JINDAL SAW LTD.

Evolution is wisdom

Evolution showcases wisdom through its adaptive, efficient, and spirited approach to life's challenges. By embracing change and diversity, it ensures continuity and progression.

Jindal SAW embraces change as a catalyst for growth, unlocking new opportunities, fostering rejuvenation, sparking dynamism, fuelling transformation, and empowering stakeholders. This commitment strategically positions the company at the forefront of its industry, navigating shifts proactively and drawing valuable lessons from the past to drive continuous evolution in the dynamic business environment.

A vision towards adaptation

The world is a canvas for ground-breaking solutions. It integrates practices that create stronger, more agile systems that can seamlessly adjust to evolving landscapes.

Shri Om Prakash Jindal, the Founder Chairman of the O.P. Jindal Group, epitomized entrepreneurial evolution. Starting with a small bucket-manufacturing unit in Hisar in 1952, he embarked on a transformative journey that led to the establishment of an international conglomerate today.

Shri Jindal consistently sought opportunities to expand and diversify, founding Jindal India Limited in 1964 and Jindal Strips Limited in 1969, showcasing strategic evolution. Embracing global expertise, he ensured his enterprises thrived amid changing times and technologies, earning him the prestigious 'Life Time Achievement Award' from the Bengal Chamber of Commerce and Industry in November 2004 for his role in shaping India's steel industry.

Beyond business, Jindal championed social responsibility, uplifting marginalized communities and fostering inclusive growth. His evolution from entrepreneur to philanthropic leader highlights the transformative power of vision and perseverance, leaving a legacy inspiring future generations to navigate with resilience and foresight.

Evolving with a new perspective

Embracing a new perspective allows us to stay open to change, innovate, and navigate hardships with resilience and creativity.

Jindal SAW

Since its establishment in 1984, Jindal SAW has undergone a remarkable evolution, transforming from a singular product venture into a multifaceted powerhouse over four decades. As a key member of the esteemed O.P. Jindal Group and India's primary indigenous steel producer and exporter, Jindal SAW has earned global recognition as a 'Total Pipe Solutions' provider, driven by innovation and adaptability.

Pioneering the use of U.O.E. technology, Jindal SAW led the manufacturing of welded pipes above 16" diameter, a significant milestone in India's industrial progress. Specializing in welded pipes above 16" diameter, spiral pipes for energy transportation, rust-free iron pipes for water and wastewater transportation, and various steel non-welded pipes and tubes, the company evolved to meet diverse market demands.

Jindal SAW's evolution includes integrating facilities across locations and operating a pellet plant to extract and leverage low-grade iron ore post-beneficiation, showcasing its commitment to sustainability. Renowned for value-added products and customer-centric services, Jindal SAW remains a trailblazer in the steel industry, poised for further innovation and growth in the global marketplace.

Over the span of four decades, the company has achieved notable milestones.

The smallest ripple can lead to monumental transformations

Never underestimate the power of the smallest ripple, it holds the potential to shape the world.

Welded Pipes above 16" Diameter

In 1985, India saw the rise of technocracy and a focus on efficiency. Jindal SAW emerged as India's first producer of welded pipes above 16" diameter, becoming a key player in Southeast Asia, second only to Japan.

The company began its longitudinal pipe manufacturing in 1985 and obtained its first API License by 1986. By 1994, they started exporting globally while meeting all domestic demands. It has since exported pipes covering 18,545 kilometres and boast the largest customer network in the industry, maintaining strong customer relationships and receiving repeat orders from top Oil & Gas companies.

Today, Jindal SAW operates seven advanced pipe manufacturing plants with comprehensive anti-corrosion coating capabilities, including a concrete weight coating facility for offshore applications. With a focus on innovation and competitiveness, the company has a robust order book and is known as the 'Total Pipe Solutions Company,' embodying excellence in global pipe manufacturing.

In every adaptation lies the seed of progress

It emphasizes how life's ability to adapt isn't just about survival – it's about driving advancement. Whether it's through genetic shifts or innovative solutions, adaptation fuels progress.

Rust-free Iron Pipes

Jindal SAW's innovation lies in the versatility of rust-free iron pipes, which transport various fluids, from drinking water to wastewater. These pipes utilize socket and spigot joints with rubber gaskets, alongside advanced restrained double chamber joints that reduce the need for heavy thrust blocks. They are available with internal cement linings and specialized external coatings tailored to different soil conditions.

Situated at Samaghogha, near Mundra and Kandla ports in Gujarat, the Integrated Greenfield Project for rust-free iron pipes and the pig iron unit, with a 550,000 MT capacity, features key facilities like -

- Coke Oven Battery Plant
- Sinter Plants
- Blast Furnaces
- Rust-free Iron Pipes Manufacturing Plants

In the current financial year, Jindal SAW acquired the refurbished rust-free iron pipes plant of Sathavahana Ispat Limited in Andhra Pradesh with a capacity of 190,000 MTPA, through NCLT proceedings. The Italian operations focus on supplying European markets and Iraq. The rust-free iron pipes fitting and manufacturing facility in Maharashtra operates at an annual capacity of 18,000 MT, complementing pipe supplies from all four Jindal SAW facilities.

Jindal SAW has risen to become the world's third-largest producer of rust-free iron pipes, delivering pipes and fittings to over 40 countries.

Progress blossoms where diversity takes root

When diverse perspectives and ideas come together, progress flourishes. This growth is nurtured by the richness and variety of voices contributing to innovation and understanding.

Transformation is the architect of possibilities

Transformation shapes the landscape of potential, inviting us to embrace change as the gateway to greatness.

Mining & Pellets

At the forefront of transformational possibilities, Jindal SAW established a significant mechanized iron ore mine and pellet plant in Bhilwara, Rajasthan, in 2012, with a production capacity of 1.65 MTPA, expanding the company's diverse product and service portfolio.

This state-of-the-art facility harnesses cutting-edge technology to upgrade low-grade magnetite iron ore deposits from 25%Fe to over 67%Fe at the beneficiation plant, subsequently pelletizing the iron ore concentrate.

Key features of this pioneering plant include:

- Being India's only pellet plant that leverages low-grade iron ore post-beneficiation.
- Operating with a lean deposit and high stripping ratio, requiring approximately 19 tons of mining to produce 1 ton of concentrate.
- Serving as North India's first pellet plant, strategically located alongside a dedicated iron ore mine.
- Utilizing treated sewage water for mining, beneficiation, pelletization, and other processes, drawn from Bhilwara and processed at the Sewage Treatment Plant established by Jindal SAW. This treated water is transported via a 23 km pipeline and stored in a 2.5 lac m³ capacity main water reservoir at the plant.
- Achieving the remarkable feat of consuming less than 140,000 kcals of energy per ton of pellet, significantly lower (by 60%) than the national average.
- Implementing a comprehensive Integrated Management System (IMS) aligned with the latest global standards. As a testament to these efforts, the company was certified for IMS [ISO 9001:2015, ISO 14001:2015, and ISO 45001:2018] standards by Bureau Veritas on October 23, 2019, and subsequently recertified on September 14, 2022.

Expansion is the unfolding of potential

As we explore new horizons, and embrace challenges, our potential unfolds revealing layers of talent, and creativity.

Chairperson's Message

Dear Friends,

We are delighted to let you know that the company has done it again. The best ever performance at the back of the highest-level benchmark, reached last year. This year the turnover has crossed ₹18,000 crores, the EBIDTA and the PBT for the year have registered even more remarkable growth of over 175% and 230% respectively. The consolidated financial performance of the company has also registered a good performance thereby indicating that all major subsidiaries of the company have started functioning profitably and have made contributions to the bottom line of the consolidated results. The current order book gives us a clear visibility of the next few quarters. This instils confidence that we will be able to maintain our high-performance levels.

The tailwind of the high-growth Indian economy has supported our journey. The Government of India over the last few years has pursued a comprehensive and multi-dimensional strategy to foster all-around development and growth which has given rise to a stable and sustainable demand in key infrastructures where our products are also used. The macro-economic factors like inflation, exchange rates, liquidity, benchmark interest rates and continuity in governance have provided a stable business environment for private sector corporates to flourish and do well as per their intrinsic potential. 2024, being a national election year, we expect continuity of good governance to be maintained with a stable government. Based on this assessment, we are hopeful that the business environment will remain conducive and provide corporates like us enough opportunities for continued good performance.

On the other hand, the global economy has wobbled a little bit but now showing signs of resilience with growth slowly picking up and inflation gradually reducing towards the target. Led by fast-growing economies like India and gradual improvement in major economies like the US and China, it appears that the world economy has avoided a hard landing and recession, which is good news for the world. Europe continues to have a sluggish growth but at least the trend appears positive. The continuing conflict between Russia and Ukraine continues to impact the global geo-political environment. Now, the Middle East seem to become a hotspot between the Israel - Palestine conflict which looks like spilling over into an Israel - Iran direct conflict that can prove to be very detrimental to the region. The Houthis in Yemen and the Hezbollah in Syria are adding to the complexity of the instability which if escalates can seriously disrupt the sea route through the Mediterranean impacting the world trade in a significant fashion.

The global geo-political uncertainty and the recent isolation of China by the US and other major economies of Europe has caused turmoil in the supply chain structure of the world which India has seen as an opportunity and is striving hard to become a manufacturing hub and fill the gap of the supply chain across the globe. The fundamental strength of the Indian economy provides it with enough muscle to make large investments in new sectors like semiconductors, renewable energy, and hi-tech developments while maintaining its focus on core infrastructure development. The defence sector is another key focus area where the country has taken a frog leap to indigenize modern warfare equipment like stealth fighters, aircraft carriers, modern submarines etc. All these developments are good news and point towards a sustainable all-round growth which we are all encouraged about.

Our joint venture with Hunting Energy Services is now fully functional and we are contributing premium connection pipes and tubes to the OCTG market which has thus far been dependent upon imports. The JV is likely to enter the export market soon with some value-added products. The stainless-steel pipes and tubes have also captured a reasonable market share and we continue to move up the value chain by using higher grades and making exotic products like instrumentation tubing etc.

The focus on support functions, sustainability, innovation, automation, systems & processes continues to get sharper and deeper to stay in step with the current times of growing size and complexity of the company and also to prepare the company for the next level of growth.

Management and Discussion Analysis

1. Economic Overview

i) Global Economic Overview

The global economy is showing signs of resilience with growth picking up and inflation returning to target. The journey has been eventful, starting with supply-chain disruptions in the aftermath of the pandemic, a Russian-initiated war on Ukraine that triggered a global energy and food crisis, and a considerable surge in inflation, followed by a globally synchronized monetary policy tightening.

Yet, despite many gloomy predictions, the world seems to have avoided a recession, the banking system proved largely resilient, and major emerging market economies did not suffer sudden disruptions. Moreover, the inflation surge—despite its severity and the associated cost-of living crisis—did not trigger uncontrolled hyperinflation. Instead, almost as quickly as global inflation went up, it has been coming down.

On a year-over-year basis, global growth bottomed out at the end of 2022, at 2.3 percent, shortly after median headline inflation peaked at 9.4 percent. According to the latest projections of International Monetary Fund (“IMF”), growth for 2024 and 2025 will hold steady around 3.2 percent, with median headline inflation declining from 2.8 percent at the end of 2024 to 2.4 percent at the end of 2025. Most indicators point to a soft landing.

The growth projection for 2024 is higher than the IMF’s earlier estimate of 2.9%, reflecting upward revision for China, the United States and some large emerging market and developing economies.

The global growth will continue to be driven by emerging market and developing countries such as India. IMF has projected emerging market and developing countries to grow at 4.1% in 2024 and 4.2% compared with 1.5% and 1.8% growth in advanced economies during the same period. According to IMF projections, India will continue to be the fastest-growing large economy in the world, growing at 6.5% each in 2024-25 and 2025-26.

The upward revision in growth forecast for 2024 is on account of stronger-than-expected economic growth in the US and some major emerging market and developing economies in the second half of 2023, helped by government and private spending.

The rising momentum, however, will not be uniform everywhere. The growth in the Euro Area is projected to be subdued due to weak consumer sentiment, high energy prices, and elevated benchmark interest rates. Low-income economies will also continue to experience large output losses compared with their pre-pandemic trajectory amid elevated borrowing costs.

The global financial system has broadly withstood the unprecedented monetary tightening across the world with the resilience of emerging market economies, which were at the receiving end of the previous episodes of volatility, standing out.

The global economy is still not out of the woods with the growth forecasts for 2024 and 2025 significantly below the historical average of 3.8% during 2000-2019. Elevated policy rates to fight inflation, the unwinding of fiscal support, and low underlying productivity growth are still impairing global growth.

Outlook

The IMF’s overall outlook on global economy shows an improvement from the previous estimate. The IMF has raised its growth outlook for 2024 to 3.1% from 2.9% and cut its forecast on global headline inflation in 2025 to 4.4% from 4.6% earlier.

Particulars	Estimate (%)	Projections (%)
	2023	2024	2025
World Output	3.1	3.1	3.2
Advanced Economies	1.6	1.5	1.8
Emerging Market and Developing Economies	4.1	4.1	4.2
India	6.7	6.5	6.5

Management and Discussion Analysis

A sense of optimism has pervaded financial markets in recent months, amid investor confidence that the fight against inflation is entering its “last mile” and that central banks will ease monetary policy in the coming months. Stock markets around the world have risen substantially this year. Corporate and sovereign borrowing spreads have narrowed.

However, there are likely to be bumps along this last mile. Geopolitical tensions including the latest brewing in the Middle East, could intensify and weigh on investor sentiments. Strains in commercial real estate have become more acute, which could increase pressure on some lenders.

Taking a step back, there is recent evidence that disinflation may have stalled in some countries, and that underlying inflation may be persistent in some sectors. In some cases, core inflation has come in higher than analyst forecasts for consecutive months. Higher-than-expected readings could challenge the last-mile narrative and the related investor optimism, potentially leading to financial market repricing and higher volatility. IMF projects that the global economy may be approaching a soft landing but recognized that future growth is expected to be low by historical standards, reflecting still high borrowing costs, a withdrawal of fiscal support, weak productivity growth, and continued geopolitical tensions. Further, increasing geo-economic fragmentation will weigh on medium term growth, however trade diversification will bring benefits.

ii) Indian Economic Overview

Despite facing headwind from the sluggish global economy, the Indian economy continue to stand out as the fastest growing large economies and there is every sign that this trend will continue in the near to medium term.

According to the National Statistical Office, the Indian economy is projected to grow 7.6% in 2023-24 compared with 7.0% last year. The GDP grew at 8.2% in Apr-Dec compared with 7.3% in the same period a year ago, with GDP growing above 8.0% in all first three quarters of 2023-24, the first such instance since 2016-17.

The GDP growth in Oct-Dec rose to a six-quarter high of 8.4%, supported by increased investment and government consumption. This is the highest quarterly growth in almost six years if one leaves out the statistical aberrations due to COVID pandemic.

India’s composite purchasing managers index (PMI) stood at 60.6 in February, well above the global average of 52.1, indicating expansion. Inflation has remained within the Reserve Bank of India’s (RBI) target range, and financial conditions have remained accommodative.

Domestic credit issuance to the commercial sector grew by 14 percent year-on-year (YoY) in December 2023, with financial soundness indicators showing improvement. Foreign reserves increased by 8 percent in the year to January 2024.

Management and Discussion Analysis

The supply chain disruptions caused due to COVID and Russia-Ukraine conflict has opened up opportunities for India to build capabilities. True to its vision of 'Atmanirbhar Bharat', the government in February approved setting up three semiconductor units at Dholera and Sanand in Gujarat and Morigaon in Assam at a total investment of ₹1.26 lakh crore. This is in addition to the US $2.75-billion semiconductor facility, which is already coming up at Sanand.

