As SRK, Preity-starrer 'Veer Zaara' clocks 18 years, actress says: 'Here's to believing in old fashioned lo

Mumbai, Nov 12 (IANS) As their iconic romantic film 'Veer Zaara' completes 18 years in Hindi cinema on Saturday, actress Preity Zinta penned an ode to the film saying that nothing compares to the Yash Chopra directorial. Preity took to Instagram, where she shared glimpses from the film. Alongside the clip, she wrote: "There have been movies and there will be movies but nothing compares to Veer Zaara. Nothing compares to the magic of Yash Chopra films, his love for romance & the purity of his characters." She added: "Here's to believing in good old fashioned love & to loving someone with such pure intent that no boundary, no religion & no border can keep that love apart. Thank you Adi Chopra for creating the world of Veer Zaara & to all the cast n crew members that made this film so special. #VeerZaara."

'Veer-Zaara' is a period epic romantic drama film directed by Yash Chopra. It stars Shah Rukh Khan and Preity Zinta as the eponymous star-crossed lovers: Veer Pratap Singh (Khan) is an Indian Air Force officer, and Zaara Hayaat Khan (Zinta) is the daughter of a Pakistani politician.

Veer is imprisoned on false charges, and a young Pakistani lawyer, named Saamiya Siddiqui, fights his case. Amitabh Bachchan, Hema Malini, Divya Dutta, Manoj Bajpayee, Boman Irani, Anupam Kher and Kirron Kher play supporting roles.

Jennifer Aniston is 'relieved' after her IVF journey

Los Angeles, Nov 12 (IANS) 'Friends' star Jennifer Aniston is in a happy phase. The Golden Globe winner, 53, recently opened up to Allure about her past infertility struggles and IVF attempts. The actress has always faced struggles with a smile on her face much like her character of Rachel from the iconic sitcom, where she took everything in her stride and charted her own course, reports People magazine. "She's always been happy, though," an insider told People. "Her dogs are her kids to her and why she's always had them. Her IVF journey was private and hers, and those close to her knew but never asked."

The source added: "But she's at peace and is very happy in her life. She's in a great place, and she knows that. Kids or no kids, it didn't change her." "All these years and years of speculation, it was really hard," Aniston noted. "I was going through IVF, drinking Chinese teas, you name it. I was throwing everything at it. I would have given anything if someone had said to me, 'Freeze your eggs. Do yourself a favour.' You just don't think about it. I actually feel a little relieved now because there is no more, 'Can I?' I don't have to think about that anymore."

Karthi-starrer 'Sardar' to release on OTT on November 18

Chennai, Nov 12 (IANS) Director P.S Mithran's superhit spy thriller 'Sardar', featuring Karthi in the lead, will release on OTT on November 18.

The Tamil and Telugu versions of the edgy, engrossing, and entertaining spy thriller, which also features Raashii Khanna, Rajisha Vijayan, Chunky Panday and Laila in pivotal roles, will release on the OTT platform Aha.

'Sardar' revolves around Vijay Prakash (Karthi), a publicity-hungry cop, haunted by the spectre of being a traitor's son. The turning point in Vijay Prakash's life comes when Samira (Laila), an activist campaigning against privatisation of water bodies dies mysteriously. Vijay Prakash tries to find out the killers, only to unearth a complex web of lies and deceit. He realises the gravity of the situation and understands that this could put the nation in danger. At the centre of it all is Rathore, an evil businessman (Chunky Panday).

Vijay Prakash realises that the only person who can foil Rathore's nefarious plans is his superspy father (codenamed Sardar), who is living in exile...

Karthi, who plays a dual role in the film, said: "Being part of an enigmatic story was the biggest lucrative reason for me to be a part of 'Sardar'."

I knew we were making something special and huge which was elevated with the audience's warm and tremendous reception. I am excited that now, a whole new base of audiences will view the film in Tamil and Telugu on Aha.

