MUMBAI | FRIDAY | AUGUST 21, 2020

MUMBAI: Maharashtra minister Eknath Shinde on Thursday said that the state has performed a hat-trick by bagging the maximum number of awards in the Centre's Swachh Survekshan 2020 for urban areas. For cities with population of less than 1 lakh, Karad bagged the first position, followed by Saswad and Lonavala, he said. In the Western region, for cities with less than 25,000 population, Panhala bagged an award, while Jejuri got an award in the category of sustainable clean city.

TMC & MBMC Make A Clean Sweep

Thane Municipal Corporation makes it to 14th position; while Mira Bhayandar Municipal Corporation secures the 19th spot in Swachh Survekshan 2020

SURESH GOLANI AND PRIYANKA DHOMSE

The government on Thursday announced the results of the annual survey of cleanliness, Swachh Survekshan 2020. While Indore once again retained the top spot as the cleanest city in India. The Thane Municipal Corporation (TMC) managed to make it to the 14th position across the country and third in the state, while the Mira Bhayandar Municipal Corporation (MBMC) secured its place in the top 20 cities by clinching the 19th position. The survey is the Central government's ambitious ranking exercise to evaluate the various measurable aspects of sanitation and hygiene of towns and cities across the country. Interestingly, Surat in Gu-

its 130th position in 2017 in jarat and Navi Mumbai in Maharashtra were ranked second and third, respectively. In the category of population of less than 1 lakh, Maharashtra's Karad bagged the first position, followed the pan-India ranking exercise. This year the MBMC scored 4,608.14 out of 6,000 points in the national survey held between January 4 by Saswad and Lonavala. and 31. A total of 1.9 crore Interestingly, the MBMC citizens across 4,242 cities participated in the nationwide survey. While the MBMC improved its ranking from 27th in 2019 to 19th this year for being one of the cleanest cities in the population category of 3 lakh to 10 lakh, its position slipped from the 3rd to fourth place at the state level. The city was evaluated by a team from the Quality Council of India on parameters like- collection and transportation of municipal solid waste, its processing and disposal, information, citizen feedback, education and communication, capacity building, open defecation free (ODF) certification, innovation and best practices. This apart from league points awarded on the basis of updation of the urban online dashboard or Management Information System. "It's a matter of pride for us. I am thankful to our civic team especially sanitation workers for their hard-work and citizens for their co-operation. We will work on a warfooting to further improve the twin-city's cleanliness quotients," said Mayor Jyot-

Mumbai: Inter-district bus services of the Maharashtra State Road Transport Corporation (MSRTC) resumed on Thursday morning after a gap of almost five months, officials said.

The Maha govt on Wednesday permitted the state-owned undertaking to re-start interdistrict bus operations, which were stopped in March after the enforcement of lockdown to contain the spread of COVID-19.

Gambling den busted in Mira Road flat

Five persons including three women have been arrested

Five gamblers including three women landed behind bars after a team from the Thane (rural) police swooped down on a fifth floor apartment located in a posh housing locality in Mira Road on Wednes-

According to the police, working on a specific tip-off received from an informant, a crime detection team led by lade PSI Palande under the instructions of Senior Police Inspector-Sandip Kadam, raided the apartment-cum-den in the Shanti Park area of Mira Road and caught five people including the owner, who were found to be indulged in placing monetary bets on card gambling material, cash amounting more than Rs. 18,000 was seized during the raid, the police said. All the accused have been booked under the relevant sections of the Bombay Prevention of Gambling Act. With gamblers preferring flats in high profile areas in discreet residential neighborhoods to conduct their nefarious hobbies, the gambling menace has become a serious concern for the Thane (rural) police. Elderly woman robbed of gold ornaments in Mira Rd

SURESH GOLANI / Bhayandar

The notorious Bol Bachan (term used for glib talkers) gang is striking at will, even as the Thane (rural) police continue to grope in the dark.

A 68-year-old woman from the Naya Nagar area of Mira Road became the latest target of miscreants. The brazen day-light incident was reported from the Narendra Park area when the elderly woman who was on the way to her home after buying groceries from a nearby shop at around 3:30 relieved of her gold bangles worth more than Rs. 36,000 by three imposters.

In her complaint, the senior citizen stated that three men posing as police personnel accosted her and said that it was not safe for her to move around wearing such expensive ornaments as a crime had taken place in the vicinity. Under the pretext of helping her, tricksters asked her to remove the gold bangles she was wearing. The senior citizen complied and the encounter ended with her being cheated of the ornaments. A case under sections 170 and 420 of the IPC has been registered at the Naya Nagar police station against the unidentified imposters.