The focus of the Interim Budget for 2024-25 has been on fiscal consolidation. The Budget has projected an accelerated reduction of fiscal deficit to 5.8% of GDP in 2023-24 and 5.1% of GDP in 2024-25, while continuing its focus on capital expenditure. The government, which has nearly tripled its capital expenditure in four years, is now aiming a 17% growth in 2024-25 to ₹11.11 lakh crore. With this, capital expenditure as a percentage of GDP is projected to double to 3.4% in 2024-25 from 1.7% in 2019-20, pointing to the qualitative improvement in the Indian government's finances.

The Budget has promised the next generation reforms to make India a developed nation by 2047, the 100th anniversary of India's Independence. As a first step, the Budget has allocated ₹75,000 crore as 50-year interest-free loans for milestone-linked reforms in states.

Outlook

The finance ministry has projected India to become the third-largest economy in the world, with a GDP of US $5 trillion by 2027¹ from fifth largest currently. India's sound macroeconomic fundamentals will allow the economy to move to a higher growth path in the coming years despite stuttering global economy. The over 8.0% growth in the first three quarters of 2023-24 is a proof of that. The Reserve Bank of India has projected the Indian economy to grow 7.0% in 2024-25 with quarterly growth rates ranging from 6.9-7.1%.

India's appeal as a destination for investments has grown stronger and more sustainable because of the current period of global unpredictability and volatility, and the record amounts of money raised by India-focused funds which are evidence of investor faith in the "Invest in India" narrative.

2. Industry

i. Oil and Gas Industry:

a. Global Market:

The global oil demand in 2024 is projected at a record 103.2 million bpd from 101.8 million bpd in 2023. Global supply in 2024 is forecast to increase 800,000 bpd to 102.9 million bpd. The output of OPEC+ is projected to decline by 810,000 bpd in 2024 due to continued curbs by the bloc, while non-OPEC+ production is seen rising by 1.6 million bpd. The growth in global oil demand seems to be returning to its historical trend from the post-pandemic surge. According to the International Energy Agency², the growth in global oil demand is projected to slow down to 1.3 million barrels per day in 2024 from 2.3 million bpd in 2023, mainly on account of the economic slowdown, efficiency gains and the surge in electric vehicle sales. The growth in demand will continue to be driven by non-OECD countries, especially India, China and Brazil.

The pandemic, the subsequent global economic slowdown, Russia-Ukraine and Israel-Palestine wars, and shift to electric vehicles have continued to affect the market. The war between Russia and Ukraine, which started in February 2022, is still not showing any signs of ending. The hostilities have disrupted the supply chain for the oil and gas industry as Russia is the third largest oil producer in the world after the US and Saudi Arabia. The disruptions in trade routes due to attacks on shipping lanes in the Red Sea have added to the uncertainties. Crude oil prices have risen as ships have been taking the longer route around Cape of Good Hope to avoid Red Sea. The longer route also meant increased bunkering or higher demand for oil from shipping industry. The disruptions have pushed up global oil inventories by 47.1 million barrels, or 1.6 million barrels per day in February 2024, as offshore stocks rose sharply as Red Sea disruptions tied up significant volumes of oil on water. Crude prices have steadily strengthened since December as continued Middle Eastern hostilities and attacks on shipping caused vessel diversions and delays in supply to Europe. Brent crude oil averaged US $83.48 per barrel³ in February 2024 compared with US $77.63 in December 2023.

²IEA Oil Market Report

³US Energy Information Administration

Management and Discussion Analysis

Going forward, efficiency gains and rising electric vehicle sales will slowly start chipping away demand. According to S&P Global Mobility⁴ sales of battery electric passenger vehicles is projected to rise to 13.3 million units worldwide in 2024, accounting for 16.2% of global passenger vehicle sales. In 2023, the estimated sales were 9.6 million, accounting for 12.0% of the market share.

b. Indian market:

Healthy economic expansion, combined with dynamic population, urbanisation and industrialisation growth, will see India's role in global oil markets rapidly increase towards 2030, with significant implications for its oil trade balances, climate ambitions and energy security goals. As energy transitions gather pace and China's economy shifts gear towards a less energy-intensive phase, India is expected to assume the position as the world's largest source of oil demand growth this decade.

India, the third largest consumer of oil in the world behind the US and China, imports over 85% of its oil requirements. IEA has projected India's oil demand to increase by almost 1.2 million bpd to reach 6.6 million bpd by 2030. According to IEA, between 2023 and 2030, India will account for more than one-third of the projected 3.2 million bpd global gains.

India imported⁵ US $113.66 bln worth of crude in Apr 2023-Jan 2024, down 16.0% from the same period last year. Including petroleum products, the total import bill was at US $145.73 billion in this period. The decline has been primarily on account of relatively lower crude oil prices this year. The Indian crude basket averaged US $82.42 per barrel in Apr 2023-Jan 2024, down 14.2% from the same period last year.

Russia has become the top supplier of crude to India in 2023-24 thanks to the firm and independent foreign policy of India and the ability to negotiate large discounts from them. India's crude oil imports from Russia rose 64.5% to US $38.93 billion in Apr-Jan, while imports from all other major importers declined sharply during the year. Russia's share in India's crude oil imports nearly doubled in 2023-24, accounted for 34.2% of total crude oil imports in Apr-Jan compared with 17.5% a year ago. Iraq and Saudi Arabia continued to be the second and third largest importers of crude to India. In volume terms, India imported⁶ 194.57 million tonnes of crude oil in Apr-Jan, up 1.1% from a year ago.

Though India heavily depends on imports, it is also a key exporter of petroleum products. However, due to the global slowdown and the relatively lower prices, India's petroleum product exports contracted 13.7% to US $70.1 billion⁷ in Apr 2023-Jan 2024. India's petroleum product exports accounts for almost half of India's total petroleum import bill.

India's domestic crude oil production has been steadily declining. In Apr-Jan crude oil production⁸ contracted 0.2% compared with a 1.3% decline in the same period of last year. Domestic natural gas production, however, has improved in the last couple of years. In Apr-Jan, natural gas production rose 5.6% compared with 1.4% growth in the same period of the previous year.

Given the impact of crude oil on India's balance of trade, the government has been adopting a multi-pronged strategy to improve energy security, including increasing domestic production, promoting energy efficiency and conservation, giving thrust to promoting green and other alternate sources of energy.

The government has taken many steps to reduce the country's oil import dependency through process improvements and various policies under Production Sharing Contract regime, Discovered Small Field Policy, Hydrocarbon Exploration and Licensing Policy. The government has also provided functional freedom to public sector oil companies and encouraged wider private sector participation by streamlining approval processes including digital single window mechanism.

Cutting oil imports is a key goal of the government. It promotes electric mobility, biofuels, and other alternative fuels for transportation and industries to curb crude imports. The government has also taken steps to increase Indian output and has boosted efforts to raise production by making exploration and production contracts more attractive. India has recently opened large areas for oil and gas exploration. Crude oil imports will not decrease significantly until there is more use of electric mobility and biofuels with conventional fuels in the country.

The government has launched a National Biofuel Policy to boost availability of biofuels in the country and use of alternative clean fuels like ethanol, bio-diesel and bio-CNG through schemes for Ethanol Blending, Bio-diesel blending and Sustainable Alternative Towards Affordable Transportation. The country has already achieved the target of 12% average blending of ethanol in petrol under Ethanol Blended Petrol Programme and has saved approximately 5.09 billion litres of petrol in 2022-23 alone.

India allows 100% foreign direct investment, through automatic route, in exploration of oil and natural gas fields, infrastructure related to product pipelines, LNG regasification and marketing of petroleum products and natural gas.

ii. Water Industry

a. Global market

According to the United Nations World Water Development Report⁹, approximately 2 billion people worldwide lack access to clean and safe drinking water, while about 3.6 billion people lack adequate sanitation services. Ensuring access to clean water and sanitation is not only essential for individual health but also crucial for economic development and growth. Increasing investments in the water sector is, therefore, imperative for the progress of countries and regions.

The UN World Water Development Report 2023 highlights that global water usage has been steadily increasing by about 1% per year over the last four decades. This trend is expected to continue until 2050, driven by factors such as population growth, socio-economic development, and shifting consumption patterns. Most of this rise is observed in middle-income and lower-income countries. The issue of water scarcity is exacerbated by the localised impact of physical water stress and the proliferation of freshwater pollution. These challenges pose significant threats to communities worldwide and necessitate urgent action to ensure sustainable water management practices.

Because of climate change, regions traditionally abundant in water, such as Central Africa, East Asia, and parts of South America, are expected to experience increased seasonal water scarcity. Simultaneously, areas already grappling with water shortages, such as West Asia and the Sahel in Africa, will face more water challenges.

All countries, irrespective of income level, are confronting risks associated with water quality. Statistics reveal that, on average, 10% of the global population resides in countries grappling with high or critical water stress. Low-income nations often struggle with poor ambient water quality due to insufficient wastewater treatment infrastructure, whereas higher-income countries contend with agricultural runoff as a major issue.

Despite these challenges, data on water quality remain sparse, primarily due to inadequate monitoring and reporting capacities. The scarcity of data is particularly pronounced in many of the least developed countries across Asia and Africa.

According to a report by the World Health Organization¹⁰, 1.8 billion people have gained access to basic drinking water services since 2000, but there are vast inequalities in the accessibility, availability and quality of these services. It is estimated that 1 in 10 people, that is 785 million, still lack basic services, including the 144 million who drink untreated surface water. The data shows that 8 out of 10 people lack even basic drinking water service live in rural areas. At the current rate of progress, the world will reach 81% coverage by 2030, missing the target and leaving 1.6 billion people without safely managed drinking water supplies.

The situation is gradually becoming so grave that in some developing and least developed countries taps will run dry. According to developers of a new satellite early warning system for the world's 500,000 dams,¹¹ shrinking reservoirs in India, Morocco, Iraq, and Spain could trigger the next "day zero" water crisis.

Management and Discussion Analysis

Global warming has further aggravated this situation by directly affecting the link between water and climate change. Unpredictable rainfall, melting glaciers, rising sea levels, droughts, and floods are all consequences of climate change. Rising temperatures disrupt precipitation patterns and the entire water cycle, aggravating both water scarcity and water-related hazards.

b. Indian market

India has 18% of the world's population, but only 4% of its water resources¹², making it among the most water-stressed in the world. India's dependence on an increasingly erratic monsoon for its water requirements increases the challenge. Climate change is likely to exacerbate this pressure on water resources, even as the frequency and intensity on floods and droughts in the country increases.

Five of the world's 20 largest cities under water stress are in India. Average per capita water availability in India, which is already be categorised water stressed, is expected to reduce further to 1341m³ by 2025 and 1140m³ by 2050, close to the official water scarcity threshold. According to a NITI Aayog report India is at 120th position amongst 122 countries in the water quality index, with nearly 70% of water being contaminated¹³. According to a NITI Aayog, India will need investments of ₹20 lakh crore to bridge the expected water supply gap by 2030.

The situation gets aggravated by rapid urbanisation and industrialisation, leading to the overexploitation of water bodies, poor water management, pollution, and climate change. The rapid growth of urban areas and industries has resulted in the overexploitation of both surface and groundwater resources. Additionally, inadequate management of water bodies and outdated irrigation techniques worsen the crisis.

Erratic rainfall patterns, rising temperatures, and melting glaciers further strain water resources, causing droughts and floods, especially in vulnerable regions. The repercussions of this crisis are far-reaching, affecting human health, economic growth, social stability, and environmental integrity.

Interstate disputes over river water heighten tensions in India, fuelling conflicts between communities and, in some cases, leading to violence.

Both central and state governments are implementing a series of measures, including promoting water conservation, policy reforms, investing in water-related infrastructure, increasing community participation, and building climate resilience.

Government initiatives

The Department of Drinking Water and Sanitation, under the Ministry of Jal Shakti, has been working towards realising the mission of creating a 'Swachh Sujal' nation. The department's flagship schemes, the Jal Jeevan Mission, aims to provide safe and adequate drinking water to all rural households through individual household tap connections. The department's Swachh Bharat Mission Grameen aims to ensure universal sanitation coverage, sustain open defecation free behaviours, leave no one behind, and focus on interventions for the safe management of solid and liquid waste in villages, along with visual cleanliness.

Jal Jeevan Mission, launched in August 2019, is a transformative initiative dedicated to providing safe and ample drinking water to all rural households. Over the past four years, the mission has achieved significant milestones, reaching 14.62 crore, or 75.7% of the households with tap water connections and profoundly impacting rural communities¹⁴. In 2023, the mission surpassed several milestones, progressing from 11 crore connections at the beginning of the year to over nearly 14 crore tap connections by the end of the year. In 2023-24, the government has released ₹69,886 crore to 25 eligible states and 5 union territories for the implementation of Jal Jeevan Mission.

iii. Steel Industry

a. Global Market

Steel, which is dubbed as the world's greatest alloy, is the backbone of most key sectors, including infrastructure and manufacturing. Over the years, experts and industries worked on new alloys like aluminium and titanium, but they were not able to replace steel due to the abundance of its raw material - iron ore.

While most countries are trying to develop technologies to manufacture high-grade steel, some have been able to corner the major chunk of the market. China has emerged as the world's largest producer and consumer of steel, fuelling demand with its rapid urbanisation and infrastructure development. India is the second largest producer of steel, followed by Japan and the US.

Despite its resilience and adaptability, the global steel industry faces a plethora of challenges and that includes overcapacity in some countries such as China that is leading to pricing pressures, trade disputes, and market distortions. Unilateral decisions by certain countries or blocs will also impact the sector adversely in coming years. A case in point is European Union's decision to impose carbon tax on products that emit carbon dioxide or non-environment friendly gases. The tax on these goods will come into force from January 2026. The UK is also considering a similar move.

According to a report of the Global Trade Research Initiative, from January 1, 2026, the EU will start collecting the carbon tax, which is estimated to be 20-35% tariff equivalent. This is far higher than the EU's average import tariff of 2.2% for manufactured products. In 2022, 27% of India's exports of iron ore pellets, iron, steel, and aluminium products valued at US $8.2 billion went to the EU.

Management and Discussion Analysis

Outlook:

The increase in interest rates by global central banks to tame inflation has led to an uncertain global economic outlook, which has had a ripple effect on the steel industry. However, a healthy growth in developing countries such as India and Brazil, and hints of reversal in monetary policy stance by many central banks provide a silver lining for the sector, amid further headwinds from sluggish growth in European countries and slow economic recovery in China.

According to the World Steel Association's¹⁵ short range outlook in October global steel demand is likely to grow 1.9% in 2024 to reach 1,849.1 million tonnes from estimated 1,814.5 million tonnes in 2023. This marks an upgrade from the association's April outlook, which predicted global steel demand to rise 1.7% in 2024. The global crude steel production in 2023 was 1,888.2 million tonnes, almost unchanged from 1,888.7 million tonnes in 2022.

According to a report by the Joint Plant Committee of the Ministry of Steel, the global manufacturing sector showed signs of stabilisation at the start of 2024¹⁶. After contracting for seven successive months, production volumes edged higher for the first time since May 2023 as new order intakes fell at the slowest rate in the current 19-month downturn as output rose in China, India, and Brazil.

Crude steel output in China, which accounts for about 55% of the world's crude steel production, was unchanged at 1,019.1 million tonne in 2023. According to S&P Global, Chinese steel demand may continue to remain under pressure in 2024 due to capacity expansion, as steelmakers plan to bring 82.2 million tonnes of pig iron capacity and 114 million tonnes of crude steel capacity on stream.

