NEW OFFICE OF WAY.COM OPENED AT TECHNOPARK PHASE 3

Stressing that resilience is the vital trait needed among youngsters, Dr Shashi Tharoor, MP, urged young professionals to be prepared for setbacks in life when it comes to developing something, besides showing the tenacity to fight the odds. Dr Tharoor was speaking while inaugurating the sprawling new office of US-based and Silicon Valley- incubated D2C (Direct-to-Consumer) marketplace Way.com, founded by Malayalee entrepreneur Binu Girija, at Technopark Phase 3 here. "Stumbling and falling happens to almost everyone but what matters is the ability to stay down and pick oneself up and show the resilience and tenacity to fight the challenges," he said. Dr Tharoor lauded the resounding emergence of way.com in the face of challenges like Covid-19 and defying issues like bankruptcy. He said the capacity for expansion is unlimited in the state for companies like way.com, and added that unlike other places, the capital city is turning out to be an ideal place for big companies as well as for leading a pleasant life.
