Private equity and venture capital fund investments in India stood at $47.6 billion in 2020, marginally higher than the previous year of $47.3 billion. Reliance Industries entitles topped the chart in 2020 with about $17.3 billion, accounting for 36 per cent of the PE/VC investments of the PENC investments in 2020. According to EY-NCA people, excluding these one-off PE investments in the RIL arms, investments in 2020 would be significantly lower at $190.2 billion, a 36 per cent. decline compared to the previous year. In terms of volume, the number of deals in 2020 declined by in per (921 deals in 2020 declined by in per deals in 2020 declined by in per deals in 2020.) One of the reasons for the relative decline in PENC investments in 2020 was the underperformance of the inflastructure and real estate sectors, with a cocurred for infrastructure and real estate sectors, which accounted for 42 per cent of all PEVC investments in 2019. In 2020, these got only $10.2 billion in investments. accounting these got only $10.2 billion in investments, accounting for just 21 per cent of the total PEPK investments. In terms of deal type, all except growth deals have recorded significant drop in investments. Buyouts were the most affected by the slowdown in PEPK.
