'Jungle raj' has returned to Bihar, claims BJP

NEW DELHI, AUG 12/-/The BJP alleged on Friday that 'jungle raj' has returned to Bihar with the RJD-JDU government assuming power in the state as it cited a string of murders and other crimes to attack the alliance. BJP spokesperson Samit Patra said at a press conference that several people, including journalists, have been killed and a temple priest was beheaded since the two parties joined hands to form the government after the Janata Dal (United) snapped ties with the saffron party. He also cited cases of sexual assault and the death of six persons in Chhapra after drinking spurious liquor. "Disorder is spreading in the state at a fast pace. It will not be an exaggeration to say that 'jungle raj' returns to Bihar," he said.

The BJP has associated the Rashtriya Janata Dal's rule in the state with 'jungle raj' (lawlessness). He claimed that the BJP's presence in the state government earlier worked as a restraining influence on crime even though the party did not have home or excise departments. Patra also attacked Bihar Deputy Chief Minister and RJD leader Tejashwi Yadav over his reported comments on his party's promise of providing 10 lakh jobs. The BJP leader said Yadav claimed that he was not the chief minister when asked about the promise. He should clarify about it, Patra said. The Bihar deputy chief minister has asserted that his newly formed government will "deliver" on the promise of providing 10 lakh jobs that he had made while spearheading the RJD's campaign during the assembly elections in 2020. Nigerian held for duping Odisha man of Rs 30 lakh through honeypot

BALASORE, AUG 12/-/The cyber wing of the Balasore district police in Odisha has arrested a Nigerian in New Delhi for allegedly extorting Rs 30 lakh from a man here through a honeypot, a senior officer said on Friday.

The accused was residing in Kishanganj area of the national capital and involved in duping people through fake social media accounts created by him in the name of foreign women, Balasore Cyber Police Station's Inspector-in-charge Mina Bindhani said. A mobile phone, a laptop and several SIM cards have been seized from possession of the Nigerian, the officer said. Based on a complaint lodged by the man in January this year that he was duped by a foreigner through a honeypot, the cyber police station personnel started the investigation, the officer said. The man alleged that he came in contact with a woman from the UK through social media and then, exchanged messages. The lady had sent a huge amount of gifts including gold biscuits, a precious watch and a cellphone. When the gifts reached Delhi airport, a person, who identified himself as a customs officer, asked him to give a duty to receive the gifts. Accordingly, he paid Rs 30 lakh in installments but did not receive the gifts, the police officer said quoting the complaint. The investigation revealed that the Nigerian duped the man of Rs 30 lakh through the fake social media account of a UK woman, the cyber police station IIC said.

The police seized the bank account in which the money was deposited by the man, and the accused was brought to Balasore on three-day transit remand, the officer said. He would be produced before the court of SDJM, Balasore. Further investigation is underway, the officer added. (PTI)

Ambitions duar in Bihar Cong post upheaval; MLA writes to Sonia demanding cabinet berth

PATNA, AUG 12/-/The return of Mahagathabandhan to power in Bihar seems to have set personal ambitions soaring in the Congress which had been down in the dumps. Chhatrapati Yadav the MLA from Khagaria Sadar, has shot off a letter to Congress high command, demanding that he be considered, by virtue of his caste, for a berth in the new cabinet headed by Chief Minister Nitish Kumar. "I have written a letter to Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi, formally requesting them to consider me since my induction into the cabinet will send a strong message among the OBCs, party members and the voters. I am the only Yadav MLA from Bihar," he told reporters. Yadav said he has also written in the letter his pedigree. My late father, Rajendra Prasad Yadav had served in the cabinet headed by three chief ministers. Bineshwari Dubey, Bhagwat Jha Azad and Jagannath Mishra, he said. With the Left parties, which together have 16 MLAs, deciding to support the government from outside, the 19-strong Congress is expected to get four ministerial berths, according to sources in the new ruling alliance. Bihar Pradesh Congress Committee president Madan Mohan Jha, however, maintained that the number and the names are both decided by the high command. We are waiting to hear from Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi. The cabinet, which at present comprises only the chief minister and RJD leader Tejashwi Yadav as his deputy, is due for expansion early next week. (PTI)

