After navigating a challenging year, we have emerged stronger and more resilient. This year marks a pivotal point in our growth journey, setting the stage for the future as momentum builds across multiple segments.

Despite short-term macroeconomic challenges, we have successfully retained all our customers. Our existing US customer base is shifting from 'destocking' to 'restocking' mode at varying rates, underscoring the strength of our long-standing customer relationships. Additionally, our recent wins in the industrial, clean energy, and auto sectors with leading US companies are progressing from design or prototype stages to commercial and ramp-up production this year. The US, our major export geography, remains one of the largest markets in the world. With over two decades of presence, strong customer relationships, and a fortified balance sheet, we are well-positioned to fully capitalize on our market opportunities. Our pipeline is brimming with potential.

In the fast-growing Indian market, our intensified focus over the last 1-2 years has led to key wins in the industrial, power, rail, aero, clean energy, communication and defence sectors, which we believe will advance to commercial production over the course of this year. We are excited to seize the tremendous growth opportunities now unfolding in this vibrant domestic market.

We are laying the groundwork that will drive our growth. We are expanding our infrastructure and capabilities by adding two more units in India to meet the growing demand from both export and domestic markets. MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN & MANAGING DIRECTOR

KUNHAMED BICHA
Chairman & Managing Director

Dear Shareholders,

I am pleased to reach out to you with our 25th Annual Report, that underscores an important milestone in our journey of manufacturing excellence. This also marks the completion of the 1st year of operations post our listing. We are grateful for your steadfast support and commitment, which have been instrumental in our journey. We are dedicated to upholding and nurturing the confidence you have placed in us as we move forward.

25 YEARS OF MANUFACTURING EXCELLENCE

As a leading player in the Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS) sector with a worldwide presence, Avalon Technologies has a strong and distinctive edge that has helped in carving out a prominent position for itself in the industry. Today, as we mark 25 years of delivering manufacturing excellence to our growing clientele, we take pride in our reputation for high-mix, flexible-volume production. This equips us to cater to a wide array of industries with complex, integrated solutions that demand substantial engineering expertise. Our operations currently encompass 14 manufacturing sites across India and the United States, which includes two additional units in India, set to begin operations soon. These expansions, catering to our growing domestic and export demands, will position us to advance toward greater horizons of growth and development.

Avalon Technologies excels in its global outreach, with 54% of our revenue originating from the US. Our US manufacturing presence plays a crucial role as it acts as a gateway to acquiring customers. This has allowed us to gain a deep understanding of operating in a globally interconnected economy. Our US Operations functions as our “front end,” streamlining customer onboarding and serves as a “Beachhead” to expand our market footprint. Our presence in export markets historically provided us with a competitive edge; however, it exposed us to regional economic headwinds, such as the temporary macro-economic challenges we experienced during the Fiscal Year 2023-24.

A REVIEW OF FISCAL YEAR 2023-24

The Fiscal Year 2023-24 brought with it, a combination of challenges for the industry, particularly in the US economic landscape. Around this time last year, when we anticipated the destocking by our established US customers, we adopted a more prudent stance for the Fiscal Year 2023-24. These ongoing difficulties in the US market resulted in a decline in our US operations, leading to losses that temporarily overshadowed the strong performance of our Indian operations. The 8% decrease in revenue that we eventually reported in Fiscal Year 2023-24 was largely attributable to a 16% year-on-year reduction in our US revenue.

There are signs of recovery as our existing US customers have begun restocking at varying levels. Further, our focused efforts in the Indian market will soon start showing results. This combined progress is expected to lead to a significant momentum in Fiscal Year 2024-25. We would like to reiterate that we are seeing our anticipated growth materialize sooner rather than later.

Our operating leverage was negatively impacted by lower revenues and higher fixed costs, which further reduced our profitability. Nevertheless, our manufacturing operations in India, which cater to both our domestic and international clientele accounting for about 77% of our business, continued to be highly profitable. During the Fiscal Year 2023-24, our Indian operations maintained robust operating margins of 12.7% and Profit After Tax (PAT) margins of 8.5%.

Notwithstanding the challenging macro environment, Avalon posted an 11% year-on-year increase in its order book, reaching INR 1,366 crores as at the end of the Financial Year, which are executable over an average period of 14 months and saw a 58% year-on-year growth in long-term contracts, totalling INR 949 crores, which provides a healthy visibility for the next two to three years.

We would also like to share that our focused efforts on inventory management led to a marginal reduction in our absolute inventory levels in the latter half of Fiscal Year 2023-24. We are also on course to decrease our net working capital days by 10 to 15 days in Fiscal Year 2024-25, which will add to the overall efficiency of the organization.

Notwithstanding the challenging macro environment, Avalon posted an 11% year-on-year increase in its order book, reaching INR 1,366 crores as at the end of the Financial Year, with fulfilment expected over the next 14 months and saw a 58% year-on-year growth in long-term contracts, totalling INR 949 crores, which provides a healthy visibility for the next two to three years.

Furthermore we are addressing the short-term challenges in the U.S. to enhance our operational efficiency through two strategic initiatives. Firstly, we are implementing cost rationalization measures in our US Operations. Optimization of personnel cost continues to be a key driving factor and the results of the same will be visible in the coming quarters. Additionally, we successfully transferred 45-50% of production from our US Plant to our India Plant, including the manufacturing for key US customers that represented a significant portion of our US revenue. We expect to see continued benefits from this strategy as we execute the remaining transfers during the Fiscal Year 2024-25.

We strengthened our management team considerably during the Fiscal Year 2023-24. Mr. Shriram Vijayaraghavan joined as our new Group Chief Operating Officer, bringing valuable operational experience from his previous leadership roles at major companies. Mr. Venky Venkatesh, who joined as our new Chief Sales Officer, has three decades of experience in leading successful global sales teams and securing large contracts in our target verticals.

On the infrastructure front, we are pleased to report that we have completed a new plant in Chennai dedicated to export operations and are in the process of starting production. Additionally, concerning our Brownfield expansion in Chennai to meet the growing domestic demand, Phase 1 is complete, and Phase 2 is expected to commence in the second half of Fiscal Year 2024-25.

In summary, we have successfully navigated a challenging year, and we anticipate a recovery in H1, followed by increased momentum in H2 of Fiscal Year 2024-25. The outlook for the coming years looks promising, with Fiscal Year 2024-25 being crucial for our growth trajectory.

OUR ROADMAP FOR GROWTH

The prospects for the future, as evident, are strong, and Avalon is well-positioned to maximize the opportunities to drive long-term growth and value creation. We have identified three growth engines for the future and are continually reinforcing the same to push the bar of our performance going forward.

Our first growth engine is our existing industry leading customers in the US with whom we maintain long-standing relationships. We believe this will play an important role in our growth strategy as we forge ahead towards greater scale. Inventory reductions and macroeconomic uncertainties caused this segment to encounter substantial challenges in the Fiscal Year 2023-24. We now believe that the inventory destocking phase has bottomed out, with our US clients entering a re-stocking phase, albeit at different levels. A few of them have already reached 100% of their original offtake, and we expect that the transition from de-stocking to re-stocking will become more pronounced in the second half of Fiscal Year 2024-25. Coupled with our efforts to increase our wallet share of customer spending, this is already beginning to yield positive results for our Company.

Our second engine of growth is the acquisition of new customers in the US. Regarding one of our major clean energy customers, we are pleased to announce that the long-awaited product compliance certification for the home electrification system has been approved, and as previously conveyed, we expect the commercial rollout to commence towards the end of the first half of Fiscal Year 2024-25, with ramp-up in production projected for the second half of the year. We anticipate this business to gain enhanced scale in Fiscal Year 2025-26, thus paving the way for the Company to boost its growth momentum. Going forward, we also expect to reap the benefits of the boost in clean energy manufacturing, which the US customers and their end-users are set to derive from the Inflation Reduction Act (IRA).

Coming now to the third engine of our growth, our Indian customer base has emerged as another strong propeller for steering the Company's future performance. From a primarily export-driven business five years ago, when about 75% of our revenue came from outside India, Avalon has consciously shifted its focus to the Indian market over the past 18 months. This strategic move augurs well for the Company, given the momentum being witnessed in the Indian market across all sectors.

Our three growth engines are gaining momentum at different stages, boosting our confidence and setting the stage for significant revenue growth over the next three years.

While these developments will drive our revenue growth, we also anticipate that the operational leverage will significantly contribute to our profitability & success. We expect profit growth to surpass revenue growth, driven by a multitude of factors. These include our consistent maintenance of industry-leading gross margins by not pursuing low-margin businesses. We aim to maintain our gross margins, though they may vary with product mix and scale. Further, most of our costs below material costs are fixed, allowing operating leverage to flow through as revenue ramps in the Fiscal Year 2024-25. Our commitment to improve working capital management will help release further cash, aiding our growth and profitability.

The upcoming years will be crucial for our growth and it is important that we stay focused on our long-term vision and opportunities, even as we navigate short-term macroeconomic challenges. The shift from de-stocking to re-stocking in the US market is, in particular, expected to have a notable positive influence on our growth. We are gearing up our entire organization and its resources for the decadal growth opportunities that lie ahead.

KEY CUSTOMER WINS

We are consistently attracting new customers and expanding our clientele across diverse sectors, including rail, aero, power, clean energy, EVs, industrials, automotive and medical. With increasing demand from our clients, we are focusing on enhancing our capabilities.

In the US, we are onboarding two auto-component companies that are leaders in battery management and motion control systems. Additionally, we have secured significant contracts with two major industrial companies. These are well-established companies operating for decades and are market leaders in their domain. Our presence in the aero industry over the last 8 to 10 years is now yielding significant new business wins. We expanded into cable harnesses and lighting products in the aerospace sector and have signed a 15-year master term agreement with one of the leading global aerospace players. We also expect to start execution of our recent aerospace order wins in the latter half of Fiscal Year 2024-25 and to scale up in Fiscal Year 2025-26.

Our active focus in the Indian Market helped us in achieving significant new wins in rail, aero and industrial, defence and EV verticals, with contracts secured from large multinational companies. We are actively working with our industry leading customers in the rail segment on anti-collision Kavach systems which we believe holds significant business potential. Additionally, we have acquired new business from leading companies in the industrial and energy sectors. With prototype orders already in place, we anticipate an increase in production during Fiscal Year 2024-25. These new relationships are expected to contribute substantially to our revenue in the latter part of Fiscal Year 2024-25 & 2025-26. We have also made considerable progress in the defence and communications sectors, and this is expected to translate into sizeable order bookings in the Fiscal Year 2024-25, with execution slated for Fiscal Year 2025-26.

In summary, the momentum and progress we are seeing in our new wins and our addressable opportunities are giving us confidence to double our revenues by Fiscal Year 2026-27.

CONCLUDING NOTE

I would like to reiterate our persistent commitment to fostering a business that prioritizes sustainable and profitable growth over the long term, rather than pursuing expansion at any cost in the short term.

We are poised to harness the vast opportunities ahead. With our strong foundation, strengthened leadership and expanding customer base, we remain focused in growing our strategic presence in dynamic market segments, forging a path for continuous growth.

I would also like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to all the stakeholders involved – our respected shareholders, whose faith and collaboration are essential to our progress; our valued customers, whose ongoing patronage is the cornerstone of our success; and the Governments of India and the United States for creating a conducive business climate. With your unwavering support, we are committed to achieving our future goals and collectively creating a more robust and vibrant company.

Warm regards,

KUNHAMED BICHA

Chairman & Managing Director

MESSAGE FROM THE CFO

Dear Shareholders,

I take this opportunity to thank you for your support, especially during the first year of our listing. The Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS) sector continues to be a key enabler of global technological advancement, driven by global trends in digitization, the transition to electric vehicles and supply chain realignments. India's EMS market is expected to expand its share from 2.2% in 2021 to 7% in 2026.

The Indian EMS sector remains dominated by a handful of specialized companies, among which Avalon Technologies is uniquely positioned to lead in this evolving sector. Our integrated hybrid model combines cost-effective manufacturing in India with strategic operations in the USA and caters to high value global market along with fast-growing domestic market. With this, Avalon remains well-placed to capitalize on the emerging opportunities in the sector.

PERFORMANCE REVIEW OF FISCAL YEAR 2023-24

The first year of listing brought in a mix of significant challenges led by macro-economic conditions in our key market of USA and significant opportunities for long-term growth for Avalon. Despite these temporary macro-economic challenges, Avalon held up resiliently and we believe our commitment to manufacturing excellence and continued focus on execution, positions us well for our future growth.

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

While our diversified customer base across U.S. and India, coupled with our hybrid operations, has historically been advantageous, it also exposed us to short-term macro economic challenges during the Fiscal Year 2023-24. The temporary slowdown and inventory destocking in the US impacted our overall results, overshadowing the strong performance of our Indian operations.

