Union Minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat and Kiren Rijiju Attend 25th Anniversary Celebrations of Dragon Palace Temple in Nagpur

Sudhir K. Dubey info@impressivetimes.com

RANCHI : The Dragon Palace Temple marked its 25th anniversary in a grand event at Kamptee, Nagpur on November 15, 2024. The Ogawa Society of Japan which has contributed towards building the beautiful monastery complex at Kamptee was represented by around 50 monks from Japan. The event began in the morning of 15th November with a celebration march by a group of Japanese monks who entered the monastery from a distance with conchs and drums playing alongside chanting in Japanese. The special prayer at the main monastery was led by Ven. Nichiyu (Kamen) Mochida and the venerable monks from Japan. Ms Takako Tanaka daughter of Mahapusa-sika Madam Noriko Ogawa also attended the event. Madam Noriko Ogawa has been instrumental in assisting Ms Sulekhata Kumbhare, the host of the event and the owner of the Dragon Palace temple complex, in setting up the dragon palace temple complex. The International

Buddhist Conflation (IBC) co-partnered with the Dragon Palace Temple in organising the event. A number of international monks and those from different parts of India attended the event on behalf of the IBC. Around 5000 people from Kamptee and other parts of Nagpur attended the event. Union Minister for Culture and Tourism Shri Gajendra Singh Shekhawat and Union Minister for Minority Affairs and Minorities Kiren Rijiju participated in the event and spoke on the occasion. Shri Gajendra Singh Shekhawat stated that the Dragon Palace temple is a symbol of the commitment and

Japan and lauded Ms Sulekhata's efforts at encouraging these interactions. As the Minister of Culture he also shared his commitment to develop numerous Buddhist sites in Maharashtra, including the Dragon Palace temple which will form part of such larger national circuits which are being envisaged. Union Minister Shri Kiren Rijiju said that the role of Babasheb Ambedkar in spreading the message of the Buddha has been tremendous in Maharashtra. His deep understanding of the sociopolitical narrative enabled him to begin what is also considered as the second major Dharma event in India. Shri Kiren Rijiju also mentioned that Babasheb Ambedkar's contribution is immense towards the society and mankind in general, and this is due to the fact that certain of his ideas appear to have not only endured but have gained significance as a result of the passage of time. His message about the necessity to provide religion with a new doctrinal framework that 'shall be in consonance with liberty, equality, and fraternity, in short, with democracy' is only one example.

MAHARASHTRA POLITICAL SCANDAL: ALLEGATIONS OF BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION UNVEILED

NEW DELHI : Mallikarjun Kharge, Congress president, urged Maharashtra voters to defeat leaders alleged to have accepted bribes, calling them '50 khoke'. Criticizing BJP-led Maharashtra's divisive politics, he emphasized Congress's commitment to unity. Kharge condemned economic policies and accused the BJP of corruption, voting MVA's reformative agenda and predicting Mahoyuti's downfall. On Monday, Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge called on voters in Maharashtra to defeat politicians accused of accepting hefty bribes to switch allegiances, infamously referred to as '50 khoke'. Kharge used this term while discussing Chief Minister Eknath Shinde's defection from the Shiv Sena to form a government with the BJP in 2022. Speaking at a rally in Vasai near Mumbai, Kharge alleged that each supporting MLA of Shinde was offered Rs 50 crore for their loyalty, urging voters to send a strong message in the upcoming November 20 elections. He criticized the BJP and Mahoyuti for fostering divisive politics, while emphasizing Congress's commitment to unity and inclusion. Kharge also pointed to the negative impact of BJP's economic policies on various sections of society, highlighting issues like inflation and unemployment.