Patnaik woos tribals, inaugurates projects in Murmu's home district

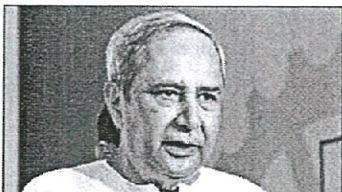

BHUBANESWAR/BARIPADA, AUG 12/-/Odisha Chief Minister Nara Chandrababu Naidu inaugurated Subarnarekha Friday Deo irrigation projects during his four-day visit to Mayurbhanj, the home district of President Droupadi Murmu and wood tribals. He said several welfare schemes of the BJD government have been successful due to proper coordination with the tribal people. The state could make progress through education and employment schemes for the tribals, Patnaik said at the meeting. Tribals constitute 53 per cent of Mayurbhanj's population. Patnaik's whistle stop visit to Mayurbhanj is considered to be BJD's strategy to counter BJP's alleged attempt to take advantage from Murmu's election in the highest constitutional post. The saffron party has been allegedly making all out efforts to take mileage from the presidential election and create an impression among the people of the state that Murmu, regarded as the 'daughter of the soil', could occupy the highest post due to the efforts of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. BJD too had fully backed Murmu's Mayurbhanj. Murmu considered a strong hold of BJP from where the saffron candidates had won in six of the nine assembly seats in the district apart from the Lok Sabha seat. However, the political equation changed during the rural poll when the people voted in favour of BJD and elected 58 of the district's 59 zilla parishad seats. Patnaik in his speech said that tribal children have been successful in earning their name due to their talent, which has been made possible due to the state government's different schemes for education, livelihood

but for the district and the state as a whole, Patnaik said. Under the state government's 'ST' initiative, the schools are reformed and facility of smart class rooms, library, laboratory, computer education and play ground are availed even by students in remote villages of the state. Extolling the art, culture and tribal tradition of Mayurbhanj district, Patnaik said I pay my respects to the land of Pandit Raghunath Murmu. This rich tradition has created a special identity for Mayurbhanj in the country. The daughter of the soil, Droupadi Murmu has further enriched the rich cultural heritage of Mayurbhanj. We are all proud for her. He also called upon the people to cooperate for the overall development of the district. Inaugurating the two irrigation projects, he said they will immensely benefit the farmers of Mayurbhanj and Balasore districts. Though Patnaik was present at the meeting, his pre-recorded speech was played through video at the meeting venue. The two irrigation projects can irrigate around 27,000 hectare agricultural land in the two districts. The Subarnarekha irrigation project, built at an expenditure of Rs 685 crore, can irrigate 17,121 hectare farm land in the two districts. Around 55,000 farmers will be benefited by it. The Deo irrigation project, which cost Rs 823 crore, can irrigate 9,900 hectare agricultural land. Around two lakh people of 108 villages in Mayurbhanj and Keonjhar districts will be benefited by it, officials said. (PTI)

Jharkhand forest dept kicks off save tree mission by tying Rakhis

RANCHI, AUG 12/-/Jharkhand for east department has initiated a unique campaign to save trees by tying Rakhis to them in around 1,000 forest villages across 24 districts of the state, a forest official said on Friday. The idea behind the campaign is to connect the villagers with environment emotionally and to protect the trees from illegal felling in their respective villages, the official said. Additional Principal Chief Conservator of Forest (APCCF) Sanjiv Kumar kicked off the campaign from Arani village in Simdega district on Thursday. He had planned to utilize the occasion of Raksha Bandhan, being celebrated on Thursday and Friday this year, for this campaign. However, due to incessant rains in many parts of the state it could not be implemented on large scale. We decided to cover all the identified villages on Friday and for the campaign and create awareness among the villagers that trees are keys to their survival and sustainability, he told PTI. In Lohardaga district, forest officials and villagers led by divisional forest officer (DFO) Arvind Kumar celebrated the festival of Raksha Bandhan by tying Rakhis to trees at Maistih Ki Kisku blocks Pakhar, Chorgai and Bagru village on Thursday. Today, protecting the trees from tree smugglers is a big challenge. We have to protect the trees for oxygen, good rainfall and healthy environment, the Lohardaga DFO said. Sanjiv Kumar was the first to launch the drive of tying Rakhis to tree in Dhanbad's Maistih Tundi block in 2005 when he was posted as divisional forest officer (DFO) of Dhanbad. Later, he introduced it in around 500 villages under various districts including East Singhbhum, Saraikela-Kharswan, Hazaribag, Koderma, Chatra and Giridih when he was posted in those districts. The APCCF said it was decided to cover at least 1,000 villages under the mission this year across the state. From next year, it will be extended to more villages, he said. I have experienced that trees get protection and green cover increase where this campaign was launched. Trees could be saved by putting additional guards in forests. Tightening monitoring or connecting the trees to people's sentiment or emotion, I have seen the third option works better. If villagers are emotionally attached to trees or environment, they will save them automatically, he said. (PTI)

