the budget session began on Wednesday, BJP MLAs have been protesting the Rajasthan Eligibility Examination for Teachers (REET) case, demanding a CBI inquiry. On Thursday too, they continued to indulge in sloganeering in the Well of the House and waved placards, which stated their demand for a CBI inquiry.

During the debate on the Motion of Thanks on Governor's speech, the BJP MLAs kept hovering around CPI (M) MLA from Bhadra in Hanumangarh, Balwan Poonia, and waved their placards facing the cameras in the House. so as to get them into the live YouTube feed being telecast by the Assembly.

Their repeated attempts led to a confrontation between the ruling party and the BJP MLAs, with some ruling party MLAs snatching the placards and tearing them. As the members had a heated exchange and allegedly other, each was adjourned.

When the House reconvened, Parliamentary Affairs minister Shanti Dhariwal moved a proposal to suspend Chomu (Jaipur) MLA Ramlal Sharma, Ramganj Mandi Kota) MLA Madan Dilawar, Jaitaran (Pali) MLA Avinash Gehlot, and Chittorgarh MLA Chandrabhan Singh Aakya.

"Their behaviour was condemnable. We have never witnessed such behaviour in the Assembly...They surrounded his chair and waved banners, uttered expletives, and also indulged in sloganeering and disrupted his address," Dhariwal said, and moved the proposal to suspend the four BJP MLAs, which was passed by the voice vote.

The Assembly witnessed multiple adjournments on account of protest by the BJP MLAs. Earlier in the day, when proceedings of the House began at 11 am, BIP MLAs stormed to the Well, raising slogans in support of their de-

Speaker C P Joshi said, "It is unfortunate, everyone has the right to speak in democracy but the Opposition cannot impose themselves on Assembly proceedings. I strongly condemn

He said, "Till date, the House has been adjourned during the Question Hour only four times. Question Hour is never suspended. If this kind of wrong tradition is initiated, then Rajasthan's Parliamentary Democracy will be in danger and BIP will be responsible for it."

He asked the protesting MLAs to return to their seats and assured them that they will be given a chance to speak on this during the Zero

"I will also ask the government to give a statement during the Zero Hour but not if you tell me to," he said. However, the BJP MLAs continued their protest for the rest of the day whenever the House was in session.

When the House was adjourned for the day, the BJP MLAs sat on an indefinite protest in the Well.

"There has never been such a tainted moment in the history of the Assembly when the ruling party MLAs hurled abuses in the presence of women MLAs, tore placards and indulged in sloganeering saying dadagiri yun hi chalegi (the intimidation will continue)," BJP state president Satish Poonia said.

"We had questions listed for the Question Hour and also had to speak during the Adjournment Motion. But we sacrificed all this so that we can be the voice of the unemployed and that the government listens to that voice. Whatever SOG has done till now, it has a limit. Can the SOG question a minister whose name is cropping up? Can the SOG question the Chief Minister? So if there's an agency beyond this limit, it is the CBI. Hence we have been demanding the CBI inquiry," he said.

Following an assurance by the Speaker that the MLAs' suspension will be revoked on Friday, the BJP MLAs called off their indefinite protest later in the day.

REET leaks in 2016, 2018 during BJP govt probed by local police

HAMZAKHAN JAIPUR, FEBRUARY 10

Assembly proceedings on second day of gations to SOG in your tenure, the budget session demanding a CBI inquiry in the Rajasthan Eligibility Examination for Teachers-2021 (REET) paper leak case, documents accessed by The Indian Express show that under the previous BJP government, at least 25 FIRs were registered and 221 persons were arrested for paper leaks, but no case was investigated by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI).

Interestingly, three of these FIRs pertain to REET leak too, two in 2016 and one in 2018, and were investigated at the level of the local police station. In 2016, two FIRs were registered over REET 2016, one at Kotwali police station in Karauli, and another at Pratap Nagar police station in Jodhpur. A total of nine persons were arrested in both cases. A third FIR was filed at Pali's Udvogik Kshetra police station in 2018 over REET 2018, where 11 persons were arrested.

Those handed to Special Operations Group(SOG)include RAS, RJS, Lower Division Clerk (LDC) Entrance Examination in 2014. seven FIRs pertaining to Rajasthan University examinations in 2017, and two FIRs for Jail

The SOG has been investigating the REET 2021 paper leaks case.

"They did not give REET cases of 2016 and 2018 even to the SOG. They were conducted by regular police. And here a paper was leaked and you're asking for a CBI inquiry," he said.

With paper leaks being a constant issue in the state, Dhariwal said that the state will bring a Bill within this session to ensure more stringent punishment to those found guilty in paper leaks. "It's still in the drafting stages," he said.

Roughly, an examination is cancelled each year on account of leak. Between 2011 and 2020, as many as ten examinations were cancelled, mainly on account of paper leak. These include Assistant Prosecution Officer in 2011, RAS, 3rd Grade Teacher recruitment, Junior Accountant, Clerk Grade 2 in 2013, RPMT in 2014, Jail Prahari in 2016. Constable in 2018 Librarian in 2019 and Junior Engineers (JE) Civil in 2020.

