GEM Hospital to commemorate Pancreatic Disease Awareness month

Chennai, Nov 4: On the occasion of the World Pancreatic Cancer awareness month which is November, GEM Hospital, India's premier Gastroenterology, laparoscopic and Robotic surgery hospital, organised an awareness program on 1st November 2023 observing Pancreatic Awareness Month. This initiative is intended to honour the victors who successfully won their battle against various pancreatic diseases.

Dr. C. Palanivelu, Chairman & Founder, GEM Hospital said, "Pancreatic cancer is the 8th most common cancer in women and the 10th most common cancer in men. This highlights the importance of creating awareness among the public about this aggressive disease so they do not ignore the symptoms and get themselves investigated early, to receive the best possible surgical cure on time. Since 2017, robotic surgery for pancreatic cancer has been inculcated in the surgical armamentarium at this institute to offer the best possible outcomes in the quest towards pancreatic cancer cure" he further added.

Speaking on this occasion, Dr. P. Senthilnathan, Director, GEM Hospital Chennai, "Patients with known disorders like pancreatic stones, pancreatitis, pancreatic cysts & pancreatic tumors can also make use of the camp. In addition, pancreas outreach clinics are planned at various places in and around Chennai to offer world class treatment for all pancreatic diseases throughout this November".
