In this regard, this is to inform that a hearing in this matter took place on August 22, 2024 and the Honorable High Court of Delhi has ordered to restore the physical possession of all the seven properties in question with Company subject to the order of attachment dated January 17, 2020. However, aforesaid attachment would continue till conclusion of the matter. The Appellate Tribunal, PMLA in 2020 had restored the physical possession of all the seven properties in question in favour of the Company which the ED had appealed in the Honorable High Court of Delhi. The Honorable Court has further directed that Rs.11.13 crores which is lying deposited with the Department shall be deposited in a separate interest bearing fixed deposit, details of which shall be filed before the Appellate Tribunal.