With 17 more shows added to 'Eras Tour,' Taylor Swift makes her biggest ever US tour

Los Angeles, Nov 12 (IANS) Singer Taylor Swift announced on Friday morning that she has added 17 additional dates to her 'Eras Tour' of U.S. stadiums, bringing the total number of gigs to 52. That amended number makes it her biggest tour to date, and one that could easily break her own record for a gross in North America, reports Variety. All of the newly announced gigs are in cities that were previously part of the tour, but with second or third nights added, and in one case, a fifth night. The tour's concluding stop at LA's SoFi Stadium is now a five-night stand. That well eclipses the 38 dates that Swift did in the U.S. on her "Reputation" tour in 2018, which had a record gross of $266.1 million on ticket sales of more than 2 million attendees. With this far bigger number of 52 shows, Swift is almost certain to break that "Reputation"-era record in 2023, even if she were to play at well under capacity, which probably isn't likely.

The opening night of the tour has now shifted, with the addition of a second date in Glendale, Arizona on March 17, 2023, just before the previously announced March 18 opener.

What's remarkable is how Swift has accumulated a record number of dates for a stadium tour without expanding the original numbers of cities in the routing, and keeping the appearances more or less to one weekend at a time. The exception is her climactic stand in L.A. Aug. 3-9, where she takes a two-day break after the initial three nights before coming back for the final two shows at SoFi.

Cities getting a third night include Arlington, Tampa, Houston, Atlanta, Nashville, Philadelphia, Foxborough, East Rutherford and Chicago. Venues that can claim a second night with the new rollout include the aforementioned Glendale, Arizona, plus Las Vegas, Detroit, Pittsburgh, Minneapolis, Cincinnati, Kansas City and Denver.

NASA confirms discovery of destroyed shuttle Challenger artefact 36 yrs on

Washington, Nov 12 (IANS) A TV documentary crew seeking the wreckage of a World War II-era aircraft has discovered an artefact from the destroyed space shuttle Challenger that killed seven astronauts aboard, including a school teacher, in 1986.

Divers noticed a large 'human made' object covered partially by sand on the seafloor.

The proximity to the Florida Space Coast in the US, along with the item's modern construction and presence of 8-inch square tiles, led the documentary team to contact NASA, which confirmed the finding. "While it has been nearly 37 years since seven daring and brave explorers lost their lives aboard Challenger, this tragedy will forever be seared in the collective memory of our country. For millions around the globe, myself included, January 28, 1986, still feels like yesterday," said NASA Administrator Bill Nelson.

"This discovery gives us an opportunity to pause once again, to uplift the legacies of the seven pioneers we lost, and to reflect on how this tragedy changed us," he said in a statement. The History Channel documentary detailing the latest Challenger discovery will air on November 22. The last Challenger mission, dubbed STS-51L, was commanded by Francis R. "Dick" Scobee and piloted by Michael J. Smith.

Megan Fox slams rude troll mistaking pelvic tattoo for 'unshaved bikini line

Los Angeles, Nov 12 (IANS) Actress Megan Fox has sarcastically slammed a rude troll who mistook her pelvic tattoo for an unshaved bikini line.

On Friday, November 11, the 36-year-old actress turned to her Instagram account to share some photos of herself and her fiancée Machine Gun Kelly in video game 'The Legend of Zelda' costumes.

The 'Transformers' actress dressed up as Princess Zelda while her soon-to-be husband opted for warrior elf Link, reports aceshowbiz.com.

Fox's costume included dual sky-high slits that highlighted her long toned legs, but one appeared to reveal a faint shade just past the edge of the fabric.

Some comments directed at the photos focused on the exposed skin on her hip.

"All that money and she can't but a razor," wrote one troll in a comment, "She's now off my 'list.'" Upon learning of the rude and incorrect claims, Fox quickly shut it down, explaining that what the troll took to be her unshaved bikini line was actually a tattoo.
