Birlasoft Partners with Coursera to Further Enhance the Established Technical Skills of More than 12,500 Employees

Noida, Pune (India), and Edison (NJ): October 17, 2022: Birlasoft Ltd [BSE: 532400, NSE: BSOFT], part of the USD 2.8 billion diversified CK Birla Group, and a global enterprise digital and IT services company, has announced a partnership with Coursera, one of the largest online learning platforms in the world, to further enhance the established technical skills of more than 12,500 employees, broadening their knowledge base.

Birlasoft has always remained committed to enabling its employees to grow in their careers. Learning forms an integral part of Birlasoft's core values. Birlasoft believes in cultivating a culture of continuous learning, aligned with the changing business environment. The partnership with Coursera is a step towards creating an ecosystem where employees feel encouraged to learn through structured interventions that cover skills related to technology, behavioral competencies, industry domains, and leadership capabilities. Through Coursera, the employees will build critical digital capabilities with a focus on niche skills aligned with the requirements of the enterprise.

Coursera partners with more than 275 leading universities and companies to bring flexible, affordable, job-relevant online learning to individuals and organizations worldwide. It offers a range of learning opportunities—from hands-on projects and courses to job-ready certificates and degree programs.

With this collaboration, all the employees of Birlasoft, will have complete access to Coursera's library of more than 9,000 courses and Guided Projects. In addition, Birlasoft's workforce will have access to programs directly from globally renowned industry educators and leading universities like Yale University, University of Michigan and INSEAD Business School, among others. The programs offered by Coursera on emerging technology and domain skills will enable Birlasoft employees to further enhance their knowledge on leading edge domains like Blockchain, Cloud, Internet of Things (IoT), AI/ML, Robotic Process Automation (RPA), Cybersecurity, etc.

Dharmender (DK) Kapoor, Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, Birlasoft, said, "Our aim is to nurture our people by engaging their minds, providing them with new challenges, and giving them the right opportunities to grow. We want our employees always to stay ahead of the skill curve and to ensure that we deploy various methodologies to enhance the learning experience and to provide targeted development."

"Our partnership with Coursera is a step in the same direction. With the vast and updated repository of Coursera, our employees would learn even better to help our clients." added DK.

"Businesses around the world are experiencing workforce disruption caused by the pandemic and the rapid pace of automation. These changes are increasing the need for employees to develop high-demand skills faster," said Jeff Maggioncalda, Chief Executive Officer, Coursera. "We are excited to partner with Birlasoft to deliver high-quality content to their workforce and help them obtain the job-relevant skills needed to succeed in the new digital economy."

Birlasoft employees will also have access to various tools from Coursera like Skill Taxonomy, SkillSets, and LevelSets, which will enable them to determine their current proficiency in key business, technology, and data skills. This will help employees focus on the courses that aid them in developing required job skills while simultaneously measuring their skill proficiency.