Notwithstanding these challenges, we retained all our customers, expanded our order book by acquiring marquee global customers and grew our presence across various segments. Despite macroeconomic challenges in the US market during Fiscal Year 2023-24, our focus on high-growth segments such as industrial, EVs, clean energy and advanced communication systems helped us sustain momentum. Looking ahead, as the US market is anticipated to recover in Fiscal Year 2024-25, Avalon is fully prepared to drive sustainable growth backed by our solid operational foundation and strategic foresight. This year's performance underscores our commitment to building long-term value for all stakeholders while navigating industry shifts with agility and confidence. We remain focused on leveraging our strengths to further our position as a leading player in the global EMS landscape.

Here are some of the key financial highlights of the Company on a consolidated basis for the Fiscal Year 2023-24:

- Revenue: Amidst the significant shifts in the US macro environment, our consolidated revenue from operations decreased by 8.2% YoY to INR 867 crores. Despite the overall muted revenue, our Indian manufacturing operations continued to deliver robust performance, contributing to about 77% of the total revenue at INR 670 crores.
- Gross Margins: Our gross margins are industry-leading at 36.3%, indicating our ability to deliver high-mix products in high margin segments. We maintain our premium standards and uphold our position as key partners to our customers. Maintaining gross margins is one of our key value drivers and we are happy to report that we maintained the same in spite of the challenging economic environment last year.
- EBITDA: Lower revenues combined with higher fixed costs negatively impacted our operating leverage, leading to lower profits. Consequently, our EBITDA for the year stood at INR 62 crores, with an EBITDA margin of 7.2%. Nonetheless, our Indian manufacturing, which serves both our Indian and global customers, remained profitable with an EBITDA margin of 12.7%.

- PAT: Our consolidated Profit After Tax (PAT) stood at INR 28 crores, with a PAT margin of 3.2%. Our US manufacturing operations, representing about 23% of our business reported a post-tax loss of INR 30 crores. However, our Indian manufacturing achieved a high PAT margin of 8.5%, which represents three-fourths of the manufacturing operations.
- Cash flow, debt and liquidity: Our cash flow from operations, after adjustments for working capital changes was INR 17 crores. Our Liquid Cash and Investments, as at the end of March 2024, stood at INR 118 crores. Of this, INR 50 crores has been earmarked for debt repayment in our US subsidiary, with the balance cash acting as reserve and growth capital. We continue to maintain existing working capital lines amounting to INR 185 crores for our India operations. Our strong cash position and ready working capital lines provide us with the financial flexibility needed for executing larger orders and equip us to invest in strategic growth opportunities as and when it arises.

OPERATIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

The Fiscal Year 2023-24 was marked by several operational achievements and strategic initiatives that have equipped us to move proactively towards enhanced growth in the coming years. In a challenging macroeconomic environment, our commitment to operational excellence and cost optimization enabled us to navigate the year effectively. I would like to share with you some of the key operational highlights that signified the Company's deep-rooted resilience and commitment to long-term value creation during the year.

- Strategic Initiatives in the US: We are actively addressing the short-term challenges in the US, by implementing cost optimization initiatives, and transfer of production from US Plant to India Plant, which we believe will be more visible in the upcoming financial year's performance.
- Supply Chain Normalization: Led by a normalizing "global supply chain" and our concerted endeavours, our supply chain challenges has now normalized. This has allowed us to meet customer demands better, and to concurrently reduce the risk of supply chain disruptions that previously impacted our operations. Moving forward, we expect to derive significant benefits from this stability.
- Working Capital Management: Our working capital management showed marginal improvement during the year. As of March 2024, our Net Working Capital (NWC) days stood at 161 days, comprising 118 days of inventory, 79 days of receivables, and 36 days of payables. Our NWC, which has been on a rising trend over couple of years due to global supply chain challenges has started stabilizing and will show further improvement (decrease) going forward. This is the result of our focussed efforts to rationalize operations amid an improving customer demand in the US and normalizing global supply chain. We aim to reduce our working capital cycle by 10-15 days in the next Fiscal year.

- Leadership Strengthening: As part of our future-driven growth strategy, we have strengthened our leadership team, making strategic hires at the CXO level. We completed the hiring of the group Chief Sales Officer (CSO) and the group Chief Operating Officer (COO) during the year. The CXO level hires are leading to significant strengthening and structuring of our organization at various levels, which will form the foundation for the growth engines and make us future-ready.

These notable operational highlights reflect our commitment to enhancing efficiency, reducing costs, and positioning ourselves for sustained growth. We believe that the strategic initiatives undertaken during Fiscal Year 2023-24 will pave the way for a stronger organization in the years ahead.

CLOSING COMMENTS

As we approach Fiscal Year 2024-25, we are encouraged by the positive indicators of future success. Given the growing demand, expanding order book, strong cash flows, and comfortable liquidity position, we are optimistic about our performance. With profits closely linked to production scale and revenue, the outlook for the coming years is promising. This year shall be a pivotal point that will lay the foundation for long-term growth over the coming decade.

In conclusion, we believe that our sustained focus on laying a strong foundation for the future and focussing on profitable growth will steer the growth for Avalon in the years ahead. Our robust business model, diverse product portfolio, and healthy balance sheet places us in an ideal space to leverage the emerging opportunities at the back of our core strengths. We are confident that the strategic initiatives undertaken during the challenging Fiscal Year 2023-24 will bear fruit in Fiscal Year 2024-25 and beyond.

The path ahead holds promise and anticipation, and we are fully geared to embrace the possibilities and opportunities of the future. OUR GLOBAL DELIVERY ADVANTAGE

Our hybrid delivery model caters to customers globally by leveraging our manufacturing capabilities in the high-growth markets of US and India. Our Indian manufacturing facilities focus on manual labour-intensive work, including component and sub-assembly level manufacturing. The US-based facilities are driven by automation, backed by high-end processes, especially in end-product configuration and system integration. Our Chennai facilities are strategically located in a special economic zone, in proximity to ports, and have the advantage of various government incentives, lending us cost-efficiencies.

US Manufacturing Advantage

HYBRID MANUFACTURING ADVANTAGE

The presence of manufacturing facilities in the US and India gives Avalon a unique edge. Our hybrid manufacturing model offers customers the choice to purchase from India or the US, enabling us to benefit from the 'Made in USA' or 'Made in India' incentives and benefits, as the case may be.

GOVERNMENT INCENTIVES

The Inflation Reduction Act (IRA), signed into effect in August 2022 in the US, represents a landmark piece of legislation aimed at tackling climate change and advancing clean energy. This historic bill is designed to position the United States as a global leader in sustainable technology.

Amount earmarked by India Government for PLI scheme

INR 1.97 LAKH CRORE
(AROUND USD 26.4 BILLION)

Amount earmarked by US Federal Government for IRA scheme

USD 394 BILLION

THE IRA ADVANTAGE

IRA includes incentives on both the production and demand sides, contingent upon eligibility and the year of installation. It provides manufacturers with incentives for production, and to consumers for adoption of clean energy technologies, spanning solar, wind, battery components, and critical minerals.

The legislation offers additional discounts on locally produced eligible parts, prompting US customers to favour domestic (US) production for these components.

Avalon, operating in both the US and India, benefits from this arrangement. Presence of manufacturing facility in US aids US customers in availing benefit of the IRA Act through domestic (US) production for eligible components.

For parts ineligible for incentives, production can be moved to Indian manufacturing facilities as a cost-efficient alternative since Avalon has a hybrid manufacturing model.

Management Discussion and Analysis

ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

Global Economy

The global economy is navigating a dynamic landscape, amidst a spectrum of challenges and opportunities. Geopolitical tensions, such as the conflict in Ukraine, higher inflation, prolonged higher interest rates, a sluggish recovery in China, and volatility in energy prices and food markets contributed to the slowdown of global economic growth. Furthermore, the Red Sea crisis has triggered the largest diversion of global trade in decades, resulting in delays and increased shipping costs.

According to the International Monetary Fund (IMF), the global economy achieved a modest growth rate of 3.2% in 2023. The forecast for 2024 is revised up by 10 basis points to 3.3% from January 2024. This outlook is supported by the expectation of continued disinflation and a soft landing for the global economy. For advanced economies, growth is projected to rise from 1.6% in 2023 to 1.7% in 2024 and 1.8% in 2025.

There has been a faster-than-expected decline in inflation rates across most regions, attributed to favourable supply-side developments and restrictive monetary policies. Global headline inflation is estimated to have fallen to 6.8% in 2023 from its peak in 2022.

The resilience in global economic activity was compatible with falling inflation, which can be attributed to the post-pandemic expansion on the supply side and increased labour force. With inflation easing, there is an expectation of a gradual decline in interest rates, contributing to a more favourable economic environment in 2024. Advanced economies are returning to their inflation targets sooner than emerging market and developing economies, fostering optimism for continued easing of financial conditions and improvement of monetary policy frameworks.

US Economy

While the US economy started out in 2023 facing recessionary headwinds, high inflation and muted demand owing to economic and political volatility, it outperformed expectations in three key areas: growing economic output, labour market resilience, and slowing inflation. The resilience of the US economy and swift containment of a looming banking crisis have contributed to its strongest recovery. Their focus on supply-side measures via the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law, the CHIPS and Science Act, and the Inflation Reduction Act is working to expand productive capacity to create space for faster growth without stoking inflation.

The United States and several large emerging market and middle-income economies displayed the greatest overperformance, with aggregate demand supported by stronger-than-expected private consumption amidst easing labour markets. In the United States, growth is projected to increase to 2.7% in 2024, before slowing to 1.9% in 2025, due to the gradual tightening of fiscal policy, a softening in labour markets and moderate consumption.

Indian Economy

India has emerged as the fastest-growing major economy in the world and is expected to be one of the top three economic powers over the next 10-15 years, backed by its robust democracy and strong partnerships.

Strong economic growth in the first quarter of Fiscal Year 2022-23 helped India solidify its position as the fifth-largest economy in the world. According to the provisional estimates of GDP growth released by the National Statistical Office (NSO), India's GDP growth rate reached 8.2% in Fiscal Year 2023-24 compared to 7.0% in Fiscal Year 2022-23. The overall economic growth was supported by strong domestic demand, increased investment, moderate inflation and a stable interest rate environment.

India's share of global gross domestic product (GDP) rose to 7.59% in 2023 from 7.26% in 2022, when adjusted for purchasing power parity (PPP). This was projected to increase to 9.23% by 2029, reflecting the growth of the Indian Economy.

India's Index of Industrial Production (IIP) recorded a growth rate of 5.8% in Fiscal Year 2023-24, marking an increase from 5.2% in the previous year. The growth observed in the Index of Industrial Production (IIP), Goods & Services Tax (GST) collections, manufacturing Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI), per capita income, and increasing private capital expenditure collectively signify strong economic momentum.

Exports

The overall exports by India (merchandise and services) stood at USD 778.00 billion for the Fiscal Year 2023-24 compared to USD 776.40 billion for Fiscal Year 2022-23. Major drivers of merchandise export growth in Fiscal Year 2023-24 include Electronic Goods, Drugs & Pharmaceuticals, Engineering Goods, Iron Ore, Cotton Yarn/Fabs, Handloom Products, Ceramic Products & Glassware.

Electronic goods exports increased by 23.64% from USD 23.55 billion in Fiscal Year 2022-23 to USD 29.12 billion in Fiscal Year 2023-24. The share of electronics goods in India's merchandise exports increased from 2.7% in Fiscal Year 2018-19 to 6.7% in Fiscal Year 2023-24. India's electronic exports have witnessed substantial growth over time, primarily driven by the implementation of the PLI scheme. India's electronic exports to the US have transitioned from a trade deficit of USD 0.6 billion in Fiscal Year 2016-17 to a trade surplus of USD 8.7 billion in Fiscal Year 2023-24, highlighting a significant increase in value addition.

The government places a strong focus on electronics hardware manufacturing, which is a key aspect of both the 'Make in India' and 'Digital India' initiatives. 'Make in India' aims to bolster India's status as a global manufacturing hub by fostering domestic production and reducing reliance on imports. By enhancing export capabilities and reducing import dependence, India is poised to become a net exporter of electronics.

The Indian government's focus on economic reforms, including initiatives to improve the ease of doing business, attract foreign investment, and promote digitalization, has contributed to the positive growth outlook. The IMF forecasts India's growth to remain strong at 6.8% in Fiscal Year 2024-25 and 6.5% in Fiscal Year 2025-26, supported by resilience in domestic demand and ongoing structural reforms.

