Mahila Congress to launch statewide 'Kharche Pe Charcha' campaign

Mumbai, Sept 6 (UND) : To awaken the BJP government on inflation issue, the women's wing of Congress party will launch a statewide 'Kharche Pe Charcha' campaign, said national president Lakha Lamba on Friday.

Addressing media here, he said that in midst of ongoing festive season, inflation has skyrocketed, disrupting the household budgets of ordinary families. With the rise of prices of fuel, cooking gas cylinders and grains, it has become difficult for homemakers to run their households, he said. She alleged that on eve of election, the BJP deceives women by promising to bring down inflation.

Due to rising prices of essential commodities, the festive spirit has dampened, leaving the public distressed, she said.

While criticising the BJP government, she stated that the Congress had promised to deposit Rs one lakh annually into accounts of poor women if they came to power. Although the Congress could not form the government at the Centre, she informed that in Telangana, the state government has been depositing Rs 2,500 monthly into women's bank accounts, similarly in Karnataka and Himachal Pradesh Rs 2,000 and Rs 1,500 have been given, respectively.

She said that as soon as the Congress came to power, they launched the 'Mahalakshmi Yojana' for women, however, the BJP coalition government in Maharashtra has launched the 'Ladli Bala' scheme with an eye on state assembly election to deceive women, she claimed and alleged that this scheme is plagued by corruption. Banks have withdrawn money from many women's accounts, citing insufficient funds, she further claimed and said that one person fraudulently filed 30 applications in his wife's name to siphon off the funds. The government is wasting crores of rupees from the state treasury on advertisements for this scheme, she charged. To awaken the BJP government on the issue of inflation, the Kharche Pe Charcha' campaign has been launched by banging empty plates.

This campaign will be carried out in all 288 assembly constituencies of the state and began today from the Versova and Chembur assembly constituencies in Mumbai, added Ms. Lamba. On the occasion, Mumbai Congress president and MP Varsha Gakwad stated that inflation and women's safety are crucial issues. The women's Congress will raise its voice against the BJP government and take the Kharche Pe Charcha' campaign to every household, she added.

HC transfers ex-Shiv Sena (UBT) corporator Ghosalkar murder case to CBI

Mumbai, Sept 6 (UND) : In a major development, the Bombay High Court on Friday transferred the investigation of former Shiv Sena (UBT) corporator Abhishek Ghosalkar to the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI). The court today allowed a plea by Tejavee Ghosalkar, widow of Abhishek Ghosalkar, while directing the Mumbai Police to hand over the investigation papers to CBI at the earliest within two weeks and further directed the zonal director of CBI to appoint an IPS-grade officer to the rank of superintendent of police to investigate the case. It also said that the CBI is at liberty to appoint the team of officers. While handing over investigation to the central agency, the court observed that all "angles in the case are not probed" and "such lapses cannot be allowed to continue as it will result in miscarriage of justice".

SDPI hold protest against hateful politics, mob violence against Muslims

Chhatrapati Sambhajinar, Sep 6 (UND) Social Democratic Party of India (SDPI) on Friday held a statewide protest against growing politics of hatred and incidents of mob violence against Muslims in Maharashtra. A strong protest was held here in front of the district collector's office here. The main objective of the agitation was to protest the violence against Muslims in Maharashtra, especially lynching and the communal hatred being spread by some politicians. The SDPI leaders strongly condemned the statements of BJP MLA Nitesh Rane and Ramgiri Maharaj, who were accused of spreading hatred against Muslims. Speaking on this occasion, Maharashtra SDPI president Syed Kalim said, "Rising communal and mob violence in Maharashtra is a threat to peace and unity in the state. People like Rane, Ramgiri Maharaj are fuelling this hatred. We demand the state government to stop these incidents immediately and take strict action against the culprits."

First solar park under MSKVY 2.0 starts generation to provide day-time power to farmers

Chhatrapati Sambhajinar, Sept 6 (UND) : With the first solar park of three mega watt capacity being activated at Dhondalgaon village in the district under the Mukhyamantri Saur Krishi Yojana 2.0 (MSKVY 2.0), 1,753 farmers will get day-time power supply from the project. MSKVY 2.0, being implemented under the leadership of Deputy Chief Minister and Energy Minister Devendra Fadnis, is the largest renewable energy distribution project in the world to benefit farmers, Lokesh Chandra, chairman and managing director (CMD) of Maharashtra State Electricity Distribution Company Limited (MSEDCL), stated in an official press release here on Friday. The solar energy project, which started power generation on Thursday, is developed on 13-acre public land at Dhondalgaon, about three km from the electricity substation of MSEDCL. It is connected to 33 KV substation of Dhondalgaon and it will be used to provide day-time power supply to 1,753 agriculture pumps connected to five electric feeders.
