Poll officials leave for booths

The state is going to polls on Friday and the officials of the district administration were busy distributing election materials among the officials on Thursday.

Collector and district electoral officer Neeraj Kumar Singh and superintendent of police Gurkaran Singh inspected all assembly constituencies and took feedback on distribution of election materials.

After the campaigning ended on Wednesday, both the collector and the SP went to parade ground and issued guidelines to sector officers and sector police officers. The collector told the sector officers about preparations for the polls. He directed the poll officials to stay at the polling booths on ThursPoll materials distributed MORENA: Election materials for Sabalgarh constituency were distributed from Nehru Degree College. On the other hand, election material for Joura, Sumawali, Morena, Dimni and Ambah is being distributed from Morena polytechnic college. District electoral officer and collector Ankit Asthana and deputy electoral officer and ADM CB Prasad are visiting the poll material distribution centres, so that there may not be any problems for the polling officers.

SATNA: Election materials were distributed for seven constituencies in Excellence School on Thursday. After collecting election materials, the poll officials left for their respective booths. District electoral officer and collector Anurag Verma inspected the school where the election materials were distributed. There are 1950 polling booths in the district where more than 1.6 million citizens will cast their votes for 124 candidates. •

Security beefed up in Naxal-hit Balaghat

BALAGHAT: Security has been beefed up in Maoist-hit Balaghat district for the assembly election to be held on Friday. There are 1,675 polling booths have been set up in six constituencies in Balaghat district. The first box containing the election materials was opened in the strong room set up in the Lanji assembly constituency. Representatives of various political parties, returning officer and deputy electoral officer of the district were present. After this strong rooms were opened in other con-booths. The collector also asked the officials to ensure the setting up of ramps, proper toilets, drinking water and lights

Most seats in Chhatarpur may see triangular fight

FP NEWS SERVICE

The moment the people of the district and the state have been waiting for has arrived. They are voting on Friday.

Six constituencies are going to polls along with the state. Poll officials left for booths with election materials on Thursday, and the he administration beefed up security to ensure There is a triangular contest in Chhatarpur constituency, where Congress's Alok Chaturvedi, BJP's Lalita Yadav and BSP's Babbu Raja are in the election ring. There are SP's

Ghansauriya and AAP's Bhagirath Patel in the fray, but the main contest is between the Congress, the BJP and the BSP.

The Maharajpur assembly constituency may also see a triangular contest. Congress's Neeraj Dikshit, BJP's Tika Raja and SP's Ajay Daulat Tiwari are in

The Chandla constituenwhere Congress's Harprasad Anuragi Gopi Master, BJP's Deelip Ahirwar and Congress rebel Pushpendra Ahirwar, fighting on the Congress ticket, are fighting the election. But the main contest is between the Congress, the BJP and the SP.

In Rajnagar, there are four contestants, but this constituency is also going to witness a triangular contest. Three-time Congress legislator Nati Raja is fighting from this constituency.

But the BJP's Arvindra Pateria who lost election and Ghasiram Patel contesting on the BSP ticket after rebelling against the BJP have made the contest triangular in Rajnagar. Nevertheless, there is a straight contest between the Congress and the BJP in Bijawar constituency. • • In the same Badamalhara constituency is witnessing a straight contest between the Congress and the BJP.

BJP MLA Pradumnya Singh Lodhi and Congress candidate Ramrasiya Bharti who lost the previous election are in the fray. So the contest is between the two parties.

candidates launched a mass contact programme just before the polling day.

A 55-year-old man died after falling from stairs at his house in MIG police station area late on Wednesday. He was going downstairs after watching the India vs New Zealand semifinal match. He lost his balance on the stairs and fell from it. He was taken to the hospital and died during the treatment. The police are investigating the case and recorded statements of the fam-

According to police, the man was identified as Ashok Chopra, a resident of Malwa Mill Rustam Ka Bagicha. He was going downstairs after the cricket match finished. Ashok's son Raju said that Ashok was a labourer and sustained internal head injuries after falling from stairs. There were no major external injuries, only his head was swollen. The police began an investigation into the case and sent the body for autopsy.

A 32-year-old woman was found hanging at her place in Rajendra Nagar police station area on Thursday morning. Her husband found her hanging around 5 am and took her to hospital but she could not be saved. The reason behind her extreme reason could not be established as she did not leave any note. The police are investigating the case and recording statements of the family members.

According to police, the woman was identified as Bharti, a resident of Nalanda Parisar in Keshar Bagh. Her husband Dinesh found her hanging at the house and informed the police about the incident. She married 10 years ago and had a daughter. The police started an investigation in the case and sent the body for autopsy.
