TERROR FUNDING CASE

Security personnel stand guard as NIA members carry out raid at the Greater Kashmir office, in Srinagar on Thursday.

NIA raids 6 NGOs, trusts in Delhi, J&K

OUR BUREAU / New Delhi

Continuing the searches launched in Jammu and Kashmir on Wednesday, the National Investigation Agency (NIA) on Thursday further raided nine premises of six NGOs and trusts in Srinagar and Delhi on suspicion that these organisations were raising funds for charitable activities and then using them to carry out secessionist and separatist activities in the territory. NIA had registered a case on October 8 on the directions of the Ministry of Home Affairs on receipt of credible information that these NGOs and trusts collect funds domestically and abroad through donations and business contributions in the name of various welfare activities such as public health and education and then the funds are sent to J&K through various channels such as hawala and cash couriers to sustain secessionist and terrorist activities. In a press note, it claimed several incriminating documents and electronic devices were seized during the searches. Offices of the Falah-e-Aam Trust, Charity Alliance, Human Welfare Foundation, J&K Yateem Foundation, Salvation Movement and J&K Voice of Victims (JKVoV) were being raided by the anti-terror probe agency sleuths.

Rajasthan directs 30-40% cut in school fees

JAIPUR: Bringing cheer to the parents amid Corona pandemic, the Rajasthan govt has directed the CBSE affiliated private schools to slash the tuition fees by 30% for class 9 to 12, while the schools affiliated with the state board have to reduce their fees by 40% for the same classes. As the CBSE reduced the school syllabus from Class 9 to 12 by 30%, therefore their school tuition fees should be reduced by 30%. At the same time, the Rajasthan Board has reduced the syllabus by 40%, so they should reduce the fee by 40%, said the order.

J-K Police seal PDP office in Srinagar

Workers protesting against new land laws detained

AGENCIES
Srinagar

The Jammu and Kashmir Police sealed the Srinagar office of People's Democratic Party (PDP) on Thursday and detained its workers protesting against the new land laws and ongoing NIA raids on six NGOs and trusts. Taking to Twitter, Party chief Mehbooba Mufti said that the PDP won't tolerate attempts to change the Jammu and Kashmir demographics.

"The PDP office in Srinagar sealed by Jammu and Kashmir administration and workers arrested for organising a peaceful protest. A similar protest was allowed in Jammu so why was it thwarted here? Is this your definition of 'normalcy', that's being showcased in the world," asked the former chief minister on Twitter. "PDP's Waheed Ur

Police personnel detain PDP leaders during a protest against the recent notification of land laws outside PDP office, in Srinagar.

Rehman, Khurshid Alam, Rouf Bhat, Mohsin Qayoom and Mohit Bhan were arrested by Jammu and Kashmir police for protesting against the settler-colonial land laws thrust upon (the) people of Jammu and Kashmir. We will continue to raise our voice collectively and won't tolerate attempts to change demographics," she tweeted.

"Many others like Tahir Sayeed, Yasin Bhat, and Hameed Kohshien also arrested. A government desperate to curb any kind of dissent and ready to crush its own people but all the machismo disappears when it comes to fighting China at the LAC (Line of Actual Control)," she said in another tweet.

J&K converted into open jail: Mehbooba Mufti

SRINAGAR: Former Chief Minister Mehbooba Mufti said Jammu and Kashmir has been converted into a jail where voices of politicians, journalists and civil society members are being stifled. Speaking to reporters at her residence on the Gupkar road in Srinagar on Thursday she said nobody is allowed to speak in Kashmir be it journalists, civil society members or politicians. "There is total lawlessness. Jammu and Kashmir has been converted into a jail," she said.