India, the world's second largest producer, recorded a 12% growth in crude steel output in 2023 at 140.2 million tonnes year. India accounted for about 7.5% of the world's crude steel production in 2023. With a production of 87.0 million tonnes in 2023, Japan was the third largest producer of the product and contributed 4.7% of world crude steel production in 2023. The year 2023 has been mixed for global steel firms. Fingers are crossed on 2024 as overcapacity in China is making global steel firms nervous, while likely loosening of monetary policies may provide a fillip.

b. Indian Market

According to market intelligence firm BigMint, India's steel demand is expected to grow at a compounded annual growth rate of 7% to touch 190 million tonnes by 2030. The demand will be largely fuelled by the construction and infrastructure sectors, which contribute 60-65% to the sales. Healthy economic growth and focus of the central government on infrastructure projects adds to the buoyant outlook for the steel sector in the country.

India's economic growth accelerated to 8.4% in Oct-Dec of 2023-24, mainly on the back of robust growth in manufacturing and construction sectors. The buoyant economic growth and the government's focus on capital expenditure is boosting the sector. The Interim Budget projected a capital spending outlay of ₹11.11 lakh crore in 2024-25, which is nearly three and a half times of what it was in 2019-20.

The numbers suggest a rosy picture for the steel sector. Construction, a key driver of demand for steel is growing at a healthy rate. According to Invest India, the government's investment facilitation agency, the construction industry in India is expected to reach US $1.4 trillion by 2025.

India remains a bright spot in an otherwise gloomy global steel industry. According to the World Steel Association, India's steel demand is projected to grow at a healthy 7.7% in 2024 notwithstanding a high base. India's steel demand grew an 8.6% in 2023 and 9.3% in 2022.

Government initiatives

The steel sector got a major boost with the government including specialty steel under the Production Linked Incentive Scheme with an outlay of ₹6,322 crore.

The Ministry of Steel has also embarked on several initiatives aimed at decarbonising the steel sector in line with India's commitment to achieving net-zero emissions, as outlined in COP-26. The steel sector in India has been embracing the adoption of best available technologies from around the world in its modernisation and expansion projects, underscoring the industry's commitment to reduce its carbon footprint and transition to sustainable practices.

Additionally, the Ministry of New and Renewable Energy has introduced a National Green Mission focused on the production and utilisation of green hydrogen.

Takeaway for steel sector from Union Budget 2024-25

- The funds for capital expenditure were raised to ₹11.11 trillion, up 17% from the preceding year and 3.4% of GDP
- Coal gasification and liquification capacity of 100 million tonnes by 2030
- Three economic rail corridors
- Two crore houses to be built under government scheme

iv. Pipe Industry

Pipes are critical for supplying anything that can flow including liquid, gas, and amorphous solids. Thus, pipes find their applications in both, industrial and non-industrial sectors. The application in non-industrial sectors includes the use of pipes in supplying wastewater to municipal wastewater treatment plants, public sewage, community water pumps, gas pipelines, pipelines for irrigation, plumbing in homes, HVAC systems in buildings, and various others. For instance, in July 2022, China started a project to upgrade old municipal gas pipelines in Heilongjiang province for higher safety.

The pipes market is primarily driven by various factors such as rise in the number of new residential and commercial buildings, development of water supply pipelines, increase in the number of wastewater treatment facilities, public agriculture irrigation systems, and other infrastructure in developing economies. In addition, rise in the number of industrial facilities including food and beverages, chemical and petrochemicals, pharmaceuticals, and other industrial facilities globally, also positively affects the pipes market growth.

Moreover, the 'Jal Jeewan Mission' of the government of India aims at providing safe and sufficient drinking water to all households in India by 2024. Under this program, the government is expected to lay thousands of kilometers of pipelines to each individual house. Similarly, in August 2020, the government of Vietnam unveiled that it would construct the country's largest wastewater treatment plant in Ho Chi Minh City. This wastewater treatment plant is anticipated to treating 480,000 cubic meters of water/day.

In addition, to address the water shortage problems in many countries, governments of those respective countries are upgrading and expanding their water transportation infrastructure. For instance, the Mexico government has been upgrading its water infrastructure, to bring water from the central part of the country to the parts facing water shortages.

Pipes are used for a variety of purposes such as supplying steam, chemicals, oil & gas, hot or cold process water, and various others, in industrial applications. For instance, the government of India is upgrading and expanding its gas pipeline network across the country, in pursuit to increase the contribution of gas in its total energy production from 6% in the financial year 2019 to 15% in the financial year 2030. Currently, India has a gas pipeline grid of 16,905 km, which needs to be increased to 27,000 km. Moreover, in 2020, the U.S. constructed two major oil pipelines in the country. All such projects that indicate increase in high demand for pipes in the industrial and non-industrial sectors are driving the market growth. However, the fluctuating cost of raw materials used for manufacturing pipes is expected to restrain the market growth. Even if the manufacturer does not increase the price, it is expected to affect the profitability of the company involved in making pipes and their components. Moreover, technological development in the pipes industry is a major pipes market opportunity and is expected to provide lucrative opportunities for the key market players.

Pipe market and outlook

Consulting firm Lucintel has raised its projection on global industrial pipe market to grow at a CAGR of 4.1% during 2024 to 2030, up 3.2% from 2023 to 2028¹⁷. In its latest report, the firm anticipates the market to reach US $52.5 billion by 2030. This upward revision is attributed to several factors, including the increasing construction of new pipelines, replacement of aging pipelines, urbanisation rates, and infrastructure development, which collectively drive optimism in the pipe sector.

Furthermore, experts highlight the burgeoning opportunities in the gas sector, which is poised to compensate for the relatively stagnant oil segment. This trend is expected to sustain petrochemicals as the primary driver of demand for industrial pipes in the foreseeable future. Lucintel underscores the growing adoption of premium and technologically advanced pipes, coupled with a heightened focus on pipe strength and durability.

Steel pipes are projected to remain highly sought-after, primarily due to their increased usage in power generation, as well as the oil and gas industries. Lucintel also foresees the petrochemical sector retaining its position as the largest end-use industry, driven by investments in new ventures and the upgrading of existing petrochemical facilities. Moreover, the continued rise in infrastructure development, urbanisation, and economic stimulus measures is expected to bolster the industrial pipe market in the Asia-Pacific region, making it the largest growth market.

Experts point towards emerging areas for value-added pipes, notably hydrogen and carbon capture pipelines. In the US, significant progress has been made in laying hydrogen fuel pipelines, with approximately 1600 km already established, and is expected to surge exponentially. Similarly, India has ambitious targets for the sector under the National Green Hydrogen Mission, with envisaged investments totalling ₹8 lakh crore.

However, it is essential to recognise that the pipe market operates cyclically, with the majority of orders being project-based. Therefore, long-term predictions should be approached with caution.

Indian Pipe Industry

The Indian pipe industry is a dynamic sector, driven by growing demand from infrastructure, oil and gas, power, and water and sanitation industries. While the market shows promise with a projected growth rate, it faces challenges due to inflation from the Ukraine conflict and the lingering impact of the pandemic, raising raw material and energy costs for end-users.

The pipes market is primarily driven by various factors such as rise in the number of new residential and commercial buildings, development of water supply pipelines, increase in the number of wastewater treatment facilities, public agriculture irrigation systems, and other infrastructure in developing economies. In addition, rise in the number of industrial facilities including food and beverages, chemical and petrochemicals, pharmaceuticals, and other industrial facilities globally, also positively affects the pipes market growth.

In India, while the upstream oil and gas sector has experienced some stagnation, the downstream segment continues to propel the pipe industry forward. The expansion of piped gas distribution networks to more cities has been a significant driver, with coverage expanding over tenfold to encompass 630 cities over the past decade.

Management and Discussion Analysis

India Oil and Gas Pipeline Market

India has an extensive network of pipelines in both natural gas and crude oil sectors which includes several cross-country pipelines that cater to demand from various parts of India including remote areas such as Jammu & Kashmir, Assam, Uttarakhand, etc. The rising energy needs have led to increased investments in the sector for expansion of existing networks along with setting up new ones which will be beneficial for growth of the market going forward. Moreover, increasing investments into renewable sources are also expected to create additional opportunities in this market landscape in next few years. The India oil and gas pipeline market is experiencing substantial growth as the country seeks to expand its energy infrastructure to meet the rising energy demand. The construction of new pipelines and the modernization of existing ones are driven by the need to enhance energy transportation and distribution across the nation.

Pipeline network demand in Water Sector

Additionally, the water sector, both for irrigation and drinking water purposes, is fuelling growth in the domestic pipe sector. Initiatives such as the Jal Jeevan Mission, aimed at providing drinking water connections to all rural households by 2024, and ambitious targets for irrigation under the Pradhan Mantri Krishi Sinchayee Yojana, are contributing factors to the sector's growth trajectory. The government's Smart City project is also a boost to the industry.

In recent years, the Indian pipe industry has witnessed significant growth, which is being driven by a number of factors, including:

- Increasing infrastructure development: The Indian government is investing heavily in infrastructure development, which is creating a strong demand for pipes for various projects, such as roads, bridges, and railways.
- Rising oil and gas consumption: India's oil and gas consumption is growing steadily, which is driving demand for pipes for upstream and downstream operations.
- Growing power demand: India's power demand is also growing rapidly, which is creating a demand for pipes for power transmission and distribution projects.
- Increasing urbanization: India's urbanization is leading to a growing demand for pipes for water supply and sanitation projects.

Market Drivers of the market

The India oil and gas pipeline market is experiencing substantial growth as the country seeks to expand its energy infrastructure to meet the rising energy demand. The construction of new pipelines and the modernization of existing ones are driven by the need to enhance energy transportation and distribution across the nation.

The Indian pipe industry is a promising sector with a bright future. The industry is well-positioned to benefit from the growing demand for pipes from various end-user industries and is expected to continue to grow in the coming years.

2. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2024, and total comprehensive income (comprising of profit and other comprehensive income), changes in equity and its cash flows for the year then ended.

Basis for Opinion

3. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs) specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements" section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion..

Key audit matters

4. Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter:

4.1 Assessment of the carrying value of investment in and loans granted to a subsidiary, Jindal ITF Limited [Refer to note 63 to the Standalone Financial Statements]

Description of Key Audit Matter:

The Company has an investment of ₹ 70,242.66 lakhs and has advanced loans aggregating ₹ 1,35,042.22 lakhs to its subsidiary, Jindal ITF Limited (the 'subsidiary') as at March 31, 2024.

The subsidiary had entered into a contract in the financial year 2015-16 with a public sector undertaking ('PSU') for transporting imported coal to one of the PSU's power generating stations. The contract was for a period of seven years and the subsidiary was the sole transporter and accordingly, had made significant investments to develop the facility. The contract had a clause for compensation in case the supply was lesser than the minimum guaranteed quantity ('MGQ') mentioned in the contract and had specific clauses to be adhered to by both the parties before terminating the contract.

The PSU stopped taking the supplies during the first year of operation and refused to pay compensation towards MGQ and terminated the contract subsequently. The matter was referred to arbitration where the arbitrator had awarded an interim award amounting to ₹ 35,631.18 lakhs in favour of the subsidiary relating to first 2 years of MGQ which was paid by the PSU, against an equivalent amount of bank guarantee furnished by the subsidiary. Subsequently, the arbitrator issued the final order in favour of the subsidiary awarding ₹ 1,89,108 lakhs plus interest and applicable taxes.

The PSU filed an appeal with Hon'ble High Court of Delhi against the final arbitration order. The Hon'ble High Court passed an interim order directing the PSU to pay ₹ 50,000 lakhs as an interim compensation which was paid by the PSU against an equivalent amount of bank guarantee furnished by the subsidiary. Currently, the matter is under litigation and pending before the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi. The management, in consultation with their legal counsel on the likely outcome of the case, has assessed that the carrying amount of investments in and loans granted to the subsidiary including interest thereon, are good and recoverable.

Auditors' Report

This has been determined as a key audit matter as the investment made, and loans granted are material to the Standalone Financial Statements and the subsidiary is currently having insignificant operations. Further, the recovery of investment and loan granted depends on the ultimate recovery of the remaining compensation from the PSU by the subsidiary.

How our audit addressed the key audit matter:

We performed the following procedures:

- Understood and evaluated the design and performed testing of operating effectiveness of controls over recognition and assessment of recoverability of the investment in and the loans given to the subsidiary.
- Obtained an understanding of the matter and enquired about updates over the legal case and the proceedings that took place during the year.
- Evaluated appropriateness of the accounting policy of the Company in respect of impairment assessment of equity investments and loans given.
- Perused the contract between the subsidiary and the PSU to corroborate the matters stated in the appeal and details of the claim filed by the subsidiary with the Arbitration Tribunal and the final arbitration order issued in this regard.
- Evaluated the recoverability of the said loans and investments considering the arbitration order decided in favour of the subsidiary.
- Evaluated the opinion obtained from the Company's external legal counsel on likely outcome of the case which supports the Company's assessment about recoverability of the said loan and investment balances.
- Evaluated the appropriateness of presentation and adequacy of the disclosures made in the standalone financial statements.

Based on the procedures above, the management's assessment of the carrying value of the investment and loans in the said subsidiary was considered to be reasonable.

4.2 Appropriateness of Accounting for Business Combinations during the year [Refer to note 61 to the Standalone Financial Statements].

Description of Key Audit Matter:

During the year, the Company has acquired (i) Sathavahana Ispat Limited ("SIL") on April 26, 2023 pursuant to the resolution plan under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code ("IBC") approved by the National Company Law Tribunal ("NCLT") vide its Order dated March 31, 2023, and (ii) two subsidiaries, namely, Jindal Quality Tubular Limited ("JQTL") and Jindal Tubular India Limited ("JTIL") and one associate, namely Jindal Fittings Limited ("JFL") with effect from April 1, 2022 pursuant to the composite scheme of amalgamation ("Scheme") approved by the NCLT vide its Order dated March 21, 2024.

The acquisition of JTIL and JQTL has been accounted for as a business combination of entities under common control, and the acquisition of JFL and SIL has been accounted for in accordance with the acquisition method as prescribed under Ind AS 103 'Business Combinations' and in accordance with the Scheme.

In respect of acquisition of SIL and JFL, the management engaged valuation experts ("management's experts") to determine the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed for the purpose of allocation of the purchase price and determination of the resultant Goodwill/ Capital Reserve as on the date of acquisition.

We considered the appropriateness of accounting for the above business combinations as a key audit matter due to the following:

- Complexity of the above transactions and the related accounting treatment as per the applicable accounting standards;
- Significant management estimation and use of assumptions required in the determination of fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed, and the computation of the resulting Goodwill/ Capital Reserve.

Auditors' Report

How our audit addressed the key audit matter:

We performed the following procedures:

- Understood and evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of the Company's controls over the accounting for business combinations.

Other Information

5. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the standalone financial statements

6. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
7. In preparing the standalone financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so. Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the standalone financial statements

8. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

9. As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:
 - Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
 - Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
 - Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
 - Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
 - Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
10. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
11. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
12. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

2. The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ("the Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditor's Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing deemed to be prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.
4. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

8. In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2024, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by ICAI..

The registered office of JSAW is situated at A-1, UPSIDC Industrial Area, Nandgaon Road, Kosi Kalan, District Mathura, 281403 (U.P.) India.