The Indian economy stands to gain significantly from the demographic dividend, robust domestic demand, a broad-based revival in manufacturing and services sectors, proactive government policies, increased capital expenditure, and improving rural consumption prospects, providing impetus to the growth momentum. Further, Government initiatives such as, Ease of Doing Business and PLI scheme are expected to bolster the infrastructural and manufacturing base, enhance economies of scale, boost exports and position India as a global manufacturing hub.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

Global EMS Industry

The Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS) market has been experiencing steady growth in recent years, driven by the rising global demand for electronic devices. The global Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS) market is projected to reach USD 1,145 billion by 2026, registering a CAGR of 5.4% during the forecast period of 2021-2026. Industry 4.0 is contributing to the growing demand for electronics, with a growing emphasis on smart and connected devices. This shift requires advanced circuitry and software, leading to a higher skill requirement for specialized manufacturing.

The EMS market typically comprises companies that manufacture electronic products, including box-builds for original equipment manufacturers (OEM) and assembling components on printed circuit boards (PCB). Additionally, with the advent of the digital era driven by escalating reliance on data, automation, and artificial intelligence, there is a growing requirement for electronics in products across all sectors. Many OEMs are outsourcing their operations to EMS vendors to streamline their core business activities. Thus, the EMS market is evolving rapidly, driven by a rising demand for electronic components and outsourced manufacturing services.

EMS offerings in the Business to Business (B2B) sector generally consist of flexible volume-high margin products primarily delivered to OEMs. These products tend to be significantly more complex and require manufacturing and industry specialists in the ideation, design, prototyping and manufacturing process. The B2B segment primarily caters to high-value products in key sectors such as industrial, automotive, medical, rail, aerospace, EV, communication and defence, driving substantial market growth. The proliferation of connected devices and data bandwidth is fuelling expansion and upgrades in data centres, thereby creating additional revenue opportunities for EMS providers. In the EMS market, power, clean energy, railways, aerospace, and medical sectors are characterized by long product lifecycles. Continued capital expenditure in the industrial sector, coupled with robust growth drivers, ensures sustained high growth momentum in the B2B segment.

US EMS Industry

The North American Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS) Market is expected to witness market growth of 6.9% CAGR during the forecast period (2023-2030). The US market dominated the North American Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS) Market by Country in 2022 and would continue to be a dominant market till 2030.

The EMS market in the United States is projected to grow at a CAGR of 6.1%, reaching USD 188 billion by 2026. This growth is driven by increasing demand for electronic devices, a robust EMS infrastructure, the adoption of digitization and Industry 4.0 by companies, and government policies promoting local production. Additionally, stringent environmental regulations are accelerating the adoption of electric vehicles and prompting automakers to turn to electronics manufacturing services. The market is also benefiting from US-China trade tensions, which is prompting a reshoring of manufacturing operations to the US. Furthermore, the Inflation Reduction Act (IRA) and Creating Helpful Incentives to Produce Semiconductors (CHIPS) Act are designed to bolster the competitiveness of the US in technologies such as semiconductors, renewable energy, electric vehicles (EVs), and batteries. These laws provide various production and investment incentives in semiconductor manufacturing and clean energy production in the US. The CHIPS Act emphasizes the localization of semiconductor manufacturing and supply chains in the US.

Indian EMS Industry

India has positioned itself as one of the top alternate manufacturing destinations for global multinational companies, with the China + 1 strategy in focus. It has become one of the forerunners in terms of investment and innovation in the EMS sector. With government policies such as the establishment of Special Economic Zones (SEZs), along with favourable export policies and a highly skilled, cost-effective workforce, India is increasingly attracting foreign manufacturers. These factors position the country as a potential new global leader in electronics manufacturing.

The total addressable market for domestic EMS players is expected to grow at a 27% CAGR to reach USD 100 billion by Fiscal Year 2026-27. This growth is driven by a decline in finished goods imports and an increase in component production, which is currently growing at 13% CAGR and is projected to surge to 19% CAGR in Fiscal Year 2023-27. This growth is anticipated to be fuelled by the increase in outsourcing by Original Equipment Manufacturers, decline in imported finished goods, growing production of components and increased local sourcing of components, as leading global companies and others expand their operations in India.

Trends driving the growth of the Indian EMS Industry:

- High Outsourcing by Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs): There is an increasing trend of OEMs looking to outsource manufacturing to specialists to allow for higher-quality output. The growing number of partnerships between OEMs and Indian EMS providers for value-added services is majorly due to the increasing complexity of electronic products, the need to reduce costs, and their desire to focus on core competencies. (Source: EY)
- Growing Demand of Electronics: India's increasing consumption of electronics, coupled with the government's target to achieve USD 300 billion in domestic electronics manufacturing by Fiscal Year 2025-26, presents a significant opportunity for the EMS industry, allowing it to expand and capitalise on a broad range of opportunities. This rising demand along with increased labour costs in other parts of the world and the trend among larger OEMs to outsource manufacturing makes India a preferred destination for EMS on a global scale. Moreover, emerging opportunities such as EVs, IoT, and Electronic Security systems (including Cameras and Storage) are creating new electronic markets in India, driven by the 'Make in India' initiative. (Source: Frost & Sullivan)

- Large Domestic Market: India has a large and rapidly growing electronics market, driven by an increasing middle-class population, rising disposable incomes, and growing consumer demand for electronic products. Furthermore, the presence of young and skilled workforce, provides a competitive advantage in terms of labour availability and costs. This abundant pool of talent can help companies establish efficient and cost-effective manufacturing operations. Factors such as the inclination towards next-gen technologies like electric vehicles (EVs) and alternative energy, technology transitions such as the rollout of 5G networks, the rise of virtual and augmented reality, the surge in e-commerce, and growing demand from rural markets contribute to this momentum. (Source: Invest India, Economic Times)
- 'China +1' Strategy: High dependence on China for electronics manufacturing has led to many OEMs looking to diversify risk. This was further propelled by the rising geopolitical tension and the US-China trade conflict. This has led to other countries, including Vietnam, Thailand, India, and Mexico trying to gain market share in the world's manufacturing.
- Government Initiatives: Recognizing the potential of the EMS industry, the Indian government has implemented policies and initiatives aimed at expanding the electronics sector. These initiatives include schemes like the Scheme for Promotion of Manufacturing of Electronic Components and Semiconductors (SPECS), Modified Electronic Manufacturing Clusters (EMC 2.0), Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme for various electronics sectors, and the Phased Manufacturing Programme (PMP). The government has also allocated INR 76,000 crores and approved the establishment of three semiconductor units for the development of semiconductors and display manufacturing ecosystem in India. (Source: Government of India, Cabinet)

The Indian EMS industry is set for strong growth and aims to become a leading electronics manufacturing hub in the next decade, driven by rising demand, enhanced export competitiveness, competitive costs, skilled labour, and government support.

India and the US becoming Key Manufacturing Hubs:

The Indian EMS industry is well positioned to capitalise on the ‘China +1’ strategy, as global companies including large OEMs are diversifying their supply chains to reduce dependency on China by choosing India as their preferred manufacturing destination. India’s potential to emerge as a key manufacturing hub is drawing interest from major global players, who are increasingly choosing India for electronics manufacturing. India has competitive advantages such as low labour costs, diverse product offerings, geographical diversification, and robust government support. Additionally, strong efforts by the US to localise its supply chain amidst escalating trade tensions with China are expected to benefit EMS players in the US.

Government initiatives promoting domestic manufacturing and import substitution:

The EMS industry is poised to benefit from the Indian government’s import substitution initiatives aimed at boosting local manufacturing of electronic components through the PLI scheme, Electronics

Manufacturing Clusters (EMC), Scheme for Promotion of Manufacturing of Electronic Components and Semiconductors (SPECs), etc. While India has successfully attracted leading global companies to manufacture smartphones and wearable devices, the non-mobile EMS market continues to heavily rely on imports, presenting substantial untapped potential. Further, initiatives by the US government such as the Inflation Reduction Act to promote domestic manufacturing of clean energy technologies, such as electric vehicles, solar panels, and wind turbines, through tax incentives and subsidies and the CHIPS Act to support semiconductor manufacturing and research in the US are some of the several initiatives to bolster domestic manufacturing, aiming to enhance competitiveness, ensure supply chain resilience, and foster innovation. (Source: Systematix Group)

Expansion of Railway Infrastructure: The Indian government's emphasis on infrastructure development, including electrification and modernization of railways, metro train expansions, and the construction of highways and airports, is anticipated to increase demand for electrical products and new electronic applications. The Kavach System implemented by the Indian Railways is a significant opportunity that can be capitalised by EMS Companies. (Source: Business Standard).

Trends in the Industrial Segment: Industrial clients are demanding more customized solutions to meet specific operational needs. EMS providers are responding by offering tailored manufacturing services, including bespoke design and production processes. Further, EMS providers are increasingly integrating Internet of Things (IoT) technologies into industrial applications. This includes developing smart sensors, connected devices, and automation systems that enhance operational efficiency and provide real-time data for industrial processes. This trend is driven by the need for improved monitoring and control in industrial environments.

Growth in the Aerospace and Defence (A&D) Sector: The Indian government has implemented several initiatives under the 'Make in India' framework to promote indigenous design, development, and manufacturing of defence equipment. Significant reforms include the Defence Acquisition Procedure 2020 (DAP 2020), Defence Production and Export Promotion Policy (DPEPP), and the iDEX programme for MSMEs and start-ups. Additionally, an allocation of INR 6.21 lakh crores for the defence sector in the Union Budget 2024-25 will further strengthen defence capabilities and foster self-reliance in defence technology and manufacturing. The aerospace and defence manufacturing sector in India is poised for significant growth in the coming years, creating promising opportunities for EMS providers in the sector. (Source: India Aerospace & Defence Bulletin, Ministry of Defence)

Increasing Potential in Automotive Industry: The US automotive industry is expected to continue evolving with a strong focus on sustainability, technological innovation, and adapting to changing market demands. Investments in EV technology and autonomous vehicles will likely drive growth, while the industry works to address challenges related to supply chains and global competition. The integration of advanced technologies, such as artificial intelligence, IoT (Internet of Things), and smart manufacturing practices, is enhancing vehicle performance, safety, and manufacturing processes, which is a significant opportunity that can be harnessed by Electronics Manufacturing Services Companies.

Developments in the Communication Sector: The rollout of 5G networks has been a major focus for EMS providers in the communications sector. Companies are increasingly involved in manufacturing components and equipment required for 5G infrastructure, including base stations, antennas, and network modules. This shift is driven by the need for faster data speeds, lower latency, and increased connectivity.

Advancements in the Medical Industry: The Indian medical device sector is a sunrise sector, ranking as the fourth-largest market in Asia after Japan, China, and South Korea. The sector is undergoing significant transformation due to the adoption of advanced technologies, evolving clinical and administrative requirements, emphasis on establishing innovation centres for diagnostics, and stringent regulatory measures. The digitalization of medical devices will keep advancing, with OEMs integrating digital technologies into their devices and operations.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

As India emerges as a prominent global manufacturing hub, the Indian EMS sector is poised for substantial growth, catering to both domestic and international demands. Following a challenging year posed by short-term macroeconomic externalities, we are seeing the green shoots of recovery. This year marks a turning point in our journey, with momentum building across various segments. Despite the macroeconomic challenges, we have retained all our customers. Our US customer base is transitioning from inventory destocking to restocking at varied rates, underscoring the strength of our long-standing partnerships. We have also strategically shifted our focus towards the Indian market, making substantial progress in the industrial, rail, defence, and EV sectors.

Further, to meet the increasing demand from both export and domestic markets, we are expanding our infrastructure with the addition of two new units in India, which are set to commence operations in this year. We have also onboarded top talent at senior and mid-management levels to drive our growth and seize the significant opportunities ahead.

We see the signs of recovery as our existing US customers have begun restocking at varying levels. Our efforts in the Indian market are also yielding us the desired results. This combined progress is expected to drive significant momentum in the upcoming Fiscal Year. We remain on track with our outlined path and are seeing our anticipated growth materialize sooner than expected. Further, we are confident in our ability to sustain industry-leading gross margins due to our key differentiators and our operational efficiency. Our Company anticipates customer spending to return strongly and production to ramp up significantly. While we believe we can comfortably double our revenues over the next three years, we remain cautiously optimistic for the Fiscal Year 2024-25. Accordingly, we are forecasting a revenue growth rate of 16% to 20% for the year.

Our investments in infrastructure, talent, and technology are poised to deliver enhanced value to our customers, positioning us for successful execution and meeting customer demands effectively. With this, we believe this year marks a pivotal point in our journey, setting the stage for growth over the next decade. Avalon is dedicated to fostering a business that achieves sustained, profitable growth and prioritizes long-term success over short-term gains.

