Preparedness on Coronavirus (COVID 19) situation

Against the global outbreak of COVID-19, we at the Saksoft Group are doing our best to continue to support our customers while encouraging employees to adopt to general principles of social distancing, health and safety of self and society at large.

As a digital transformation solution provider we support many core and mission critical applications for our customers. As a part of our well-rehearsed business continuity plan, we have enabled Work-from-home options to employees through individual IT tools & connectivity solutions. Regardless of the above working arrangements, we are confident to deliver the same level of service, dedication and responsiveness to all our customers.

The demand situation from our customers is rapidly changing and we are monitoring the situation to assess the financial impact on our Company, which is currently difficult to ascertain.

Our thoughts are with those who are affected by this outbreak and we hope that you and your loved ones are staying safe and healthy. We are all looking forward to an early resolution of this public health crisis and we to hope to address you post our fourth quarter and FY20 results.