The Company is a leading manufacturer and supplier of Iron & Steel pipes and pellets having manufacturing facilities in India. Its products have application in oil and gas exploration, transportation, power generation, supply of water for drinking, drainage, irrigation purposes and other industrial applications.

2. Material Accounting Policy Information

2.1 Basis of preparation

The standalone financial statements comply in all material aspects with Indian Accounting Standards (IND AS) notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) [Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015], other relevant provisions of the Act and presentation requirements of Division II of Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013, (Ind AS compliant Schedule III).

The Company has consistently applied the accounting policies used in the preparation for all periods presented.

2.2 Basis of Measurement

The standalone financial statements have been prepared on accrual basis and under the historical cost convention except following which have been measured at fair value:

- certain financial assets and liabilities,
- defined benefit plans – plan assets measured at fair value,
- derivative financial instruments,
- share based payments

The standalone financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (₹), which is the Company's functional and presentation currency and all amounts are rounded to the nearest lakhs (₹ 00,000) and two decimals thereof, except as stated otherwise.

2.3 Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions. Actual results could vary from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision effects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future years (refer note 3 on critical accounting estimates, assumptions and judgements).

2.4 Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, Plant and Equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. Other maintenance costs are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Assets are depreciated to the residual values on a straight line basis over the estimated useful lives based on technical estimates, except, moulds which are depreciated based on units of production. Assets residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each financial year end considering the physical condition of the assets and benchmarking analysis or whenever there are indicators for review of residual value and useful life. The residual value of the asset is not more than 5% of the original cost of the asset, except assets (Mobile, Car, Laptop) which are under option to acquire by the employee under relevant HR policy and moulds, for which salvage value is based on estimated saleable value. Freehold land is not depreciated. Estimated useful lives of the assets are as follows:

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

Category of Assets	Life in years
Leasehold Land	Lease period ranging from 25-99
Buildings	3 - 60
Plant and Equipment	2 - 50
Moulds	Unit of production
Furniture and Fixtures	3 - 10
Vehicles	3 - 25
Office Equipments and Computers	2 - 15
Vessels and Containers	5 - 28
Intangible	3 - 6

The gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the year of disposal or retirement.

2.5 Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value except scrap, which is valued at net realizable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. The cost of inventories comprises of cost of purchase, cost of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their respective present location and condition. Cost is computed on the weighted average basis.

2.6 Employee benefits

- Short term employee benefits are recognized as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss of the year in which the related services are rendered. Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations in the balance sheet.
- Compensated absences is accounted for using the projected unit credit method, on the basis of actuarial valuations carried out by third party actuaries at each Balance Sheet date. Actuarial gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are charged or credited to profit and loss in the period in which they arise.
- Contribution to Provident Fund, a defined contribution plan, is made in accordance with the statute, and is recognised as an expense in the year in which employees have rendered services.
- The liability or asset recognised in the balance sheet in respect of gratuity plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of plan assets. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by actuaries using the projected unit credit method.

The present value of the defined benefit obligation denominated in Indian Rupees (₹) is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation.

The net Interest expense is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is included in employee benefit expense in the statement of profit and loss.

Re-measurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income.

Changes in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from plan amendments or curtailments are recognised immediately in profit or loss as past service cost.

The Company operates defined benefit plans for gratuity, which requires contributions to be made to a separately administered fund. Funds are managed by two trusts. These trusts have policies from an insurance company. These benefits are partially funded.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

2.7 Financial instruments – initial recognition, subsequent measurement and impairment

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

a) Financial Assets

Financial Assets are classified at amortised cost or fair value through Other Comprehensive Income or fair value through Profit or Loss, depending on its business model for managing those financial assets and the assets contractual cash flow characteristics.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income. For investments in debt instruments, this will depend on the business model in which the investment is held. For investments in equity instruments, this will depend on whether the company has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income.

The company reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing these assets changes.

For impairment purposes significant financial assets are tested on an individual basis, other financial assets are assessed collectively in Company that share similar credit risk characteristics.

Measurement

At initial recognition, the Company measures a financial asset (except trade receivable that does not contain significant financing component) at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

Investment in Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Company's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the Company classifies its debt instruments:

- Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Financial assets classified at amortised cost are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method.
- Fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI): Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI). Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit and loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to profit or loss and recognised in other gains/ (losses). Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income using the effective interest rate method.
- Fair value through profit or loss (FVPL): Any financial asset that does not meet the criteria for classification as at amortized cost or as financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, is classified as at financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are at each reporting date fair valued with all the changes recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

Trade receivables

A receivable is classified as a 'trade receivable' if it is in respect to the amount due from customers on account of goods sold or services rendered in the ordinary course of business. Trade receivables are recognised initially at transaction value except trade receivable that contains significant financing component that are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment. For some trade receivables the Company may obtain security in the form of guarantee, security deposit or letter of credit which can be called upon if the counterparty is in default under the terms of the agreement.

Impairment

Impairment is made on the expected credit losses, which are the present value of the cash shortfalls over the expected life of financial assets. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. The estimated impairment losses are recognised in a separate provision for impairment and the impairment losses are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss within other expenses.

Subsequent changes in assessment of impairment are recognised in provision for impairment and the change in impairment losses are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss within other expenses.

For foreign currency trade receivable, impairment is assessed after reinstatement at closing rates.

Individual receivables which are known to be uncollectible are written off by reducing the carrying amount of trade receivable and the amount of the loss is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss within other expenses.

Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to other Income.

Investment in equity instruments

Investment in equity securities are initially measured at fair value. Any subsequent fair value gain or loss is recognized through Profit or Loss if such investments in equity securities are held for trading purposes. The fair value gains or losses of all other equity securities are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income. Where the company's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in other comprehensive income, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit and loss. Dividends from such investments are recognised in profit and loss as other income when the company's right to receive payments is established. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on equity investments measured at FVOCI are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

De-recognition of financial asset

A financial asset is derecognised only when

- The company has transferred the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset or
- Retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumes a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows to one or more recipients.

Where the entity has transferred an asset, the company evaluates whether it has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset. In such cases, the financial asset is derecognised. Where the entity has not transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is not derecognised.

Where the entity has neither transferred a financial asset nor retains substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is derecognised if the company has not retained control of the financial asset. Where the company retains control of the financial asset, the asset is continued to be recognised to the extent of continuing involvement in the financial asset.

b) Financial liabilities

At initial recognition, all financial liabilities other than fair valued through profit and loss are recognised initially at fair value less transaction costs that are attributable to the issue of financial liability. Transaction costs of financial liability carried at fair value through profit or loss is expensed in profit or loss.

i) Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading. The Company has not designated any financial liabilities upon initial measurement recognition at fair value through profit or loss. Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are at each reporting date at fair value with all the changes recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the draw down occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are derecognised from the balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in the statement of profit and loss as other gains/(losses).

Borrowings are presented under current liabilities unless the company has unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for atleast twelve months after reporting period.

Trade and other payables

A payable is classified as 'trade payable' if it is in respect of the amount due on account of goods purchased or services received in the normal course of business. These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Company prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities unless payment is not due within 12 months after the reporting period. They are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

De-recognition of financial liability

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in statement of profit and loss as other income or finance costs.

Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

2.8 Revenue recognition and other income

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price (net of variable consideration) allocated to that performance obligation.

a) Sale of goods

Revenue from sale of goods is recognised when control of products, being sold has been transferred to the customer and when there are no longer any unfulfilled obligations to the customer.

b) Sale of power

Revenue from the sale of power is recognised when the electricity is supplied and is measured as per the contractually agreed tariff rates.

c) Sale of services

Revenue from job work charges and repair & maintenance contract are recognised based on stage of completion of the contract. Stage of completion is determined using "Input methods" as a proportion of cost incurred to date to the total estimated contract cost. Estimated loss on job work to be undertaken in future years are provided for in the period in which the estimate results in a loss on job work and repair & maintenance contract.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

d) Other Operating Income

Interest from customers - Interest from customer is recognised on time proportion basis taking into the account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable as per agreed terms.

Incentives on exports and other Government Grants related to operations are recognised in books after due consideration of certainty of utilization/receipt of such incentives. For Government grant refer note 4.15.

e) Other Income

Interest

Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

Dividend

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive dividend is established.

2.9 Business Combination

The acquisitions of businesses are accounted for using the acquisition method. The cost of the acquisition is measured at the aggregate of the fair values at the date of exchange of assets given, liabilities incurred or assumed and equity instruments issued by the Company in exchange for control of the acquiree. The acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities that meet the condition for recognition are recognised at their fair values at the acquisition date. In the case of bargain purchase, resultant gain is recognized on the acquisition date and accumulated to capital reserve in other equity. Acquisition related costs are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Business combinations arising from transfer of interests in entities that are under common control are accounted for using the pooling of interest method. The difference between any consideration transferred and the aggregate historical carrying values of assets and liabilities of the acquired entity are recognised in other equity.

Goodwill

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business less accumulated impairment losses, if any. Goodwill is tested for impairment annually and for the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to the cash-generating units that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination.

2.10 Provisions and contingencies

a) Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

i) Gratuity and compensated absences provision

Refer Note 2.6 for provision relating to gratuity and compensated absences.

ii) Mine restoration/ assets retirement obligation

Mine restoration expenditure is provided for in the Statement of Profit and Loss based on present value of estimated expenditure required to be made towards restoration and rehabilitation at the time of vacation of mine. The cost estimates are reviewed periodically and are adjusted to reflect known developments which may have an impact on the cost estimates or life of operations. The unwinding of the discount on provision is shown as a finance cost in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

b) Contingencies

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. Information on contingent liability is disclosed in the Notes to the Financial Statements. Contingent assets are not recognised. However, when the realisation of income is virtually certain, then the related asset is no longer a contingent asset, but it is recognised as an asset.

2.11 Employee Share Based Payments

Pursuant to Securities and Exchange Board of India [Share Based Employee Benefits] Regulation, 2014 [“SBEB Regulation”], the shareholder of the Company had approved certain share based payment schemes for the employees. The Company has created a trust “Samruddhi Employees Trust (formerly known as Jindal SAW Employee Welfare Trust)(the Trust)” for day to day operations and managing these schemes. The Company in its standalone financial statements consider the Trust as its extension inspite of being a separate legal entity and shares held by the Trust are considered as treasury shares and disclosed as treasury shares reserve under other equity.

3. Critical accounting estimates, assumptions and judgements

In the process of applying the Company's accounting policies, management has made the following estimates, assumptions and judgements, which have significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statement:

(a) Property, plant and equipment

External adviser or internal technical team assess the remaining useful lives and residual value of property, plant and equipment. Management believes that the assigned useful lives and residual value are reasonable, the estimates and assumptions made to determine depreciation are critical to the Company's financial position and performance.

(b) Income taxes

Management judgment is required for the calculation of provision for income taxes and deferred tax assets and liabilities. The Company reviews at each balance sheet date the carrying amount of deferred tax assets. The factors used in estimates may differ from actual outcome which could lead to significant adjustment to the amounts reported in the standalone financial statements.

(c) Contingencies

Management judgement is required for estimating the possible outflow of resources, if any, in respect of contingencies/claim/ litigations against the Company as it is not possible to predict the outcome of pending matters with accuracy.

(d) Allowance for uncollected accounts receivable and advances

Trade receivables do not carry any interest and are stated at their normal value as reduced by appropriate allowances for estimated irrecoverable amounts. Individual trade receivables are written off when management deems them not to be collectible. Impairment is made on the expected credit losses, which are the present value of the cash shortfall over the expected life of the financial assets.

(e) Estimation of Defined Benefit Obligations (DBO)

Management's estimate of the DBO is based on a number of underlying assumptions such as standard rates of inflation, mortality, discount rate and anticipation of future salary increases. Variation in these assumptions may significantly impact the DBO amount and the annual defined benefit expenses.

(f) Impairment of Investments in subsidiaries, associate and joint ventures

Investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associate are carried at cost. At each balance sheet date, the management assesses the indicators of impairment of such investments. This requires assessment of several external and internal factors including capitalisation rate, key assumption used in discounted cash flow models (such as revenue growth, unit price and discount rates) or sales comparison method which may affect the carrying value of investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associate.

4. Other Accounting Policies

4.1 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. The board of directors of Jindal Saw Limited has appointed Group CEO who assesses the financial performance and position of the

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

Company, and make strategic decisions. The Group CEO has been identified as being the chief decision maker. Refer Note 42 for segment information provided.

4.2 Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, Plant and Equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. Other maintenance costs are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

The gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the year of disposal or retirement.

4.3 Intangible Assets

Identifiable intangible assets are recognised a) when the Company controls the asset, b) it is probable that future economic benefits attributed to the asset will flow to the Company and c) the cost of the asset can be reliably measured.

Computer software's are capitalised at the amounts paid to acquire the respective license for use and are amortised over the period of license, generally not exceeding six years on straight line basis. The assets' useful lives are reviewed at each financial year end.

4.4 Investment in Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity controlled by the Company. Control exists when the Company has power over the entity, is exposed, or has rights to variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns by using its power over entity.

Power is demonstrated through existing rights that give the ability to direct relevant activities, those which significantly affect the entity's returns.

Investments in subsidiaries are carried at cost. The cost comprises price paid to acquire investment and directly attributable cost.

4.5 Investment in associates and joint ventures

Associate

An associate is an entity over which the Company has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The investment in associate are carried at cost. The cost comprises price paid to acquire investment and directly attributable cost.

Joint Ventures

A joint venture is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the arrangement. A joint venturer is a party to a joint venture that has joint control of that joint venture.

The investment in joint venture are carried at cost. The cost comprises price paid to acquire investment and directly attributable cost.

4.6 Impairment of assets

Non-current assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period. Also refer note 3(f).

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

4.7 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand and at bank, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value and are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments.

For the purpose of the Statement of Cash Flows, cash and cash equivalents consists of cash and short term deposits, as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdraft as they are being considered as integral part of the Company's cash management. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities in the balance sheet.

4.8 Leases

Lease accounting by lessee

Company as lessee will measure the right-of-use asset at cost by recognition a right-of-use asset and a lease liability on initial measurement of the right-of-use asset at the commencement date of the lease.

The cost of the right-of-use asset will comprise:

- i) the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability,
- ii) any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any incentives received,
- iii) any initial direct costs incurred,
- iv) an estimate of costs to be incurred in dismantling and removing the underlying asset, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, unless those costs are incurred to produce inventories.

Lease liability will be initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at that date. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if the rate cannot be readily determined incremental borrowing rate will be considered. Interest on lease liability in each period during the lease will be the amount that produces a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the lease liability.

Lease payments will comprise the following payments for the right to use the underlying asset during the lease term that are not paid at the commencement date:

- i) fixed payments less any lease incentives receivable
- ii) variable lease payments
- iii) amounts expected to be payable under residual value guarantees
- iv) the exercise price of a purchase option, if the Company is reasonably certain to exercise that option
- v) payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Company exercising an option to terminate the lease.

Subsequent measurement of the right-of-use asset after the commencement date will be at cost model, the value of right-of-use asset will be initially measured cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment loss and adjustment for any re-measurement of the lease liability.

The right-of-use asset will be depreciated from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the asset or the end of lease term, unless lease transfers ownership of the underlying asset to the company by the end of the lease term or if the cost of the right-of-asset reflects that the Company will exercise a purchase option, in such case the Company will depreciate asset to the end of the useful life.

Subsequent measurement of the lease liability after the commencement date will reflect the initially measured liability increased by interest on lease liability, reduced by lease payments and re-measuring the carrying amount to reflect any re-assessment or lease modification.

