The NFO of the Scheme has opened for subscription from today i.e. 20th September 2024 and shall remain open till 4th October 2024. The units under the Scheme would be allotted on 11th October 2024. The Scheme will be managed by Mr. Yogesh Patil and Mr. Mahesh Bendre. The Scheme will be benchmarked to Nifty India Manufacturing Index (Total Return Index).

The investment objective of the Scheme is to achieve long-term capital appreciation by predominantly investing in equity and equity-related instruments of companies following manufacturing theme. There is no assurance that the investment objective of the Scheme will be achieved. During the NFO the minimum amount for application /switch in shall be Rs. 5,000/- and in multiples of Re.1 thereafter.

The Scheme aims to provide a diversified portfolio of Companies that which comes under the ambit of manufacturing theme, including but not limited to automobiles, pharmaceuticals, chemicals, heavy engineering products, metals, shipbuilding, and petroleum products etc.

Commenting on the New Fund Offer, Mr. R K Jha, Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer, LIC Mutual

Fund, said: "India's robust GDP growth, rapid urbanization, the growing middle-class population, the government's export incentives and policy initiatives like Production Linked Incentive scheme and 'Make-in-India' are driving demand for manufactured goods. Consequently, the country is largely being developed as a manufacturing hub for the world. Further, manufacturing has a major role to play in making India a $5-trillion economy by 2027. As a result, the investors in the manufacturing theme may benefit from the current positive outlook for the constituent sectors."

Yogesh Patil, Chief Investment Officer -Equity, LIC Mutual Fund, said "Over the past two decades, India's Gross Value Added from the manufacturing sector has grown at a slower pace, with economic growth largely driven by consumption and services. However, this is expected to change, as government reforms aim to position India's manufacturing as a key engine of economic growth. Initiatives such as 'Make in India', 'Atmanirbhar Bharat' and the Production Linked Incentive schemes, combined with global supply chain shifts is leading towards India through 'China +1' and 'Europe +1' opportunities. These efforts are anticipated to unlock potential across allied sectors, driving comprehensive economic growth and position India as a global manufacturing hub."

SBI pensioners demand 10-year commutation, refund of excess amount

Chennai, Sep 21: Over 1.5 lakh SBI pensioners are a deprived and disillusioned lot as far as commutation factor and restoration period is concerned. According to D Singaravelu, former State Bank Staff Union (CC),ex-Deputy General Secretary, All India SBI Staff Federation and former vice president, National Confederation of Bank Employees, there is a disparity in commutation calculation between SBI pensioners and other PSU bank pensioners which is like the proverbial 'Oru Kannil Vennai, Oru Kannil Sunnambu' (Butter in one eye, Lime in the other).

The veteran trade unionist went on to say that as per extant instructions in SBI, Commutation Factor, for those retirees on superannuation (on completion of 60 years of age), has been determined as 6.6. Accordingly, for the surrender value of Rs.10,000 from the Basic Pension of Rs.30,000, for commutation purpose, the Bank pays to the retiree a sum of Rs.7.92 lakh and the amount is being recovered at Rs.10,000 per month in 15 years (180 months). The SBI pensioners are leaving no stone unturned in getting their legitimate rights established through various means, but to no avail.

Expressing concern of how SBI pensioners are taken for ride in the name of commutation, Singaravelu said that when the commuted amount of Rs.7.92 lakh is deposited in long term deposit (special - without opting for interest payment till maturity) for 15 years, at the interest rate of 8.50% p.a., the maturity value would be Rs.27,96,722. If we consider the monthly deduction of Rs.10,000 as monthly investment in Recurring Deposit for 15 years, at the interest rate of 8.50% p.a., the maturity value would be Rs.36,23,986.

When the commuted amount of Rs.7.92 lakh is deposited in long term deposit (special - without opting for interest payment till maturity) for 10 years, at the interest rate of 8.50% p.a., the maturity value would be Rs.18,36,572. If we consider the monthly deduction of Rs.10,000 as monthly investment in Recurring Deposit for 10 years, at the interest rate of 8.50% p.a., the maturity value would be Rs.18,88,298.

Further, he pointed out that investing of the commuted amount in STDR for 15 years would yield much less than that of investment of monthly deductions of Rs.10,000 as monthly instalments in Recurring Deposit for 15 years (Difference of Rs.8,27,264. Besides, investing of the commuted amount in STDR for 10 years would yield a lesser amount than that of investment of monthly deductions of Rs.10,000 as monthly instalments in Recurring Deposit for 10 years (Difference of Rs.51,726).

Comparing the commutation factor with other PSU bank pensioners, he said that for them commutation factor is determined as 9.81, which means that they are getting a sum of Rs.11,77,200 as commutation amount for the surrender value of Rs.10,000 and the same is more than that of retirees from SBI by Rs.3,85,200. The other Banks are also keeping the restoration period as 15 years (180 months), while the commutation factor is much higher than that of SBI.

In this piquant situation, M Kaliamoorthi, State Secretary, Association of Central Committee Members of SBSU (AFCCoM) said that based on the proven facts, SBI administration must review the existing commutation factor and the restoration period and come to a rationale conclusion to reduce the restoration period for the existing pensioners to 10 years from the existing period of 15 years and commutation factor has to be increased considerably for the SBI retirees in the future. Likewise, the recoveries already made towards the commuted amount beyond 10 years may please be refunded to the respective pensioners with reasonable interest @ 8.50% p.a.
