Constitution is futuristic, evolves like tree: ex-SG Gopal Subramaniam

Ahmedabad : Liking the Indian Constitution to a "living tree", Former Solicitor General and senior advocate at the Supreme Court Gopal Subramaniam said "frequent empirical assessment, self-audit and the audit of social expectations" are vital to the evolving nature of the constitution. He also noted that the constitution is futuristic in character. He further warned that the reluctance to see the Indian Constitution "as a guiding star" could lead to the cognitive dissonance that, indeed, would lead to denial of contradictions. Growth happens only when one faces these contradictions, he said. On the other hand, he noted that so far, only Article 32 (3) remains unimplemented and remained only on paper. "Article 32 (3) contemplates a trilateral judiciary, where all the strands of our judiciary are of equal competence, prowess and independence... We should hope that one day it is achieved," he said while speaking at the 18th PD Desai Memorial Lecture that was live-streamed on YouTube Saturday.

According to case details, the complainant a contractor was awarded the tender for laying water pipeline in Ajmerpara of Vichiya for Rs 6.48 lakh. The first instalment of Rs 2.80 lakh was credited to the complainant's account. When the complainant requested the release of the second instalment of Rs 3.01 lakh, Joshi allegedly demanded Rs 45,000. But after negotiation, they settled for Rs 25,000. ACB officials said that Joshi had called the complainant on Airport Road for payment. When he was taking the cash from the complainant, ACB official said that Joshi was booked under the Prevention of Corruption Act and further investigation was on.

Dented, Rajkot police now tries to paint fresh image

Ahmedabad : After the recent graft taint it suffered, Rajkot police is scrambling for an overhaul of image makeover starting with publicity of over a dozen programmes aimed on bettering citizen-police relationships in just five days. While the allegation of fraud emerged on February 5, the police embarked on the image-building exercise four days later from February 9 by organizing several programmes. It began with B division police distributing blankets to footpath dwellers, while the Durga Shakti team went on a mask distribution spree as well as trying to convince senior citizens to take a booster dose of Covid vaccine. Again, instead of following its regular practice of filing FIRs against people who rented out their properties without police verification, this time cops went on an appeasement policy of helping senior citizens and diving people to fill up forms for rented property in a seminar they organized for property holders. The police also guided people about the condition of rent agreements. The B Division, Kuvadva road, and Ajidam police organized a decoy to teach people about how to protect their vehicles from getting stolen. Cops towed two-wheelers without handle locks. When the people approached the police, they were guided on how to keep vehicles safe, locked, and parked only in designated parking spaces. The traffic police organised the drive guide for school and college students who drive without licence.