WB govt meets Amit Shah

KOLKATA: West Bengal Governor Jagdeep Dhankhar met Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Thursday during his two-day visit to Delhi. While BJP State President Dilip Ghosh called it a routine visit, Dhankhar in his press conference after meeting Shah raised concern over the law and order situation in West Bengal and condemned the state administration including Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee. Dhankhar said, "I do not believe in criticism. I believe in restructuring." The Governor chose not to comment on what the discussion was with the Union Home Minister while he is believed to have submitted a report on the law and order situation in the state. —Prema Rajaram

Yeddy will be replaced after Bihar poll results: Congress

SHANKAR RAJ / Bengaluru

Even as BJP leaders are discussing the possibility of replacing BS Yediyurappa for favouring defectors who helped him form a government, the Congress says it has "credible" information that the CM would be removed from his post after the Bihar elections. "I have accurate information that Yediyurappa will not remain the chief minister after the Bihar elections," leader of opposition and former Chief Minister Siddaramaiah said. He was speaking to a local TV channel. When pressed further, he said "I have accurate information from New Delhi that he won't remain the chief minister after Bihar elections. I don't know if the BJP government will complete its term after Yediyurappa is made to resign. In case the government cannot continue, we are ready to fight elections," he said. Siddaramaiah's statement comes in the backdrop of BJP MLA from Bijapur, Basanagouda Patil Yatnal, saying that that Yediyurappa won't be the CM for long and that a new candidate from North Karnataka would replace him. "Many MLAs are unhappy with Yediyurappa as funds have not been allocated for their constituencies," Siddaramaiah said. There is massive speculation in Bengaluru that Yediyurappa would be asked to step down from his post to make way for his successor. Several BJP leaders from North Karnataka who were unhappy about being sidelined had met at a hotel in Hubballi to discuss the potential candidate for Belagavi bye-polls on Wednesday. However, BJP sources said the leaders also discussed the issue of Yediyurappa's successor.

Apex court to decide personal insolvency cases

OUR BUREAU
New Delhi

The Supreme Court on Thursday transferred to itself all pending petitions before the High Courts challenging provisions of the personal insolvency under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code and directed the High Courts not to entertain any more writ petitions on the issue. The ruling came from a Bench of Justices L Nageswara Rao, Hemant Gupta and Ajay Rastogi, stressing that all interim directions passed in the pending cases will continue till further orders. It fixed the next hearing on December 2 for detailed arguments. The pending personal insolvency cases include that of Anil Ambani, who had given personal guarantees for SBI loans to RCom and Reliance Infratel Ltd in August 2016 for Rs 565 crore and Rs 635 crore respectively.

Rajinikanth hints at no show in politics

N CHITHRA / Chennai

Tamil film superstar Rajinikanth's proposed entry into the world of "spiritual politics" could well remain a non-starter with the actor on Thursday acknowledging health concerns in the midst of the global Covid-19 pandemic. The actor was on Thursday forced to come out with an explanation on his health after a letter, in his name, did the rounds on social media. The 'letter' spoke about how the actor would not make his promised entry into politics ahead of the next Assembly elections in Tamil Nadu, citing the pandemic. In a short statement on Twitter, Rajinikanth said, "All of you know that the letter being widely circulated in my name in social media and media is not mine." He added, "However, the part about my health and the advice given to me by doctors mentioned in that are completely true." Curiously the actor did not explain how every word on his health status in the 'letter', which was circulated by random people, was true.

BIHAR ASSEMBLY POLLS

Don't want to comment on Modi's remarks: Tejashwi

AGENCIES / Patna

In the wake of the 'Yuvraj of Jungle Raj' remark by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Mahagathabandhan leader Tejashwi Yadav on Thursday said the PM of our country is free to say anything. "We were expecting him to say something on unemployment, job creation, special package, starvation in Bihar but he has taken a different path to attack me. I don't want to comment on his remarks," Yadav said. "The core issue of this election is unemployment, development and people know it. Despite this they [the NDA] are not talking on real issuess," he said further. Earlier, during the Madhubani rally on Wednesday evening, Yadav said the biggest enemies of the people of Bihar are unemployment and corruption. Bihar has a double-engine government and one of its engines created unemployment and the other was involved in corruption, he claimed. Referring to Mithilanchal belt where Madhubani is located, he said: "This place has a huge scope of establishing agriculture-based industries. I want to ask the double-engine govt why there is no food processing unit here," Yadav had said.

