S Chand launches 'Learnflix Bangla' focused on West Bengal Market

New Delhi, December 01, 2021. S Chand And Company, India's leading education content company has launched vernacular version of its digital learning mobile app Learnflix – 'Learnflix Bangla' targeted at the West Bengal Board students. Learnflix Bangla is initially being launched for Classes IX & X with Math and Science subjects. It includes numerous high-quality videos, series of figures (SOF), revision notes, assessments, sample papers based on WBBSE Syllabus. Content for classes XI and XII will be released by March - April 2022. We have plans to add other subjects in due course as well.

The target market has over 4 million students in classes IX to XII. Chhaya as a brand already reaches out to around 3.5 million learners in this segment being the largest provider of supplementary content for students. The Company expects to onboard 20K users by March 2023 and 100K users over the next year and ahead.

'Learnflix Bangla' has been created with a Spiral Learning Pedagogy that ensures all concepts are well learnt, revised, practiced, and assessed. The application has been launched currently with a free trial period for the current academic session and would offer highly affordable prices for the next academic session.

Some of the key features of Learnflix Bangla are as follows:-

- One subscription, access to everything. Learnflix Bangla has developed several insightful Math and Science videos with the help of experienced educators. The app allows easy and quick understanding of Math and Science subjects. The core idea of facilitating learning through Learnflix Bangla is to help students learn at their own pace. And provide access to all the essential material to rightfully build the concepts, to be able to face examinations fearlessly.
- Spiral Learning Pedagogy - Learn, revise, practice, and assess. The objective behind introducing the Spiral Learning Pedagogy method is to help students learn better each time a topic is reviewed and encountered. Learnflix Bangla enables this through engaging videos, assessment tests, focused analytics, progress analysis reports and remedial.
- Learn anytime, anywhere. Learnflix Bangla is designed to complement learnings at the school. It enables learning anytime anywhere at your pace. You may browse through the app to view inclusive learning material available for Math and Science subjects.
- Engaging videos. The app provides engaging videos for enabling you to understand the concepts.
- Focused and Actionable Analytics. Learnflix Bangla generates and delivers focused analytics that requires action by the user. It will show you the summary of your study time, topics revised through videos, the number of questions attempted etc. As per your performance in quiz or practice tests, you will be notified about your improvement areas.
