More than a month after the onset of the monsoon, the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) continues to drag its feet over the survey of the unsafe buildings in the city amid concern over such incidents and criticism over the lack of monsoon preparedness. The civic body has al-

The deadline was then shifted to July 15. As of July 4, the civic body had only completed the survey of the South Zone, identifying four dangerous buildings.

On being asked about the progress made on the survey, the civic body on Tuesday said that 67 dangerous buildings have been identified so far and that the survey is going to take some time before it reaches completion. On being asked how many houses have been inspected so far, the officials refused to respond.

FIT CASE FOR RECOMMENDATION TO DISSOLVE MCD, SAYS HIGH COURT

Officers think doing work is crime: HC slams MCD after woman, son drown in open drain think doing their work is a crime' — this was one of the many sharp remarks that the High Court delivered on Tuesday, days after a woman and her three-year-old son drowned after slipping into an open drain in Delhi's Mayur Vihar as the city received an intense spell of rain. Lambasting the civic body, the High Court stressed that "there is a limit to (the) negligence," as it went on to say — "....it is a fit case for us to recommend the government to dissolve MCD." The court also slammed the Delhi Development Authority (DDA), and the MCD for not taking accountability in the matter as it raised questions over jurisdictional "blackholes"

The bench of Acting Chief Justice Manmohan and Justice Tushar Rao Gedela, which was hearing a public interest litigation related to the July 31 incident, sought a status report on the progress of the police investigation as it said that the police should have seized files of MCD and DDA. The court has also called for a status report from MCD and DDA within a week as it slammed the MCD for failing to barricade open drains.

"Two lives were lost to understand the gravity of the situation...every day we are losing lives due to negligence," the Acting Chief Justice underlined.

The court also asked the civic body to immediately conduct a vigilance inquiry.
Acting Chief Justice

Manmohan, addressing MCD Deputy Commissioner Anshul Sirohi, orally remarked, "What is the problem in barricading? You should've done it on your own. There's some limit to negligence. He must go to jail for all these. These drains can't be left unbarri-

"Please speak the truth at least in court. If you're cleaning it on a daily weekly or monthly basis how has it reached this stage? If this is the level of cleaning, it is a sad state of affairs... you need not be in service. This (has not been cleaned) for months, if not years. None of your seniors have the guts to take action against you. The whole city has to suffer because of you...," he said, referring to photos of waste piled around in the area.

The Acting Chief Justice went on to say, "Are these genuine contracts (for repair and cleaning of drains)? This (MCD) has become a cozy club... you go have a cup of tea, and come back....whether we have him or not (in MCD), it can't be worse than this... These people are beyond redemption, they're big bosses....I think it is a fit case for us to recommend the government to dissolve MCD.'

court that while the bodies were found in the drain that falls under its iurisdiction, the woman and the son fell in the drain unActing Chief Justice Manmohan orally questioned why such jurisdictional "blackholes" are continuing. The DDA informed the court that it had handed over part of the drain and the road along it to MCD in April 2023. Referring to pictures of the site, the court expressed shock. "Why can't this place be cleaned up. What have they (the contractor responsible for maintaining the drain) done? It seems it has not been cleaned for a year," ACJ Manmohan orally remarked, questioning the MCD.

"Suppose there is another shower, there will be another incident...these people (DDA and MCD) are fighting among them selves....You have a vigilance department in MCD. Have you asked them to verify the bills (of the contractor)? You are asking us to go to extreme steps...You don't have the courage to take action... no wonder we have dengue, chikungunya...." he said

The matter is set to be heard next on August 22.
