Investment & Precision Castings Ltd receives New Contract from Israel Weapon Industries (IWI)

We are pleased to announce that Investment & Precision Castings Limited (I&PCL) has entered into a long-term contract with Israel Weapons Industries for the export of precision investment casting components for the defense sector. The contract is expected to generate consistent revenues over next four years.

A word from Mr. Piyush I Tamboli, Chairman & Managing Director of I&PCL :

"This strategic agreement highlights I&PCL's growing presence in the global defense market and our capability to meet the stringent standards required for critical applications. This development is a testament to the Company's advanced manufacturing capabilities, commitment to quality, and dedication to supporting the defense industry worldwide. This accomplishment demonstrates our unwavering commitment to excellence, innovation, and the trust our stakeholders have placed in us. We are excited to explore new horizons and create even greater opportunities for growth and collaboration."

Further details on the financial implications and other key aspects will be provided as and when required, in compliance with the Company's Policy and regulatory guidelines.
