Ex-Trump adviser convicted of contempt of Congress

SHANKAR RAJ / Washington

Peter Navarro, a top adviser on trade to former president Donald Trump, was on Thursday found guilty of contempt for defying the House committee's investigation. He was convicted by a judge of Indian origin, Amit Mehta, for two counts of criminal contempt of Congress for defying a subpoena from the House select committee investigating the January 6, 2021, attack on the Capitol. Each count carries a maximum of one year in prison and a fine of up to $100,000. A hearing to determine his sentence has been scheduled for January.

The committee was keen on his testimony because of his frequent television appearances in which he cast doubt on the election results and peddled specious claims of voter fraud. Navarro is the second top adviser of Trump to be found guilty in connection to the committee's inquiry. Earlier, Stephen K Bannon, a former strategist for Trump was convicted of the same offense last summer. He faces four months in prison and remains free on appeal.

After the verdict, Navarro repeatedly vowed to file an appeal. "I am willing to go to prison to settle this issue, I'm willing to do that," he said. "But I also know that the likelihood of me going to prison is relatively small because we are right on this issue."

Navarro is a Harvard-trained economist and a strident critic of China. He planned and executed some of the Trump administration's most adversarial trade policies toward Beijing.

Mali military camp attacked a day after 49 civilians, 15 soldiers killed

AFP/Representative

AP / Bamako (Mali)

A military camp in Mali's restive north was attacked on Friday, a day after two separate assaults by al-Qaeda-linked insurgents killed 49 civilians and 15 government soldiers, the military said.

"Response and evaluation in progress," the armed forces said in a brief statement about Friday's attack on a Malian military camp in the Gao region.

Thursday's attacks targeted a passenger boat near the city of Timbuktu on the Niger River and a military position in Bamba further downstream in Gao, the military junta said in a statement read on state television.

It said responsibility for the attacks was claimed by JNIM, an umbrella coalition of armed groups aligned with al-Qaeda. The passenger boat was attacked near the village of Zarho, about 90 km east of Timbuktu. The statement said the government killed about 50 assailants while responding to the attacks. It declared three days of national mourning to honour the civilians and soldiers killed in the attacks.

Malian army spokesman Souleymane Dembélé attributed the high death toll to the inability of some of the boat's passengers to swim, suggesting some might have drowned. "When the boat was attacked, the soldiers on board exchanged fire with the terrorists. Unfortunately, many civilians who couldn't swim jumped into the water," Dembélé told The Associated Press.

NK says its latest sub can launch nuclear weapons

AP / Seoul

North Korea said on Friday its new submarine has nuclear attack capabilities after years of development. Leader Kim Jong Un described the milestone as crucial in his efforts to build a nuclear-armed navy to counter the United States and its Asian allies.

Korean Central News Agency said the vessel, named "Hero Kim Kun Ok," is designed to launch tactical nuclear weapons from underwater but did not specify the number of missiles it could carry and fire.