Financial Ratios

Particulars	FY 2024	FY 2023
ROCE (%)	10.0*	24.6*
Asset Turnover (x)	8.3x	10.4x
Net Debt to EBITDA (x)	-0.3x	2.7x
Inventory Days	118	106
Trade Receivables Days	79	80
Trade Payables	36	41
Net Working Capital Days	161	144

*Calculated excluding IPO cash proceeds

- ROCE: Higher fixed costs and reduced revenue, coupled with the increase in equity from the funds raised in IPO, has led to a lower ROCE for the Fiscal Year 2023–24.
- Asset Turnover: Asset Turnover Ratio is 8.3x as we follow a capex-light model.
- Net Debt to EBITDA: A portion of the proceeds from the IPO were used for debt repayment. Therefore, Net debt after accounting for Cash became negative. Accordingly, Net Debt to EBITDA has reduced to -0.3x compared to 2.7x in the previous year.
- Inventory Days: Although the absolute inventory levels of Fiscal Year 2023–24 stayed muted in comparison to Fiscal Year 2022–23, the decrease in revenue has increased the inventory days by 12.
- Trade Receivables Days: The absolute trade receivables period is 79 days for Fiscal Year 2023–24, improving by 1 day from 80 days in the previous fiscal year.
- Trade Payable Days: A decrease in both trade payables and revenue in the Fiscal Year 2023–24, has resulted in 5 days of reduction in payable days.
- Net Working Capital Days: An increase in Net Working Capital Days is a result of an increase in inventory days and a reduction in payable days.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company has a well-structured risk management framework to promptly and effectively identify, evaluate, and mitigate key business and operational risks. Avalon remains committed to proactively managing risks through meticulous planning, strong partnerships, diversification, strategic investments, and a steadfast focus on technology and innovation. These strategies collectively fortify the Company's resilience, enabling it to navigate uncertainties and foster sustained growth in a dynamic market environment. The Company's key risks and their corresponding mitigation measures are depicted below:

Risk	Impact	Mitigation
Macroeconomic Risk	Economic slowdown, inflation, and other macroeconomic factors have the potential to dampen demand for electronics and electronics manufacturing services (EMS) and adversely impact the Company's imports and export operations.	While global macroeconomic challenges pose risks to the Indian EMS industry, economic growth in India and decreasing inflation are expected to stimulate growth across sectors. Digital transformation continues to be a pivotal focus, presenting significant opportunities for Indian EMS players. Despite economic uncertainties, the Company remains optimistic about achieving growth due to its strong customer base and favourable market conditions. The Company ensures regular communication with its customers to their comfort and convenience in working with Avalon.
Raw Material Risk	Increased costs, delays, shortages, or interruptions in raw material supply may affect the Company's operations and financial performance.	The Company maintains optimum levels of component inventory to ensure operational efficiency and prioritises reliable suppliers with established relationships for the timely delivery of quality supplies.
Currency Fluctuations Risk	Foreign exchange volatility can impact the Company's margins due to its imports and exports to various countries.	The Company vigilantly monitors currency movements and adjusts orders accordingly, leveraging its export focus as a natural hedge. Effective hedging strategies mitigate the short-term impact of currency fluctuations.

Risk	Impact	Mitigation
Operational Risk	Manufacturing facility breakdowns, supply chain disruptions, or external factors can lead to operational slowdowns or shutdowns, resulting in loss of business.	By prioritising regular maintenance and strict compliance with directives, the Company ensures operational stability. Its facilities are equipped to handle unexpected challenges effectively.
Customer Concentration Risk	Overreliance on a few customers may adversely impact the Company's revenues and profitability.	The Company's strategy of fostering robust relationships with key customers and diversifying across industries helps mitigate concentration risk.
Geographic Concentration Risk	Changes in economic conditions in specific regions may impact the Company's exports and revenues.	The Company's diverse customer base across multiple sectors and geographic regions reduces its dependence on any specific region, creating a natural hedge.

INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEM AND ITS ADEQUACY

The Company has an Internal Control System suitable for its industry, commensurate to the size, scale, and complexity of its operations. The control systems are designed and categorised based on their nature and risk to effectively ensure operational reliability with suitable safety checks.

The Company's internal control system encompasses:

- Upholding and maintaining company assets
- Ensuring the appropriateness of commercial transactions related to the business
- Compliance with prevailing statutes, regulations and policies
- Controlling capital and revenue expenditure against approved budgets

The internal audit function is structured as an independent, robust mechanism aligned with established governance standards. It continuously monitors, assesses, and reports to both management and the audit committee regarding the adequacy and effectiveness of internal controls, operational efficiencies, and risk management processes. This ensures that controls remain effective in mitigating risks and maintaining operational integrity, in line with best practices.

During this Fiscal Year, the company has redefined its Internal Financial Control Framework by incorporating the status of each process which will enhance the overall controls. An independent assessment of the working of established controls is tested on a sample basis.

The Internal Audit function also develops an audit plan covering underlying business operation, inter-organizational, and support functions. It evaluates the effectiveness and adequacy of internal controls, compliance with operating systems, policies, procedures and recommends improvements if necessary. The Audit Committee of the Board periodically reviews these audit plans, observations, and recommendations from internal and external auditors, focusing on significant risk areas and keeps the Board of Directors informed of any annotations. The Committee also oversees the reliability and sufficiency of financial reporting, risk management and internal control systems.

The Company acknowledges that any internal control framework, no matter how well designed, has inherent limitations. Therefore, regular audits and review processes ensure that these systems are constantly updated. The Company has engaged external auditors, M/s Grant Thornton, for assessment of the internal control systems to ensure integrity and independence of the audit.

The Internal Auditors, M/s Grant Thornton, audit the group companies (holding company and its subsidiaries) and have direct access to the Audit Committee of the Board. Follow-up on corrective actions are undertaken to ensure satisfactory controls are maintained. M/s Varma & Varma Chartered Accountants, the Statutory Auditors of the Company, issued an audit report on the Company's internal controls, which does not contain any adverse remarks. Accordingly, based on the findings of the Audit Committee and the Auditors, the Board is of the opinion that the Company's Internal Controls are efficient and have functioned in accordance with the systems in place for the financial year ending on March 31, 2024.

However, it has been observed that the participation by the public non-institutional shareholders/ retail shareholders is at a negligible level.

Currently, there are multiple e-voting service providers (ESPs) providing e-voting facility to listed entities in India. This necessitates registration on various ESPs and maintenance of multiple user IDs and passwords by the shareholders.

DEMAT account holders would be able to cast their vote without having to register again with the ESPs, thereby, not only facilitating seamless authentication but also enhancing ease and convenience of participating in e-voting process.

Corporate Governance Report

OUR CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PHILOSOPHY:

The term 'Governance' refers to the way in which something is governed and function of governing, and the term 'Corporate Governance' refers to the way in which companies are governed and to what purpose. It is concerned with practices and procedures for trying to ensure that a company is run in such a way that it achieves its mission and goals. It includes maximizing the wealth of the shareholders subject to various guidelines and constraints. In other words, the term 'Corporate Governance' stands for a commitment to values and ethical business conduct. It is information to outsiders showing how an organization is managed. This includes its corporate structure, its culture, policies, and the way it deals with various stakeholders. Accordingly, timely and accurate disclosure of information regarding the financial performance, ownership, and material developments in respect of the Company are integral parts of Corporate Governance. Adoption of good Corporate Governance practices helps to develop a good image of the organization, attracts the best talents, and keeps the stakeholders satisfied. Your Company has been practicing the principles of good Corporate Governance over the years and has been upholding fair and ethical business and corporate practices and transparency in its dealings, laying emphasis on scrupulous regulatory compliances.

We believe Corporate Governance is one of the reasons for the sustaining success of our Company. We are committed to conform to our corporate governance philosophy both on letter and spirit. Corporate governance is the root of our organisation which creates value to the system and business. Moreover, we follow the policy of "strong in the root then stronger in the business". Perhaps we would like to quote the typical example of how while wearing the shirt, if we put the first button wrongly, then we cannot correct the following buttons.

Thus, we consider corporate governance to be the first button for our organisation.

The annual report is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other Information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the reports containing the other information, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance and take necessary actions, as applicable under the relevant laws and regulations.

MANAGEMENT'S AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Company's management and Board of Directors are responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs, profit and other comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under Section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Companies Act, 2013, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has adequate internal financial controls system with reference to standalone financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of Management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting in preparation of standalone financial statements and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

REFERRED TO IN PARAGRAPH 2(g) UNDER THE HEADING “REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS” OF OUR INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT OF EVEN DATE

REPORT ON THE INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS UNDER CLAUSE (I) OF SUB-SECTION 3 OF SECTION 143 OF THE ACT

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements of Avalon Technologies Limited (“the Company”) as of March 31, 2024 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

MANAGEMENT’S RESPONSIBILITY FOR INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS

The Company’s management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements based on criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

AUDITORS’ RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system with reference to standalone financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls system with reference to standalone financial statements.

MEANING OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

A company’s internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to standalone financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2024, based on the internal control with reference to standalone financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

The standalone financial statements are prepared under historical cost convention except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below, in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India and comply in all material respects with the accounting standards specified under the section 133 of the Act.

All assets and liabilities have been classified as Current and Non-Current as per the Company's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013

Assets

An asset is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

- a. it is expected to be realised in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the company's normal operating cycle;

- b. it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- c. it is expected to be realised within 12 months after the reporting date; or
- d. it is cash or cash equivalent unless it is restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least 12 months after the reporting date.

Current assets include the current portion of non-current Financial assets. All other assets are classified as non-current.

Liabilities

A liability is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

- c. it is due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting date; or

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

B Material Accounting Policies

1 Use of Estimates

The preparation of the Standalone Financial Statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in India requires the management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that effect the reported amount of assets and liabilities as of the Balance Sheet date, reported amount of revenues and expenses for the year and disclosure of contingent liabilities as of the Balance Sheet date. These estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about the assumptions and estimates may result in outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in future periods. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

2 Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, Plant and Equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment in value, if any. Cost includes purchase price, (inclusive of import duties and non – refundable purchase taxes, after deducting trade discounts and rebates), other costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management and an initial estimate of the costs of dismantling, removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located, if any. If the Company has acquired a Property, Plant and Equipment on deferred term basis and terms are beyond normal credit terms, property plant and equipment will be recognized on cash price equivalent, i.e. discounted amount. The cost of Assets not ready for use as at the Balance Sheet date are disclosed under Capital Work-In-Progress. The cost of replacement spares/ major inspection relating to property, plant and equipment is capitalized only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with these will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. When parts of an item of property plant and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation

Depreciation on Property , Plant and Equipment (Tangible assets) is generally computed on a pro-rata basis on the basis of the estimated life specified in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 under Straight line method. The useful life of assets prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 are considered for the purpose of Computation of Depreciation. However, If the management's estimate of the useful life of a fixed asset at the time of acquisition of the asset or of the remaining useful life on an annual review is different from that envisaged in the aforesaid schedule, depreciation is provided at a such rate based on the useful life / remaining useful life as technically advised. Accordingly, depreciation is provided based on the useful life as indicated below which is different from that stated in Schedule II to the Companies Act,2013.

Category	Useful life
Buildings	3 – 60 years
Plant and Equipment	1 – 15 years
Air Conditioners	5 – 15 years
Computers	3 – 6 years
Electrical Fittings	5 – 10 years
Office equipment	5 – 15 years
Fire Protection Equipments	5 – 15 years
Furniture and fixtures	10 – 15 years
Vehicles	4 – 8 years
Tools*	3 – 5 years

*Useful life of tools are based on internal estimate of the Company. Tools and dies used are depreciated based on quantity of components manufactured and the life of tools and dies, subject to a maximum of 5 years. Tools and dies used for low volume products are depreciated at higher rate.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

Depreciation charge on additions / deletions is restricted to the period of use. Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed annually.

3 Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are stated at acquisition cost, net of accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Intangible assets are amortized on a straight line basis over their estimated useful life as given below.

Category	Useful life
Patent	10 years
Trademark	3 years
Software	4 years

Amortization method and useful lives are reviewed annually.

4 Leases

As lessee

The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Company assesses whether: (1) the contract involves the use of an identified asset (2) the Company has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and (3) the Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

The Company recognizes a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and leases for low value underlying assets. For these short-term and leases for low value underlying assets, the Company recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. Certain lease arrangements include the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. Right-of use assets and lease liabilities include these options when it is reasonably certain that the option to extend the lease will be exercised/ option to terminate the lease will not be exercised.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognized at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation/amortization and impairment losses.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated/ amortized from the commencement date to the end of the useful life of the underlying asset, if the lease transfers ownership of the underlying asset by the end of lease term or if the cost of right-of-use assets reflects that the purchase option will be exercised. Otherwise, Right-of-use assets are depreciated / amortized from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset.