PAK SPITS IN ITS OWN FACE

After a convoy of vehicles carrying Indian security personnel on the Jammu-Srinagar National Highway was blown away by a vehicle-borne suicide bomber on February 14 last year, Pakistan had condemned the attack and denied any connection to it. India had, of course, always blamed Pakistan for orchestrating the attack, the responsibility for which was claimed by the terrorist organisation Jaish-e-Mohammed (JeM). But Chaudhry has nailed his prime minister's lie that terror is not an instrument of State policy and that it was not in the country's interest to provide safe haven to terrorists. Khan also had the audacity to ask India for "proof" of Pakistani involvement. Khan had then given the skewed reasoning that although Jaish is based in Pakistan, it also has a presence in Kashmir, and thus the attack is an "indigenous thing" that happened in India. "A Kashmiri boy was radicalised after the brutalities of the Indian security forces and he carried out the attack, but suddenly Pakistan came into the limelight," Khan had said. In the light of the confession by its Federal Minister, Pakistan cannot even keep up the pretence that the insurgency in Kashmir Valley is a 'home-spun' movement. The optics of it are likely to figure in global fora at a time Pakistan is desperately trying to keep itself off the FATF blacklist, which would lead to a multilateral fund squeeze. The comments are also a major embarrassment for some of the Opposition parties which had suggested by innuendo that the Pulwama strike was scripted by the Indian intelligence agencies.

IAF PILOT'S RELEASE: WHEN LEGS...

However, Sadiq did not say whether he was referring to Gen. Bajwa or foreign minister Qureshi "whose legs were shaking and forehead perspiring". The 37-year-old IAF pilot was captured by the Pakistani Army on February 27 after his jet was brought down in aerial combat. Before his jet was hit, Abhinandan had downed an F-16 fighter of Pakistan. He was released on the night of March 1 by Pakistan. Sadiq revealed that Prime Minister Imran Khan had skipped the high-level meeting. He also says that it is his understanding that India was not planning to attack. "Rather, they - the Pakistan top leadership -- just wanted to kneel before India and send back Abhinandan." Sadiq said that he tries not to desist from making personal attacks but "when those in power refer to us as thieves or 'Modi ka yaar' (Prime Minister Narendra Modi's pal), we will have to respond".

Jihadist beheads 2 in French Church

In another incident, two hours later, a man armed with a handgun and shouting 'Allah-u-Akbar' was shot and killed by cops in Avignon. The attacks came amid fury across the Islamic world at President Macron for defending satirical cartoons of the Prophet Mohammed. It also comes less than two weeks after a schoolteacher, Samuel Paty, was beheaded north of Paris for showing cartoons of the Prophet to his class in a lesson on free speech. Meanwhile, in Saudi Arabia, a man was arrested after stabbing a guard at the French consulate with a sharp tool. The attacker was arrested while the guard was taken to hospital with non-life threatening injuries. France's embassy in Riyadh condemned the 'attack on diplomatic premises which can never be justified'.

Fine, we'll run trains but 1/3rd can travel

"Currently ticketing is being done through booking counters only, to restrict the issuance of tickets only to permissible categories of passengers. Once the suburban services are opened up for the public, tickets will have to be issued to all. For this, the UTS APP may have to be restarted, which we have disabled presently as it does not have the facility to issue tickets to a particular category. Therefore, before opening up suburban services to the public, access to the station, through technological solutions will need to be ensured beforehand by the state government," an official said. Moreover, the state government has suggested that a ladies special train be operated every hour but the railways fear that if this is done, women will gather at the platform, awaiting the ladies' special. "Similarly, the male passengers will also start accumulating to be able to board the train after ladies' special. Thus, the dwell time of both male and female passengers on the platforms will increase creating an artificial surge, a situation that we would like to avoid to maintain social distancing," read the letter.

Senior railway officials said the state government should quickly decide upon the technological solution they propose, to stagger the rush in the trains. It is learnt that the West Bengal government has already taken steps in this direction and the Maharashtra government is also considering the development of an app for the purpose. "Meetings in this context have been held by the State Government on October 22 and 27, in which Central Railway and Western Railway officials also participated. Railways is willing to provide all statistical inputs to the state government, if required, for development of this technological solution," said the official.

