Man travelling to meet ailing father, families with kids stuck in traffic at Ghazipur border

NEW DELHI, FEB 13 /--/ Arun Singh from Uttarakhand, on his way to visit his ailing father at a hospital here, was feeling helpless after being stuck for hours in a heavy traffic at the Ghazipur border.

"I'm travelling from Uttarakhand to meet my 78-year-old father who has been admitted in the LokNayak Hospital... My family and I have been stuck here since 11 am. It is an extremely frustrating situation for us and we feel angry and helpless," Singh told PTI. Like Singh, hundreds of commuters are stuck at the Ghazipur border which has been fortified with barbed wires, dumpers loaded with sand, and iron spikes to stop protesting farmers from entering the national capital.

Families travelling with kids are distressed as children are becoming restless without food and water. Besides, women commuters are facing difficulty in looking for public restrooms amid the heavy traffic. Kanika, another commuter at the border, is tense that she would miss her flight. "I wasn't aware of the situation. I have to catch a flight for Bengaluru and now I'm stuck in traffic which is moving at a snail's pace," she complained.

A family told PTI that they have been waiting in the long traffic since morning. "We now feel frustrated and exhausted. We have small kids with us, they are also hungry. There is no food and water available nearby. What should we do?" said a member of the family. "We are stuck in the middle of the road. There is no public toilet available nearby," a woman commuter travelling with her family said.

The traffic at the Ghazipur border is extended up to two kilometres with the service lane obstructed by barbed wires and trucks, creating a blockade that has hindered the movement. The road heading towards Uttar Pradesh is accessible, providing an alternative route. The affected roads connect Delhi with Bareilly, Meerut, Muzaffarnagar, Rishikesh, Dehradun, Mussoorie, Moradabad, and Nainital.

Farmers demanding a law on minimum support price for crops are marching towards Delhi after a meeting with a team of Union ministers over their demands remained inconclusive. The Samyukta Kisan Morcha (Non-Political) and the Kisan Mazdoor Morcha said the farmers will head to Delhi to press the Centre to accept their demands. (PTI)

Farmers' march: Red Fort temporarily closed for visitors, says ASI official

NEW DELHI, FEB 13 /--/ The Red Fort complex has been temporarily closed for visitors due to security reasons, a senior ASI official said on Tuesday, amid a massive deployment of police and paramilitary forces in central Delhi in view of the farmers' march.

The Mughal-era monument, a UNESCO World Heritage Site in old Delhi, was "suddenly sealed" late Monday night "due to security reasons", the official said. Heavy security has been deployed around the complex since late last night and it has been "closed for visitors", the official of the Archaeological Survey India (ASI) told PTI. Asked when the 17th-century monument will reopen, the official said that "it will be the call of security agencies". Security in Delhi has been intensified with multi-layer barricading, concrete blocks, iron nails and walls of containers at border points to stop the 'Delhi Chalo' march of farmers from entering the national capital on Tuesday, after talks between farm leaders and the Centre remained inconclusive.

The Outer Ring Road leading towards the Red Fort has also been barricaded as police do not want to take any chance this time around, unlike the last time when a large number of protesting farmers had entered the central part of Delhi on January 26 in 2021 when India had marked the anniversary of its Republic Day. On that day, a section of agitating farmers had entered the Red Fort complex and climbed on to its ramparts.

The fresh round of protests seek to press the Centre to accept farmers' demands, including the enactment of a law to guarantee a minimum support price (MSP) for crops. Apart from sealing the Singhu, Tikri and Ghazipur borders of Delhi, police have put up multiple layers of barricades at various roads leading to the Parliament and the central part of Delhi. The Red Fort, on regular days, is closed every Monday. There are over 170 monuments in Delhi, protected under the ASI, including three UNESCO World Heritage Sites - Red Fort, (PTI)

BJP to win all 7 seats in Delhi whether AAP, Cong have alliance or not: BJP's Sachdeva

NEW DELHI, FEB 13 /--/ The BJP will win all the seven Lok Sabha seats in Delhi with huge margins whether or not the AAP and Congress have an alliance, BJP's city unit president Virendra Sachdeva said on Tuesday.

His reaction came as the AAP asserted it will contest six seats in the national capital, leaving just one for senior INDIA bloc ally Congress.