Right-of-use assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the Cash Generating Unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

The lease liability is initially measured at amortized cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rate. Lease liabilities are re-measured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use asset if the Company changes its assessment whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

5 Impairment

Assessment is done annually as to whether there is any indication that an asset (tangible and intangible) may be impaired. For the purpose of assessing impairment, the smallest identifiable Company of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or group of assets, is considered as a cash generating unit. If any such indication exists, an estimate of the recoverable amount of the asset / cash generating unit is made. Assets whose carrying value exceeds their recoverable amount are written down to the recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is higher of an asset's or cash generating unit's fair value less cost to sell and its value in use. Value in use is the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life. Assessment is also done at each Balance Sheet date as to whether there is any indication that an impairment loss recognized for an asset in prior accounting periods may no longer exist or may have decreased. In such cases, impairment losses are reversed to the extent the assets carrying amount does not exceed, the carrying amount that would have been determined if no impairment loss had previously been recognized.

6 Borrowing Cost

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition / construction / production of qualifying assets (assets which require substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use) are capitalized as part of the cost of that asset. All other borrowing costs are charged to revenue. In accordance with the ICAI Guidance Note on Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013, exchange losses (net) relating to foreign currency borrowings to the extent not capitalized in accordance with Ind AS 23 is presented under finance costs.

7 Inventories

Cost of raw materials, components, stores and spares are ascertained on a moving weighted average cost basis. Cost of finished goods and work-in-progress comprise of direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overhead. Such costs are assigned to individual items of inventory on the basis of weighted average costs. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates taxes (not recoverable from the taxing authorities) and discounts. Goods that are consigned to the Company are not considered in inventory.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. Materials and supplies held for use in production of inventories are not written down if the finished products in which they will be used are expected to be sold at or above cost. Slow and non-moving material, obsolescence, defective inventories as identified by the management are duly provided for/ written down to the realizable value, as the case maybe.

Raw materials, components and other supplies held for use in the production of finished products are not written down below cost except in cases where material prices have declined and it is estimated that the cost of the finished products will exceed their net realisable value. The comparison of cost and net realisable value is made on an item-by-item basis.

8 Foreign Currency Transaction Functional Currency

Items included in the financial statements are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates ('the functional currency'). The financial statements are presented in Indian rupee (INR), which is the Company's functional and presentation currency

Initial Recognition

On initial recognition, all foreign currency transactions are recorded by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the Functional currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.

Subsequent Recognition

As at the reporting date, non-monetary items which are carried in terms of historical

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

cost denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. All non-monetary items which are carried at fair value or other similar valuation denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rates that existed when the values were determined.

All monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currency are reinstated at the end of accounting period.

Exchange differences on reinstatement of all monetary items are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Foreign operations

The assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into Indian rupees (INR), the functional currency of the Company at the exchange rate at the reporting date. The income and expenses of foreign operations are translated to Indian rupees (INR) at exchange rates at the date of transactions or an average rate if the average rate approximates the actual rate at the date of transaction.

Foreign currency translation differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity separately under foreign currency translation reserve. The amounts recognized are transferred to the Standalone statement of profit and loss on disposal of the related foreign subsidiaries."

9 Revenue Recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized on transfer of control of promised goods or services to a customer at an amount that the Company is expected to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services.

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price (net of variable consideration) allocated to that performance obligation. The transaction price of goods sold and services rendered is net of variable consideration on account of various discounts and rebates offered by the Company as part of the contract. This variable consideration is estimated based on the expected value of outflow.

Sale of goods

Revenue from sale of products is recognized when the control on the goods have been transferred to the customer. The performance obligation in case of sale of product is satisfied at a point in time i.e., when the material is shipped to the customer or on delivery to the customer, the risks of obsolescence and loss have been transferred to the customer, and either the customer has accepted the products in accordance with the sales contract, the acceptance provisions have lapsed, or the Company has objective evidence that all criteria for acceptance have been satisfied. Revenue from the sale of goods is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discounts and volume rebates.

Advance from customers is recognized under other current liabilities which is released to revenue on satisfaction of performance obligation.

Rendering of Services

Revenue from other service activities are recognized at a point in time on satisfaction of performance obligation towards rendering of such services in accordance with the terms of arrangement.

Revenue is recorded exclusive of goods and service tax.

Other Income

Interest : Interest income is recognized on effective interest method taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

Dividend : Dividend income is recognized when the right to receive dividend is established.

Insurance Claims : Insurance claims are accounted for on the basis of claims lodged with insurance Company and to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty in realizing the claims.

10 Employee Benefits

1. Short – Term employee benefits

All employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short-term employee benefits and recognized in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

2. Defined Contribution Plans

Contribution towards provident fund/ Employee State Insurance for employees working with the Company's operations in India is made to the regulatory authorities, where the Company has no further obligations. Such benefits are classified as Defined Contribution Schemes as the Company does not carry any further obligations, apart from the contributions made on a monthly basis.

3. Defined Benefit Plan

The Company provides for gratuity, a defined benefit plan (the "Gratuity Plan") which is unfunded covering eligible employees in accordance with the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. The Gratuity Plan provides a lump sum payment to vested employees at retirement, death, incapacitation or termination of employment, of an amount based on the respective employee's salary and the tenure of employment. The Company's liability is actuarially determined (using the Projected Unit Credit method) at the end of each year. Actuarial losses / gains are recognized in the other comprehensive income in the year in which they arise. Remeasurement recognized in other comprehensive income is reflected immediately in retained earnings and is not reclassified to profit or loss.

4. Other Long term employee benefits

Accumulated compensated absences, which are expected to be availed or encashed within 12 months from the end of the year are treated as short term employee benefits. The obligation towards the same is measured at the expected cost of accumulating compensated absences as the additional amount expected to be paid as a result of the unused entitlement as at the year end.

Accumulated compensated absences, which are expected to be availed or encashed beyond 12 months from the end of the year end are treated as other long term employee benefits. The Company's liability is actuarially determined (using the Projected Unit Credit method) at the end of each year. Actuarial losses / gains are recognized in the Profit and Loss Statement in the year in which they arise.

10A Share Based Payments

Employees (including senior executives) of the Company receive remuneration in the form of share based payments, whereby employees render services as consideration for equity instruments (equity-settled transactions).

The cost of equity-settled transactions is determined by the fair value at the date when the grant is made using an appropriate valuation model.

That cost is recognised, together with a corresponding increase in Employee Stock option Plan (ESOP) reserves in equity, over the period in which the performance and/or service conditions are fulfilled, in employee benefits expense. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at each reporting date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Company's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The expense or credit for a period recognised in employee benefits expense represents the movement in cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period.

Performance conditions which are market conditions are taken into account when determining the grant date fair value of the awards. Service and non-market performance conditions are not taken into account when determining the grant date fair value of awards, but the likelihood of the conditions being met is assessed as part of the Company's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

No expense is recognised for awards that do not ultimately vest because non-market performance and/or service conditions have not been met.

When the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, the minimum expense recognised is the expense had the terms not been modified if the original terms of the award are met. An additional expense is recognised for any modification that increases the total fair value of the share-based payment transaction or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification.

Where an award is cancelled by the entity or by the counterparty, any remaining element of the fair value of the award is expensed immediately through profit or loss.

The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of diluted earnings per share.

11 Taxes on Income

Tax expense for the period, comprising current tax and deferred tax, are included in the determination of the net profit or loss for the period. Current tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities in accordance with the relevant prevailing tax laws. Tax expenses relating to the items in profit and loss shall be treated as current tax as part of profit and loss and those relating to items in other comprehensive income (OCI) shall be recognized as part of the part of OCI.

Deferred tax is recognized for all the temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the Standalone Financial Statements and corresponding tax bases used in computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax assets are recognized and carried forward only to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the Balance Sheet date. At each Balance Sheet date, the Company re-assesses unrecognized deferred tax assets, if any and the same is recognized to the extent it has become probable that future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle the asset and the liability on a net basis. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off assets against liabilities representing current tax and where the deferred tax assets and the deferred tax liabilities relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing taxation law.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) credit is recognized as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period. Such asset is reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and the carrying amount of the MAT credit asset is written down to the extent there is no longer a convincing evidence to the effect that the Company will pay normal income tax during the specified period. MAT shall be treated as part of deferred tax assets.

12 Financial instruments

Initial recognition

The Company recognizes Financial assets and Financial liabilities when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. All Financial assets and liabilities are recognized at fair value on initial recognition. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of Financial assets and Financial liabilities, that are not at fair value through profit or loss, are added to the fair value on initial recognition.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments:
Classification as debt or equity

Financial liabilities and equity instruments issued by the Company are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Instruments (including convertible preference shares) that meet the definition of 'Equity' in its entirety and which do not have any component of liability, is classified as Equity and grouped under 'Instruments entirely equity in nature'. Equity instruments are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs. The transaction costs of an equity transaction are accounted for as a deduction from equity to the extent they are incremental costs directly attributable to the equity transaction that otherwise would have been avoided. The costs of an equity transaction that is abandoned are recognised as an expense.

Subsequent measurement

- i. Financial assets carried at amortized cost
 - A Financial asset is subsequently measured at amortized cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the Financial asset give rise to cash flows on specified dates that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.
- ii. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss
 - A Financial asset which is not classified in the above category is subsequently fair valued through profit or loss.
- iii. Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method. For trade and other payables maturing within one year from the Balance Sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

Derecognition of Financial instruments

The Company derecognizes a Financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the Financial asset expire or it transfers the Financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition under IND AS 109. A Financial liability (or a part of a Financial liability) is derecognized from the Company's Balance Sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

Impairment

All Financial assets classified as at amortized cost shall be tested for impairment under Ind AS 109 and measured using Expected Credit Loss (ECL) model."

13 Fair Value

The Company measures Financial instruments at fair value in accordance with the accounting policies mentioned above. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the Standalone Financial Statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy that categorizes into three levels, described as follows, the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure value. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 inputs) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 inputs).

Level 1 – quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 – inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly

Level 3 – inputs that are unobservable for the asset or liability

14 Government Grants

Grants from the government are recognized at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Company will comply with all attached conditions. All government grants are initially recognized by way of setting up as deferred income. Government grants relating to

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

income are subsequently recognized in the profit or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate. Government grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are subsequently recognized in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the expected life of the related depreciable assets. Grants recognized in Profit and Loss as above are presented within other income or adjusted against the corresponding expenditure head as specifically disclosed thereunder.

15 Provisions and Contingent Liabilities

Provisions : Provisions are recognized when there is a present obligation as result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and there is a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the Balance sheet date and are not discounted to its present value unless the effect of time value of money is material. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

Contingent Liabilities : Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. When there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which likelihood of outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

16 Segment Reporting

The Company is engaged in providing Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS) with capabilities in printed circuit board assembly, custom cable and wire harnesses, etc. Since

17 Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Earnings considered in ascertaining the Company's earnings per share is the net profit for the period after deducting equity dividends and any attributable tax thereto for the period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period and for all periods presented is adjusted for events, such as bonus shares, other than the conversion of potential equity shares, that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

18 Share issue expense

The transaction costs of an equity transaction are accounted for as a deduction from equity to the extent they are incremental costs directly attributable to the equity transaction.

19 Investment in subsidiaries

Investment in subsidiaries are measured at cost less accumulated impairment as per Ind AS 27.

20 Cash & Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprises cash on hand and at banks and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

21 Exceptional items

Exceptional items are those items that management considers, by virtue of their size or incidence, should be disclosed separately to ensure that the financial information allows an understanding of the underlying performance of the business in the year, so as to facilitate comparison with prior periods. Such items are material by nature or amount to the year's result and require separate disclosure in accordance with Ind AS

3 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS, ASSUMPTIONS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

The following are the critical judgements, assumptions concerning the future, and key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next Financial year.

3.1. Useful Lives of Property, Plant and Equipment

As described above, the charge in respect of periodic depreciation for the year is derived after determining an estimate of an asset's expected useful life and the expected residual value at the end of its life. The useful lives and residual values of Company's assets are determined by the management at the time the asset is acquired and reviewed annually. The lives are based on historical experience with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life, such as changes in technical or commercial obsolescence arising from changes or improvements in production or from a change in market demand of the product or service output of the asset.

3.2. Employee Benefits

The cost of defined benefit plans are determined using actuarial valuation, which involves making assumptions about discount rates, expected rates of return on assets, future salary increases, and mortality rates. Due to the long-term nature of these plans, such estimates are subject to significant uncertainty.

3.3. Taxation

Significant assumptions and judgements are involved in determining the provision for tax based on tax enactments, relevant judicial pronouncements and tax expert opinions, including an estimation of the likely outcome of any open tax assessments / litigations. Deferred income tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable income will be available, based on estimates thereof. Significant assumptions are also involved in evaluating the recoverability of deferred tax assets recognised on unused tax losses.

3.4 Provisions and Contingencies

Critical judgements are involved in measurement of provisions and contingencies and estimation of the likelihood of occurrence thereof based on factors such as expert opinion, past experience etc.