Alwar 'assault': Probe stuck, minister says CBI not keen

JAIPUR, FEBRUARY 10

A MONTH after a mentally challenged girl was allegedly sexually assaulted in Alwar, the probe is at a standstill. While the Rajasthan government had recommended a CBI investigation, Law Minister Shanti Dhariwal told The Indian Express that the agency had conveyed to the state that "it will not take up the case".

The Ashok Gehlot government has been under attack from the BJP over the case. With the REET paper leak giving the BJP fresh ammunition, the Congress government has been keen that the CBI take up the Alwar investigation and the ball goes in the Centre and hence the BIP's court.

Rajasthan Police sources said the investigation so far indicates the 15-year-old was injured in a hit and run. According to one official, "There was a bus plying on the bridge (where the girl was found). The bus driver got into an argument with a passenger, who wanted to be dropped off at a different spot. As the driver applied the brakes abruptly, a delivery boy behind the bus swerved his bike to avoid the bus and hit the Doctors who treated the girl said they had not found evidence indicating sexual assault. However, with the family alleging rape and the opposition raising the issue, police have been reluctant to rule out anything, hoping the onus would fall on the CBI. The girl's statement under Section 164 of the CrPC before a magistrate is still pending. The Magistrate has referred her case to a special board to determine whether the girl, who has learning disabilities as well as speech impairment, is competent enough to depose.

The 15-year-old had been reported missing by her family who lives in Alwar district on January 11. She was found bleeding on the bridge in the city later that day, and had to undergo surgery in Jaipur. She is now stable.

Earlier, the Medical Jurist, doctors and surgeons who had operated on the girl had told The Indian Express that she had an "extensive wound" at the perineum, going to her thigh, but no signs of injuries in her private parts. Alwar SP Tejaswani Gautam said medical reports and technical evidence indicated "ki ismein dushkarm ki sambhavana nahin hai (that there is no possibility of rape in

स्थगन लगाकर देवल ने रीट की सीबीआई से जांच कराने की मांग की

जालोर। 9 फरवरी से शुरू हुए 15वीं राजस्थान विधानसभा के सातवें सत्र के दूसरे दिन रानीवाडा विधायक एवं भाजपा प्रदेश उपाध्यक्ष नारायण सिंह देवल ने स्थगन लगाकर रीट की सीबीआई जांच की मांग की। देवल ने कहा कि प्रदेश की कांग्रेस सरकार ने इस परीक्षा के सफल आयोजन का जबरदस्त ढिंढोरा पीटा। आयोजन को लेकर खुद की पीठ थपथपाने में कोई कोर कसर नहीं रखी। कभी रीटोत्सव बताया. कभी क्या बताया। ये ढकोसला सिर्फ इसलिए किया गया कि राजस्थान के इतिहास में आज तक के सबसे बड़े भ्रष्टाचार को ढ़क दिया जाये परन्तु

राजस्थान के युवाओं एवं भाजपा कार्यकर्ताओं के लगातार विरोध का नतीजा रहा कि सरकार ने ना केवल ये माना कि पेपर लीक हुआ है बल्कि ये भी माना की इसमें बड़े अधिकारी भी शामिल हैं। पहले सरकार कहती रही कि ना तो पेपर लीक हुआ है और ना ही इसमें सरकार की लिप्तता है लेकिन जैसे-जैसे एसओजी की जांच आगे बढी ना केवल बोर्ड अध्यक्ष जारोली को दोषी मानकर उसको बर्खास्त किया बल्कि और भी कई अधिकारियों को बर्खास्त किया और अन्त में मुख्यमंत्री जी ने रीट लेवल- 2 परीक्षा निरस्त भी कर दी। ये सरकार की ओर से स्वीकारोक्ति है कि रीट का पेपर लीक भी हुआ

और इसमें सरकार भी शामिल है क्योंकि बिना सरकारी संरक्षण के इतना बड़ा घोटाला करने की हिम्मत एक अधिकारी की कभी नहीं हो सकती। निश्चित रूप से इन्हें राजनीतिक संरक्षण प्राप्त था पर अब जब एसओजी की जांच सही दिशा में आगे बढ़ रही थी कि अचानक जांच छोटी मछलियों को फांसने पर केन्द्रित हो गई। सरकार नहीं चाहती कि सैकडों करोड़ के घोटाले के असली सूत्रधार सामने आये जिन्होंने ना केवल परीक्षा की पवित्रता भंग की बल्कि प्रदेश के युवाओं के साथ इतना भद्दा मजाक किया कि युवाओं का इन भर्ती संस्थाओं पर से विश्वास ही उठ गया है। राजस्थान का एक भी भर्ती बोर्ड ऐसा नहीं

नहीं पड़े हो, यहां तक की आरपीएससी भी भ्रष्ट संस्था बनकर रह गई है। प्रदेश के युवाओं के भविष्य के साथ किए जा रहे खिलवाड़ को रोकने, भर्ती बोर्ड संस्थाओं की गरिमा, गोपनीयता एवं पवित्रता पुर्नस्थापित करने के लिए मैं सदन के माध्यम से सरकार से मांग करता हूँ कि रीट की सीबीआई जांच कराई जाये ताकि दूध का दूध और पानी का पानी हो सके। अगर सरकार की संलिप्तता नहीं है तो फिर जांच से कैसा डर। सरकार के मुखिया को चाहिए कि वो खुद आगे आकर रीट की सीबीआई से जांच कराने के लिए केन्द्र सरकार को पत्र भेजे।
