Fire in Mumbai-bound SUV, wind blowing wads of currency help MP Police seize Rs 1.74 crore

Police said a Mumbai-bound SUV had caught fire near Bahman village in Madhya Pradesh. "When the people inside the car kept the bags on the road as part of rescue efforts, a strong gust of wind blew wads of currency into the air and onto the road, attracting the attention of passersby," said an official.

New Delhi-Afire in a SUV and winds that blew currency from bags kept inside helped police in Sonei district of Madhya Pradesh seize Rs 1.74 crore, an official said on Monday.

According to report in Press Trust of India (PTI), the SUV caught fire near Bahman village, which damaged Rs 1.50 lakh in 500 rupee denomination notes. "The people inside the car kept the bags on the road as part of rescue efforts, a strong gust of wind blew wads of currency into the air and onto the road, attracting the attention of passersby," said an official.

"The incident took place on Sunday evening. On being alerted, a police team rushed to the spot. The people apprehended said they carried gold from Mumbai to Varanasi, and were carrying Rs 1.74 crore cash back on the instructions of a trader," PTI quoted the official as saying.

The accused had hid the currency in a chamber under the vehicle's bonnet, seats etc., and the fire may have started in the vehicle due to a short circuit, the SP said.

"The three persons in the car escaped after passerby spotted the cash, but were nabbed by Kural police on national highway 44. The three identified as Sunil Verma (35), Gyan Bajwa (42) and Harion Yadav (38), residents of Uttar Pradesh, are giving conflicting statements about the antecedent of the cash. Further probe is on," the SP said.

8 arrested for raping, trafficking of minor girl for over 5 months in Karnataka's Chikkamagaluru

Bengaluru-Eight persons have been arrested for the rape, sexual abuse and trafficking of a 15-year-old girl for over five months in Karnataka's Chikkamagaluru district. A unit of the rape survivor is among the eight arrested, police said. A first information report was registered on January 30 at the Siringeri police station in Chikkamagaluru after a complaint by the district child welfare committee chairman accused more than 17 people of rape and sexual abuse of the 15-year-old girl.

Additional SP Sriti said today TV, "A 15-year-old girl was raped and sexually abused by 17 men for five months. The victim's name is the main accused in this case." The police official said the rape survivor was working in a stone crushing unit when she was acquainted with one Girish, a bus driver, who raped and sexually abused her.

"He [Girish] then gave her number to one Small Abhi who also raped the minor girl. Abhi took photos, made videos, and used these to blackmail the minor. Later, his friends also raped the girl," the police said.

Police said the rape survivor used to live with her aunt after her mother died three years ago. The aunt of the 15-year-old was arrested as she had known about the repeated sexual abuse.

The accused have been identified as Small Abhi, Girish, Vikas, Manikanta, Sampath, Ashwathigouda, Rajesh, Amith, Santhosh, Dokshita, Sambohan, Niranjan, Narayana Gowda, Abhi Gowda, Yogeesh, minor's aunt, and the owner of the MGR crusher.

They have been booked under sections 201, 370 (attempting), 376 (3), 376 (a) of the Indian Penal Code. They have also been booked under sections of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, Immoral Traffic Prevention Act and Child Labour Amendment Act, and the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act.

Karnataka unit's Congress spokesperson Lavanya, meanwhile, targeted MP Shobha Karandlaje and BJP national general secretary CT Ravi over their silence in the case. She alleged that some of the accused named in the FIR are associated with the BJP. "If you notice the pattern across India whenever there is an assault on women and kids, more often than not you see a lot of BJP MLAs and office-bearers being involved. What is it that makes them so terrible people that they are involved in incidents such as this," she said.
