COVID hit CSK extend quarantine till Sept 1

New Delhi, Aug 29: An India T20 specialist is among multiple members of the Chennai Super Kings contingent who have tested positive for COVID-19, forcing the IPL franchise to extend its quarantine period in Dubai and causing upheaval ahead of the event starting September 19. The franchise is yet to issue a formal statement but a league source told PTI that the number of positive cases could be between 10 and 12. "Yes, a right-arm medium fast bowler, who has recently played for India in white-ball cricket, along with a few staff members have tested positive for COVID-19. The number could be as high as 12," the senior IPL source said on conditions of anonymity.

shifted out of India this year due to the pandemic. The scheduling convention followed in the IPL is two finalists of the previous year playing the inaugural game which would have been Chennai Super Kings and defending champions Mumbai Indians this season. However, it's still not clear if CSK would be ready for the September 19 league opener. The source revealed that all COVID-19 positive results came during day 1, 3 and 6 of testing after the contingent's arrival in Dubai. "As far as we know, one of the senior-most officials of the CSK management, an official's wife, and at least two members of their social media team are also COVID-19 positive," he said. According to the BCCI's Standard Operating Procedure (SOP), all those who test positive are mandated to go through an additional seven-day quarantine. They can enter the bio-secure bubble only after returning negative in tests to be conducted after the extended isolation. It is understood that all the members of the jumbo contingent, who tested positive, are "largely asymptomatic". Earlier, Rajasthan Royals' fielding coach Disant Yagnik had returned positive in tests conducted in India.

Impact of Covid - 'the need for business sustenance'

Chennai, Aug 29; The year 2020, brought with itself one of the most disruptive health challenges in recent history - the COVID 19 pandemic. In these unprecedented times, each nation is working to craft a balanced strategy that will enable them to save lives and at the same time restore economic activity. The outbreak of Covid-19 and government-mandated social distancing norms has impacted various sectors and while short-term repercussions are likely to be seen in the coming months, India's long-term fundamentals remain sound.

In a report by McKinsey, it is estimated that India's GDP in the first quarter of the fiscal year could shrink by 20 percent compared with the previous one. When the nation was under complete lockdown, business sustenance was a major task that needed to be undertaken. Organizations had to fast track their digitalization journey, with most of its task force working remotely. Multiple changes needed to be made overnight in terms of the infrastructure, communication etc. to make this mammoth task possible. While a smooth conversion might be difficult in the short run, but as we progress, industries like telecom, manufacturing, electronics etc. can witness a huge transformation. Sustaining businesses and meeting customer demands requires the collective efforts of all stakeholders - organizations, the government of India, industry bodies, and the consumer. The government also came forth to extend support to organizations at all levels. The Government of India introduced the initiative of India becoming self-reliant through strengthening key pillars like - Economy, Infrastructure, System, Demography, and Demand.
