MARWAH ALSO SAYS that he sees discounts rising during the festive season, with combo offers likely to be higher this year versus last year for large appliances as manufacturers look to bundle TVs with refrigerators, washing machines or air conditioners to drive sales.

"Dealer inquiries have been growing in the run-up to the Dussehra-Diwali period. For us, the attention is on the larger television screens, our smart TV portfolio, 4K TVs as well as higher-capacity washing machines and air conditioners because we expect much of the sales action to be there," Marwah said. A report by Crisil notes that domestic consumer durables makers will see revenue growth of about 9-10% this financial year (FY25), supported by premiumisation in the market. This will be on the back of a volumeled, post-pandemic growth of about 15-18% seen in the previous fiscal years.
