UP assembly reverberates with chants of Jai Shri Ram

LUCKNOW

The budget session of the Uttar Pradesh assembly, on Friday, opened to chants of 'Jai Shri Ram' as all legislators of BJP and its allied parties trooped wearing saffron scarves.

OPPN LEADERS TO VISIT AYODHYA

Opposition leaders in Uttar Pradesh will be visiting the newly-inaugurated Ram temple in Ayodhya soon. The state cabinet was scheduled to visit the Ram temple on February 1, which was postponed by the government on account of heavy rush of devotees to the shrine. Opposition leaders have agreed to visit Ayodhya after the budget session of the state assembly ends on February 12. The session is scheduled to start on Friday with Governor Anandi Ben Patel's joint address to the both Houses of the Assembly. The state government is scheduled to table the budget on February 5.

The NDA members thanked Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath for the grand Ram temple in Ayodhya. Meanwhile, as soon as Governor Anandiben Patel started addressing the joint session of the state legislature, opposition members started shouting slogans against the government.

The Governor continued with her speech but nothing was audible in the din. The house was later adjourned for the day after obituary references.

Delhi school vacated after bomb threat, nothing found

NEW DELHI: The Delhi Public School in RK Puram on Friday received a bomb threat via email following which the premises were immediately vacated and a search operation launched, police said.

Deputy Commissioner of Police (southwest) Rohit Meena said nothing suspicious was found during the search.

"With the help of school management, the fire brigade team, quick response teams and the police evacuated the school and launched a search operation. A prima facie investigation suggested that it seemed to be a hoax bomb threat. We have asked our cyber unit and other teams to track the IP address of the email," he said.

"The school and hostel have been thoroughly searched by the bomb detection team (BDT) and dog squad but nothing was found suspicious by the teams. Further investigation into the matter is underway. No FIR has been registered so far," Meena told PTI.

Police said that the school received an email about two bombs on the premises around 9 am after which the administration immediately informed the police about the matter.

"More than 500 people, including students, vacated the building. We also asked the management to stay calm and arrange buses to send students and teachers back to their homes safely," Meena said, adding that the management announced an off for the day.

No immediate reaction was received from the school.

Bajrang Dal launches Hanuman Dhawj campaign in K'taka

BENGALURU: Bajrang Dal and Hindu organisations on Friday launched Hanuman Dhawj campaign across Karnataka while condemning the removal of Hanuman Dhawj in Keragodu village of Mandya district which has created controversy in the state.

Bajrang Dal said that the campaign will be carried out till February 9 and also gave a call to recite Hanuman Chalisa in front of all the offices of District Commissioners in the state.

K.R. Sunil, Bajrang Dal Karnataka South Province Coordinator said that the incident of removal of Hanuman flag in Mandya district has hurt religious feelings of Hindus.

"In order to fill the spirit and confidence among the Hindu community the campaign has been launched. We request people to hoist Hanuman flag atop every house and every temple and Hindu religious centres in the state."

"On February 9, Hanuman Chalisa will also be recited before all the District Commissioners offices," he said.

He said that the primary demand is to urge the government to hoist the Hanuman flag in Keragodu village where it was taken down.

"In case the government refuses, the campaign will continue," he said.
