THE SHAREHOLDERS OF ITC have approved a proposal to demerge its hotels business into ITC Hotels with 99.59% votes in favour. This also paves the way for listing of ITC Hotels.

The scheme of arrangement of ITC and ITC Hotels has been passed by the members with requisite majority, the Kolkatabased company said in a regulatory update on Thursday.

ITC will list ITC Hotels after the completion of the demerger process and on receipt of regulatory approvals.

Earlier in August 2023, ITC received board approval for the demerger of its hotels business

■ Shareholders approved the demerger with 99.59% votes in favour

■ ITC Hotels to be listed post demerger completion, regulatory approvals

ing on June 6 to get approval. Under the demerger, shareholders would get one share of the hotels' business for every 10 shares held in ITC. No cash consideration would be paid under the scheme. Following the

Earlier, proxy advisory firm Institutional Investor Advisory Services (IiAS) had asked shareholders to vote against the proposal, while two others—Stakeholders Empowerment Services (SES) and InGovern Research Services—had asked investors to support the move.

With ITC continuing to hold 40% of the hotels business, and its existing 13.69% holding in EIH and 7.58% equity in HLV, the transaction does not provide a complete exit from the hotels business to ITC's shareholders, IiAS said in a note to shareholders. EIH was formerly East India Hotels, while HLV was earlier known as Hotel Leela Venture.

SES had a "for" recommendation for the resolution as no concern was identified. InGovern also supported the move stating the hotels business was now ready to chart its own growth path.

BigBasket to add electronics to quick commerce pack

ONLINE GROCERY FIRM Big-Basket is in talks with its sister company Croma to sell electronics through its quick commerce arm BB Now.

"We will hopefully strike a deal soon with our sister company Croma," Hari Menon, cofounderand CEO, BigBasket said on Thursday at India Global Innovation Connect summit in Bengaluru. He added that quick commerce will become multicategory and a more horizontal play than a vertical play. "That's what we have seen across players. Imagine getting a washing machine delivered in 10 minutes. Maybe 10 minutes would be difficult, say, maybe 20 minutes," Menon said.

Menon also spoke about how quick commerce has changed the buying habits of customers. "People don't want to wait anymore. Or plan anymore." He added that even a category like grocery, which is planned much in advance, is today delivered in minutes. "There is no pantry stocking anymore," he said. In March this year, the Tata

Group-backed company announced that the firm will turn profitable in another 6-8 months once the its quick commerce business 'BB Now' turns profitable. Menon is also hopeful of the massive benefits open network for digital commerce (ONDC) will bring in. He said that it will be a game-changer for small sellers.

"Flipkart has scaled well since its inception in 2007. It's here to stay and it's a company that will reach the levels we were talking about. JioMart is another company that will start scaling," he said.

ITC shareholders approve hotels business demerger

RAJESH KURUP Mumbai, June 6

THE SHAREHOLDERS OF ITC have approved a proposal to demerge its hotels business into ITC Hotels with 99.59% votes in favour. This also paves the way for listing of ITC Hotels.

The scheme of arrangement of ITC and ITC Hotels has been passed by the members with requisite majority, the Kolkatabased company said in a regulatory update on Thursday.

ITC will list ITC Hotels after the completion of the demerger process and on receipt of regulatory approvals.

ITC will list ITC Hotels after the completion of the demerger process and on receipt of regulatory approvals.

EIH was formerly East India Hotels, while HLV was earlier known as Hotel Leela Venture.

SES had a "for" recommendation for the resolution as no concern was identified. InGovern also supported the move stating the hotels business was now ready to chart its own growth path.

ITC shareholders approve hotels business demerger

RAJESH KURUP Mumbai, June 6

THE SHAREHOLDERS OF ITC have approved a proposal to demerge its hotels business into ITC Hotels with 99.59% votes in favour. This also paves the way for listing of ITC Hotels.

The scheme of arrangement of ITC and ITC Hotels has been passed by the members with requisite majority, the Kolkatabased company said in a regulatory update on Thursday.

ITC will list ITC Hotels after the completion of the demerger process and on receipt of regulatory approvals. Earlier in August 2023, ITC received board approval for the demerger of its hotels business

EIH was formerly East India Hotels, while HLV was earlier known as Hotel Leela Venture.

SES had a "for" recommendation for the resolution as no concern was identified. InGovern also supported the move stating the hotels business was now ready to chart its own growth path.

