As per the model, the company will align a dedicated relationship manager to a seller who will take care of all the background checks, verification, arranging meetings and paperwork while saving customers from all the hassle that they might face while selling a car on their own. Ensuring the privacy of the sellers, CARS24 will further ensure that the personal details and the car details are not shared with on the buyers until the meeting is finalised. The model will enable the customers take the final decision on the sale price of their car. Vikram Chopra, Co-founder and CEO, CARS24 said, "We are glad to introduce our new model for our customers. A seller can now sell car directly to end customers without any headache. Every seller is assigned a dedicated relationship manager who verifies all the buyers based on intent and expected price. As a result, the seller gets to sell his car at his price. Not just this, we also take care of all the paperwork while the customer sits back and relax."

Chennai, Mar 14: The Board of Axis Bank approved an investment of Rs. 600 crore in Yes Bank Ltd. This investment is part of a larger consortium comprising other Indian banks. Axis Bank will acquire 60 crore equity shares of Yes Bank (Face value Rs 2 per share) at a premium of Rs 8 per share, for a total cash investment of Rs. 600 crore. This investment will give Axis Bank a less than 5% stake in Yes Bank.

Indian private sector banks, along with State Bank of India, are bringing in patient and long-term capital at a time when the markets globally have been volatile. Majority of the bank's investment in Yes Bank will be held for a minimum period of three years. Commenting on the investment, Amitabh Chaudhry, MD & CEO, Axis Bank said, "The overall banking and financial system in India continues to remain resilient, even as the global economy is facing some challenges. Axis Bank strongly believes in the long-term prospects of the banking industry in India and we are happy to have an opportunity to contribute to the stability of the system."