3.5 Impairment of Trade Receivable - Expected Credit Loss

The impairment provisions for trade receivables are based on assumptions about risk of default. The Company uses judgement in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs for the impairment calculation, based on Company's past history at the end of each reporting period

3.6 Impairment of Investment in Subsidiaries

The Company carries out an assessment of impairment in respect of investments in subsidiaries where any indications of impairment exist as at the balance sheet date. The determination of recoverable amount for this purpose requires the use of critical assumptions and judgements.

4 RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. As at March 31, 2024, there are no Ind AS Standards/ amendments that have been issued but are not yet effective.

f) Critical Judgements in determining the Lease Term

In determining the lease term, management considers all facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive to exercise an extension option, or not to exercise a termination option. Extension options (or periods after termination options) are only included in the lease term if the lease is reasonably certain to be extended (or not terminated).

For leases of buildings, the following factors are normally the most relevant:

- If there are significant penalties to terminate (or not extend), the Company is typically reasonably certain not terminate (or to extend).
- If any lease hold improvements are expected to have a significant remaining value the Company is typically reasonably certain to extend (or not terminate).
- Otherwise, the Company considers other factors including historical lease durations and the costs and business disruption required to replace the leased asset

The lease term is reassessed if an option is actually exercised (or not exercised) or the Company becomes obliged to exercise (or not exercise it). The assessment of reasonable certainty is only revised if a significant event or a significant change in circumstances occurs, which affects the assessment, and that is within the control of the lessee. During the current financial year, there was no revision in the lease terms.

g) Extension and Termination Options

Extension and termination options are included in a number of property leases. These are used to maximise operational flexibility in terms of managing the assets used in the Company's operations. The majority of extension and termination options held are exercisable only by the Company and not with the respective lessor.

NOTE 30: EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

A. Defined Contribution Plans

The Company participates in a number of defined contribution plans on behalf of relevant personnel. Any expense recognised in relation to these schemes represents the value of contributions payable during the period by the Company at rates specified by the rules of those plans. The only amounts included in the balance sheet are those relating to the prior months contributions that were not due to be paid until after the end of the reporting period.

The major defined contribution plans operated by the Company are as below:

(a) Provident fund and pension

In accordance with the Employee's Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952, eligible employees of the Company are entitled to receive benefits in respect of provident fund, a defined contribution plan, in which both employees and the Company make monthly contributions at a specified percentage of the covered employees' salary.

The contributions, as specified under the law, are made to Employee Provident Fund Organisation.

B. Defined Benefit Plans

The defined benefit plans operated by the Company are as below:

The Company has an obligation towards gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan covering eligible employees, which is unfunded. The plan provides for a lump-sum payment to vested employees at retirement, death while in employment or on termination of employment of an amount equivalent to 15 days salary payable for each completed year of service. Vesting occurs upon completion of five years of service. The Company accounts for the liability for gratuity benefits payable in the future based on an actuarial valuation.

The defined benefit plans typically expose the Company to actuarial risks such as: investment risk, interest rate risk, longevity risk and salary risk.

Investment risk	The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated using a discount rate determined by reference to government / high quality bond yields; Since the Plan is unfunded, it will create a plan deficit.
Interest risk	A decrease in the bond interest rate will increase the plan liability;
Longevity risk	The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants both during and after their employment. An increase in the life expectancy of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.
Salary risk	The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the future salaries of plan participants. As such, an increase in the salary of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.

(iv) Risk Exposure

The estimates of future salary increases, considered in actuarial valuation, taking account of inflation, seniority, promotion and other relevant factors, such as supply and demand in the employment market.

(v) The principal assumptions used for the purposes of the actuarial valuations were as follows.

Particulars	Valuation
	As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023
Discount Rate(s)	7.23%	7.49%
Expected Rate(s) of salary increase	8.00%	8.00%
Attrition Rate	16.07%	16.07%

Significant actuarial assumptions for the determination of the defined obligation are discount rate, expected salary increase and mortality. The sensitivity analyses below have been determined based on reasonably possible changes of the respective assumptions occurring at the end of the reporting period, while holding all other assumptions constant.

Sensitivity Analysis'

Change in assumption	As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023
A. Discount Rate + 100 BP
Defined Benefit Obligation [PVO]	56.17	48.67
Current Service Cost	(4.92)	(4.26)
B. Discount Rate - 100 BP
Defined Benefit Obligation [PVO]	66.78	57.86
Current Service Cost	5.69	4.94
C. Salary Escalation Rate + 100 BP
Defined Benefit Obligation [PVO]	65.33	56.58
Current Service Cost	4.25	3.65
D. Salary Escalation Rate - 100 BP
Defined Benefit Obligation [PVO]	57.25	49.56
Current Service Cost	(3.83)	(3.37)

The sensitivity analysis presented above may not be representative of the actual change in the defined benefit obligation as it is unlikely that the change in assumptions would occur in isolation of one another as some of the assumptions may be correlated.

Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the defined benefit obligation has been calculated using the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period, which is the same as that applied in calculating the defined benefit obligation liability recognised in the balance sheet.

There was no change in the methods and assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis from prior years.

31.3 Financial Risk Management

The Company is exposed to Market risk, Credit risk and Liquidity risk. The Company monitors and manages the financial risks relating to the operations of the Company through internal risk reports which analyse exposures by degree and magnitude of risks.

The following disclosures summarize the Company's exposure to financial risks. Quantitative sensitivity analysis have been provided to reflect the impact of reasonably possible changes in market rates on the financial results, cash flows and financial position of the Company.

31.3.1 Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market conditions. Market risk mainly comprises of interest rate risk, currency risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk includes borrowings, investments, trade payables, trade receivables and current investments. The Company's activities expose it primarily to the financial risks of changes in foreign currency exchange rates, interest rates and other price risk.

There has been no change to the Company's exposure to market risks or the manner in which these risks are being managed and measured.

(a) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The group's exposure to changes in interest rates primarily relates to the companies outstanding floating rate debt and investments in fixed deposits. The group has investments in INR denominated fixed deposits and a portion of it's working capital debt is denominated in foreign currency. These credit facilities are subject to periodic interest rate resets. Based on the past experience the variability of interest investments and working capital loan are not expected to be material. Further there are only short term foreign currency debt in the form of packing credit which are subject to minimal changes in interest rate during it's term.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

(All amounts are in Million Indian Rupees unless otherwise stated)

(b) Foreign Currency risk

The company undertakes transactions denominated in foreign currencies; consequently, exposures to exchange rate fluctuations arise. Significant portion of the companies purchases and sales are denominated in foreign currency and hence, a natural hedge exists as a result of which, major foreign exchange fluctuations in import payables gets Offset export receivables. Apart from the above, exchange rate exposures are also managed within approved policy parameters by constant monitoring.

The carrying amounts of the company's foreign currency denominated monetary assets and monetary liabilities at the end of the reporting period are as follows:

Currency	Liabilities as at
	As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023

Foreign Currency sensitivity analysis

The below table demonstrates the sensitivity to a 5% increase or decrease in the relevant foreign currency against INR, with all other variables held constant. The sensitivity analysis is prepared on the net unhedged exposure of the Company as at the reporting date. 5% represents management's assessment of reasonable possible change in foreign exchange rate.

In management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the inherent foreign exchange risk because the exposure at the end of the reporting period does not reflect the exposure during the year.

31.3.2 Credit Risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Company. The company has adopted a policy of only dealing with creditworthy counterparties as a means of mitigating the risk of financial loss from defaults. The company's exposure of its counterparties are continuously monitored and the aggregate value of transactions concluded is spread amongst counterparties. Credit exposure is controlled by counterparty limits that are reviewed and approved by the management.

Trade receivables consist of a large number of customers. Ongoing credit evaluation is performed on the financial condition of accounts receivable. The maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date is the carrying value of each class of financial assets disclosed in Note 8. The company does not hold collateral as security. The Company has evaluated the concentration of risk with respect to trade receivables as low, as its customers are located in several jurisdictions and industries and operate in largely independent markets.

Credit risk arising from other balances with banks is limited and there is no collateral held against these because the counterparties are banks with high credit ratings assigned by the international credit rating agencies. Similarly, credit risk arising from investment in Mutual Funds are held without any collateral but credit risk is limited as the company deals with counterparties of repute and excellent track record.

31.3.3 Liquidity Risk

Ultimate responsibility for liquidity risk management rests with the board of directors, which has established an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the company's short-term, medium-term and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The company manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves, banking facilities and reserve borrowing facilities, by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows, and by matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

The following tables detail the company's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial liabilities with agreed repayment periods. The tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Company can be required to pay.

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Avalon Technologies Limited (formerly known as "Avalon Technologies (P) Limited") (hereinafter referred to as the "Holding Company") and its subsidiaries (Holding Company and its subsidiaries together referred to as "the Group"), which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as at March 31, 2024, and the consolidated statement of profit and loss (including other comprehensive income), consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as "the consolidated financial statements").

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, and based on the consideration of report of other auditor on separate audited financial statements of a subsidiary, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the consolidated state of affairs of the Group as at March 31, 2024, of its consolidated profit and other comprehensive loss, consolidated changes in equity and consolidated cash flows for the year then ended.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those SAs are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in terms of the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the relevant provisions of the Act, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us along with the consideration of report of the other auditor referred to in the "Other Matter" section below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context. We have determined the matter described below to be the key audit matter to be communicated in our report.

Key Audit Matter	Auditors Response
Revenue Recognition Revenue recognition involves identification of contracts with customers, identification of distinct performance obligations, determination of transaction price and allocation of the transaction price to the distinct performance obligations. Revenue is recognised when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied i.e. when 'control' of the goods underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer.	In view of the significance of the matter, the following key audit procedures were performed by us: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assessed the compliance of the Holding Company's revenue recognition accounting policies with applicable accounting standards Evaluated the design and implementation of the key internal financial controls with respect to the timing of revenue recognition and tested the operating effectiveness of such controls on a sample basis.

Key Audit Matter	Auditors Response
The Holding Company and its external stakeholders focus on revenue as a key performance metric, and hence, there may be a possibility for revenue to be overstated or recognised before control has been transferred. Accordingly, Revenue recognition has been identified as a key audit matter. See Note No. 1.2(C)(9) and Note No. 18 to the Consolidated Financial Statements.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Performed substantive testing of revenue transactions recorded during the year on a sample basis by verifying the underlying documents including shipping document, customer acknowledgement, dispatch notes, etc. • Performed testing for samples of revenue transactions recorded closer to the year-end by verifying underlying documents, to determine the accuracy of the period in which revenue was recognized.

INFORMATION OTHER THAN THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND AUDITOR'S REPORT THEREON (OTHER INFORMATION)

The Holding Company's management and the Board of Directors are responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report for the financial year 2023-24 but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report(s) thereon. The annual reports is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the reports containing the other information, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance and take necessary actions, as applicable under the relevant laws and regulations.

MANAGEMENT'S AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Holding Company's Management and Board of Directors are responsible for the preparation and presentation of these consolidated financial statements in term of the requirements of the Act that give a true and fair view of the consolidated state of affairs, consolidated profit and other comprehensive loss, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated cash flows of the Group in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under Section 133 of the Act. The respective Management and Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of each company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; the selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Management and Board of Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Management and Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for assessing the ability of each company to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the respective Board of Directors either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of each company

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Consolidated Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditors' Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated Financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Consolidated Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3) (i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management and Board of Directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management and Board of Directors use of the going concern basis of accounting in preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our Auditors' Report to the related disclosures in the Consolidated Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Consolidated Financial Statements including the disclosures, and whether the Consolidated Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial statements of such entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entity included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by the other auditor, such other auditor remains responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion. Our responsibilities in this regard are further described in the section titled "Other Matter" in this audit report.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company and such other entities included in the Consolidated Financial Statements of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

MANAGEMENT’S RESPONSIBILITY FOR INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS

The respective Company’s management and the Board of Directors are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements based on the criteria established by the respective Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the “Guidance Note”). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company’s policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION, MEASUREMENT AND MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A Basis of Preparation

The standalone financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under the Section 133 of the 2013 Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules 2015 and other relevant provisions of the 2013 Act. Upto the year ended 31 March, 2021, the Company prepared the standalone financial statements in accordance with the requirements of the previous GAAP, which includes standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 and other relevant provisions of the 2013 Act.

The financial information included in these Consolidated Financial Statements in respect of M/s ABV Electronics Inc (D/B/A Sienna Corporation), a subsidiary of the company incorporated in the United States of America are based on the financial statements prepared in accordance with the US GAAP for the respective years, which have been duly adjusted for differences in accounting policies as compared to the accounting policy followed by the Group in accordance with Ind AS.

The Consolidated Financial Statements are prepared under historical cost convention except for certain Financial instruments that are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below.

All assets and liabilities have been classified as Current and non- Current as per the Group's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013

Assets

An asset is classified as current when it satisfies any of the following criteria:

- it is expected to be realised in, or is intended for sale or consumption in, the company's normal operating cycle;
- it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- it is expected to be realised within 12 months after the reporting date; or

- it is due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting date; or
- the company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting date. Terms of liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

Current liabilities include current portion of non-current Financial liabilities. All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

Operating cycle

Operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents. The Group has identified 12 months as its operating cycle."