State lockdown till midnight of Nov 30

This means hotels, restaurants, food courts, gyms, salons, essential and non-essential shops, e-commerce services will continue to function. Besides, inter- and intra-district transportation, BEST will continue to operate at full capacity. However, schools and colleges will remain shut till further orders. The government's decision not to permit reopening of places of worship is significant in the face of the threat by some organisations to break open the locks and enter these places. Even more significant is the letter sent by Governor BS Koshiyari to CM Thackeray on October 11, expressing serious displeasure and questioning the latter's Hindutva. This had prompted Thackeray to reply: "But I want to ask you whether reopening places of worship means 'Hindutva' and not reopening them means a person is 'secular'?"

Munger SP, DM shunted

The outgoing SP had denied any police firing. Hours later, the Bihar government, on the instructions of the Election Commission, named 2010-batch IAS officer Rachna Patil as the new District Magistrate and 2009-batch IPS officer Manoj Singh Dhillon as the new SP. The RJD-helmed Grand Alliance has strongly criticised Monday's firing, likening the action of the district police to that of General Dyer in Jallianwala Bagh. Coming on the heels of the first phase of polling, the incident had its impact on voting too; two of the three Assembly seats -- Munger and Jamalpur -- witnessed lower voter turnout, as against that in the 2015 polls. Lipti Singh, the Munger SP, is considered close to the chief minister. According to sources, she is treated like a member in the chief minister's household. She and her husband, an IAS officer, were in attendance during the annual puja for Nishant, Chief Minister Nitish Kumar's son. They were acting like his guardian during the proceedings, said sources.

Can a media trial amount to contempt...

for reporting such cases and that media trial hinders the administration of justice, which could amount to contempt of court. After considering the submissions, CJ Datta summoned Additional Solicitor General (ASG) Anil Singh and posed a series of queries to him, depicting various scenarios wherein excessive media coverage might hinder justice. "Imagine there is excessive coverage; the accused in such a scenario might be on guard and end up either destroying the evidence or abscond. What if the media identifies a person to be a vital witness in the case. S/he could be won over, threatened or even physically harmed to ensure s/he doesn't testify," CJ Datta said. The chief justice further said that in case the one who was being shown as the accused was actually innocent, "then this kind of excessive coverage might tarnish and damage that person's reputation," the court pointed out.

"Let us point out that such an impact is not only limited to an accused or an innocent person. What about the impact on the investigator," the CJ said, adding, "Take if the investigator is on a particular track, which is the right one. But then the media will say no, this isn't the correct track, then the investigator loses his track." "And if a police officer doesn't get influenced by the media then it starts maligning him. Please elaborate if this is a welcome in a society governed by rule of law," CJ Datta remarked. Chief Justice Datta, accordingly, asked ASG Singh to address the court on all these issues on the next date of hearing, which is on November 6. The judge further explained that usually the media defends itself in such cases, saying that it is part of their 'investigative journalism'. "But we think investigative journalism is just laying bare the truth," CJ Datta observed, adding, "We are unaware of any law that obliges an investigating officer to make public all the evidence in a case." "We fail to understand, how does the autopsy report come to the media unless the course of it is disclosed. Should we lay guidelines on these aspects?" CJ Datta asked Union government, while adjourning the case.

DHARAVI: BACK TO TENDERS YET AGAIN

After the committee of secretaries decided to scrap the tender process, Sedink had said it would bid afresh. The Dharavi Redevelopment Committee, a federation of 52 residents' associations, had opposed the earlier decision, saying it would further delay the project pending for 16 years. Under the proposed redevelopment, 67,000 families living in Dharavi were to get 350sqft houses. Housing Minister Jitendra Awhad, who had recently met Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray with a plea for an early decision on Dharavi redevelopment, told The Free Press Journal, "The redevelopment will provide homes to the residents and will also bring in a churn in Mumbai's realty sector." An official from the housing department said Sedink Technologies was the sole bidder and the previous government had extended the tender dates twice, to attract more bidders. In January 2019, the tender was opened. Sedink Technologies had placed a bid of Rs 7,200 crore against Adani Group's Rs 4,500 crore. The government was expected to issue the letter of award by February 7, 2019, but it did not take place. The official said the tendering process would commence after amendments to some terms and conditions, which would include the issue of transfer of 45 acres of railway land for the proposed redevelopment project.
