BHOPAL

A construction contractor allegedly laid a honey trap for a senior officer posted at the Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited (BHEL) in mid-August, acquainting him with two women in a hotel, and later began blackmailing him with objectionable video recordings demanding Rs 25 lakh.

After receiving the amount, he sought Rs 5 lakh and also took him to Jabalpur, where he made him transfer Rs 1.5 lakh more to his bank account. Upon their return to the city on Tuesday, the victim approached the police.

Even after 3 months of LS poll, master plan draft not released

Our Staff Reporter

BHOPAL

Three months have passed since the Model Code of Conduct was lifted, but the government has yet to release the draft master plan. The government claimed that it would release the draft master plans of Bhopal and Indore in June. Although September has begun, it is not known when the draft master plans of these two cities will be released. According to sources, the draft master plan is ready, but releasing the master plans of these two cities is getting delayed. In February 2024, Urban Development Minister Kailash Vijayvargiya cancelled the draft master plan because of opposition by public representatives. Then it was said that the draft master plan would be released in May. As the master plan was in vogue, the government said that the draft master plans would be released in June. Nevertheless, the draft master plans got stuck for one reason or other. Vijayvargiya finalised the draft from his side. In the past few years, the master plans were ready, but they were cancelled. This time, too, the master plans were ready, but they are not being released.