ONLINE GROCERY FIRM Big-Basket is in talks with its sister company Croma to sell electronics through its quick commerce arm BB Now.

"We will hopefully strike a deal soon with our sister company Croma," Hari Menon, cofounder and CEO, BigBasket said on Thursday at India Global Innovation Connect summit in Bengaluru. He added that quick commerce will become multicategory and a more horizontal play than a vertical play. "That's what we have seen across players. Imagine getting a washing machine delivered in 10 minutes. Maybe 10 minutes would be difficult, say, maybe 20 minutes,"Menon said.

Menon also spoke about how quick commerce has changed the buying habits of customers. "People don't want to wait anymore. Or plan anymore."He added that even a category like grocery, which is planned much in advance, is today delivered in minutes. "There is no pantry stocking anymore," he said. In March this year, the Tata

Group-backed company announced that the firm will turn profitable in another 6-8 months once the its quick commerce business 'BB Now' turns profitable. Menon is also hopeful of the massive benefits open network for digital commerce (ONDC) will bring in. He said that it will be a game-changer for small sellers.

"Flipkart has scaled well since its inception in 2007. It's here to stay and it's a company that will reach the levels we were talking about. JioMart is another company that will start scaling," he said.

BENGALURU

RAJESH KURUP Mumbai, June 6

THE SHAREHOLDERS OF ITC have approved a proposal to demerge its hotels business into ITC Hotels with 99.59% votes in favour. This also paves the way for listing of ITC Hotels.

The scheme of arrangement of ITC and ITC Hotels has been passed by the members with requisite majority, the Kolkatabased company said in a regulatory update on Thursday.

ITC will list ITC Hotels after the completion of the demerger process and on receipt of regulatory approvals.

Earlier in August 2023, ITC received board approval for the demerger of its hotels business and use of ITC brand name. In May, the NCLT directed ITC to convene a shareholders' meeting on June 6 to get approval. Under the demerger, shareholders would get one share of the hotels' business for every 10 shares held in ITC. No cash consideration would be paid under the scheme. Following the demerger, ITC will own 40% in ITC Hotels, while 60% will be held by shareholders in proportion to their ownership in the parent entity.

Earlier, proxy advisory firm Institutional Investor Advisory Services (IiAS) had asked shareholders to vote against the proposal, while two others—Stakeholders Empowerment Services (SES) and InGovern Research Services—had asked investors to support the move.

With ITC continuing to hold 40% of the hotels business, and its existing 13.69% holding in EIH and 7.58% equity in HLV, the transaction does not provide a complete exit from the hotels business to ITC's shareholders, IiAS said in a note to shareholders. EIH was formerly East India Hotels, while HLV was earlier known as Hotel Leela Venture.

SES had a "for" recommendation for the resolution as no concern was identified. InGovern also supported the move stating the hotels business was now ready to chart its own growth path.

BigBasket to add electronics to quick commerce pack

FE BUREAU Bengaluru, June 6

ONLINE GROCERY FIRM Big-Basket is in talks with its sister company Croma to sell electronics through its quick commerce arm BB Now.

"We will hopefully strike a deal soon with our sister company Croma," Hari Menon, cofounder and CEO, BigBasket said on Thursday at India Global Innovation Connect summit in Bengaluru. He added that quick commerce will become multicategory and a more horizontal play than a vertical play. "That's what we have seen across players. Imagine getting a washing machine delivered in 10 minutes. Maybe 10 minutes would be difficult, say, maybe 20 minutes," Menon said.

Menon also spoke about how quick commerce has changed the buying habits of customers. "People don't want to wait anymore. Or plan anymore." He added that even a category like grocery, which is planned much in advance, is today delivered in minutes. "There is no pantry stocking anymore," he said. In March this year, the Tata

Group-backed company announced that the firm will turn profitable in another 6-8 months once the its quick commerce business 'BB Now' turns profitable. Menon is also hopeful of the massive benefits open network for digital commerce (ONDC) will bring in. He said that it will be a game-changer for small sellers.

"Flipkart has scaled well since its inception in 2007. It's here to stay and it's a company that will reach the levels we were talking about. JioMart is another company that will start scaling," he said.

ONLINE GROCERY FIRM Big-Basket is in talks with its sister company Croma to sell electronics through its quick commerce arm BB Now.