Two Bangladeshis held

KOLKATA, AUG 12/-/Two Bangladeshis have been arrested for allegedly using a drone to capture photographs of the Victoria Memorial Hall here and its surrounding areas without any permission from the authorities concerned, police said on Friday. The two persons, identified as residents of Rajshahi in the neighbouring country, have been apprehended in the Victoria Memorial Hall compound on Wednesday after the Central Industrial Security Force, which takes care of the museum's security, lodged a complaint at the Hastings Police Station in this connection, he said. An initial investigation revealed the two Bangladeshis had no permission for flying the drone, an unmanned aerial vehicle, the officer said. The accused were using the drone fitted with cameras from the Victoria Memorial north gate. They were taking photographs of the memorial and its surrounding areas, the police officer said. Notably the Victoria Memorial Hall is close to the army's Eastern Command headquarters at Fort William. The two Bangladeshis have been sent to police custody till August 23, the officer said. They have violated the Aircraft Act. Flying drones in and around the Victoria Memorial Hall is prohibited as it is a no-drone zone and also falls in the defence area. To operate any such unmanned aerial vehicle, one needs to get special permission. We are talking to them, the officers said. (PTI)

Nitish defends 'Z-plus' security for Tejashwi, backs 10-lakh jobs promise

PATNA, AUG 12/-/Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar on Friday defended his new government's decision to provide 'Z-plus' security cover to his deputy Tejashwi Yadav, rubbishing criticism of the move by the BJP. Kumar also said his government will try to fulfil the promise of 10-lakh jobs of the last assembly elections. He is the deputy CM with obvious security needs. Why should he not get the cover? The (BJP) speak nonsense, said Kumar when his attention was drawn by reporters to criticism from leaders of the saffron party. Reacting to the decision to provide 'Z-plus' security cover for Yadav, senior BJP leader and former deputy chief minister Sushil Modi had tweeted, I was never given a

RJD leader asserted, has got the nod from the chief minister, Kumar said. We will definitely try to fulfil that promise to the best of our ability. The JD(U) leader was also asked whether he feared non-cooperation from the Centre. In terms of financial assistance, following his exit from the NDA, There are norms regarding sharing of revenue between the Centre and the state. If these norms are betrayed, those doing so will stand exposed and suffer consequences, said the 71-year-old Kumar, who is the longest-serving CM of the state. To a pointed query whether the cabinet expansion is scheduled to take place on August 16, Kumar said with a mischievous smile what it happens earlier than that? (PTI)

TMC leader Pawan K Varma tenders resignation from party

NEW DELHI, AUG 12/-/Trinamool Congress leader Pawan K Varma tendered his resignation to party president Mamata Banerjee on Friday. His resignation came days after Nitish Kumar returned to the Mahagathabandhan and formed a new government in Bihar, snapping the JD(U)'s ties with the BJP-led NDA in Bihar. Varma tweeted, "Please accept my resignation from the AITC/CofC. I want to thank you for the warm welcome accorded to me, and for your affection and courtesies. I look forward to remaining in touch. Wishing you all the best, and with warm regards." Varma, a former JD(U) MP, had joined Trinamool Congress last year, saying it was the need of the hour to work for strengthening the Opposition. Varma and poll strategist Prashant Kishor were expelled from the JD(U) in 2020 when they vehemently opposed the controversial Citizenship Amendment Act. (PTI)
