WHAT IS STOPPING HoDS, ASKS DG

HoDs' silence speaks volumes

Director General of EOW KN Tiwari said the process of certification of the tempering is a quite lengthy. We are waiting for the report from the CERT-In and as soon as the report arrives we would file the case against in this connection, said the DG. Questioning the silence of the HoDs, Tiwari said despite being aware of the manipulations in the e-tendering process what is stopping them to initiate action. "We have already informed the departments about the tempering with tenders but till date none of them came to EOW to share information," said Tiwari. Probably they too are involved in it and to escape from being trapped they are keeping mum, said Tiwari, adding that none of the racketeers would be spared.

The EOW had informed the concerned departments about the 42 tenders in which the tempering was done, however, no one replied to agency informing about actions initiated in this connection.

These tenders are worth thousands of crore rupees, but the indifference of the departments is raising in eyebrows over the working department heads. With tenders being approved and the work orders issued, it is assumed that process is now complete.

Rs100 crore minimum to be spend on road repair

BHOPAL: The agencies involved in road construction are on toes to meet the deadline set by the chief secretary for beginning the repair work. Sources at the municipal body say that amount to tune of Rs100 crore minimum will have to be spend on the roads repairing across the state. A series of meetings are being held to access the damages to the roads and their repairing and re-carpeting. This comes after the chief secretary SR Mohanty directed the authorities to start repairing of the dilapidated roads by September 15.

Bhopal Municipal Corporation (BMC) administration is conducting zone wise review meeting to access the damage to roads and calculate the expenditure to be incurred on repairing the roads across the city.
