FinMin may restrict China investment in pension funds

Foreign investment in pension funds is capped at 49% with automatic route

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
 New Delhi, 19 June

Amid growing tension between India and China, the finance ministry on Friday proposed putting restrictions on foreign investment in pension funds from any of India's bordering countries.

Foreign investment in pension funds regulated by the Pension Fund Regulatory and Development Authority (PFRDA) is capped at 49 per cent with automatic route.

According to a draft notification circulated for comments, "A government approval would be required for the investing entity or individual from any of the bordering countries including China. The relevant provisions of FDI policy issued from time to time would apply in all such cases."

Any foreign investment from these countries will be subject to approval from the government.

The restriction should be applicable from the date of notification by the Government of India.

The development comes at a time when Indian and Chinese armies are engaged in a standoff in Pangong Tso, Galwan Valley, Demchok and Daulat Beg Oldie in eastern Ladakh.

The violent clash stirred anti-China sentiments in the country, with protestors and traders' bodies calling to boycott Chinese products.

The changes have been proposed in accordance with Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT) guidelines issued in April.

Currently, government permission is mandatory only for investments coming from Bangladesh and Pakistan.

Rathin Roy quits NIPFP as director, Urjit is chairman

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
 New Delhi, 19 June

Former Reserve Bank governor Urjit Patel will take charge as chairman of the National Institute of Public Finance and Policy (NIPFP) from June 22, the economic think tank said on Friday.

Patel will replace Vijay Kelkar, who assumed office on November 1, 2014. According to sources, Rathin Roy, a former member of the Economic Advisory Council to the Prime Minister (EAC-PM), quit as NIPFP director on Thursday. Roy could not be reached for a comment over the matter. His tenure as NIPFP director began in May 2013. Roy's second term was to end in 2023.

"National Institute of Public Finance and Policy is privileged to have Dr Urjit Patel, former RBI Governor, as its Chairperson for a four-year term commencing June 22, 2020," the economic think tank said. "NIPFP records its deep sense of appreciation and gratitude for the significant contributions made by the outgoing Chairman, Dr. Vijay Laxman Kelkar during his tenure which has immensely helped the institute towards scaling to its present level of growth and effectiveness," it added.

Patel on December 10, 2018, had unexpectedly resigned months before the end of his three-year term in September 2019. He, who was the first governor since 1990 to step down before his term ends, had in a brief statement had cited "personal reasons" for the decision. Patel was eligible for a second term like most of his successors barring a few like his outspoken predecessor Raghuram Rajan. From being considered a government's man on the Mint Street, Patel had in less than two years had emerged from the shadows to find his own voice on issues that mattered the most — autonomy and independence of the central bank.

Hailing from a business family based in Nairobi, Patel, who studied at London School of Economics, Oxford University and Yale University, was a Kenyan national until 2013. He acquired Indian citizenship before he was appointed RBI deputy governor in January 2013.
