Maharashtra govt plans graded relaxation in curbs

Mumbai, 3 June

The Maharashtra government on Thursday said lockdown-like curbs would be relaxed in districts in a graded manner, based on case positivity rate, adding a policy would soon be formed on the issue.

The government issued a statement to clear the air after television channels reported about lifting of all restrictions in 18 districts.

Under the proposed norms, districts would be classified on five levels based on weekly case positivity rate and occupancy of oxygenated beds in hospitals. The existing restrictions would be relaxed or made more stringent based on these parameters, the state government said.

The state's disaster management authority met on Thursday to discuss the proposal. After the meeting, Relief and Rehabilitation Minister Vijay Wadettiwar told the media that existing restrictions will be eased in 18 districts that are in level 1 — case positivity rate of 5 per cent and where occupancy of oxygenated beds is less than 25 per cent.

Based on the latest case figures, Mumbai has been classified in level 2 and will see the opening of gyms, salons etc. according to media reports.

Later Wadettiwar said that only an inprinciple decision has been taken in the state disaster management authority meet-

Mehul Choksi...

But his idols and inspiration weren't always blue-chip icons. "Bharat Shah (film financier) and Vijay Mallya were Pappu's role models. Even after Bharat Shah's imprisonment, Pappu remained in awe of him," Merchant says. Choksi even went and bought a yacht once simply because Mallya had one.

And so Choksi grew his empire with a mix of retail outlets, big-ticket advertising (₹200-plus crore annual budgets) and long-term endorsements from big Bollywood names such as Katrina Kaif, Bipasha Basu and Kangana Ranaut (some of whom also accused him of breach of contract), thus expanding his market cap and presence. Then in 2013, with the change in gold loan credit facilities extended to jewellers by banks, Gitaniali's working capital got squeezed and the business faltered. There was also an insider trading investigation against him that didn't help matters. Finally, in 2018, PNB lodged a the largest bank fraud in Indian history.

The vast web of Choksi's operations offers an insight into the scale of the scam and the brain behind it. A forensic report by John J Carney, the examiner appointed by the US bankruptcy court, in 2019 unravelled the numerous sham transactions carried out to "import" jewellery into India using a maze of secretly controlled shell entities. It would later emerge that the whole script ran far beyond India and helped a small firm to grow into a mammoth of a jewellery company.

According to documents that examined Gitanjali Group's operations, the organisation's structure included countries are easier to migrate Samuels Jewelers and 4 C's Diamond Distributors located in Hong Kong; Aston Luxury Group (New York); Belgdiam, a company managed by Rohan Choksi (Mehul Choksi's son); subsidiaries in Hong Kong; a jewellery grading company owned by Choksi's British Virgin Island firm and Chirag Patwa, a business head who worked with him; and several other entities mostly based in the United States.

Their purpose, according to Carney's report, was to create a wide and diverse web of ellery value chain to present what would appear to be a fully-integrated jewellery conglomerate. The real function, however, was to allegedly hoodwink customers. An example is a company called Independent Gemological Laboratories, purportedly an independent jewellery grading laboratory, which was in fact owned 99.99 per cent by Choksi and 0.01 per cent by his associate and co-conspirator. It was alleged to be passing off lab-grown diamonds as mined ones.

The Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) and the Enforcement Directorate (ED) alleged that Choksi or his associates formed several entities across countries to circulate money and inventory whilst concealing their connection and thus rendering them "puppet vendors" (<see box>). These were represented as independent third parties, when in reality they were entities owned or controlled by complaint with Indian author- Choksi, Gitanjali, or employities against Choksi, alleging ees of Choksi, according to of 50.8 in May, down from 55.5 the growing opportunity the Carney's report, and served to circulate money and inventory among Samuels and related entities — in short, laundering the money.