Right-of-use asset and lease liability are presented on the face of balance sheet. Depreciation charge on right-to-use is presented under depreciation expense as a separate line item. Interest charge on lease liability is presented under finance cost as a separate line item. Under the cash flow statement, cash flow from lease payments including interest are presented under financing activities. Short-term lease payments, payments for leases of low-value assets and variable lease payments that are not included in the measurement of the lease liabilities are presented as cash flows from operating activities. Low value lease threshold is ₹ 1.2 lakhs per annum.

Lease accounting by lessor

Company as a lessor needs to classify each of its leases either as an operating lease or a finance lease. A lease is classified as a finance lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset. A lease is classified as an operating lease if it does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset.

Finance lease

At the commencement date, will recognise assets held under a finance lease in its balance sheet and present them as a receivable at an amount equal to the net investment in the lease. Net investment is the discount value of lease receipts net of initial direct costs using the interest rate implicit in the lease. For subsequent measurement of finance leased assets, the company will recognise interest income over the lease period, based on a pattern reflecting a constant periodic rate of return on the company's net investment in the lease.

Operating lease

Company will recognise lease receipts from operating leases as income on either a straight-line basis or another systematic basis. Company will recognise costs, including depreciation incurred in earning the lease income as expense.

4.9 Foreign currency reinstatement

a) Functional and presentation currency

Standalone financial statements have been presented in Indian Rupees (₹), which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

b) Transactions and balances

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded by the Company at rates prevailing at the date of the transaction. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the year end exchange rates are recognised in statement of profit and loss.

Foreign exchange differences arising on foreign currency borrowings are presented in the statement of profit and loss, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the statement of profit and loss on a net basis within other gains/(losses).

Exchange gain and loss on debtors, creditors and other than financing activities are presented in the statement of profit and loss, as other income and as other expenses respectively. Foreign exchange gain and losses on financing activities to the extent that they are regarded as an adjustment to Interest expenses are presented in the statement of profit and loss as finance cost and balance gain and loss are presented in statement of profit and loss as other income and as other expenses respectively.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined.

4.10 Derivative financial instruments

The Company uses derivative financial instruments, such as forward currency contracts to hedge its foreign currency risks. Derivative financial instruments are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured at their fair value at the end of each period. The method of recognizing the resulting gain or loss depends on whether the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument, and if so, on the nature of the item being hedged. Any gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of derivatives are taken directly to profit or loss.

4.11 Equity share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs net of taxes directly attributable to the issue of new equity shares are reduced from retained earnings, net of taxes.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

4.12 Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

4.13 Compound financial instruments

The liability component of a compound financial instrument is recognised initially at fair value of a similar liability that does not have an equity component. The equity component is recognised initially as the difference between the fair value of the compound financial instrument as a whole and the fair value of the liability component. Any directly attributable transaction costs are allocated to the liability and the equity components, if material, in proportion to their initial carrying amounts.

Subsequent to the initial recognition, the liability component of a compound financial instrument is measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method. The equity component of a compound financial instrument is not re-measured subsequent to initial recognition except on conversion or expiry.

On significant modification of compound financial instrument original debt component is derecognised and the same is re-recognised at its new fair value. Any gain/loss on such modification is recognised in the statement of profit and loss account.

4.14 Taxation

Income tax expenses or credit for the period comprised of tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate, the changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses and previous year tax adjustments.

Tax is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised directly in equity or other comprehensive income, in such cases the tax is also recognised directly in equity or in other comprehensive income. Any subsequent change in direct tax on items initially recognised in equity or other comprehensive income is also recognised in equity or other comprehensive income, such change could be for change in tax rate.

The current income tax charge or credit is calculated on the basis of the tax law enacted after considering allowances, exemptions and unused tax losses under the provisions of the applicable Income Tax Laws. Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are off set, and presented as net.

Deferred income tax is recognised, using the balance sheet method, on temporary differences arising between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences and deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are off set, and presented as net.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

4.15 Government Grant

Government grants with a condition to purchase, construct or otherwise acquire long-term assets are initially measured based on grant receivable under the scheme. Such grants are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a systematic basis over the useful life of the asset. Amount of benefits receivable in excess of grant income accrued based on usage of the assets is accounted as Government grant received in advance. Changes in estimates are recognised prospectively over the remaining life of the assets.

The company has option to present the government grant related to fixed assets by deducting the grant from the carrying value of the asset and to present the non-monetary grant at a nominal amount. The company has not availed this option in current financial year.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the company will comply with all attached condition.

Government revenue grants relating to income are deferred and recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

4.16 Dividend Distribution

Annual dividend distribution to the shareholders is recognised as a liability in the period in which the dividends are approved by the shareholders. Any interim dividend paid is recognised on approval by Board of Directors. Dividend payable is recognised directly in equity.

4.17 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed using the net profit for the year attributable to the shareholders' and weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year. The weighted average numbers of shares also includes fixed number of equity shares that are issuable on conversion of compulsorily convertible preference shares, debentures or any other instrument, from the date consideration is receivable (generally the date of their issue) of such instruments.

Diluted earnings per share is computed using the net profit for the year attributable to the shareholder' and weighted average number of equity and potential equity shares outstanding during the year including share options, convertible preference shares and debentures, except where the result would be anti-dilutive. Potential equity shares that are converted during the year are included in the calculation of diluted earnings per share, from the beginning of the year or date of issuance of such potential equity shares, to the date of conversion.

4.18 Current versus non-current classification

The Company presents assets and liabilities in balance sheet based on current/non-current classification.

The Company has presented non-current assets and current assets before equity, non-current liabilities and current liabilities in accordance with Schedule III, Division II of Companies Act, 2013 notified by MCA.

An asset is classified as current when it is:

- a) Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle,
- b) Held primarily for the purpose of trading,
- c) Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- d) Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

- b) Held primarily for the purpose of trading,
- c) Due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- d) There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

This is based on the financial assets and financial liabilities held as at March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023.

ii) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counter party will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss.

iii) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company may not be able to meet its present and future cash and collateral obligations without incurring unacceptable losses.

The Company's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Company's financial performance. The Company uses derivative financial instruments to hedge certain risk exposures. The Company does not acquire or issue derivative financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes.

Risk management is carried out by the treasury department under policies approved by the board of directors. The treasury team identifies, evaluates and hedges financial risks in close co-operation with the Company's operating units. The board provides principles for overall risk management, as well as policies covering specific areas, such as foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, use of derivative financial instruments and non-derivative financial instruments, and investment of excess liquidity.

Market Risk

The sensitivity analysis excludes the impact of movements in market variables on the carrying value of post-employment benefit obligations provisions and on the non-financial assets and liabilities. The sensitivity of the relevant Statement of Profit and Loss item is the effect of the assumed changes in the respective market risks. The Company's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks, including the effects of changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates. The Company uses derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward contracts of varying maturity depending upon the underlying contract and risk management strategy to manage its exposures to foreign exchange fluctuations.

(a) Foreign exchange risk and sensitivity

The Company transacts business primarily in USD, Euro, OMR and other currencies. The Company has obtained foreign currency loans and has foreign currency trade payables and receivables and is therefore, exposed to foreign exchange risk. Certain transactions of the Company act as a natural hedge as a portion of both assets and liabilities are denominated in similar foreign currencies. For the remaining exposure to foreign exchange risk, the Company adopts a policy of selective hedging based on risk assessment of the management. Foreign exchange hedging contracts are carried at fair value.

(b) Interest rate risk and sensitivity

The Company's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to long term debt. The management maintains a portfolio mix of floating and fixed rate debt. Borrowings issued at variable rates expose the Company to cash flow interest rate risk. As at March 31, 2024, approximately 68.88% of the Company's borrowings are at a fixed rate of interest (March 31, 2023 75.17%). Borrowing includes lease liabilities. With all other variables held constant, the following table demonstrates the impact of borrowing cost on floating rate portion of borrowings:

Interest rate sensitivity	Increase/(decrease) in basis points	Effect on profit/(loss) before tax (₹ lakhs)
As at March 31, 2024

	-50	614.02
As at March 31, 2023

(c) Commodity price risk and sensitivity

The Company is exposed to the movement in price of key raw materials in domestic and international markets. The Company has in place policies to manage exposure to fluctuations in the prices of the key raw materials used in operations. For procurement of material, majority of transactions have short term fixed price contract. Further to minimise the risk of import, the Company enters into foreign exchange forward contracts, when considered appropriate.

(d) Credit risk

Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents, contractual cash flows of debt investments carried at amortised cost, deposited with banks, credit exposures from customers including outstanding receivables and other financial instruments.

Trade receivables and contract assets

The Company extends credit to customers in normal course of business. The Company considers factors such as credit track record in the market and past dealings for extension of credit to customers. The Company monitors the payment track record of the customers. Outstanding customer receivables and contract assets are regularly monitored. The Company evaluates the concentration of risk with respect to trade receivables as low, as its customers are located in several jurisdictions and industries and operate in largely independent markets. The Company has obtained advances and security deposits from its customers & distributors, which mitigate the credit risk to an extent.

Provision for expected credit losses (ECL)

The Company extends credit to customers as per the internal credit policy. Any deviation are approved by appropriate officials, after due consideration of the customers credentials and financial capacity, trade practices and prevailing business and economic conditions. The Company's historical experience of collecting receivables and the level of default indicate that credit risk is low and generally uniform across markets; consequently, trade receivables and contract assets are considered to be a single class of financial assets. All overdue customer balances are evaluated taking into account the age of the dues, specific credit circumstances, the track record of the customers etc. Loss allowances and impairment is recognised as per the Company policy.

The Company assigns the following internal credit ratings to each class of financial assets based on the assumptions, inputs and factors specific to the class of the financial assets. The Company provides for expected credit loss based on the following:

Internal Rating	Category	Description of category	Basis for recognition of expected credit loss provision
			Trade receivables and contract assets
Level 1	High quality assets, negligible credit risk	Assets where the counterparty has strong capacity to meet the obligations and where the risk of default is negligible or nil	Lifetime expected credit losses (simplified approach)
Level 2	Quality assets, low credit risk	Assets where there is low risk of default and where the counterparty has sufficient capacity to meet the obligations and where there has been low frequency of defaults in the past
Level 3	Doubtful assets, credit-impaired	Assets where there is high risk of default and there is no reasonable expectation of recovery, the group continues to engage in enforcement activity to attempt to recover the receivable due. Where recoveries are made, these are recognised in profit or loss.

Others

All of the entity's debt investments (preference shares, government securities, loan to related parties and others and security deposits) at amortised cost are considered to have low credit risk, when they have a low risk of default and the issuer/holder has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term. For cash and cash equivalents and deposit held with banks, the Company considers factors such as track record, size of the institution, market reputation and service standards to select the banks with which balances and deposits are maintained. Generally, the balances are maintained with the institutions with which the Company has also availed borrowings. The Company does not maintain significant cash and deposit balances other than those required for its day to day operations. The company invests in liquid schemes of mutual fund which have a very short maturity. These schemes are readily convertible and have insignificant changes in value and are held as means for settling liabilities or for working capital limits from banks. The loss allowance recognised during the period was therefore limited upto 12 months expected losses.

There are no receivables which have significant increase in credit risk or credit impaired.

(e) Liquidity risk

The Company's objective is to maintain optimum levels of liquidity to meet its cash and collateral requirements at all times. The Company relies on a mix of borrowings, capital infusion and excess operating cash flows to meet its needs for funds. The current committed lines of credit are sufficient to meet its short to medium term expansion needs. The Company monitors rolling forecasts of its liquidity requirements to ensure it has sufficient cash to meet operational needs while maintaining sufficient headroom on its undrawn committed borrowing facilities at all times so that the Company does not breach borrowing limits or covenants (where applicable) on any of its borrowing facilities.

The table below provides undiscounted cash flows towards non-derivative financial liabilities and net-settled derivative financial liabilities into relevant maturity based on the remaining period at the balance sheet to the contractual maturity date.

The Company is required to maintain ratios as per loan agreements. In the event of failure to meet any of these ratios these loans become callable at the option of lenders, except where exemption is provided by lender. The Company aims to ensure that it meets financial covenants attached to the interest-bearing loans and borrowings that define capital structure requirements. Breaches in meeting the financial covenants would permit the bank to immediately call loans and borrowings. There have been no breaches of the financial covenants of any interest bearing loans and borrowing for reported periods.

Fair valuation techniques

The Company maintains policies and procedures to value financial assets or financial liabilities using the best and most relevant available data. The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities represents the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values:

- 1) Fair value of cash, bank and deposits, trade receivables, trade payables, and other current financial assets and liabilities approximate their carrying amounts largely due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.
- 2) Long-term fixed-rate and variable-rate loans/ borrowings are evaluated by the Company based on parameters such as interest rates, specific country risk factors, credit risk and other risk characteristics. Fair value of variable interest rate borrowings approximates their carrying values. For fixed interest rate borrowings, fair value is determined by using the discounted cash flow (DCF) method using discount rate that reflects the Company's borrowings rate. Risk of non-performance for the company is considered to be insignificant in valuation.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

- 3) The fair values of derivatives are estimated by using pricing models, where the inputs to those models are based on readily observable market parameters basis contractual terms, period to maturity, and market parameters such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and volatility. These models do not contain a high level of subjectivity as the valuation techniques used do not require significant judgement, and inputs thereto are readily observable from actively quoted market prices. Management has evaluated the credit and non-performance risks associated with its derivative counterparties and believe them to be insignificant and not warranting a credit adjustment.

Fair Value hierarchy

The following table provides the fair value measurement hierarchy of Company's asset and liabilities, grouped into Level 1 to Level 3 as described below:

Level 1: It includes fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets and are based on quoted market prices at the balance sheet date like mutual funds. The mutual funds are valued using the closing net assets value (NAV) as at the balance sheet date.

Level 2: It includes fair value of the financial instruments that are not traded in an active market like over-the-counter derivatives, which is valued by using valuation techniques. These valuation techniques maximise the use of observable market data where it is available and rely as little as possible on the company specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value if instrument are observable then instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3: Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs). If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

The following table provides the fair value measurement hierarchy of Company's asset and liabilities, grouped into Level 1 to Level 2 as described below:-

OCI presentation of defined benefit plan

Gratuity is in the nature of defined benefit plan, Accordingly, re-measurement gains and losses on gratuity is presented under OCI as an Item that will not be reclassified to profit and loss along with income tax effect on the same.

Presentation in Statement of Profit & Loss and Balance Sheet

Expense for service cost, net Interest expense and expected return on plan assets is charged to Statement of Profit & Loss.

Actuarial liability for gratuity is shown as current and non-current provision in balance sheet.

The entire amount of the provision for compensated absences of ₹ 8,535.90 lakhs (March 31, 2023 - ₹ 7,328.07 lakhs) is presented as current, since the company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for any of these obligations. However, based on past experience, the company does not expect all employees to avail the full amount of accrued leave or require payment for such leave within the next 12 months.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

The Company has taken policy from an insurance company for managing gratuity fund. The major categories of plan assets for the year ended March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023 has not been provided by the insurance company. Accordingly, the disclosure for major categories of plan assets has not been provided.

Risk exposure

Due to the restrictions in the type of investment that can be held by the gratuity fund, it's not possible to explicitly follow on assets-liability matching strategy to manage risk actively.

The insurance policy is non participating variable insurance plan and will not participate in the profits of the insurance company.

These policies provide for minimum floor rate (MFR), i.e. a guaranteed interest rate that the policy account will earn during the entire policy term. In addition to MFR the insurance company shall also declare a non-zero positive additional interest rate (AIR) at the beginning of every financial quarter on the policy account and AIR shall remain guaranteed for that financial quarter. In addition to this, the policy also earns residual addition.