"We will hopefully strike a deal soon with our sister company Croma," Hari Menon, cofounder and CEO, BigBasket said on Thursday at India Global Innovation Connect summit in Bengaluru. He added that quick commerce will become multicategory and a more horizontal play than a vertical play. "That's what we have seen across players. Imagine getting a washing machine delivered in 10 minutes. Maybe 10 minutes would be difficult, say, maybe 20 minutes,"Menon said.

Menon also spoke about how quick commerce has changed the buying habits of customers. "People don't want to wait anymore. Or plan anymore."He added that even a category like grocery, which is planned much in advance, is today delivered in minutes. "There is no pantry stocking anymore," he said.

In March this year, the Tata Group-backed company announced that the firm will turn profitable in another 6-8 months once the its quick commerce business 'BB Now' turns profitable. Menon is also hopeful of the massive benefits open network for digital commerce (ONDC) will bring in. He said that it will be a game-changer for small sellers.

"Flipkart has scaled well since its inception in 2007. It's here to stay and it's a company that will reach the levels we were talking about. JioMart is another company that will start scaling," he said.

THE SHAREHOLDERS OF ITC have approved a proposal to demerge its hotels business into ITC Hotels with 99.59% votes in favour. This also paves the way for listing of ITC Hotels.

The scheme of arrangement of ITC and ITC Hotels has been passed by the members with requisite majority, the Kolkatabased company said in a regulatory update on Thursday.

ITC will list ITC Hotels after the completion of the demerger process and on receipt of regulatory approvals.

Earlier in August 2023, ITC received board approval for the demerger of its hotels business

With ITC continuing to hold 40% of the hotels business, and its existing 13.69% holding in EIH and 7.58% equity in HLV, the transaction does not provide a complete exit from the hotels business to ITC's shareholders, IiAS said in a note to shareholders. EIH was formerly East India Hotels, while HLV was earlier known as Hotel Leela Venture.

SES had a "for" recommendation for the resolution as no concern was identified. InGovern also supported the move stating the hotels business was now ready to chart its own growth path.

BigBasket to add electronics to quick commerce pack

FE BUREAU Bengaluru, June 6

ONLINE GROCERY FIRM Big-Basket is in talks with its sister company Croma to sell electronics through its quick commerce arm BB Now.

"We will hopefully strike a deal soon with our sister company Croma," Hari Menon, cofounder and CEO, BigBasket said on Thursday at India Global Innovation Connect summit in Bengaluru. He added that quick commerce will become multicategory and a more horizontal play than a vertical play. "That's what we have seen across players. Imagine getting a washing machine delivered in 10 minutes. Maybe 10 minutes would be difficult, say, maybe 20 minutes,"Menon said.

Menon also spoke about how quick commerce has changed the buying habits of customers. "People don't want to wait anymore. Or plan anymore."He added that even a category like grocery, which is planned much in advance, is today delivered in minutes. "There is no pantry stocking anymore," he said.

In March this year, the Tata Group-backed company announced that the firm will turn profitable in another 6-8 months once the its quick commerce business 'BB Now' turns profitable. Menon is also hopeful of the massive benefits open network for digital commerce (ONDC) will bring in. He said that it will be a game-changer for small sellers.

"Flipkart has scaled well since its inception in 2007. It's here to stay and it's a company that will reach the levels we were talking about. JioMart is another company that will start scaling," he said.

ONLINE GROCERY FIRM Big-Basket is in talks with its sister company Croma to sell electronics through its quick commerce arm BB Now.

"We will hopefully strike a deal soon with our sister company Croma," Hari Menon, cofounder and CEO, BigBasket said on Thursday at India Global Innovation Connect summit in Bengaluru. He added that quick commerce will become multicategory and a more horizontal play than a vertical play. "That's what we have seen across players. Imagine getting a washing machine delivered in 10 minutes. Maybe 10 minutes would be difficult, say, maybe 20 minutes,"Menon said.

Menon also spoke about how quick commerce has changed the buying habits of customers. "People don't want to wait anymore. Or plan anymore."He added that even a category like grocery, which is planned much in advance, is today delivered in minutes. "There is no pantry stocking anymore," he said.

In March this year, the Tata Group-backed company announced that the firm will turn profitable in another 6-8 months once the its quick commerce business 'BB Now' turns profitable. Menon is also hopeful of the massive benefits open network for digital commerce (ONDC) will bring in. He said that it will be a game-changer for small sellers.

"Flipkart has scaled well since its inception in 2007. It's here to stay and it's a company that will reach the levels we were talking about. JioMart is another company that will start scaling," he said.