The Consolidated Financial Statements have been presented in Indian Rupees (₹ or INR), which is also the Company's functional currency. All amounts have been rounded-off to the nearest millions and decimals thereof, unless otherwise mentioned. Figures in brackets represents negative figures unless otherwise mentioned. "-" denotes zero or figures which are below the rounding off norms adopted by the Group.

B Basis of Consolidation

a. Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the relevant activities of the entity.

The Group consolidates the Financial statements of the parent and its subsidiaries on a line by line basis, adding together like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Intra-group transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment.

b. Non-controlling interests (NCI)

NCI are measured at their proportionate share of the acquiree's net identifiable assets at the date of acquisition. Changes in the Group's equity interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions.

c. Loss of control

When the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the assets and liabilities of the subsidiary, and any related NCI and other components of equity. Any interest retained in the former subsidiary is measured at fair value at the date the control is lost. Any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit and loss.

d. Common control business combinations (CCBC) transactions

Business combinations of entities under common control are accounted for using the pooling of interests method as follows:

- (i) The assets and liabilities of the combining entities are reflected at their carrying amounts from the controlling parties' perspective.
- (ii) No adjustments are made to reflect fair values, or recognise any new assets or liabilities. Adjustments are only made to harmonise accounting policies.
- (iii) The Financial information in the Financial statements in respect of prior periods is restated as if the business combination had occurred from the beginning of the preceding period in the Financial statements, irrespective of the actual date of the combination.
- (iv) The balance of the retained earnings appearing in the Financial statements of the transferor is aggregated with the corresponding balance appearing in the Financial statements of the transferee or is adjusted against general reserve.
- (v) The identity of the reserves is preserved and the reserves of the transferor become the reserves of the transferee.
- (vi) The difference, if any, between the amounts recorded as share capital issued plus any additional consideration in the form of cash or other assets and the amount of share capital of the transferor is transferred to capital reserve and is presented separately from other capital reserves.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

The details of Subsidiaries consolidated in these Financial statements are as given below

Company Name	Country of Incorporation	% of Shares held by the Holding Company
		31 st Mar 2024	31 st Mar 2023
Avalon Technology and Services Private Limited	India	100%	100%
Sienna Ecad Technologies Private Limited*	India	100%	100%

C Material Accounting Policies

1 Use of Estimates

The preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in India requires the management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affects the reported amount of assets and liabilities as of the Balance Sheet date, reported amount of revenues and expenses for the year and disclosure of contingent liabilities as of the Balance Sheet date. These estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about the assumptions and estimates may result in outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities in future periods.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

2 Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, Plant and Equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment in value, if any. Cost includes purchase price, (inclusive of import duties and non – refundable purchase taxes, after deducting trade discounts and rebates), other costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management and an initial estimate of the costs of dismantling, removing the item and restoring the site on which it is located, if any.

If the Group has acquired a Property, Plant and Equipment on deferred term basis and terms are beyond normal credit terms, property plant and equipment will be recognized on cash price equivalent, i.e. discounted amount.

The cost of Assets not ready for use as at the Balance Sheet date are disclosed under Capital Work-In-Progress.

The cost of replacement spares/ major inspection related to property, plant and equipment is capitalized only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with these will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. When parts of an item of property plant and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items (major components) of property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation

Depreciation on Property, Plant and Equipment (Tangible assets) is generally computed on a pro-rata basis on the basis of the estimated life specified in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 under Straight line method. The useful life of assets prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 are considered for the purpose of Computation of Depreciation. However, If the management's estimate of the useful life of a fixed asset at the time of acquisition of the asset or of the remaining useful life on an annual review is different from that envisaged in the aforesaid schedule, depreciation is provided at a rate based on the useful life / remaining useful life as technically advised. Accordingly, depreciation is provided based on the useful life as indicated below which is different from that stated in Schedule II to the Companies Act,2013."

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

*Useful life of tools are based on internal estimate of the Group. Tools and dies used are depreciated based on quantity of components manufactured and the life of tools and dies, subject to a maximum of 5 years. Tools and dies used for low volume products are depreciated at higher rate.

Depreciation charge on additions / deletions is restricted to the period of use. Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed annually.

3 Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are stated at acquisition cost, net of accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Intangible assets are amortized on a straight line basis over their estimated useful life as given below.

Category	Useful life
Patent	10 years
Trademark	3 years
Software	4 years

Amortization method and useful lives are reviewed annually.

4 Leases

As lessee

The Group assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Group assesses whether: (1) the contract involves the use of an identified asset (2) the Group has substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset through the period of the lease and (3) the Group has the right to direct the use of the asset.

The Group recognizes a right-of-use asset and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and leases for low value underlying assets. For these short-term and leases for low value underlying assets, the Group recognizes the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Certain lease arrangements include the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. Right-of-use assets and lease liabilities include these options when it is reasonably certain that the option to extend the lease will be exercised/option to terminate the lease will not be exercised.

The right-of-use assets are initially recognized at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation/amortization and impairment losses.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated/amortized from the commencement date to the end of the useful life of the underlying asset, if the lease transfers ownership of the underlying asset by the end of lease term or if the cost of right-of-use assets reflects that the purchase option will be exercised. Otherwise, Right-of-use assets are depreciated / amortized from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

Right-of-use assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the value-in-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the Cash Generating Unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

The lease liability is initially measured at amortized cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rate. Lease liabilities are re-measured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use asset if the Group changes its assessment whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option.

5 Impairment

Assessment is done annually as to whether there is any indication that an asset (tangible and intangible) may be impaired. For the purpose of assessing impairment, the smallest identifiable group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets, is considered as a cash generating unit. If any such indication exists, an estimate of the recoverable amount of the asset / cash generating unit is made. Assets whose carrying value exceeds their recoverable amount are written down to the recoverable amount.

Recoverable amount is higher of an asset's or cash generating unit's fair value less cost to sell and its value in use. Value in use is the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of an asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life. Assessment is also done at each Balance Sheet date as to whether there is any indication that an impairment loss recognized for an asset in prior accounting periods may no longer exist or may have decreased. In such cases, impairment losses are reversed to the extent the assets carrying amount does not exceed, the carrying amount that would have been determined if no impairment loss had previously been recognized.

6 Borrowing Cost

Borrowing costs that are attributable to the acquisition / construction / production of qualifying assets (assets which require substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use) are capitalized as part of the cost of that asset. All other borrowing costs are charged to revenue. In accordance with the ICAI Guidance Note on Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013, exchange losses (net) relating to foreign currency borrowings to the extent not capitalized in accordance with Ind AS 23 is presented under finance costs.

7 Inventories

Cost of raw materials, components, stores and spares are ascertained on a moving weighted average cost basis. Cost of finished goods and work-in-progress comprise of direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overhead. Such costs are assigned to individual items of inventory on the basis of weighted average costs. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates taxes (not recoverable from the taxing authorities) and discounts. Goods that are consigned to the Group are not considered in inventory.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. Materials and supplies held for use in production of inventories are not written down if the finished products in which they will be used are expected to be sold at or above cost. Slow and non-moving material, obsolescence, defective inventories as identified by the management are duly provided for/ written down to the realizable value, as the case maybe.

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

Raw materials, components and other supplies held for use in the production of finished products are not written down below cost except in cases where material prices have declined and it is estimated that the cost of the finished products will exceed their net realisable value.

The comparison of cost and net realisable value is made on an item-by-item basis.

8 Foreign Currency Transaction

Functional Currency

Items included in the financial statements are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Group operates ('the functional currency'). The financial statements are presented in Indian rupee (INR), which is the Group's functional and presentation currency

Initial Recognition

On initial recognition, all foreign currency transactions are recorded by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the Functional currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.

Subsequent Recognition

As at the reporting date, non-monetary items which are carried in terms of historical cost denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. All non-monetary items which are carried at fair value or other similar valuation denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rates that existed when the values were determined.

All monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currency are reinstated at the end of accounting period.

Exchange differences on reinstatement of all monetary items are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Foreign operations

The assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into Indian rupees (INR), the functional currency of the Group at the exchange rate at the reporting date. The income and expenses of foreign operations are translated to Indian rupees (INR) at exchange rates at the date of transactions or an average rate if the average rate approximates the actual rate at the date of transaction. (Foreign currency translation differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity separately under foreign currency translation reserve. The amounts recognized are transferred to the consolidated statement of profit and loss on disposal of the related foreign subsidiaries).

9 Revenue Recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized on transfer of control of promised goods or services to a customer at an amount that the Group is expected to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services.

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price (net of variable consideration) allocated to that performance obligation. The transaction price of goods sold and services rendered is net of variable consideration on account of various discounts and rebates offered by the Group as part of the contract. This variable consideration is estimated based on the expected value of outflow.

Sale of goods

Revenue from sale of products is recognized when the control on the goods have been transferred to the customer. The performance obligation in case of sale of product is satisfied at a point in time i.e., when the material is shipped to the customer or on delivery to the customer, the risks of obsolescence and loss have been transferred to the customer, and either the customer has accepted the products in accordance with the sales contract, the acceptance provisions have lapsed, or the Group has objective evidence that all criteria for acceptance have been satisfied. Revenue from the sale of goods is measured at the fair value of the

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discounts and volume rebates.

Advance from customers is recognized under other current liabilities which is released to revenue on satisfaction of performance obligation.

Rendering of Services

Revenue from design services are recognised over the contract term based on the percentage of services that are provided during the period with the total estimated services to be provided based on the input method. Income from other service activities are recognized at a point in time upon satisfaction of performance obligation towards rendering of such services in accordance with the terms of arrangement.

Revenue is recorded exclusive of Goods and Service Tax.

Other Income

Interest : Interest income is recognized on effective interest method taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

Dividend : Dividend income is recognized when the right to receive dividend is established.

Insurance Claims : Insurance claims are accounted for on the basis of claims lodged with insurance Group and to the extent that there is a reasonable certainty in realizing the claims.

10 Share Based Payments

Employees (including senior executives) of the Group receive remuneration in the form of share based payments, whereby employees render services as consideration for equity instruments (equity-settled transactions).

The cost of equity-settled transactions is determined by the fair value at the date when the grant is made using an appropriate valuation model.

That cost is recognised along with a corresponding increase in Employee Stock option Plan (ESOP) reserves in equity, over the period in which the performance and/or service conditions are fulfilled, in employee benefits expense. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at each reporting date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The expense or credit for a period recognised in employee benefits expense represents the movement in cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period.

Performance conditions which are market conditions are taken into account when determining the grant date fair value of the awards. Service and non-market performance conditions are not taken into account when determining the grant date fair value of awards, but the likelihood of the conditions being met is assessed as part of the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest.

No expense is recognised for awards that do not ultimately vest because non-market performance and/or service conditions have not been met.

When the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, the minimum expense recognised is the expense had the terms not been modified if the original terms of the award are met. An additional expense is recognised for any modification that increases the total fair value of the share-based payment transaction or is otherwise beneficial to the employee as measured at the date of modification.

Where an award is cancelled by the entity or by the counterparty, any remaining element of the fair value of the award is expensed immediately through profit or loss.

The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of diluted earnings per share.

The Group's liability is actuarially determined (using the Projected Unit Credit method) at the end of each year.

Actuarial losses / gains are recognized in the other comprehensive income in the year in which they arise. Remeasurement recognized in other comprehensive income is reflected immediately in retained earnings and is not reclassified to profit or loss.

4. Other Long term employee benefits

In respect of operations in India :

Accumulated compensated absences, which are expected to be availed or encashed within 12 months from the end of the year are treated as short term employee benefits. The obligation towards the same is measured at the expected cost of accumulating compensated absences as the additional amount expected to be paid as a result of the unused entitlement as at the year end.

Accumulated compensated absences, which are expected to be availed or encashed beyond 12 months from the end of the year end are treated as other long term employee benefits. The Group's liability is actuarially determined (using the Projected Unit Credit method) at the end of each year. Current tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities in accordance with the relevant prevailing tax laws. Tax expenses relating to the items in profit and loss shall be treated as current tax as part of profit and loss and those relating to items in other comprehensive income (OCI) shall be recognized as part of OCI.

Deferred tax is recognized for all the temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the Consolidated Financial Statements and corresponding tax bases used in computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax assets are recognized and carried forward only to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the Balance Sheet date. At each Balance Sheet date, the Group re-assesses unrecognized deferred tax assets, if any and the same is recognized to the extent it has become probable that future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle the asset and the liability on a net basis. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off assets against liabilities representing current tax and where the deferred tax assets and the deferred tax liabilities relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing taxation law.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) credit is recognized as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the Group will pay normal income tax during the specified period. Such asset is reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and the carrying amount of the MAT credit asset is written down to the extent there is no longer a convincing evidence to the effect that the Group will pay normal income tax during the specified period. MAT shall be treated as part of deferred tax assets.