Through its defined benefit plans, the Company is exposed to a number of risks, the most significant of which are detailed below:

Asset volatility

This may arise from volatility in asset values due to market fluctuations. Most of the plan asset investments are in fixed income securities.

Changes in government bond yields

The plan liabilities are calculated using a discount rate set with reference to government bond yields. A decrease in government bond yields will increase plan liabilities and vice-versa, although this will be partially offset by an increase in the value of the plans' holdings in such bonds.

Salary Cost Inflation Risk

The present value of the Defined Benefit Plan liability is calculated with reference to the future salaries of participants under the Plan. Increase in salary due to adverse inflationary pressures might lead to higher liabilities.

Notes to Standalone Financial Statements

Impairment assessment of Goodwill

Goodwill has been recognised on amalgamation of erstwhile associate namely Jindal Fittings Limited with the Company pursuant to Composite scheme of Amalgamation approved by NCLT. The said goodwill is initially measured, being the excess of cost of investment and consideration to other shareholder in Jindal Fittings Limited over its net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed.

The Company performed annual impairment test for carrying value of the goodwill.

The recoverable amount has been considered based on the fair value less cost of disposal or value in use, whichever is higher as required to be assessed under Ind AS 36.

The recoverable amount of the unit has been determined based on value in use calculation using cash flow projections from financial projections. The pre-tax discount rate of 13.5% (March 31, 2023 13.5 %) applied to cash flow projections for impairment testing and cash flow beyond the five year period are extrapolated using a 4% (March 31, 2023 4%) growth rate which is consistent with the normal business growth rate and industry forecasts. As a result of the analysis, management did not identify any impairment for the goodwill for this unit and accordingly, there is no need for impairment of goodwill.

The management believes that any reasonably possible change in the key assumptions on which recoverable amount is based would not cause the carrying amount to exceed the recoverable amount of the unit.

5. The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual report but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed and the reports of the other auditors as furnished to us (Refer paragraph 15 below), we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

6. The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation and presentation of these consolidated financial statements in term of the requirements of the Act that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance and consolidated cash flows, and changes in equity of the Group including its joint ventures in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under Section 133 of the Act. The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its joint ventures are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

Auditor's Report

8. The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its joint ventures are responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group and of its joint ventures.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

9. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.
10. As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
 - Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Holding company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
 - Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
 - Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group and its joint ventures to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its joint ventures to cease to continue as a going concern.
 - Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
 - Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group and its joint ventures to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.
11. We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company and such other entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
12. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
13. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure A to Independent Auditor's Report

Referred to in paragraph 18(g) of the Independent Auditor's Report of even date to the members of Jindal Saw Limited on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2024

Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to Consolidated Financial Statements under clause (i) of sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Act

1. In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended March 31, 2024, we have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of Jindal Saw Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Holding Company") and its subsidiary companies and its joint Venture, which are companies incorporated in India, as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

2. The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company, its subsidiary companies and its joint Ventures, to whom reporting under clause (i) of sub section 3 of Section 143 of the Act in respect of the adequacy of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements is applicable, which are companies incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting ("the Guidance Note") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the respective company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditor's Responsibility

3. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI and the Standards on Auditing deemed to be prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of internal financial controls and both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to financial statements was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.
4. Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.
5. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the Other Matters paragraph below is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Holding Company's internal financial controls system with reference to consolidated financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with reference to financial statements

6. A company's internal financial control with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control with reference to financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Auditor's Report

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with reference to financial statements

7. Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

8. In our opinion, the Holding Company, its subsidiary companies and its joint Venture, which are companies incorporated in India, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2024, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note issued by the ICAI.

Other Matter

9. Our aforesaid reports under Section 143(3)(i) of the Act on the adequacy and operating effectiveness of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in so far as it relates to five subsidiary companies and one joint venture, which are companies incorporated in India, is based on the corresponding reports of the auditors of such companies incorporated in India. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Corporate and General Information

Jindal Saw Limited ("JSAW" or "Parent" or "the Company") is domiciled and incorporated in India and its shares are publicly traded on the National Stock Exchange ('NSE') and the Bombay Stock Exchange ('BSE'), in India. The registered office of JSAW is situated at A-1, UPSIDC Industrial Area, Nandgaon Road, Kosi Kalan, District Mathura, 281403 (U.P.) India.

Under Companies Act, 2013, Group is defined as parent, subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates. For the purpose of these financial statements, the aforesaid definition under Companies Act, 2013 has been considered.

Group is a leading global manufacturer and supplier of Iron & Steel pipe products, fittings and accessories with manufacturing facilities in India, USA and UAE. Its products have application in oil and gas exploration, transportation, power generation, supply of water for drinking, drainage, irrigation purposes and other industrial applications.

2. Material Accounting Policy Information

2.1 Basis of preparation

The Consolidated financial statements comply in all material aspects with Indian Accounting Standards (IND AS) notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) [Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015], other relevant provisions of the Act and presentation requirements of Division II of Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013, (Ind AS compliant Schedule III). The Group has consistently applied the accounting policies used in the preparation for all periods presented.

2.2 Basis of Measurement

The Consolidated financial statements have been prepared on accrual basis and under the historical cost convention except following which have been measured at fair value:

- certain financial assets and liabilities,
- defined benefit plans – plan assets measured at fair value,
- derivative financial instruments,
- share-based payments.

The Consolidated financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (₹), which is the Group's functional and Group's presentation currency and all amounts are rounded to the nearest lakhs (₹ 00,000) and two decimals thereof, except as stated otherwise.

2.3 Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions. Actual results could vary from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision effects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future years (refer note 3 on material accounting estimates, assumptions and judgements).

2.4 Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, Plant and Equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the statement of profit and loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Assets are depreciated to the residual values on a straight line basis over the estimated useful lives based on technical estimates, except, moulds which are depreciated based on units of production. Assets residual values and useful lives are reviewed at each financial year end considering the physical condition of the assets and benchmarking analysis or whenever there are indicators for review of residual value and useful life. The residual value of the asset is not more than 5% of the original cost of the asset, except assets (Mobile, Car, Laptop) which are under option to acquire by the employee under relevant HR policy and moulds, for which salvage value is based on estimated saleable value. Freehold land is not depreciated.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Estimated useful lives of the assets are as follows:

Category of assets	Life in years
Leasehold Land	Lease period ranging from 25-99
Leasehold Improvements	7-60
Buildings	3-60
Plant and Equipment	2-50
Electrical Installation	10-25
Moulds	Unit of production
Furniture and Fixtures	2-20
Vehicles	3-25
Computer Equipments	3-25
Office Equipments	2-15
Containers, Barges and Vessels	5-28

The gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of Property, Plant and Equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the year of disposal or retirement.

2.5 Inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value except scrap, which is valued at net realizable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. The cost of inventories comprises of cost of purchase, cost of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their respective present location and condition. Cost is computed on the weighted average basis.

2.6 Employee Benefits

- Short term employee benefits are recognized as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss of the year in which the related services are rendered. Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations under other current financial liabilities in the Balance Sheet.
- Compensated absences is accounted for using the projected unit credit method, on the basis of actuarial valuations carried out by third party actuary at each balance sheet date. Actuarial gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are charged or credited to profit and loss in the period in which they arise.
- Contribution to provident fund, a defined contribution plan, is made in accordance with the statute, and is recognised as an expense in the year in which employees have rendered services. No further liability of the Group once contribution is made.
- The liability or asset recognised in the balance sheet in respect of gratuity plans is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of plan assets. The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by actuary using the projected unit credit method.

The present value of the defined benefit obligation denominated in INR is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation.

The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is included in employee benefits expense in the statement of profit and loss. Re-measurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Changes in the present value of the defined benefit obligation resulting from plan amendments or curtailments are recognised immediately in profit or loss as past service cost.

The Group operates defined benefit plans for gratuity, which requires contributions to be made to a separately administered fund. Funds are managed by two trusts. These trusts have policies from an insurance Group. These benefits are partially funded.

2.7 Financial instruments – initial recognition, subsequent measurement and impairment

A financial instrument is any contract that gives rise to a financial asset of one entity and a financial liability or equity instrument of another entity.

a) Financial Assets

Financial Assets are classified at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income or fair value through profit and loss, depending on its business model for managing those financial assets and the assets contractual cash flow characteristics.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income. For investments in debt instruments, this will depend on the business model in which the investment is held. For investments in equity instruments, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income.

The Group reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing these assets changes. For impairment purposes material financial assets are tested on an individual basis and other financial assets are assessed collectively in groups that share similar credit risk characteristics.

Measurement

At initial recognition, the group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

Investment in Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the group's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the group classifies its debt instruments:

Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Financial assets classified at amortised cost are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate (EIR) method. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method.

Fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI): Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI). Movements in the carrying amount are taken through OCI, except for the recognition of impairment gains or losses, interest revenue and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit and loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in OCI is reclassified from equity to the statement of profit and loss. Interest income from these financial assets is included in other income using the effective interest rate method.

Fair value through profit or loss (FVPL): Any financial asset that does not meet the criteria for classification as at amortized cost or as financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income, is classified as at financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are at each reporting date fair valued with all the changes recognized in the statement of profit or loss.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Trade receivables

A receivable is classified as a 'trade receivable' if it is in respect to the amount due from customers on account of goods sold or services rendered in the ordinary course of business. Trade receivables are recognised initially at transaction value except trade receivable that contains significant financing component that are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method, less provision for impairment. For some trade receivables the Group may obtain security in the form of guarantee, security deposit or letter of credit which can be called upon if the counterparty is in default under the terms of the agreement.

Impairment

Impairment is made on the expected credit losses, which are the present value of the cash shortfalls over the expected life of financial assets. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a material increase in credit risk. The estimated impairment losses are recognised in a separate provision for impairment and the impairment losses are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss within other expenses.

Subsequent changes in assessment of impairment are recognised in provision for impairment and changes in impairment losses are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss within other expenses.

For foreign currency trade receivable, impairment is assessed after reinstatement at closing rates.

Individual receivables which are known to be uncollectible are written off by reducing the carrying amount of trade receivable and the amount of the loss is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss within other expenses.

Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to Other Income.

Investment in equity instruments

Investment in equity securities are initially measured at fair value. Any subsequent fair value gain or loss is recognized through Profit and Loss if such investments in equity securities are held for trading purposes. Fair value gains or losses of all other equity securities are recognized in Other Comprehensive Income. Where the Group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in other comprehensive income, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit and loss. Dividends from such investments are recognised in profit and loss as other income when the Group's right to receive payments is established. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on equity investments measured at FVOCI are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

De-recognition of financial asset

A financial asset is derecognised only when

- The Group has transferred the rights to receive cash flows from the financial asset or
- Retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumes a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows to one or more recipients.

Where the entity has transferred an asset, the Group evaluates whether it has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset. In such cases, the financial asset is derecognised. Where the entity has not transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is not derecognised.

Where the entity has neither transferred a financial asset nor retains substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, the financial asset is derecognised if the Group has not retained control of the financial asset. Where the Group retains control of the financial asset, the asset is continued to be recognised to the extent of continuing involvement in the financial asset.

b) Financial Liabilities

At initial recognition, all financial liabilities other than fair valued through profit and loss are recognised initially at fair value less transaction costs that are attributable to the issue of financial liability. Transaction costs of financial liability carried at fair value through profit or loss is expensed in profit or loss.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(i) Financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss include financial liabilities held for trading. The Group has not designated any financial liabilities upon initial measurement recognition at fair value through profit and loss. Financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss are accounted at each reporting date at fair value with all the changes recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

(ii) Financial liabilities measured at amortised cost

Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the draw down occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Preference shares, which are mandatorily redeemable on a specific date, are classified as liabilities. The dividends on these preference shares are recognised in profit or loss as finance costs.

The fair value of the liability portion of an optionally convertible bonds is determined using a market interest rate for an equivalent non-convertible bonds. This amount is recorded as a liability on an amortised cost basis until extinguished on conversion or redemption of the bonds. The remainder of the proceeds is attributable to the equity portion of the compound instrument. This is recognised and included in shareholders' equity, net of income tax effects, and not subsequently re-measured.

Borrowings are derecognised from the balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in the statement of profit and loss as other gains/(losses).

Where there is a breach of a material provision of a long-term loan arrangement on or before the end of the reporting period with the effect that the liability becomes payable on demand on the reporting date, the entity does not classify the liability as current, if the lender agreed, after the reporting period and before the approval of the financial statements for issue, not to demand payment as a consequence of the breach.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after reporting period.

Trade and other payables

A payable is classified as 'trade payable' if it is in respect of the amount due on account of goods purchased or services received in the normal course of business. These amounts represent unpaid liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group till the end of financial year which are unpaid. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities unless payment is not due within 12 months after the reporting period. Trade payables are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method.

De-recognition of financial liability

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in the statement of Profit and Loss.

Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet where there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the group or the counterparty.

2.8 Revenue recognition and other income

Revenue towards satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured at the amount of transaction price (net of variable consideration) allocated to that performance obligation.

a) Sale of goods

The Group manufactures various types of steel pipes and pellet. Revenue is recognised when a customer obtains control of a promised good and thus has the ability to direct the use and obtain the benefits from the good in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods and when there are no longer any unfulfilled obligations to the customer. Revenue is recognised net of Goods and Service Tax (GST).

b) Sale of power

Revenue from the sale of power is recognised when the electricity is supplied and is measured as per the contractually agreed tariff rates.

c) Sale of services

Revenue from job work charges and repair & maintenance contract are recognised on completion of services and transfer of control to customer over goods subject to Job Work. Stage of completion is determined using "Input methods" as a proportion of cost incurred to date to the total estimated contract cost. Estimated loss on job work to be undertaken in future years are provided for in the period in which the estimate results in a loss on job work and repair and maintenance contract.

d) Coal handling and transportation charges

Revenue from Coal transportation through inland waterways is recognised on complete voyage basis/upon unloading of the vessel/barge depending upon the risk and rewards transferred.

e) Sale of services - Vessel hire charges

Time charter earning are recognized over time as the performance obligation is satisfied as per charter party agreements.

f) Business Process Outsourcing and Information Technology Services

- (i) Business Process Outsourcing Services which comprise of call center, back office and other support services. The revenue from these sale of services which are continuous in nature is recognized on periodic basis
- (ii) Information Technology Services which comprise of software development and support services, IT maintenance and other development services. The revenue from sale of these services is recognized on periodic basis in case of continuous supply of services and in case of others, on the basis of completion of service.

g) Other Operating Income

Interest from customers - Interest from customer is recognised on time proportion basis taking into the account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable as per agreed terms.

Incentives on exports and other Government Grants related to operations are recognised in books after due consideration of certainty of utilization/receipt of such incentives. For Government grant refer note 4.13.

h) Other Income

Interest - Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

Dividend - Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive dividend is established.

2.9 Business Combinations

The acquisitions of businesses are accounted for using the acquisition method. The cost of the acquisition is measured at the aggregate of the fair values at the date of exchange of assets given, liabilities incurred or assumed and equity instruments issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. The acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities that meet the condition for recognition are recognised at their fair values at the acquisition date. In the case of bargain purchase, resultant gain is recognized on the acquisition date and accumulated to capital reserve in other equity. Acquisition related costs are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Business combinations arising from transfer of interests in entities that are under common control are accounted for using the pooling of interest method. The difference between any consideration transferred and the aggregate historical carrying values of assets and liabilities of the acquired entity are recognised in other equity.

