HC seeks Centre's stand on PIL against WhatsApp privacy policy

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, February 3

THE DELHI HIGH Court Wednesday sought the Centre's response on a plea challenging the new privacy policy of instant messaging platform WhatsApp.

A bench of Chief Justice D N Patel and Justice Jyoti Singh issued notice to the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology and WhatsApp seeking their stand on the plea by March.

The petitioners, Seema Singh, Meghan Singh and Vikram Singh, have contended that the new privacy policy indicates the "fissures" in Indian data protection and privacy laws. They have sought directions to the ministry and WhatsApp to ensure that people using the app are given the option to opt out of sharing their personal data with its parent firm Facebook and its other companies.

They have also sought a direction to the ministry to frame guidelines, regulation or rules for safeguarding the privacy of the citizens from all the apps and organisations operating in India which collect user data.

Additional Solicitor General (ASG) Chetan Sharma, who appeared for the ministry, told the bench that a similar matter was pending before a single judge before whom the government has stated that it was looking into the issue and has also sought certain information from WhatsApp.

With these directions bench of Chief Justice D N Patel and Justice Jyoti Singh disposed of a plea by One97 Communications, which runs operations, which runs operations, alleging that telecom operators are not blocking "phishing" activities on various mobile networks.

The direction by the bench came after senior advocate Dushyant Dave, appearing for One97 Communications, told the court that it may dispose of the matter by directing the TSPs to implement and comply with the TCCPR Regulations.