13 Financial instruments

Initial recognition

The Group recognizes Financial assets and Financial liabilities when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. All Financial assets and liabilities are recognized at fair value on initial recognition. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of Financial assets and Financial liabilities, that are not at fair value through profit or loss, are added to the fair value on initial recognition.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments: Classification as debt or equity

Financial liabilities and equity instruments issued by the Company are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Instruments (including convertible preference shares) that meet the definition of 'Equity' in its entirety and which do not have any component of liability, is classified as Equity and grouped under 'Instruments entirely equity in nature'. Equity instruments are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs. The transaction costs of an equity transaction are accounted for as a deduction from equity to the extent they are incremental costs directly attributable to the equity transaction that otherwise would have been avoided. The costs of an equity transaction that is abandoned are recognised as an expense.

Subsequent measurement

i. Financial assets carried at amortized cost

A Financial asset is subsequently measured at amortized cost if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the Financial asset give rise to cash flows on specified dates that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

ii. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

A Financial asset which is not classified in the above category is subsequently fair valued through profit or loss.

iii. Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method. For trade and

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

other payables maturing within one year from the Balance Sheet date, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to the short maturity of these instruments.

Derecognition of Financial instruments

The Group derecognizes a Financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the Financial asset expire or it transfers the Financial asset and the transfer qualifies for derecognition under IND AS 109. A Financial liability (or a part of a Financial liability) is derecognized from the Group's Balance Sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

Impairment

All Financial assets classified as at amortized cost shall be tested for impairment under Ind AS 109 and measured using Expected Credit Loss (ECL) model.

14 Fair Value

The Group measures Financial instruments at fair value in accordance with the accounting policies mentioned above. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the Consolidated Financial Statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy that categorizes into three levels, described as follows, the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure value. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 inputs) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 inputs).

Level 1 – quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 – inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly

Level 3 – inputs that are unobservable for the asset or liability

15 Government Grants

Grants from the government are recognized at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions. All government grants are initially recognized by way of setting up as deferred income. Government grants relating to income are subsequently recognized in the profit or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate. Government grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are subsequently recognized in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the expected life of the related depreciable assets. Grants recognized in Profit and Loss as above are presented within other income or adjusted against the corresponding expenditure head as specifically disclosed thereunder.

16 Provisions and Contingent Liabilities

Provisions : Provisions are recognized when there is a present obligation as result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and there is a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the Balance sheet date and are not discounted to its present value unless the effect of time value of money is material. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as a finance cost.

Contingent Liabilities : Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. When there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which likelihood of outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

17 Segment Reporting

The Group is engaged in providing Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS) with capabilities in printed circuit board assembly, custom cable and wire harnesses, etc. Since the Chief Operating Decision Maker (Board of Directors) review the operating results as a whole for purposes of making decisions about resources to be allocated and to assess its performance, the entire operations are to be classified as a single business segment, namely EMS.

18 Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Earnings considered in ascertaining the Group's earnings per share is the net profit for the period after deducting equity dividends and any attributable tax thereto for the period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period and for all periods presented is adjusted for events, such as bonus shares, other than the conversion of potential equity shares, that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

19 Share issue expense

The transaction costs of an equity transaction are accounted for as a deduction from equity to the extent they are incremental costs directly attributable to the equity transaction.

20 Cash & Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprises cash on hand and at banks and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

21 Exceptional items

Exceptional items are those items that management considers, by virtue of their size or incidence, should be disclosed separately to ensure that The financial information allows an understanding of the underlying performance of the business in the year, so as to facilitate comparison with prior periods. Such items are material by nature or amount to the year's result and require separate disclosure in accordance with Ind AS.

3. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS, ASSUMPTIONS AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

The following are the critical judgements, assumptions concerning the future, and key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next Financial year.

3.1. Useful lives of property, plant and equipment

As described above, the charge in respect of periodic depreciation for the year is derived after determining an estimate of an asset's expected useful life and the expected residual value at the end of its life. The useful lives and residual values of Group's assets are determined by the management at the time the asset is acquired and reviewed annually. The lives are based on historical experience with similar assets as well as anticipation of future events, which may impact their life, such as changes in technical or commercial obsolescence arising from changes or improvements in production or from a change in market demand of the product or service output of the asset.

3.2. Employee Benefits

The cost of defined benefit plans are determined using actuarial valuation, which involves making assumptions about discount rates, expected rates of return on assets,

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Significant accounting policies to Standalone Financial Statements

future salary increases, and mortality rates. Due to the long-term nature of these plans, such estimates are subject to significant uncertainty.

3.3. Taxation

Significant assumptions and judgements are involved in determining the provision for tax based on tax enactments, relevant judicial pronouncements and tax expert opinions, including an estimation of the likely outcome of any open tax assessments / litigations. Deferred income tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable income will be available, based on estimates thereof. Significant assumptions are also involved in evaluating the recoverability of deferred tax assets recognised on unused tax losses.

3.4 Provisions and Contingencies

Critical judgements are involved in measurement of provisions and contingencies and estimation of the likelihood of occurrence thereof based on factors such as expert opinion, past experience etc.

3.5 Impairment of Trade Receivable - Expected Credit Loss

The impairment provisions for trade receivables are based on assumptions about risk of default. The Group uses judgement in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs for the impairment calculation, based on Group's past history at the end of each reporting period

4. RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. As at March 31, 2024, there are no Ind AS Standards/ amendments that have been issued but are not yet effective.

f) Critical judgements in determining the lease term

In determining the lease term, management considers all facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive to exercise an extension option, or not to exercise a termination option. Extension options (or periods after termination options) are only included in the lease term if the lease is reasonably certain to be extended (or not terminated).

For leases of buildings, the following factors are normally the most relevant:

- If there are significant penalties to terminate (or not extend), the group is typically reasonably certain to not terminate (or to extend).
- If any lease hold improvements are expected to have a significant remaining value the group is typically reasonably certain to extend (or not terminate).
- Otherwise, the group considers other factors including historical lease durations and the costs and business disruption required to replace the leased asset

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(All amounts are in Million Indian Rupees unless otherwise stated)

The lease term is reassessed if an option is actually exercised (or not exercised) or the group becomes obliged to exercise (or not exercise it). The assessment of reasonable certainty is only revised if a significant event or a significant change in circumstances occurs, which affects the assessment, and that is within the control of the lessee. During the current financial year, there were no material revisions in the lease terms.

g) Extension and Termination Options

Extension and termination options are included in a number of property leases. These are used to maximise operational flexibility in terms of managing the assets used in the group's operations. The majority of extension and termination options held are exercisable only by the group and not by the respective lessor.

The Group (except ABV Electronics Inc (D/B/A Sienna Corporation)) participates in a defined contribution plan on behalf of relevant personnel. Any expense recognised in relation to these schemes represents the value of contributions payable during the period by the Group at rates specified by the rules of those plans. The only amounts included in the balance sheet are those relating to the prior months contributions that were not due to be paid until after the end of the reporting period.

ABV Electronics Inc (D/B/A Sienna Corporation) has a 401(K) plan offered to employees meeting certain eligibility requirements which allows employees to contribute a predefined portion of salary towards a retirement savings account and the Group may make a discretionary match which will be determined each year.

The major defined contribution plans operated by the Group (except ABV Electronics Inc (D/B/A Sienna Corporation)) are as below:

(a) Provident fund and pension

In accordance with the Employee's Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952, eligible employees of the Group are entitled to receive benefits in respect of provident fund, a defined contribution plan, in which both employees and the Group make monthly contributions at a specified percentage of the covered employees' salary.

(b) Employees State Insurance

In accordance with the Employee's State Insurance Act, 1948, eligible employees of the Group are entitled to receive benefits in respect of employee insurance, a defined contribution plan, in which both employees and the Group make monthly contributions at a specified percentage of the covered employees' salary.

B. Defined Benefit Plans

The defined benefit plans operated by the Group (except ABV Electronics Inc (D/B/A Sienna Corporation)) are as below:

The Group has an obligation towards gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan covering eligible employees, which is unfunded except one of the subsidiary Sienna ECAD Technologies Pvt Ltd which has partly funded with the HDFC (HDFC Life Group UL Future Secure Plan). The plan provides for a lump-sum payment to vested employees at retirement, death while in employment or on termination of employment of an amount equivalent to 15 days salary payable for each completed year of service. Vesting occurs upon completion of five years of service. The Group accounts for the liability for gratuity benefits payable in the future based on an actuarial valuation.

The defined benefit plans typically expose the Group to actuarial risks such as: investment risk, interest rate risk, longevity risk and salary risk.

Investment risk	The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated using a discount rate determined by reference to government / high quality bond yields;
Interest risk	A decrease in the bond interest rate will increase the plan liability;
Longevity risk	The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants both during and after their employment. An increase in the life expectancy of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.
Salary risk	The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the future salaries of plan participants. As such, an increase in the salary of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.

Furthermore, in presenting the above sensitivity analysis, the present value of the defined benefit obligation has been calculated using the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period, which is the same as that applied in calculating the defined benefit obligation liability recognised in the balance sheet.

There is no change in the methods and assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis for all the periods presented.

In the opinion of the management, the carrying amounts of financial assets and financial liabilities recognised in the financial statements are a reasonable approximation of their fair values. Hence no separate disclosures of fair value has been made.

The fair value of investment in Mutual Fund is determined based on Net Assets Value published by respective funds (Level - 2 - Fair value hierarchy)

31.3 Financial Risk Management

The Group is exposed to Market risk, Credit risk and Liquidity risk. The Group monitors and manages the financial risks relating to the operations of the Group through internal risk reports which analyse exposures by degree and magnitude of risks.

The following disclosures summarize the Group's exposure to financial risks. Quantitative sensitivity analysis have been provided to reflect the impact of reasonably possible changes in market risks on the financial results, cash flows and financial position of the Group.

31.3.1 Market Risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market conditions. Market risk mainly comprises of interest rate risk, currency risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk includes borrowings, investments, trade payables, trade receivables and current investments. The Group's activities expose it primarily to the financial risks of changes in foreign currency exchange rates, interest rates and other price risk.

There has been no change to the Group's exposure to market risks or the manner in which these risks are being managed and measured.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(All amounts are in Million Indian Rupees unless otherwise stated)

(a) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The group's exposure to changes in interest rates primarily relates to the companies outstanding floating rate debt and investments in fixed deposits. The group has investments in INR denominated fixed deposits and a portion of its working capital debt is denominated in foreign currency. These credit facilities are subject to periodic interest rate resets. Based on the past experience the variability of interest investments and working capital loan are not expected to be material. Further there are only short term foreign currency debt in the form of packing credit which are subject to minimal changes in interest rate during its term.

(b) Foreign Currency risk

The Group undertakes transactions denominated in foreign currencies; consequently, exposures to exchange rate fluctuations arise. Significant portion of the Group's purchases and sales are denominated in foreign currency and hence, a natural hedge exists as a result of which, major foreign exchange fluctuations in import payables gets offset against export receivables. Apart from the above, exchange rate exposures are also managed within approved policy parameters by constant monitoring.

The carrying amounts of the Group's foreign currency denominated monetary assets and monetary liabilities at the end of the reporting period are as follows :

In management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the inherent foreign exchange risk because the exposure at the end of the reporting period does not reflect the exposure during the year.

31.3.2 Credit Risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group. The Group has adopted a policy of only dealing with creditworthy counterparties as a means of mitigating the risk of financial loss from defaults. The Group's exposure to its counterparties are continuously monitored and the aggregate value of transactions concluded is spread amongst counterparties. Credit exposure is controlled by counterparty limits that are reviewed and approved by the management.

Trade receivables consist of a large number of customers. Ongoing credit evaluation is performed on the financial condition of accounts receivable. The maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date is the carrying value of each class of financial assets disclosed in Note 8. The Group does not hold collateral as security. The Group has evaluated the concentration of risk with respect to trade receivables as low, as its customers are located in several jurisdictions and industries and operate in largely independent markets.

(All amounts are in Million Indian Rupees unless otherwise stated)

Credit risk arising from other balances with banks is limited and there is no collateral held against these because the counterparties are banks with high credit ratings assigned by the international credit rating agencies. Similarly, credit risk arising from investment in Mutual Funds are held without any collateral but credit risk is limited as the group deals with counterparties of repute and excellent track record.

31.3.3 Liquidity Risk

Ultimate responsibility for liquidity risk management rests with the board of directors, which has established an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Group's short-term, medium-term and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves, banking facilities and reserve borrowing facilities, by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows, and by matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

The following tables detail the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial liabilities with agreed repayment periods. The tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay.