Goodwill

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business less accumulated impairment losses, if any. Goodwill is tested for impairment annually and for the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to the cash-generating units that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination.

2.10 Employee Share Based Payments

Pursuant to Securities and Exchange Board of India [Share Based Employee Benefits] Regulation, 2014 ["SBEeb Regulation"], the shareholder of the Parent Company has approved certain share based payment schemes for the employees. The Parent Company has created a trust "Samruddhi Employees Trust (formerly known as Jindal SAW Employee Welfare Trust) (the 'Trust') for day to day operations and managing these schemes. The Parent Company in its standalone financial statement consider this Trust as its extension inspite of being a separate legal entity and shares held by the Trust are considered as treasury shares and disclosed as treasury shares reserve under other equity.

3. Critical accounting estimates, assumptions and judgements

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following estimates, assumption and judgements, which have material effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements:

(a) Property, Plant and Equipment

External adviser or internal technical team assess the remaining useful lives and residual value of property, plant and equipment. Management believes that the assigned useful lives and residual value are reasonable, the estimates and assumptions made to determine depreciation are critical to the Group's financial position and performance.

(b) Income taxes

Management judgment is required for the calculation of provision for income taxes and deferred tax assets and liabilities. The Group reviews at each balance sheet date the carrying amount of deferred tax assets. The factors used in estimates may differ from actual outcome which could lead to material adjustment to the amounts reported in the Consolidated Financial Statements.

(c) Contingencies

Management judgement is required for estimating the possible outflow of resources, if any, in respect of contingencies / claim / litigations against the Group as it is not possible to predict the outcome of pending matters with accuracy.

(d) Allowance for uncollected accounts receivable and advances

Trade receivables do not carry any interest and are stated at their normal value as reduced by appropriate allowances for estimated irrecoverable amounts. Individual trade receivables are written off when management deems them not to be collectible. Impairment is made on the expected credit losses, which are the present value of the cash shortfall over the expected life of the financial assets.

(e) Estimation of Defined Benefit Obligations (DBO)

Management's estimate of the DBO is based on a number of underlying assumptions such as standard rates of inflation, mortality, discount rate and anticipation of future salary increases. Variation in these assumptions may materially impact the DBO amount and the annual defined benefit expenses.

(f) Impairment of Investments in associate and joint ventures

Investments in joint ventures and associate are carried at cost. At each balance sheet date, the management assesses the indicators of impairment of such investments. This requires assessment of several external and internal factors including capitalisation rate, key assumption used in discounted cash flow models (such as revenue growth, unit price and discount rates) or sales comparison method which may affect the carrying value of investments in joint ventures and associate.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

4. Other Accounting Policies

4.1 Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements relate to Parent company, subsidiaries, joint venture and associate ('Group'). Subsidiary are those entities in which the Parent directly or indirectly, has interest more than 50% of the voting power or otherwise control the composition of the board or governing body so as to obtain economic benefits from activities. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the relevant activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

Associates are all entities over which the group has material influence but not control or joint control. This is generally the case where the group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Under Ind AS 111, Joint Arrangements, investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures. The classification depends on the contractual rights and obligations of each investor, rather than the legal structure of the joint arrangement. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the following basis:-

- a) The financial statements of the subsidiaries are combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together the like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses after fully eliminating intra-group balances and intra-group transactions and unrealized profits or losses in accordance with IND AS 110 - 'Consolidated Financial Statements' notified under Section 133 of the Act, read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended time to time.
- b) Interest in associates and joint ventures are consolidated using equity method as per IND AS 28 - 'Investment in Associates and Joint Ventures'. Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter, post-acquisition attributable profit/(losses) are adjusted in the carrying value of investment upto the Group investment in the joint venture and associate.
- c) In the case of foreign subsidiaries, being non-integral foreign operations, revenue items are consolidated at the average exchange rates prevailing during the year. All assets and liabilities are converted at rates prevailing at the end of the year. Components of equity are translated at closing rate. Any gain / (Loss) on exchange difference arising on consolidation is recognized in the Foreign Currency Translation Reserve (FCTR).
- d) The acquisitions of businesses outside the Group are accounted for using the acquisition method. The difference between the cost of investment in the subsidiaries and the Parent's share of net assets at the time of acquisition of control in the subsidiaries is recognised in the financial statement as goodwill. However, resultant gain (bargain purchase) is recognized in other comprehensive income on the acquisition date and accumulated to capital reserve in equity.
- e) Non-controlling Interest (NCI) in the results and net assets of the consolidated subsidiaries is identified and presented in the consolidated statement of profit and loss, balance sheet and statement of changes in equity separately from liabilities and the equity attributable to the Parent's shareholders. NCI in the net assets of the consolidated subsidiaries consists of:
 - The amount of equity attributable to NCI at the date on which investment in a subsidiary is made; and
 - The NCI share of movement in the equity since the date the parent subsidiary relationship came into existence.
- f) NCI in the total comprehensive income (comprising of profit and loss and other comprehensive income) for the year, of consolidated subsidiaries is identified and adjusted against the total comprehensive income of the Group. Where accumulated losses attributable to the NCI before the date of transition to IND AS i.e. April 1, 2014 are in excess of their equity, in the absence of actual obligation of the NCI, the same is accounted for by Parent. However, losses attributable over and above the share of NCI are borne by NCI even if it results in their deficit balance subsequent to IND AS transition date.
- g) Where Group has contractual obligation (Put, call or any other) to deliver cash or another financial asset and to settle any compound financial instruments classified by subsidiary as equity or mix of equity and liability, to the extent there is such an obligation or a component of it subject to obligation, the equity component considered by subsidiary is classified as financial liability in consolidated financial statement.
- h) For acquisitions of additional interests in subsidiaries, where there is no change in control, the Group recognises a reduction to the non-controlling interest of the respective subsidiary with the difference between this figure and the cash paid, inclusive of transaction fees, being recognised in equity. In addition, upon dilution of non-controlling interests the difference between the cash received from sale or listing of the subsidiary shares and the increase to non-controlling interest is also recognised in equity. If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the related assets (including goodwill), liabilities, non-controlling interest and other components of equity, while any resultant gain or loss is recognised in profit and loss. Any investment retained is recognised at fair value. The results of subsidiaries acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated Profit and Loss Statement from the effective date of acquisition or up to the effective date of disposal, as appropriate.

- i) The consolidated financial statements are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances and are presented in the same manner as the companies separate financial statements.

4.2 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. The board of directors of Jindal Saw Limited has appointed Group CEO who assesses the financial performance and position of the Group, and make strategic decisions. The Group CEO has been identified as being the chief decision maker. Refer note 42 for segment information provided.

4.3 Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, Plant and Equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. Other maintenance costs are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

4.4 Intangible Assets

Identifiable intangible assets are recognised a) when the Group controls the asset, b) it is probable that future economic benefits attributed to the asset will flow to the Group and c) the cost of the asset can be reliably measured.

Computer softwares are capitalised at the amounts paid to acquire the respective license for use and are amortised over the period of license, generally not exceeding six years on straight line basis. The assets' useful lives are reviewed at each financial year end.

4.5 Investment in associates and joint ventures

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies.

A joint venture is a type of joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement and have rights to the net assets of the joint venture. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

Investment in associates and joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method of accounting, after initially being recognised at cost.

The share of loss in joint venture and associates is restricted to the investment in case there is no constructive or legal obligation.

4.6 Impairment of assets

Non-current assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or group of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period. Also refer note 3(f).

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

4.7 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand and at bank, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and are subject to an immaterial risk of changes in value and are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments.

For the purpose of the Statement of Cash Flows, cash and cash equivalents consists of cash and short term deposits, as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdraft as they being considered as integral part of the Group's cash management. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities in the Balance Sheet.

4.8 Leases

Lease accounting by the Group as a lessee

Group as lessee will measure the right-of-use asset at cost by recognition of a right-of-use asset and a lease liability on initial measurement of the right-of-use asset at the commencement date of the lease.

The cost of the right-of-use asset will comprise:

- i) the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability,
- ii) any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any incentives received,
- iii) any initial direct costs incurred
- iv) an estimate of costs to be incurred in dismantling and removing the underlying asset, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, unless those costs are incurred to produce inventories.

Lease liability will be initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at that date. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if the rate cannot be readily determined incremental borrowing rate will be considered. Interest on lease liability in each period during the lease will be the amount that produces a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the lease liability.

Lease payments will comprise the following payments of the underlying assets for the right-of-use during the lease term that are not paid at the commencement date:

- i) fixed payments less any lease incentives receivable
- ii) variable lease payments
- iii) amounts expected to be payable under residual value guarantees
- iv) the exercise price of a purchase option, if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise that option
- v) payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising an option to terminate the lease.

Subsequent measurement of the right-of-use asset will be at cost, the value of right-of-use asset will be at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss and adjustment (if any), for re-measurement of the lease liability.

The right-of-use asset will be depreciated from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the asset or the end of lease term, unless lease transfers ownership of the underlying asset to the Group by the end of the lease term or if the cost of the right-of-asset reflects that the Group will exercise a purchase option, in such case the Group will depreciate asset to the end of the useful life.

Subsequent measurement of the lease liability after the commencement date will reflect the initially measured liability increased by interest on lease liability, reduced by lease payments and re-measuring the carrying amount to reflect any re-assessment or lease modification.

Right-of-use asset and lease liability are presented on the face of balance sheet. Depreciation charge on right-to-use is presented under depreciation expense as a separate line item. Interest charge on lease liability is presented under finance cost as a separate line item.

Under the cash flow statement, cash flow from lease payments including interest are presented under financing activities. Short-term lease payments, payments for leases of low-value assets and variable lease payments that are not included in the measurement of the lease liabilities are presented as cash flows from operating activities. Low value lease threshold is ₹ 1.2 lakhs per annum.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Lease accounting by the Group as a lessor

Group as a lessor need to classify each of its leases either as an operating lease or a finance lease. A lease is classified as a finance lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset. A lease is classified as an operating lease if it does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset.

Finance lease

At the commencement date, the lessor will recognise assets held under a finance lease in its balance sheet and present them as a receivable at an amount equal to the net investment in the lease. Net investment is the discount value of lease receipts net of initial direct costs using the interest rate implicit in the lease. For subsequent measurement of finance leased assets, the group recognises interest income over the lease period, based on a pattern reflecting a constant periodic rate of return on the group's net investment in the lease.

Operating lease

Group recognises lease receipts from operating leases as income on either a straight-line basis or another systematic basis. Group will recognise costs, including depreciation incurred in earning the lease income as expense.

4.9 Foreign currency translation

(a) Functional and presentation currency

Consolidated financial statements have been presented in Indian Rupees (₹), which is the Group's functional currency and Group's presentation currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency (the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates) and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency.

(b) Transaction and balances

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded by the entities in Group at their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the date of the transaction. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the year-end exchange rates are recognised in statement of profit and loss.

Foreign exchange differences arising on foreign currency borrowings are presented in the statement of profit and loss, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the statement of profit and loss on a net basis within other gains/(losses).

Exchange gain and loss on debtors, creditors and other than financing and investing activities on a net basis are presented in the statement of profit and loss, as other income and as other expenses respectively. Foreign exchange gain and losses on financing activities to the extent that they are regarded as an adjustment to interest costs are presented in the statement of profit and loss as finance cost and balance gain and loss are presented in statement of profit and loss as other income and as other expenses respectively.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gain or loss. For example, translation differences on non-monetary assets and liabilities such as equity instruments held at fair value through profit and loss are recognised in profit and loss as part of the fair value gain or loss and translation differences on non-monetary assets such as equity investments classified as FVOCI are recognised in other comprehensive income.

4.10 Derivative financial instruments

The Group uses derivative financial instruments, such as forward currency contracts and interest rate swaps to hedge its foreign currency risks and interest rate risks. Derivative financial instruments are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured at their fair value at the end of each period. Any gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of derivatives are taken directly to the statement of profit and loss.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

4.11 Equity share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs net of taxes directly attributable to the issue of new equity shares are reduced from retained earnings, net of taxes.

4.12 Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

4.13 Government grants

Government grants with a condition to purchase, construct or otherwise acquire long-term assets are initially measured based on grant receivable under the scheme. Such grants are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a systematic basis over the useful life of the asset. Amount of benefits receivable in excess of grant income accrued based on usage of the assets is accounted as Government grant received in advance. Changes in estimates are recognised prospectively over the remaining life of the assets.

The Group has option to present the government grant related to fixed assets by deducting the grant from the carrying value of the asset and to present the non-monetary grant at a nominal amount. The Group has not availed this option in current financial year.

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions.

Government revenue grants relating to income are deferred and recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

4.14 Compound financial instruments

The liability component of a compound financial instrument is recognised initially at fair value of a similar liability that does not have an equity component. The equity component is recognised initially as the difference between the fair value of the compound financial instrument as a whole and the fair value of the liability component. Any directly attributable transaction cost is allocated to the liability and the equity component, if material, in proportion to their initial carrying amounts.

Subsequent to the initial recognition, the liability component of a compound financial instrument is measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method. The equity component of a compound financial instrument is not re-measured subsequent to initial recognition except on conversion or expiry.

On material modification of compound financial instrument original debt component is derecognised and the same is re-recognised at its new fair value. Any gain/loss on such modification is recognised in the statement of profit and loss account.

4.15 Taxation

Income tax expenses or credit for the period comprise of tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate, the changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses and previous year tax adjustments.

Tax is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised directly in equity or other comprehensive income, in such cases the tax is also recognised directly in equity or in other comprehensive income. Any subsequent change in direct tax on items initially recognised in equity or other comprehensive income is also recognised in equity or other comprehensive income, such change could be for change in tax rate.

The current income tax charge or credit is calculated on the basis of the tax law enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the Parent and its subsidiaries and associates operate and generate taxable income after considering allowances, exemptions and unused tax losses under the provisions of the applicable Income Tax Laws. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to tax authorities. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the balance sheet method, on temporary differences arising between the tax base of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit (tax loss). Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in subsidiaries, branches and associates and interest in joint arrangements where the group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in subsidiaries, branches and associates and interest in joint arrangements where it is not probable that the differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will not be available against which the temporary difference can be utilised.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each balance sheet date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

4.16 Dividend distribution

Annual dividend distribution to the shareholders is recognised as a liability in the period in which the dividends are approved by the shareholders. Any interim dividend paid is recognised on approval by Board of Directors. Dividend payable is recognised directly in equity.

4.17 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per Share is computed using the net profit attributable to the equity shareholders' of the Parent and weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year excluding treasury shares. The weighted average number of shares also includes fixed number of equity shares that are issuable on conversion of compulsorily convertible preference shares, debentures or any other instrument, from the date consideration is receivable (generally the date of their issue) for such instruments.

Diluted earnings per share is computed using the net profit for the year attributable to the equity shareholder' of the Parent and weighted average number of equity and potential equity shares outstanding during the year including share options, convertible preference shares and debentures, except where the result would be anti-dilutive and excludes treasury shares. Potential equity shares that are converted during the year are included in the calculation of diluted earnings per share, from the beginning of the year or date of issuance of such potential equity shares, to the date of conversion.

4.18 Provisions and contingencies

a) Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

i) Gratuity and compensated absences provision

Refer note 2.6, for provision relating to gratuity and compensated absences.

ii) Mine restoration or assets retirement obligation

Mine restoration expenditure is provided for in the Statement of Profit and Loss based on present value of estimated expenditure required to be made towards restoration and rehabilitation at the time of vacation of mine. The cost estimates are reviewed periodically and are adjusted to reflect known developments which may have an impact on the cost estimates or life of operations. The unwinding of the discount on provision is shown as a finance cost in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

b) Contingencies

Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made. Information on contingent liability is disclosed in the Notes to the financial statements. Contingent assets are not recognised. However, when the realisation of income is virtually certain, then the related asset is no longer a contingent asset, but it is recognised as an asset.