The AAP has shown the Congress its reality in Delhi, Sachdeva said. "No matter whether the AAP and Congress have an alliance, we are going to win all the Lok Sabha seats, polling at least 65 per cent votes in the coming elections," claimed the Delhi BJP president. Earlier in the day, AAP general secretary Sandeep Pathak said though the Congress "does not deserve" even one seat on merit, it was offered one out of respect for the "alliance dharma". Sachdeva said the Congress currently is in a situation where even smaller parties believe there is no benefit in allying with it, rather the grand old party is going to gain from their alliance. (PTI)

MP: Woman earns Rs 2.5 L in 45 days by forcing children to beg in Indore

INDORE, FEB 13 /--/ A 40-year-old woman has managed to earn Rs 2.5 lakh in just 45 days by forcing her eight-year-old daughter and two sons to beg on the streets of Indore.

The woman's family, who are part of a group of around 150 people involved in begging in the city, owned land and a two-storey house in Rajasthan, an NGO has claimed. "The woman, Indra Bai, was recently found begging at the Luv-Kush intersection on the Indore-Ujjain road. We found cash to the tune of Rs 19,200 in her possession," Rupali Jain, president of Pravesh, an organisation working with the administration to make Indore a beggar-free city, told PTI on Tuesday.

The mother of five had forced three of her children, including her eight-year-old daughter, to beg on the city streets. While the girl was placed under the care of the Child Welfare Committee, the woman's sons, aged nine and 10 years, fled after seeing her team, Jain said, adding that her remaining children were in Rajasthan.

Indra has informed that she earned Rs 2.5 lakh in alms in the last 45 days, of which she had sent Rs 1 lakh to her in-laws, deposited Rs 50,000 in a bank account, and invested Rs 50,000 in fixed deposit schemes (FDs), she said. The woman's family also owned land and a two-storey house in Rajasthan, Jain said. "Indra's husband had purchased a motorcycle in her name, and the couple would roam around the city on the two-wheeler," she said.

After being caught, Indra allegedly had an altercation with a woman NGO worker, and she was arrested under section 151 (arrest to prevent the commission of the cognisable offence) of the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC), sub-inspector Ishwarchandra Rathod of Banganga police station said. The woman was produced before an assistant commissioner of police (ACP) court, which remanded her judicial custody, he said.

The Union Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment has launched a pilot project to make 10 cities, including Indore, beggar-free. Indore District Magistrate Ashish Singh said, "We have set a target to rescue children forced to beg in the city. So far, 10 children have been rescued and sent to the government-run children's home." Action is also being taken against gangs involved in forcing children to beg, he said. (PTI)

Centre denied rights of farmers, betrayed them: Brinda Karat

RANCHI, FEB 13 /--/ Senior CPI(M) leader Brinda Karat on Tuesday flayed the BJP-led central government, accusing it of betraying farmers and denying their rights. Karat's remarks came on a day thousands of farmers called for a 'Delhi Chalo' protest, as the national capital turned into a virtual fortress with authorities stopping them from entering the city. "The Narendra Modi government has not only denied the rights of farmers and workers, but also betrayed them. Why do they (the Centre) say no to the law to guarantee minimum support price (MSP) for crops?" she said.

Karat is in Ranchi to participate in a state committee meeting of the party. The CPI(M) leader also said the Union government was very late in announcing Bharat Ratna for renowned agriculture scientist M S Swaminathan.

"Swaminathan stood for the rights of farmers, but his formula to help them has not been implemented by the Centre," she said. Karat also claimed that farmers across the country are calling assurances given by the Prime Minister as "farce and fraud".

"Farmers all over India are going to observe Gramin Bandh on February 16. This is the big struggle of the labour class," she said. The Samyukta Kisan Morcha (Non-Political) and the Kisan Mazdoor Morcha had announced that farmers would head to Delhi on Tuesday to press for their demands, including the enactment of a law to guarantee an MSP for crops.

Besides a legal guarantee for MSP, the farmers are also demanding implementation of the Swaminathan Commission's recommendations, pensions for farmers and farm labourers, farm debt waiver and withdrawal of police cases.

BJP over the arrest of former Chief Minister Hemant Soren, asserting that "there is clearly no case" against him. "These are manufactured charges just to intimidate and bully him (Soren)...," the CPI(M) politbu member alleged. (PTI)