4.19 Current versus non-current classification

The Group presents assets and liabilities in Balance Sheet based on current/non-current classification. The Group has presented non-current assets and current assets before equity, non-current liabilities and current liabilities in accordance with Schedule III, Division II of Companies Act, 2013 notified by MCA.

An asset is classified as current when it is:

- a) Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle,
- b) Held primarily for the purpose of trading,
- c) Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- d) Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

All other assets are classified as non-current.

A liability is classified as current when it is:

- a) Expected to be settled in normal operating cycle,
- b) Held primarily for the purpose of trading,
- c) Due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or
- d) There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

40. Financial risk management

40.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's principal financial liabilities, other than derivatives, comprise borrowings, trade and other payables and financial guarantee contracts. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to manage finances for the Group's operations. The Group has loans, trade and other receivables, finance lease receivable, cash and short-term deposits that arise directly from its operations. The Group also enters into derivative transactions. The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks detailed below:

i) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market prices comprise three types of risk: currency rate risk, interest rate risk and other price risks, such as commodity risk. Financial instruments affected by market risk include loans and borrowings, deposits, investments and derivative financial instruments. Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. This is based on the financial assets and financial liabilities held as at March 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024.

ii) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counter party will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss.

iii) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group may not be able to meet its present and future cash and collateral obligations without incurring unacceptable losses.

The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance. The Group uses derivative financial instruments to hedge certain risk exposures. The Group does not acquire or issue derivative financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes.

Risk management is carried out by the treasury department under policies approved by the board of directors. The treasury team identifies, evaluates and hedges financial risks in close co-operation with the Group's operating units. The board provides principles for overall risk management, as well as policies covering specific areas, such as foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, and credit risk, use of derivative financial instruments and non-derivative financial instruments, and investment of excess liquidity.

Market Risk

The sensitivity analysis excludes the impact of movements in market variables on the carrying value of post-employment benefit obligation provisions and on the non-financial assets and liabilities. The sensitivity of the relevant Statement of Profit and Loss item is the effect of the assumed changes in the respective market risks. The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks, including the effects of changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates. The Group uses derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward contracts and interest rate swaps of varying maturity depending upon the underlying contract and risk management strategy to manage its exposures to foreign exchange fluctuations and interest rate.

(a) Foreign exchange risk and sensitivity

The Group transacts business primarily in USD, Euro, OMR and other currencies. The Group has obtained foreign currency loans and has foreign currency trade payables, receivables and other receivable and payable and is therefore, exposed to foreign exchange risk. Certain transactions of the respective entities under the Group act as a natural hedge as a portion of both assets and liabilities are denominated in similar foreign currencies. Group profit and loss is also impacted due to change in fair value of intra group monetary items in foreign currency, and foreign currency trade receivables designated as cash flow hedge of a highly probable forecast transaction impact other comprehensive income. For the remaining exposure to foreign exchange risk, the Group adopts a policy of selective hedging based on risk perception of the management. Foreign exchange hedging contracts are carried at fair value.

(b) Interest rate risk and sensitivity

The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to long term debt. The management maintains a portfolio mix of floating and fixed rate debt. Borrowings issued at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. As at March 31, 2024, approximately 60.97% of the Group's borrowings are at a fixed rate of interest (March 31, 2023 67.85%). Borrowings issued at fixed interest rate exposes the Group to fair value interest rate risk. Borrowings includes lease liabilities. With all other variables held constant, the following table demonstrates the impact of borrowing cost on floating rate portion of borrowings:

	Change in currency exchange rate	Effect on profit/ (loss) before tax (₹ lakhs)
		As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023

AED borrowings	+25	(35.80)	(0.78)
	-25	35.80	0.78

The assumed movement in basis points for interest rate sensitivity analysis is based on the management's assessment of currently observable market environment.

(c) Credit risk

Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents, contractual cash flows of debt investments carried at amortised cost, deposited with banks, credit exposures from customers including outstanding receivables and other financial instruments.

Trade receivables and contract assets

The Group extends credit to customers in normal course of business. The Group considers factors such as credit track record in the market and past dealings for extension of credit to customers. The Group monitors the payment track record of the customers. Outstanding customer receivables are regularly monitored. The Group evaluates the concentration of risk with respect to trade receivables as low, as its customers are located in several jurisdictions and industries and operate in largely independent markets. The Group has obtained advances and security deposits from some of its customers & distributors, which mitigate the credit risk to an extent.

Provision for expected credit losses (ECL)

The Group extends credit to customers as per the internal credit policy. Any deviation are approved by appropriate officials, after due consideration of the customers credentials and financial capacity, trade practices and prevailing business and economic conditions. The Group's historical experience of collecting receivables and the level of default indicate that credit risk is low and generally uniform across markets; consequently, trade receivables are considered to be a single class of financial assets. All overdue customer balances are evaluated taking into account the age of the dues, specific credit circumstances, the track record of the customers etc. Loss allowances and impairment is recognised as per the Group policy.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The group assigns the following internal credit ratings to each class of financial assets based on the assumptions, inputs and factors specific to the class of the financial assets. The group provides for expected credit loss based on the following:

Internal Rating	Category	Description of category	Basis for recognition of expected credit loss provision
			Trade receivables and contract assets
Level 1	High quality assets, negligible credit risk	Assets where the counterparty has strong capacity to meet the obligations and where the risk of default is negligible or nil	Lifetime expected credit losses (simplified approach)
Level 2	Quality assets, low credit risk	Assets where there is low risk of default and where the counterparty has sufficient capacity to meet the obligations and where there has been low frequency of defaults in the past
Level 3	Doubtful assets, credit-impaired	Assets where there is high risk of default and there is no reasonable expectation of recovery, the group continues to engage in enforcement activity to attempt to recover the receivable due. Where recoveries are made, these are recognised in profit or loss.	100 % provision is considered for doubtful assets, credit impaired

All of the entity's debt investments (preference shares, government securities, loan to related parties and others and security deposits) at amortised cost are considered to have low credit risk. For cash and cash equivalents and deposit held with banks, the Group considers factors such as track record, size of the institution, market reputation and service standards to select the banks with which balances and deposits are maintained. Generally, the balances are maintained with the institutions with which the Group has also availed borrowings. The Group does not maintain significant cash and deposit balances other than those required for its day to day operations. The Group invests in liquid schemes of mutual fund which have a very short maturity. These schemes are readily convertible and have insignificant changes in value and are held as means for settling liabilities or for working capital limits from banks. The loss allowance recognised during the period was therefore limited upto 12 months expected losses. There are no receivables which have significant increase in credit risk or credit impaired.

The ageing of trade receivable and allowance for doubtful debts/ expected credit loss (ECL) are provided below:

Financial instruments and cash deposits

The Group considers factors such as track record, size of the institution, market reputation and service standards to select the banks with which balances and deposits are maintained. Generally, the balances are maintained with the institutions with which the Group has also availed borrowings. The Group does not maintain significant cash and deposit balances other than those required for its day to day operations.

(d) Liquidity risk

The Group's objective is to, at all times maintain optimum levels of liquidity to meet its cash and collateral requirements. The Group relies on a mix of borrowings, capital infusion and excess operating cash flows to meet its needs for funds. The current committed lines of credit are sufficient to meet its short to medium term expansion needs. The Group monitors rolling forecasts of its liquidity requirements to ensure it has sufficient cash to meet operational needs while maintaining sufficient headroom on its undrawn committed borrowing facilities at all times so that the Group does not breach borrowing limits or covenants (where applicable) on any of its borrowing facilities.

The table below provides undiscounted cash flows towards non-derivative financial liabilities and net-settled derivative financial liabilities into relevant maturity based on the remaining period at the balance sheet to the contractual maturity date.

The Group is required to maintain ratios as per loan agreements. In the event of failure to meet any of these ratios these loans become callable at the option of lenders, except where exemption is provided by lender.

Fair valuation techniques

The Group maintains policies and procedures to value financial assets or financial liabilities using the best and most relevant data available. The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are included at the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values:

- 1) Fair value of cash and deposits, trade receivables, trade payables, and other current financial assets and liabilities approximate their carrying amounts largely due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.
- 2) Long-term fixed-rate and variable-rate receivables / borrowings are evaluated by the Group based on parameters such as interest rates, specific country risk factors, credit risk and other risk characteristics. Fair value of variable interest rate borrowings approximates their carrying values. For fixed interest rate borrowing fair value is determined by using the discounted cash flow (DCF) method using discount rate that reflects the issuer's borrowings rate. Risk of non-performance for the Group is considered to be insignificant in valuation.
- 3) The fair values of derivatives are estimated by using pricing models, where the inputs to those models are based on readily observable market parameters basis contractual terms, period to maturity, and market parameters such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and volatility. These models do not contain a high level of subjectivity as the valuation techniques used do not require significant judgement, and inputs thereto are readily observable from actively quoted market prices. Management has evaluated the credit and non-performance risks associated with its derivative counterparties and believe them to be insignificant and not warranting a credit adjustment.

Fair Value hierarchy

The following table provides the fair value measurement hierarchy of Group's asset and liabilities, grouped into Level 1 to Level 3 as described below:

Level 1: It includes fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets and are based on quoted market prices at the balance sheet date like mutual funds. The mutual funds are valued using the closing net assets value (NAV) as at the balance sheet date.

Level 2: It includes fair value of the financial instruments that are not traded in an active market like over-the-counter derivatives, which is valued by using valuation techniques. These valuation techniques maximise the use of observable market data where it is available and rely as little as possible on the company specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable then instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3: Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs). If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

Weighted average actuarial assumptions	As at March 31, 2024	As at March 31, 2023
Attrition rate	5% PA to 60% PA	2% PA to 60% PA

The assumption of future salary increase takes into account the inflation, seniority, promotion and other relevant factors such as supply and demand in employment market.

2.f. Sensitivity analysis::

As at March 31, 2024

(₹ lakhs)

Particulars	Change in assumption	Gratuity obligation (Decrease)/Increase
Discount rate	+1%	(20,096.18)
	-1%	26,627.45
Salary Growth rate	+1%	26,500.65
	-1%	(20,164.88)
Withdrawal Rate	+1%	(21,656.05)
	-1%	24,702.57

As at March 31, 2023

	-1%	(17,457.31)
Withdrawal Rate	+1%	(18,807.07)
	-1%	21,465.96

The above sensitivity analysis is based on a change in an assumption while holding all other assumptions constant. In practice, this is unlikely to occur, and changes in some of the assumptions may be correlated. When calculating the sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to significant actuarial assumptions the same method (projected unit credit method) has been applied as when calculating the defined benefit obligation recognised within the Balance Sheet. The method and types of assumption used in preparing the sensitivity analysis did not change as compared to the previous year.

OCI presentation of defined benefit plan

Gratuity is in the nature of defined benefit plan, re-measurement gains/(losses) on defined benefit plans is shown under OCI as Items that will not be reclassified to profit and loss and also the income tax effect on the same.

Presentation in Statement of Profit & Loss and Balance Sheet

Expense for service cost, net interest expense and expected return on plan assets is charged to Statement of Profit and Loss.

The entire amount of the provision of compensated absences ₹ 9,010.26 lakhs (March 31, 2023 ₹ 7,739.59 lakhs) is presented as current, since the group does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for any of these obligations. However, based on past experience, the group does not expect all employees to avail the full amount of accrued leave or require payment for such leave within the next 12 months.

The Group assesses these assumptions with its projected long-term plans of growth and prevalent industry standards. The mortality rates are used from IALM 2012-14 Ultimate as per actuary certificate.

The Group has taken policies from an insurance company for managing gratuity fund. The major categories of plans assets for the year ended March 31, 2024 has not been provided by the insurance company. Accordingly, the disclosure for major categories of plan assets has not been provided.

Risk exposure

The Group has taken group gratuity policies from an insurance company. Contribution towards policies are done annually basis demand from insurance company. Due to the restrictions in the type of investment that can be held by the gratuity fund, it's not possible to explicitly follow on assets-liability matching strategy to manage risk actively.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The insurance policy is non participating variable insurance plan and will not participate in the profits of the insurance company.

These policies provide for minimum floor rate (MFR), i.e. a guaranteed interest rate that the policy account will earn during the entire policy term. In addition to MFR the insurance company shall also declare a non-zero positive additional interest rate (AIR) at the beginning of every financial quarter on the policy account and AIR shall remain guaranteed for that financial quarter. In addition to these both the policy also earn residual addition.

Through its defined benefit plans, the Group is exposed to a number of risks, the most significant of which are detailed below:

Asset volatility

This may arise from volatility in asset values due to market fluctuations. Most of the plan asset investments are in fixed income securities.

Changes in government bond yields

The plan liabilities are calculated using a discount rate set with reference to government bond yields. A decrease in government bond yields will increase plan liabilities and vice-versa, although this will be partially offset by an increase in the value of the plans' holdings in such bonds.

Salary Cost Inflation Risk

The present value of the Defined Benefit Plan liability is calculated with reference to the future salaries of participants under the Plan. Increase in salary due to adverse inflationary pressures might lead to higher liabilities.

48. Compliance with audit trail for accounting software

Subsidiaries and joint ventures in the Group which are incorporated in India are using ERPs as accounting software. These ERPs are having audit trail features for maintaining books of accounts. Group has enabled audit trail in all the tables throughout the year except in case of Parent Company, three subsidiaries and one joint venture, where:-

- On some of the tables audit trail feature has been enabled during the year.
- On certain tables for specific access audit trail feature has not been enabled as per the advise of ERP provider as it would result into considerable degradation of performance.
- On database for a specific standard default user used by the ERP itself, due to performance related issue. As per ERP provider though system administrator can use this id, an audit trail for command executed by system administrator is not available. To mitigate this, we implemented a customised solution that allows us to know if system administrator has logged in through this user id, the command executed and final modified values. This implementation was done towards the end of the said financial year.

55. Impairment review

Assets are tested for impairment annually or whenever there are any indicators for impairment. Impairment test is performed at the level of each Cash Generating Unit (CGU) or group of CGUs within the Group at which assets are monitored for internal management purpose. The impairment assessment is based on higher of value in use and fair value less cost of disposal.

Goodwill Impairment assessment:

Goodwill has been recognised on amalgamation of erstwhile associate namely Jindal Fittings Limited with the Company pursuant to Composite scheme of Amalgamation approved by NCLT. The said goodwill is initially measured, being the excess of cost of investment and consideration to other shareholder in Jindal Fittings Limited over its net identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed.

The Company performed annual impairment test for carrying value of the goodwill.

The recoverable amount has been considered based on the fair value less cost of disposal or value in use, whichever is higher as required to be assessed under Ind AS 36.

The recoverable amount of the unit has been determined based on value in use calculation using cash flow projections from financial projections. The pre-tax discount rate of 13.5% (March 31, 2023 13.5 %) applied to cash flow projections for impairment testing and cash flow beyond the five year period are extrapolated using a 4% (March 31, 2023 4%) growth rate which is consistent with the normal business growth rate and industry forecasts. As a result of the analysis, management did not identify any impairment for the goodwill for this unit and accordingly, there is no need for impairment of goodwill.

The management believes that any reasonably possible change in the key assumptions on which recoverable amount is based would not cause the carrying amount to exceed the recoverable amount of the unit.
